MEMORANDUM FOR: C/CI/OA

SUBJECT : Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9

1. The Provisional Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9 (C-101331) is due to expire 8 January 1965.

2. In discussions with the field case officer for this operation, WH/1/Mexico has found that there is no way to determine when, or whether, LITAMIL-9 will again leave Cuba. For reasons of personal security, LITAMIL-9 has not been able to function as a reporting source since his return to Cuba in early March 1965. Letters to his brother, LITAMIL-17, and reports from occasional Cuban official travelers transiting Mexico indicate that LITAMIL-9 is well and is employed by the National Cultural Council.

3. LITAMIL-9 is now an inactive agent. The Station has recently proposed that his salary cease accumulating as of 30 June 1966. If and when he again manages to leave Cuba, he will be contacted and a full assessment of his future usefulness will be made. Owing to the fact that his sister-in-law is a secretary to Fidel Castro it is expected that he will be a valuable source of information, at least for an initial debriefing period.

4. It would be appreciated if the POA on LITAMIL-9 could be extended for six months. If at the end of that time he has not left Cuba, it will be proposed that the POA be allowed to expire.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief,
WH/1/Mexico - E. E. Scott

NUMBER

SUBJECT
LITAMIL/9

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Dated
19 April 1965 crm

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

For use as a reporting source from within Cuba.

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

MEMORANDUM FOR: C/CI/OA

SUBJECT : Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9

1. An Operational Approval is requested for LITAMIL-9, who has recently returned to Cuba, and has accepted an FI mission from Mexico Station. The Station has expressed its reluctance to interview a Mexican officer who alleged in 1959 that LITAMIL-9 was a Communist, since this course of action would unnecessarily draw attention of this officer to our interest in LITAMIL-9. WH/1 has concurred in this decision, and considers that this unevaluated derogatory information on LITAMIL-9 is far outweighed by his performance record.

2. Realizing the risk involved in working with any Cuban national, WH/1 feels that LITAMIL-9's excellent record of cooperation, plus his acceptance of the idea of continued cooperation in a denied area favor consideration of an Operational Approval. Additionally, we have had audio coverage through the telephone in LITAMIL-9's office for the past two years or more, and during this time the Station has used the installation for spot checking his information, and is satisfied that there are no reasons to question his veracity and security or suspect that he is under control of the Cuban service.

3. Attached for your review are several contact reports of LITAMIL-9, as requested by Mr. Lally. Their prompt return will be appreciated. This office will be pleased to cooperate in any further review of this case which will facilitate the OA.

SUBJECT : LITAMIL/9
C-101,331

1. Pursuant to a meeting held on 14 November 1963 amongst personnel of WH/3/Mexico, B. Reichart, R. Scott, H. Mulloy, J. Manning and of CI/OA, E. P. Brown and J. Lally, it was agreed that the case of LITAMIL/9 comes under the purview of CSI-F No. 10-5, Section 18a. As such, this requires Headquarters approval, i.e. that of WH Division, for the recruitment of a government official of a denied area country.

2. As described in MEXI-6696, LITAMIL/9 "serves as invaluable eyes and ears inside target establishment" reporting on information received in his government position. It was agreed such activity does not require a Provisional or Operational Approval since LITAMIL/9 is a government official of a denied area country. Under these conditions, the processing of an Operational Approval should not and will not be effected.

3. It was also agreed that if LITAMIL/9 should be employed for operational use other than reporting information received in his government position, the usual Operational Approval or Provisional Operational Approval procedure will apply.

4. It was agreed that CI/OA would take no further processing action at this time based on the above information. However, as in similar cases, CI/OA will forward to the desk such information made available to it which might aid the Station in its handling of LITAMIL/9.

Ed,

I don't consider this an accurate or inclusive dispatch as was agreed to in our mtg. with c/o.

a. No mention that they are using man without approval of any kind (the POA granted for Tony only automatically expired at the completion of Tony session.)

b. No mention that he is deep in the LAURICLE requirements of the Station.

c. Para #6 should read LCFLUTTER is a must.

PERSONAL RECORD QUESTIONNAIRE PART II - OPERATIONAL INFORMATION	PRQ NO. DISPATCH NO. HMMA 21557

INSTRUCTIONS TO CASE OFFICER

1. This form must be filled in by the case officer or appropriate authority on the basis of the best available information. It is not to be shown to the subject.
2. Normally, headquarters will be unable to issue an approval unless requester furnishes answers to all questions in PRQ parts I and II. However, in an emergency provisional approval may be obtained by complying with the applicable provisions of FR 10-215, paragraphs 6a, 8, 12a and 12d. Thereafter the usual method to document or complete the case must be followed as set forth in FR 10-215.
3. Three (3) completed copies of PRQ part I (including copy in subject's handwriting, if possible) and two (2) completed copies of this form must be sent to headquarters as soon as possible.
4. Data acquired later must be sent to headquarters in PRQ format in two (2) copies.
5. Fill in all items, if information obtainable. If item not applicable write "NA." If additional space required for item, use reverse side of page keyed to appropriate item number.

1. CRYPTONYM

LITAMIL-9

2. PSEUDONYM

SECTION I. CONTACT AND DEVELOPMENT

1. INDICATE HOW, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND BY WHOM SUBJECT WAS FIRST CONTACTED OR DEVELOPED.

Case Officer (Clyde K SHRYOCK) was introduced to Subject on 18 July 62 by LITAMIL-3, who was recovering from a gall stone operation in the hospital. The CO made contact with the subject, a [illegible] diplomat, to [illegible] as a penetration of the PBRUMEN Embassy in Mexico. See MEXI 1467 re initial meeting.

2. INDICATE WHETHER SUBJECT COULD BE TURNED OVER QUICKLY AND IN A SECURE MANNER TO ANY RESPONSIBLE CASE OFFICER FOR HANDLING. IF SO, INDICATE TO WHOM.

Subject could be turned over to any responsible Case Officer, particularly one with a speaking knowledge of Spanish. Subj speaks English and French as well as Spanish.

3. LIST OTHER CASE OFFICERS WHO HAVE HANDLED SUBJECT OR WHOM HE KNOWS OR HAS KNOWN. GIVE NAMES BY WHICH THEY HAVE BEEN KNOWN.

Subject knows Clyde K SHRYOCK, his Case Officer, by true name. SHRYOCK will introduce Laurence F. BARKER to Subject during the week of 16 June 1963.

SECTION II — MOTIVATION AND CONTROL

1. ESTIMATE SUBJECT'S MOTIVATION. (Be detailed, if possible cite evidence. Do not use stock comment such as "anti-communist.")

Subject is highly motivated toward PBPRIME and the West. He is anti-Communist.

2. INDICATE WHAT CONTROL, IF ANY, EXISTS OVER THE SUBJECT. (If no control, or if there is a lack of real control explain.)

Station Mexico could reveal Subject's activities to the PBRUMEN government.

SECTION III — COVER

1. COVER USED BY SUBJECT AND CASE OFFICER IN THEIR MEETINGS.

Subject and Case Officer meet clandestinely in darkened areas of the city at night.

2. COVER USED BY SUBJECT IN OBTAINING HIS INFORMATION AND IN CONTACTING HIS INFORMANTS.

Subject, as an employee of the PBRUMEN Embassy obtains his information from his fellow workers and contacts.

3. INDICATE SERVICE FOR WHICH SUBJECT THINKS HE (Will work, (Is working).

Subject know he is working for PBPRIME Intelligence.

SECTION IV — INTELLIGENCE CONNECTIONS AND TRAINING

1. EXPLAIN SUBJECT'S KNOWN PAST OR PRESENT CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER INTELLIGENCE SERVICE. INDICATE THE EXTENT SUCH CONNECTION IS KNOWN OVERTLY.

Subject is not known to have had any contact with any other intelligence service.

2. LIST OTHER INDIVIDUALS (Agents, relatives, friends) WHO KNOW OF SUBJECT'S PRESENT INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES.

Dolores CUEVAS de EYCHENNE
Subject's brother, Leonel, resident in Mexico
Jose CABRAL Escalante
LITAMIL-3 probably suspects Subj is in contact with CO

3. EXPLAIN ANY TRAINING SUBJECT HAS HAD IN CLANDESTINE OPERATIONS.

Subject has not had any formal training in clandestine operations but he is cunning and intelligent and has made great strides on his own since first contact with his Case Officer.

SECTION V — COLLABORATION POTENTIAL

1. INDICATE OTHER FOREIGN POWER SUBJECT WOULD BE MOST LIKELY TO COLLABORATE WITH BECAUSE OF HIS IDEOLOGY OR PAST ASSOCIATIONS. EXPLAIN.

Subject would probably collaborate with an anti-Communist Cuban regime if it should come to power.

SECTION VI OPERATIONAL USE - CONTACT

1. IF SUBJECT HAS BEEN USED OR CONTACTED BEFORE, INDICATE ACTIVITY IN WHICH HE WAS ENGAGED AND THE TYPE OF INFORMATION HE HAS FURNISHED.

Subj provided a few intelligence items through LITAMIL-3 before direct contact was made with the Case Officer.

2. INDICATE HOW AND FROM WHOM SUBJECT OBTAINS INFORMATION.

Subject obtains information from members of the PBRUMEN Embassy and friends of PBRUMEN with whom he deals.

3. INDICATE WHAT HAS BEEN TOLD SUBJECT AS TO THE DISPOSITION OF INFORMATION HE FURNISHES.

Subject has been told that the information he provides is forwarded to Washington.

4. DETAIL SUBJECT'S PROPOSED FI OR CI TYPE USE OR DUTIES.

Subject's FI activities are directed toward the penetration of the PBRUMEN Embassy of which he is part and the contacts of the Embassy. Subj is also aware of the Station's LURICIE requirements

5. DETAIL SUBJECT'S PROPOSED PP-PM TYPE USE OR DUTIES.

Not applicable

SECTION VII PROPOSED LIAISON OR OPERATIONAL ACTIVITY

1. DETAIL SUBJECT'S PROPOSED LIAISON TYPE CONTACT OR OPERATIONAL USE:

A. WHERE SUBJECT IS AN OFFICIAL MEMBER OF A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT:

Not applicable

B. WHERE SUBJECT IS AN OFFICIAL MEMBER OF AN ODYOKE AGENCY:

Not applicable

SECTION VIII AGENCY RELATIONSHIP WITH SUBJECT

1. EXPLAIN NATURE OF AGENCY RELATIONSHIP WITH SUBJECT: I.E. TRAINEE, OPPOSITE NUMBER, REMUNERATION, IF ANY, AGENCY PERSONNEL KNOWN TO SUBJECT.

Subject is going on salary as of 15 June 63 at the rate of 4000 pesos ($320.00 U.S.) monthly. Andrew S. PARGES and Edward D. KNAPMAN are known to Subject under assumed names.

SECTION IX — QUALIFICATIONS FOR OTHER OPERATIONS

1. INDICATE SPECIAL ABILITIES, TALENTS, OR QUALIFICATIONS POSSESSED BY SUBJECT WHICH COULD CONCEIVABLY BE OF VALUE FOR OTHER OPERATIONS.

Subject is an artist

SECTION X — COMMITMENTS

1. IF IT IS PROPOSED TO PAY SUBJECT A REGULAR SALARY, INDICATE THE WEEKLY AMOUNT. IF PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN EXCHANGE COMMODITIES, SUBSIDY OR OTHER METHOD, SPECIFY AND GIVE DETAILS.

As of 15 June 1963, Subject will be paid a monthly salary of 4000 pesos.

2. EXPLAIN ANY PROMISES, OTHERWISE NOT COVERED HEREIN, MADE TO SUBJECT. (Example: Commitments regarding evacuation of subject and family.)

No commitments or promises but it is assumed that KUBARK will assist Subject to leave the country if this is necessary because of his activities on KUBARK'S behalf.

SECTION XI — CE AND SECURITY

1. INDICATE THE FIELD AGENCIES AND FIELD FILES WITH WHICH SUBJECT'S NAME HAS BEEN CHECKED AND THE RESULTS.

Station files.

Close friends of Subject such as LITAMIL-3, LITAMIL-2, LITAMIL-7 LIOCZE-1 and many other contacts of the Cuban Embassy.

2. INDICATE OTHER INVESTIGATIVE MEASURES TAKEN TO VERIFY BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION FURNISHED BY SUBJECT.

See para 1

3. INDICATE WHETHER OR NOT PROVISIONAL OPERATIONAL APPROVAL OR OPERATIONAL APPROVAL FOR SUBJECT'S USE HAS BEEN PREVIOUSLY OBTAINED.

Submitted 27 July 1962 HMMA 19455

4. DATE APPROVAL OBTAINED

5. EVALUATE SUBJECT'S CHARACTER, RELIABILITY AND SECURITY, CITING EVIDENCE WHERE POSSIBLE.

Subject is of high moral character, proud of his family background. Sincere, extremely security conscious, reliable, punctual and highly intelligent. A cosmopolitan type, somewhat arty, yet cognizant of what it takes to get a job done, i.e. KUBARK's job.

6. EXPLAIN ANY SITUATION OR INDISCRETION IN WHICH SUBJECT MAY HAVE BEEN INVOLVED WHICH MUST BE EVALUATED FROM A CE/OPERATIONAL SECURITY VIEWPOINT.

Subject's relationship with ODYOKE isknown to Jose CARRAL Escalante and Dolores CUEVAS de EYCHENNE per MEXI 3450. CARRAL and de EYCHENNE are not believed to be security risks.

SECTION XII — SUBJECT'S PERSONAL HABITS

1. USE OF LIQUOR, DRUGS, GAMBLING, PARAMOURS.

Subject drinks moderately. Subj is not known to have any flagrant vices.

SECTION XIII	AVOCATIONAL INTERESTS

1. INDICATE SUBJECT'S HOBBIES OR INTEREST IN SPORTS, MUSIC, ETC.

Subject is interested in music, literature, and art.

SECTION XIV	GENERAL

1. INDICATE WHETHER SUBJECT'S LANGUAGE ABILITIES AND OTHER CHARACTERISTICS, ARE SUCH AS HE COULD PASS AS A NATIVE OF A COUNTRY OR REGION OTHER THAN HIS OWN. EXPLAIN.

Subject is a European type, but because of his Cuban accent would probably recognized as such.

2. INDICATE WHETHER INFORMATION IN PRQ PARTS I AND II WAS OBTAINED BY RESEARCH, CLANDESTINE ASSESSMENT, FILES, CORRESPONDENCE OR OTHER MEANS.

Information in PRQ Parts 1 and 2 was obtained through research, files, agents, and direct questioning.

3. IF OTHER THAN ROUTINE ACTION IS REQUIRED, IF AND WHEN TERMINATION OF SUBJECT IS EFFECTED, PLEASE EXPLAIN. (Also see para. 43b, supra)

No problems are envisaged in terminating agent.

SECTION XV	EMERGENCY CONDITIONS RECONTACT ARRANGEMENTS

1. GIVE FULL DETAILS I.E. RECOGNITION SIGNALS, S/W: WHERE COULD CONTACT BE MADE: WHAT BONA FIDES COULD INDIVIDUAL MAKING CONTACT USE?

Subject is in possession of CO's telephone number (home) and CO's office phone. CO can make contact with Subject at his home ar at the PBPRIME Embassy if necessary. Subjectand CO use the name AGUILAR on the telephone.

SECTION XVI	MISCELLANEOUS OPERATIONAL DATA AND REMARKS

Subject, who is well deposed toward PBPRIME, is anxious to remain a long term agent for ODYOKE. His intelligence, coupled with his contacts in leftist and Communist circles, makes him an excellent prospect.

PART II - OPERATIONAL INFORMATION

PRQ NO.

DISPATCH NO. HMMA 21557

INSTRUCTIONS TO CASE OFFICER

1. This form must be filled in by the case officer or appropriate authority on the basis of the best available information. It is not to be shown to the subject.
2. Normally, headquarters will be unable to issue an approval unless requester furnishes answers to all questions in PRQ parts I and II. However, in an emergency provisional approval may be obtained by complying with the applicable provisions of FR 10-215, paragraphs 6a, 8, 12b and 12d. Thereafter the usual method to document or complete the case must be followed as set forth in FR 10-215.
3. Three (3) completed copies of PRQ part I (including copy in subject's handwriting, if possible) and two (2) completed copies of this form must be sent to headquarters as soon as possible.
4. Data acquired later must be sent to headquarters in PRQ format in two (2) copies.
5. Fill in all items, if information obtainable. If item not applicable write "NA." If additional space required for item, use reverse side of page keyed to appropriate item number.

1. CRYPTONYM: LITAMIL-9

2. PSEUDONYM:

SECTION I. CONTACT AND DEVELOPMENT

1. INDICATE HOW, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND BY WHOM SUBJECT WAS FIRST CONTACTED OR DEVELOPED.

Case Officer (Clyde K SHRYOCK) was introduced to Subject on 18 July 62 by LITAMIL-3, who was recovering from a gall stone operation in the hospital. The CO made contact with the subject, a [illegible] diplomat, [illegible] as a penetration of the PBRUMEN Embassy in Mexico. See MEXI 1467 re initial meeting.

2. INDICATE WHETHER SUBJECT COULD BE TURNED OVER QUICKLY AND IN A SECURE MANNER TO ANY RESPONSIBLE CASE OFFICER FOR HANDLING. IF SO, INDICATE TO WHOM.

Subject could be turned over to any responsible Case Officer, particularly one with a speaking knowledge of Spanish. Subj speaks English and French as well as Spanish.

3. LIST OTHER CASE OFFICERS WHO HAVE HANDLED SUBJECT OR WHOM HE KNOWS OR HAS KNOWN. GIVE NAMES BY WHICH THEY HAVE BEEN KNOWN.

Subject knows Clyde K SHRYOCK, his Case Officer, by true name. SHRYOCK will introduce Laurence F. BARKER to Subject during the week of 16 June 1963.

U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE 1961 O—587282

28 February 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: LITAMIL-9, Report of TDY, Andrew S. Parmers

1. During 21-26 February 1963, Andrew S. PARMERS travelled from Headquarters to Mexico City on TDY to train LITAMIL-9 on various clandestine, operational, techniques, including SW. Upon arrival in Mexico City PARMERS ascertained that LITAMIL-9 allegedly became of moral inhibitions, was unwilling to receive training and also unwilling to accept the SW systmes Headquarters had issued for him, and which PARMERS had carried to Mexico City. Nevertheless, PARMERS met LITAMIL-9 three times to determine the agents precise objections and to overcome them if possible. Although the agents general resistance was not overcome, PARMERS did review with LITAMIL-9 clandestine methods and techniques in a general way.

2. The first meeting was held at the Station case officers home, with the Case Officer present. LITAMIL-9 explained his reasons for refusing to be trained and for not being willing to communicate in SW with KUBARK while in Cuba. Generally LITAMIL-9 claimed that he is very nervous, and incapable of performing clandestine tasks without having a nervous breakdown and at the same time getting himself caught in the act because of his general incompetancy. Also, LITAMIL-9 was planning to stay at his brothers home in Cuba, and felt it would be unethical and immoral for him to be communicating clandestinely with KUBARK while accepting the hospitality of his brother and sister-in-law who are staunch supporters of the Castro regime. These agreements obviously had already been presented to the Case Officer who had already concluded that LITAMIL-9 could not be moved from his position. The agent furthermore, felt that there was no need for training or SW since he would be returning to Mexico after only three months in Cuba. He displayed a cable he had just received from his father answering LITAMIL-9's query as to what might be his next assignment. The cable stated that LITAMIL-9 would most likely return to his present post in Mexico. The agent therefore felt that upon his return to Mexico City, he could be debriefed by his Case Officer. LITAMIL-9 rejected all attempts to convince him of our need for current info from inside Cuba. He was adament when we pointed out that he might not return to Mexico City as hoped, but might have to remain in Cuba, having no means of contact. If this happens he plans to resign his position and return to Mexico as a private citizen, since he already is a registered "resident" of Mexico.

SECRET

3. On Friday, 24 February, PARMERS spent most of the day visiting alone with LITAMIL-9 at the latter's apartment. By the end of the day LITAMIL-9 had softened a little and had revealed some of the personality traits mentioned below. LITAMIL-9 also agreed to communicate with his Case Officer through open code in letters to his brother in Mexico City. He also was willing to meet inside KUBARK, preferably if the contact was a diplomat but not Cuban. He agreed to take a set of cuff links as bona fides. As a suggestion, he mentioned that his friend, The Swiss Ambassador, now serving in Madrid, Spain, would be an ideal contact. In revealing how such a contact could be performed and in discussing LITAMIL-9 modus vevendi in Cuba, there was considerablo discussions concerning operational Security and clandestine procedures LITAMIL-9 can apply while in Cuba.

PARMEN

4. LITAMIL-9 during this meeting also presented, in logical sequence, his reasons for believing that he will return to Mexico City. Basically, he feels that between the fact that he has many contacts in Mexico City (where he has lived and worked for many years) and the fact that his sister-in-law in Cuba has a responsible position with considerable influence in the Castro Government, he LITAMIL-9 will be re-assigned to his present post in Mexico City after three months of leave, consultations, and training in Cuba.

5. The third meeting ocurred in the evening of 25 Februar , in a car pick up situation, with the Case Officer present. This time, LITAMIL-9 was less willing to communicate with KUBARK while in Cuba than he had been during the previous meeting, but with some reluctance, agreed to the use of open code and to be contacted by some diplomat. This meeting, therefore, was a routine operational meeting, with his Case Officer in charge.

6. Based upon their three meetings, PARMERS formed the following opinions of LITAMIL-9: He is a shrewd opportunist, willing to colloborate with KUBARK against the Castro Government, but not to the point where his personal security is endangered. He dislikes the Castro Regime because it has fumbled so badly, and because the current Cuban officials are crude and incompetant. He greatly admires the American people, but definitely feels that we are merely concerned about our own national security and well-being. LITAMIL-9 owes his first loyalty to the fine arts, has little Patriotic feelings towards Cuba, since he has lived in Mexico for so many years, and has declared himself to be a resident of Mexico. He is now serving the Cuban Government simply because he had an opportunity (through his sister-in-law) to achieve official status and income and still remain in Mexico where most of his personal friends reside.

7. Although at first appearance, and according to his own opinion statements, LITAMIL-9 appears to be extremely nervous because of his clandestine activities in behalf of KUBARK and against Cuba, after some discussion it was apparent that he actually relishes these clandestine actions that he would have engaged in them long before he did, and that he would have continued a covert relationship with KUBARK even after Castro falls, serving either in Mexico (where he has many contacts of interest to KUBARK) or in Cuba in some post in some future government. He has excellent rapport with his present KUBARK case officer. He states that as long as KUBARK remains willing to accept that he has definite personal limitations, (since he can perform only those clandestine tasks related to his cover and cannot be trained or induced to do anything else) he will gladly continue collaborating with KUBARK as long as desired.

8. Actually, PARMERS feels that LITAMIL-9 would do most anything we would desire if KUBARK would someday establish some control over him. His present remarks concerning his moral qualms are artificial. He has great appreciation for shrewdness and double play, and openly admits having engaged in it all his life. On many occasions he admits that he has accomodated himself to a situation for profit or because he knew that he could turn the tables eventually on his adversaries. When he is off-guard he admits to being a cool operater who can scheme and work behind his adversaries' backs. He shows many signs of enjoying doing what he does for and with his present KUBARK case officer.

9. In summary, although LITAMIL-9 did not accept training or SW in the standard sense, PARMERS believes that the agents reluctance was based on his desire to take few risks. The agent is competent, his moral inhibitions are probably faked. He is convinced that he will return to Mexico soon, and desires to continue serving KUBARK if no greater risk is involved. Since KUBARK at present has no clear control (monetary or ideological) over LITAMIL-9, it was difficult to impose KUBARK's will over him. But he is very willing to perform for KUBARK within the limitations he sets, and if someday we can satisfy some personal need he might have, he has the potential of becoming a good controlled agent for KUBARK. He is intelligent and by nature he seems to instinctively conduct his clandestine operations in a secure manner.

PROVISIONAL OPERATIONAL APPROVAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief,
SAS - [illegible]

NUMBER

SUBJECT
LITAMIL/9

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Dated
25 July 1962

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

POA is granted only for training of Subject.

Approval for operational use of Subject is deferred pending satisfactory resolution of derogatory information, which CI Staff does not consider to have been accomplished.

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

PROVISIONAL OPERATIONAL APPROVAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief,
[illegible]

NUMBER	c-101331
SUBJECT	LITAMIL/9
REFERENCE:	Your Memorandum, Dated 25 July 1962

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

POA is granted only for training of Subject.

Approval for operational use of Subject is deferred pending satisfactory resolution of derogatory information, which CI Staff does not consider to have been accomplished.

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

/s/ Thomas Carroll, Jr.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: None, FYI

1. Forwarded herewith for Headquarters information and files is an Agent Service Record on LIRING-3.

2. As Addressees are aware, Wallace P. ROWTON recruited and formerly handled LIRING-3 for the Mexico City Station. Prior to ROWTON's PCS departure from Mexico City in July 1969, it was decided, after some discussion, to effect a turnover of LIRING-3, rather than terminate him. Although LIRING-3 apparently had been well "burned" with the Cubans, he seemed to have maintained good contacts with members of the Rebel Armed Forces (FAR) of Guatemala. In addition, in May and June of this year, he had begun to develop access to some Panamanian revolutionaries of interest. It was therefore decided to run LIRING-3 on a trial basis to determine whether he could be used effectively against Central American revolutionary targets, despite his problems with the Cubans.

3. ROWTON introduced Leonard S. TORMET, in alias, to LIRING-3 on 1 July 1969. Although ROWTON had represented himself to LIRING-3 as a Greek businessman, it was decided that it would be preferable to "clear the air" somewhat with LIRING-3, at least by making it clear that he was in touch with a WOLADY organization. Nonetheless, no specific explanation was given LIRING-3 of his sponsor and he requested none. LIRING-3 was told that TORMET would be seeing him for some months, since ROWTON was leaving the country for an indefinite period.

4. LIRING-3 was told that although TORMET was trusted by ROWTON and collaborated with him, he represented a different organization. LIRING-3 was also told that although he had in the past been receiving between 3,000.00 and 3,500.00 Mexican pesos per month on an informal basis, TORMET's organization felt that 1,500 Mexican pesos per month ($120.00) would be a fair salary at this stage of the operation. TORMET explained that he was aware of LIRING-3's past activities directed against the Cubans, and the resultant problems which had arisen. It was explained that TORMET's interest was in Central American revolutionary activities. In order to deal with LIRING-3's virtual "burned" status with the Cubans, he was directed to tell any Central American contacts that the Cubans no longer trusted him, and that he therefore was no longer directly involved with any revolutionary groups or activities. Nonetheless, LIRING-3 was directed to offer any assistance which he could provide to any revolutionaries, on the basis of his leftist beliefs and the friendships which he had made with FAR members while in prison in Guatemala. It would then be a matter of time before we could learn whether LIRING-3 was completely blacklisted in all revolutionary circles because of his problems with the Cubans or whether he could provide information of value.

5. LIRING-3 throughout the meeting seemed in good spirits and he seemed to accept the turnover without any qualms. Indeed, he pointed out that the Cubans had lost trust in him only after he had been given various tasks to do by ROWTON which he had known and warned in advance would cause suspicion. It was agreed that LIRING-3's troubles were not of his own making, but that at this stage all that could be done was to attempt to circumvent the existing problems.

6. LIRING-3 was given a Station non-attributable telephone number and false name to ask for (Identity) to set up meetings with TORMET. Only the meeting time was to be set by phone, and a prearranged pickup point was decided upon. It should be noted that TORMET's QP vehicle was used for this first meeting with LIRING-3, which means it was of course exposed to LIRING-3.

7. Subsequent to this meeting, LIRING-3 never initiated contact with the Station. Although he might have lost the new telephone number he was given to use with TORMET, there is no indication he ever again tried to call ROWTON, who was in Mexico for at least three weeks after the 1 July turnover to TORMET.

8. The Station assumes that for whatever reasons, LIRING-3 has in effect terminated himself. Given the nature of this case--the fact that LIRING-3 was denounced in Cuban official circles as a RVROCK agent, the fact that LIRING-3 in over two years was never very productive and now the apparent decision of LIRING-3 to break off contact--it has been decided to make no effort to reestablish contact with him.

24 September 1968

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM: WH/1 (Marvin Francis)

SUBJECT: 17 September 1968 discussion with DRISCOLL re LIRING/3 & LIRING/4.

PARTICIPANTS: DRISCOLL, KERBE, FRANCIS and Laurence PIPER (C/WH/2/G).

1. LIRING/4 is still very concerned about the imprisonment of LIRING/3. LIRING/4 will not travel to Cuba until she is assured of the safety of LIRING/3. DRISCOLL has thoroughly discussed L/3 with L/4 and has pointed out the danger of attempting to intercede on L/3's behalf through business contacts. L/4 contacted the Cubans for assistance but they stated there was nothing they could do. They have assisted L/4 with small amounts of money. L/3 has devised an open code which he uses in letters to let L/4 know how he is. The letters are grim reading because L/3 keeps stating he is unable to hold out much longer. Fellow prisoners have warned L/4 not to let the Guats transfer him to another prison as this usually ends in the prisoner being shot "while escaping." One good result from the continued imprisonment of L/3 is that both he and L/4 are furthering their bona fides with the Cubans.

2. L/4 is in telephone contact with the Third Secretary of the Mexican Embassy in Guatemala. He has made inquiries about L/3 with the Guats on behalf of Foreign Minister CARRILLO Flores. A few weeks ago (prior to the assasination of the U.S. Ambassador) the Third Secretary told L/4 there were three possibilities, the first which he considered out of the question was that L/3 would be shot, the second was that L/4 would come to trial and be released within a few weeks, and the third was that he would receive a sentence of two or three years. Just prior to departing Mexico on this current trip, DRISCOLL attempted to arrange a meet with L/4 in the usual means by slipping a typed note under her apartment door. She did not make the meeting. DRISCOLL later learned through phone tap material that she called the Cuban Embassy and informed them the Mexican authorities had notified her she was being fined 500 pesos. The purpose of the payment was not identified. Later she made a call from the Cuban Embassy which indicated she was staying there until she could get the funds to pay the Mexicans. DRISCOLL, therefore, concluded she had not returned to her apartment and did not get the note to make their meeting. DRISCOLL said SUAREZ (the visiting Cuba Cultural type) has a key to L/3's apartment and might see the note but would be unable to identify the sender since DRISCOLL uses a meaningless sc[illegible] as a signature.

3. DRISCOLL now plans upon his return to Mexico to recontact L/4 to get the latest reading on L/3's status in Guatemala. If the Mexican Charge is unable to obtain L/3's release in behalf of the Mexicans and if it appears he will be held indefinately, DRISCOLL wants to explore the possibility of our doing something to get L/3 out so the operation can become active again.

4. In the above regard L/3 was discussed with Mr. PIPER of the Guatemala desk. Mr. PIPER believed the Station has a high enough contact with the Guats (ESMAJOR/20-Presidents brother) to arrange to get L/3 and his Mexican compatriot out of prison and back to Mexico with a minimun security risk. DRISCOLL said he would initiate the cable upon his return to Mexico after he has talked with L/4. DRISCOLL felt he should possibly travel to Guatemala and have a preliminary meet with L/3 before Guat Station makes any all out effort to officially request L/3's release. If, after seeing L/3 DRISCOLL is satisfied that L/3 is still an ally and is willing to cooperate after his release then DRISCOLL believes we should attempt to have the Station intercede with ESMAJOR/20. Hopefully, ESMAJOR/20 will arrange the release so that all involved believe it has been done at the request and urging of the Mexican Government. DRISCOLL, however, would like L/3 and L/4 to believe he (DRISCOLL) had something to do with the release in order to raise his status with both for the sake of future operational tasks he will levy on them.

ACQ Mexico, Mexico City (11 June 1971) FIELD NO. HMM-12,647

SOURCE A member of the PCM who has good contacts with Guatemalan Communists in Mexico. Much of the information which he has provided has proved accurate.

1. The highest-ranking body of the Guatemalan Communist Party (PGT) organization in Mexico is the "Delegation of the Central Committee." This body consists of Huberto Alvarado Arellano, Jose Alberto Cardoza Aguilar, and Jose Luis Balcarcel Ordonez. (Field Comment: CS-311/03978-70 (HMM-12,183), from the same source as this report, reported on the make-up of the PGT organization in Mexico as of April 1970. Cardoza and Balcarcel made up the "Delegation of the Central Committee" at that time. TDCS-314/ -71 (HGG-), from a reliable source, provided the information that Alvarado, the Third Secretary of the PGT, planned to reside in Mexico for the immediate future.)

2. Balcarcel also heads the "Directive Committee" of the PGT organization in Mexico, which is responsible for determining what activities the local PGT organization will undertake and who will carry them out. The other members of the "Directive Committee" are Alfonso Solorzano Fernandez and Julio Rodriguez Aldana. (Source Comment: There has been no change in the membership of the "Directive Committee" since April 1970. Although Rodriguez occupies this leadership position, he has been relatively inactive in PGT affairs.)

b. A "Finance Cell" headed by Rodriguez, which also includes Elisa de Balcarcel, Mercedes de Pereyra, and Carlos Illescas Aguirre.

4. Ernesto Capuano del Vecchio, who was formerly a member of the "Finance Cell," now works directly under the "Directive Committee" and is not formally a member of the "Propaganda Cell," submitted his resignation from the PGT in April 1971. Raul Diaz Ramirez, who was also formerly a member of the "Propaganda Cell," has been temporarily separated from active participation in the ~~[illegible]~~.

b. "Romulo," who made at least one trip "out of town" from 17 February to 2 April 1969 (possibly to Guatemala) during the period covered by ROWTON's reports, appears to belong to a faction of the Guatemalan FAR family disillusioned with PBRUMEN.

c. The only real service asked LIRING-3 by "Romulo" during the period under review was to put up an unidentified "comrade" scheduled to come to Mexico at a date which "Romulo" said he could not determine exactly. This "comrade" was not the young Guatemalan who dropped in on LIRING-3 for a couple of days mentioned in the report dated 25 April.

d. LIRING-3 continues to collect clear evidence that LIRING has done its best to denounce him as a suspicious element definitely not to be trusted (see reports dated 15 and 19 February).

3. Several attempts to tail "Romulo" did not produce particularly significant results. A pretext investigation of apartment 102 of Calle Coahuila, where LIRING-3 met "Romulo," produced the results contained in the Spanish language report dated 26 February forwarded as attachment #2. There were no traces on the Ines X*BASTON de X*PIMENTEL family. sex:F cit:Mexico A:Mexico

4. There is little question at this point that LIRING-3 is close to persona non grata with LIRING. Hence, his further usefulness against the PBRUMEN target is very limited. ROWTON has kept away from LIRING-4 since LIRING-3's release from prison in Guatemala. Although LIRING-4, following her father's death (see MEXICO CITY-0125), may visit her mother in PBRUMEN, she has no particular love for LIRING or the PBRUMEN authorities. On the Guatemalan side of this operation, the Station is, as it has done many times in the past, waiting for LIRING-3's Guatemalan contacts to make the next move.

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1100, 11/2/69; Camino Real
3. Next Meeting: 1000, 14/2/69; same place.
4. Reports/Information Submitted by Agent:

LIRING/3 told Rowton that there had been little or no developments since he last saw Rowton (21/1/69), just before Rowton had left on his business trip to Monterrey. He commented that he had felt it wiser not to take any initiative in seeking out his FAR friends or revisiting the LIRING office until Rowton had returned. He stated that his old Guatemalan friend, Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla, had called on him once in the company of Carlos Vega, but nothing significant had emerged from the casual conversation. Vega, at several points in the conversation, had mumbled something to Rodriguez about the "crisis" but nieher gave an explanation. L/3 told Rowton that he assumed that this remark referred to the current factionalism in the Guatemalan revolutionary struggle.

LIRING/3 then identified the attached photo of Mario Augusto Mendez Aguilar immediately at the first glance as that of "Rómulo", aka "Mario Mendez" and "Pavel." LIRING/3 did not recognize the photo Rowton showed him of Mario Otoniel Mendez Molina.

5. Guidance/Information Given to Agent:

Rowton told L/3 that according to the very sketchy information he had concerning Mario Augosto Mendez Aguilar it appeared that the latter belogged to a strongly anti-PBRUMEN faction and that this would perhaps explain the turn-about of the LIRINGs after he, L/3, had indicated to LIRING/9 that he was in contact with "Pavel."

Rowton urged L/3 to seek out "Rómulo" at the calle Coahuila 221 safehouse, and, failing this, to recontact Humberto González Vega at his home on calle Manzanillo, in the hope that the latter could arrange a recontact with Mendez.

3. Next Meeting: 1100, 15/2/69; same place.
4. ADMINISTRATIVE: LIRING/3 told Rowton that his friend, Berta Wigisser has rented a furnished apartment that can be used by him and Rowton as a safehouse as soon as it is vacated by its present occupants. L/3 explained that these occupants are relatives of sra Wigisser who are visiting from Argentina but who are expected to return to their own country within the next ten days.
5. REPORTS/INFORMATION GIVEN BY AGENT:

L/3 told Rowton that "Rómulo" (whom he identified from a photo as Mario Augosto Mendez Aguilar) visited him at his home unannounced at about 2000 on 11 February and stayed until almost midnight.

According to L/3 Rómulo apologized for not having seen L/3 for so long (last date reported was 3/1/69) explaining that he was very busy. He then stated that he had recently seen and talked with Rodolfo Sandoval Alegría in the(Lucumberri)prison and was pleasantly surprised to learn that Sandoval knew L/3 and spoke very highly of him. Rómulo then went on to say that he had known Sandoval many years and had actually been his deputy in Guatemala. Rómulo recalled that when he was last arrested (he explained parenthetically that he had been arrested four times in all) he was tortured in an effort to make him reveal the whereabouts of Sandoval. He claimed to L/3 that he finally,to avoid execution, gave a false address- that of one of Sandoval's relatives.

L/3 told Rowton that he then took the occasion to tell Rómulo of the harrassment he was being subjected to by various persons whom he felt were being inspired by the Chief LIRING. L/3 told Rowton that Rómulo then asked him what the false charges brought against him were. L/3 told Rómulo the truth, saying that he kept getting reports that he was regarded as a LCFIRM agent. According to L/3.Rómulo exclaimed that he should pay no attention to that sort of slander since the LIRING office was always trying to neutralize persons and groups not acting under their control. He added that the people who really count in the struggle were used to such nonsense and were aware of what the LIRINGs were up to. He added that as soon as Sandoval got out of prison he would "straighten some of those people out" since he was personally aware of L/3's motives and activities before his trip to the border. When L/3 mentioned his contacts with Carlos Vega (always at the latter's initiative), Rómulo described him as "Pastelito, a very sectarian sneaky pro-LIRING bastard". He said he would like L/3 to arrange a meeting with Vega so that he could burst in and confront him with the facts. Regarding Humberto González Vega, Rómulo said that he was a good "elemento" and had suffered a great deal for the cause, but at the moment was more or less out of the picture. He saw no need for L/3 to be in contact with him. When L/3 expressed a desire to have some way of contacting Rómulo, the latter promised to give him his home address as soon as he move to a better place. He explained that at the moment he was living in a furnished room. At the end of the talk, when Rómulo asked when they could get together again, explaining that he might have to go down to Orizaba over the week-end, L/3 told Rowton that he made a date for 1900 on 14/2/69. L/3 then suggested that they meet outside so as not to involve his wife (L/3 told Rowton that he did this so that Rowton would have a chance to observe Rómulo in some public place), and Rómulo agreed but said he had a better suggestion. He then stated that he knew a Mexican family very well and could arrange that they meet at their home and have dinner. He added that he might bring along a Brother ("hermano") and would come by L/3's home at 1900 to pick him up. L/3 agreed, saying that he had no objection to the brother coming along.

CONTACT REPORT

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1100, 15/2/69; Camino Real restaurant.
3. Next Meeting: 1000, 19/2/69; same place.
4. Reports/Information Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported that he met again with "Rómulo" but under circumstances somewhat different from that anticipated. L/3 related that when he arrived at his apartment about 1850 the previous eveningin the company of his wife (after having dropped off his daughter at the home of his ex-wife) he found a note from "Rómulo" asking him to meet him at apartment 102 of Calle Coahuila 200.
L/3 continued that since his wife was present when he read the note he felt he had to ask her to come along (and in addition she had been upset that afternoon and did not want to be left alone). They therefore both proceeded to the address given by Rómulo and found him there in the midst of a rather large number of persons, apparently of the same family residing in the apartment. After about fifteen minutes of social chatter, Rómulo suggested that they go to a nearby restaurant to talk more privately. Romulo then took L/3 and his wife to the restaurant Kuku at Calle Coahuila 223 where they had dinner. L/3 told Rowton that because of his wife's presence he was not able to discuss anything substantive with Romulo and had to leave the questions he wanted to ask him re FAR/PBRUMEN activites until a subsequent meeting. L/3 added that in the course of conversation, Romulo stated that Rodolfo Sandoval Alegría hoped to be released from prison in March,1969. Romulo also stated that he worked in a newspaper office, but L/3 felt he could not securely ask the name of the newspaper at that time.
L/3 told Rowton that Romulo agreed to another meeting on 18 February and asked L/3 to met him again at apartment 102 of Coahuila 200 shortly after 1900, inasmuch as he generally leaves his place of employment a little before that time. Romulo,L/3 and his wife then took in a movie.
L/3 then told Rowton that after he had left Rowton the previous day he had another very disturbing experience (he appeared to Rowton nervous and suffering from lack of sleep). L/3 explained that when he dropped into the Salón de la Plástica Mexicana about 1300 on 14/2/69, he ran into an old friend, Fanny Ravel, a Mexican artist with whom he had worked very closely in PBRUMEN some years ago. L/3 continued to Rowton that despite their past friendship, Fanny Ravel treated him in an obvious cold manner. L/3, feeling that he could not this pass unnoticed, got Fanny in the corner and asked what was up. She replied that for some time she had been hearing "disturbing reports" about L/3. Under further questioning by L/3 she specified thatoriginally, some 7-8 months previously she had been told by a LIRING official that L/3 "was not to be trusted". Fanny continued that she did not pay too much attention to this, since the official was rather "low-level", but more recently she was told the same thing by an "unimpeachable source" and could not challenge it despite her high personal esteem for L/3.

L/3 commented to Rowton that the "unimpeachable source" must be the Chief LIRING, inasmuch as Fanny Ravel as always been a close personal friend of his and possibly even one of his mistresses. L/3 continued that LIRING had several times commented to him (when L/4 was working in the LIRING office) that Fanny Ravel was infrequent telephone contact with the Chief.

5. GUIDANCE Given to Agent:

Rowton told L/3 that he was more convinced than ever that the LIRING office had mounted a slander operation against him because of his contacts with the Camilo Sanchez group (León Barrios brothers and Romulo) which PBRUMEN was apparently attempting to isolate in their own interest. When L/3 appeared a little consoled at this, Rowton continued that he felt L/3 should, at the 18 Feb meeting with "Rómulo", tell the latter that he knew the game the LIRINGs were up to and ask "Rómulo" point blank whether he knew to what extent the LIRING office was trying to sabotage FAR because of its nationalistic anti-PBRUMEN position. Rowton asked L/3 to entice "Rómulo" into such a discussion in the hope that "Rómulo" would ask him, L/3, to help discover any unilateral operations PBRUMEN might be planning. Rowton continued that L/3 should tell Romulo that although he was virtually cut off from the LIRING office, he still had a great many PBRUMEN friends (e.g.   ) from whom he could possibly get useful information to help Romulo's faction. Rowton suggested that L/3 could also propose to Romulo that they both put the squeeze on Carlos VEga (apparently a LIRING provocation) to obsome preliminary information on the intentions of the LIRING operation.

2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1000, 19/2/69; Camino Real Restaurant.
3. Next Meeting: Same time,same place, 21/2/69.
4. Reports/Information Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported that "Rómulo" appeared unannounced at his apartment on the late afternoon of 17/2/69 and consequently he did not go to meet him at apartment 102 of 200 Coahuila St. on 18/2/69 as originally planned. LIRING/3 told Rowton that "Rómulo" promised to see him again about 1900 on 20/2/69, coming to pick him up at his apartment.

LIRING/3 then stated that on the morning of 17/2/69 he had run into Anna Godoy, the wife of Jorge, at Gobernación and was so disturbed at the cool reception that he looked up Jorge Godoy later that day to find out what was going on. Jorge Godoy was quite frank with him telling him that the LIRING office had advised him to keep clear of LIRING/3 because he was not to be trusted. Godoy continued that a LIRING official had told him that LIRING/3 was being used (perhaps unconsciously at first) by some counter-revolutionary organization and that the LIRING Office based it assertion on the following three points: (1) LIRING/3 had been in touch with a foreignor who pretended to be a businessman but who did not do any business with PBRUMEN, (2) LIRING/3 had access to information that could come only from a police source (3) LIRING/3 was responsible for the arrest of Identity A and had undertaken the mission to Guatemala to get information against the revolution.

According to LIRING/3, Horge Godoy told him that it was difficult to belive all this, especially in the light of L/3's relatively long imprisonment,but he had to take it seriously in view of the source of the charges. L/3 told Rowton that he went over each point in rebuttal on a matter of principle despite the fact that Godoy's mind obviously was already amde up.

LIRING/3 told Rowton that when he talked later that day with "Rómulo" he related what had happened with Godoy. "Rómulo" replied that those LIRING allegations were not to be taken seriously. He commented: "We have already looked into them and do not believe them." He explained that for one thing if L/3 had beer a spy he certainly would have continued (with the approval and connivance of the authorities) on up the the mountains where he could get useful information, instead of permitting himself to be arrested just after stepping across the border. "Rómulo" aggreed with L/3 that the LIRING office probably does not want L/3 to help his ("Rómulo's") faction and have done everything possible to isolate L/3 from his normal social contacts. Rómulo added that the only important point in the whole affair was that there were "certain elements" among the Guatemalan revolutionaries that might believe the LIRING charges and possibly do harm to L/3 and or his wife. Rómulo urged L/3 "to be careful" and for that reason di not encourage the idea of a confrontation with Carlos Vega at this time. He continued that if, however, L/3 insisted he would be glad to have it out with Carlos Vega to find out who had sent him to provoke L/3. Rowton agreed that little or nothing could be accomplished in pursuing this matter.

L/3 continued that when he told Rómulo that he felt frustrated and helpless in the face of the LIRING action, Rómulo told him that he must, as a good revolutionary, have courage and patience in confronting these problems. He continued that he himself hoped to continue to see L/3 and he was sure that things would work out. He stressed that he and his faction value the friendship and loyalty of individuals such as L/3 whereas the LIRING establishment is interested only in groups and organizations that can further their own interests.

5. GUIDANCE/INFORAMTION given to agent:

Rowton encouraged L/3 to continue his efforts to find steady employment since he was most vulnerable to both the LIRING agents as well as FAR in the matter of his financial resources. L/3 told Rowton that he had already been promised an appointment to some teaching position by Xavier Espinosa, private secretary to Yañez, the Secretary of Education. L/3 commented that Espinosa is at heart a "good progressive" and has been very sympathetic to him since his return to Mexico. L/3 also stated that he intends to look up Heracleo Zepeda in the hope that the latter can place him somewhere in CONASUPO or arrange a job with his Chiapas newspaper ("Renovación").
Rowton also urged L/3 to continue to elicit information from "Rómulo" concerning his faction of the FAR and any knowledge he might have concerning the independent operations being planned by FERUMEN in Guatemala.

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1000, 27/3/69; Camino Real Restaurant
3. Next Meeting: Same place and time, 3/4/69.
4. Information/Reports Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported that unfortunately "Romulo" (Mario Augosto MENDEZ Aguilar) had not reappeared since his last meeting with him (17/2/69) and that he felt he could do nothing but wait for him to initiate the recontact.

LIRING/3 continued that on his own initiative he had dropped by the LIRING offices on 21 March, feeling that he should not continue to remain in isolation despite the unfavorable rumors against him apparently originated by that office. He told Rowton that unfortunately he did not find anyone of importance in the offices at that time, but was told by the gatekeeper that "they wanted to see him" and that he should return early the following week.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that instead of returning to the office he decided to telephone LIRING/9 at his home. He did so on the morning of 25/3/69 but was told by a woman with a Mexican accent (obviously the maid)that neither LIRING/9 nor LIRING/2 was at home. LIRING/3 then left his name and asked the woman to inform either of them that he had called.

LIRING/3 continued that about 1200 that same day (25/3/69) his old friend Identity B appeared unannounced at his appartment. L/3 told Rowton that although it was obvious that Iden B had appeared in response to the telephone message that L/3 had left for LIRING/9, Iden B did not refer to it, explaining simply that he had dropped around to see how LIRING/3 and his wife were doing. He did mentioned subsequently in the conversation that he was now living with LIRING/2 and LIRING/9 and LIRING/13 in their "very ample" apartment. Iden B continued that he hoped to remain in Mexico until July 1969 and that he was planning to marry a Mexican divorcée with three children (boys) whom he had originally met many years ago in a visit to Mexico City.

LIRING/3 told Rowton that Iden B was surprisingly cordial, regretting the fact that they had not seen each other for some time and encouraging LIRING/3 to keep in touch in the future. He invited L/3 to lunch on 29/3/69 but asked him to telephone to confirm. He gave L/3 the telephone number of LIRING/9's residence, apparently forgetting that L/3 already had the number.

Iden B then told LIRING/3 not to be disturbed over the rumors circulating about him, since he himself had been subjected to much the same treatment several years previously in PBRUMEN. He then stated that in any case the PBRUMEN Chief would not be returning to Mexico, and that this should make L/3 happy. To console L/3, Iden B continued that the LIRING Chief was not popular with the staff, since he was considered to formal and snobbish, and somewhat petty in his vindictiveness. Iden B agreed with L/3 that the LIRING Chief had done much to harm LIRING/3's reputation,and probably acted from purely personal motives (under the influence of Carmen Lozada's father and husband).

Iden B did not tell L/3 who would replace the LIRING Chief. He commented that for some time back he had withdrawn from politcis and tried to mind his own business, earning his living by giving lectures on his own initiative.

On the domestic situation in PBRUMEN, Iden B commented that things were "very bad" both politically and economically. He explained that PBRUMEN currently found itself in a squeeze play between the big powers and was genuinely fearful of a Soviet/Nixon rapprochement, at their expense, of course. On the economic side Iden B commented that he was happy to be in Mexico but added weakly that there was every hope that things would get better by 1970. When L/3 countered that everyone had been singing that tune for many years, Iden B did not defend his position.

LIRING/3 then told Rowton that he took the occasion to mention to Iden B that a certain Carlos Vega (akaCarlos Enrique LOPEZ Garcia) had been pestering him in the hope of finding someone traveling to PBRUMEN who would be willing to carry some packages to some of his friends (including the son of Turcios). When L/3 asked Iden B whether he would be willing to meet this Carlos Vega before consenting to carry over his packages, Iden B replied; "Sí,como no. Con mucho gusto."

LIRING/3 commented to Rowton that he brought up the name of Carlos VEGa as a sign of good faith both vis-avis the latter as well as the LIRING office since he felt it highly probable that Vega was reporting regularly to the LIRING couple either directly or indirectly and that in fact Vega had possibly been sent to check on LIRING/3 and his wife. LIRING/3 continued that he planned to recontact Jacobo Rodríguez Padilla and ask him to pass along the message to Carlos Vega that LIRING/3 was anxious to see him again since he felt that he had resolved Vega's "problem."

LIRING/3 also told Rowton that he had expressed the desire to Iden B to revisit PBRUMEN some time in the future. Iden B replied that he would do everything he could to expedite the visa, which he said he felt present no problem.

LIRING/3 also told Rowton that LIRING/4 had received a letter from her mother asking her to attempt to obtain a 30-day visitor's visa for her to come to Mexico on vacation. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he and LIRING/4 had already made formal application for the visa, although they were not optimistic that Gobernación would grant it. LIRING/3 added that he did not mention this development to Iden B , although he might possibly mention it in passing at his next chat. LIRING/3 commented to Rowton that he felt LIRING/4's mother might have some interesting gossip but could not be expected to tell him and LIRING/4 anything startling. He added that he had applied for the visa more out of courtesy that in earnest and actually hoped that the visa would not be granted, since this would give him and LIRING/4 a good pretext to make another trip to PBRUMEN for purely personal reasons.

2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1000, 7/4/69; restaurant of Camino Real hotel.
3. Next Meeting: 1000, 9/4/69; same place.
4. Information/Reports Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported that at long last "Rómulo"(Mario Augusto Mendez Aguilar) had reappeared at his apartment, on the afternoon of 2 April, without prior notice, as usual. LIRING/3 told Rowton that "Rómulo" apologized for not having been able to revisit LIRING/3 before that date, and explained that he had been "out of town". According to L/3 "Rómulo" did not give any explanation of his absence since mid-February and L/3 felt he could not ask for such explanation. "Rómulo" promised to keep in touch with LIRING/3 by dropping in to his apartment "whenever he could". LIRING/3 told Rowton that he made a discreet effort to get from "Rómulo" a telephone number or address through which he could be contacted.

LIRING/3 also reported that he had met with Iden B twice during Easter week, but as yet had been unable to get into his residence,as he had hoped. He stressed that his relationship with Iden B was improving steadily and he felt this a good sign, inasmuch as he felt certain that Iden B would not take the initiativeof recontacting LIRING/3 without prior consultation with LIRING/9 and LIRING/2.

LIRING/3 then told Rowton that LIRING/4 had received a very pessimistic letter from a certain Echemendía, a uncle residing in Brooklyn, New York, who stated that LIRING/4's father was dying of cancer of the throat and was unable to leave his home. LIRING/3 continued that he had just discovered that LIRING/4 on her own initiative had rushed to the U.S. Consulate and requested a visa. As she subsequently told LIRING/3, LIRING/4 was informed by a consular official that her case would have to be "investigated carefully by JOFACT" and that she was required to pay 125 pesos for a telegram to Washington,D.C. to expedite the case. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he felt LIRING/4's action had been precipitous and could cause him additional embarrassment with the LIRING office. He added that he did not think a visa would be granted, but asked Rowton to do whatever he could to make certain that LIRING/4's request was turned down. He continued that in view of this unexpected development, he felt it wise to recontact LIRING/9 and tell him about LIRING/4's application for the visa. Rowton agreed that this would be the best course of action, especially since LIRING/3 had originally mentioned LIRING/4's desire to visit her sick father and the problem this represented for him, when he first talked to LIRING/9 after his return from Guatemala.

LIRING/3 told Rowton that he felt this would also constitute a good pretext to sound out LIRING/9 about his personal feelings toward LIRING/3 and his own situation in the LIRING Office. Rowton suggested that LIRING/3 take this occasion to mention casually that he was still in occasional contact with the Guatemalans and to give LIRING/9 the names of "Rómulo" and Carlos Vega, if L/9 asked for details.

2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1000, 11/4/69, Camino Real restaurant.
3. Next Meeting: Same time, place, 1000, 14/4/69.

4. Information/ Reports Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported that he received an unexpected visit on 9/4/69 from Rogelio Aguirre, bpother of Jerjes Aguirre, whom both he and LIRING/4 have known for many years (from their work together in PBRUMEN). LIRING/3 told Rowton that he was surprised at the visit since both Rogelio and Jerjes Aguirre were close friends of Teresa Lozada and her husband, Carlos Persabal. L/3 explained to Rowton that both Rogelio and Jerjes are employed in the Secretaría de Educación where Teresa Lozada worked for several years.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that Rogelio, without making any reference to the Persabal family, asked LIRING/3 to do him an important favor. He went on to state that, as LIRING/3 knew, Identity C, was currently living in her home town in PBRUMEN(the same area that LIRING/4 comes from) and was hoping to visit them in Mexico City in the near future. Rogelio continued that he hoped that LIRING/3 could have a check from a Canadian bank and immigration documents hand-carried to Iden C so that she could pay for the ticket and present the Mexican visa locally in PBRUMEN. LIRING/3 told Rowton that although he felt a bit mystified at this request, he told Rogelio Aguirre that he would do what he could to find someone who was planning a trip to PBRUMEN in the near future.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that the name of his friend Iden B immediately came to his mind,and he attempted to telephone him at the apartment of LIRING/9. He, however, found that the telephone was not in service,and felt that he had an excellent pretext to visit the apartment about 1500 on that same day (11/4/69) explaining to Iden B (and/or LIRING/2 or /9) that he had to get in touch urgently to pass on the request of Rogelio Aguirre. LIRING/3 agreed with Rowton that he could take this occasion to ask the LIRING office to attempt to obtain information on the state of health of the father of LIRING/4 through the LIRING office in New York City. LIRING/3 agreed that there was little chance of this request being honored, but it would serve to reveal his lack of any other channels to LIRING/4 's father and stress the legitimacy of LIRING/4's concern for the health of her father(an application for a visa to visit him).

LIRING/3 then stated to Rowton that he suspected the telephone of the LIRING/9 apartment was tapped. He explained that generally when he had called in the past, there was an unexplained interruption in the line before the party could reply. He stressed to Rowton that this was his own personal observation, and that Idon R , when he met with as recently as 9/4/69 did not make any comment about the telephone service in the apartment.

LIRING/3 promised Rowton that when he visited the apartment that afternnon he would take as good a note as possible of the lay-out and furnishings and ascertain the identity of the maid.

c. Next Meeting: Same time, place; 25/4/69
D. Reports/Information Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 apologized for not having been able to make the last scheduled meeting with Rowton, 1000 on 18/4/69. He explained that his friend, Iden B, had unexpectedly dropped in to see him at that time and he felt it more important to see him again than to make the meeting with Rowton (he subsequently left a message with Rowton's answering service).

LIRING/3 continued that he explained to Iden B the emotional strain that LIRING/4 was undergoing as a result of the bad news concerning her father's health. He then asked Iden B to attempt to ascertain the true state of his health through the LIRING Office in New York and gave Iden B the name and telephone number of the aunt of LIRING/4 who appeared to be the best source. Iden B, according to LIRING/3 promised to send a message with the next pouch and hoped to have news for LIRING/3 within the next ten days.

According to LIRING/3, Iden B then suggested that LIRING/3 think about moving to PBRUMEN for a "lengthy stay, perhapw indefinitely." He explained that he felt he understood LIRING/3's problems, the calumnies, the subtle persecution and the resultant increasingly difficult financial situation he found himself in, and he felt there was no real solution in Mexico. In PBRUMEN, however, he could manage much more easily for his wife and child, since most of his basic financial problems would be solved. He added that he was sure that he could find LIRING/3 some sort of work in the cultural field as soon as he returned to PBRUMEN and then arrange an invitation. LIRING/3 told Rowton that although he regarded this proposition as encouraging (since he was certain that Iden B had prior approval from the LIRING Office), he took a natural and logical approach in replying to Iden B He stated that he told Iden B that in principle he agreedbut he had to face the realities of the situation. First he was not at all certain that he could convince his wife to make such a move, and second, he was not optimistic that Iden B could arrange a good position for him in PBRUMEN that would permit him to work seriously and, of course, make enough money to meet his living expenses. Iden B replied that he felt it quite possible to arrange something for LIRING/3 and for that reason had brought up the idea at this point.

Rowton told LIRING/3, in reply to his query, that such a trip to PBRUMEN would be interesting to him only if LIRING/3 was offered a position in the cultural field with good access to PBRUMEN intellectuals and government officials. LIRING/3 agreed, commenting that he knew Iden D and such young rebels well enough to develop good contact with them, provided he was given a reasonably serious job. In any case he promised to work on LIRING/4 in the hope of persuading her to go along with him, when and if Iden B's proposal materialized.

LIRING/3 continued that Iden B then offered to arrange an exposition for LIRING/3 at Iden F in Cuernavaca, stating that he could do so without difficulty through the director of the galleries (female) who was a close friend of his. LIRING/3 accepted this apparently genuine offer and arranged to travel to Cuernavaca on the morning of 22/4/69 to talk the matter over with the director of the art galleries.

LIRING/3 then reported to Rowton that "Rómulo" had again visited him at his apartment late on the evening of 18/4/69 (thus anticipating the meeting for 1830 in front of Woolworth's for the following day, as originally planned). According to LIRING/3, "Rómulo" (Mario Augosto Mendez Aguilar) told him that he had taken the liberty of coming that evening to LIRING/3's apartment since he wanted to talk in private of "something that LIRING/3 could do to help his friends". "Rómulo" then went on to explain that one of his comrades was expected to arrive in Mexico City "in the near future" and would need a secure place to live, at leaste until he could find a place of his own. "Rómulo" stressed that this person, whose identity he himelf did not as yet know, would be traveling "clandestinely" and could not risk renting a room on his own until he had established himself in the area. LIRING/3 replied that he, of course, would do his best, but pointed out that he himself was not in a good position to protect anyone. He finally agreed that this person might be able to use his kitchen as temporary living quarters, entering and leaving the apartment throught the back(service)entrance. LIRING/3 pointed out to "Rómulo" that the back door to the apartment house was locked at 1700 every day and that therefore it would be necessary for the person using that entrance to return to the apartment for good every night before 1700. "Rómulo" was apparently satisfied with this offer of LIRING/3 and promised to let him know when the person arrived in Mexico City.

+"Rómulo" then mentioned to LIRING/3 that Iden E was currently in the PBRUMEN capital and that he himself ("Rómulo") was in more or less regular touch with the mother of "El Chino",(whom LIRING/3 understood to be Yon Sosa). "Rómulo" also mentioned in passing that he works for two or three hours a day in the accounts office of Ovaciones and also does some part time work at a golf club in Mexico City.

E. Information/Guidance Given to Agent:

Rowton asked LIRING/3 to continue to press Iden B for more specific information about his proposed assistance to LIRING/3 in obtaining a job in PBRUMEN, AND some indication as to the extent of the knowledge and backing of the LIRING office. Rowton did not encourage LIRING/3 to take such a proposal seriously until he could get more concrete data from Iden B.

With regard to "Rómulo's" ~~[illegible]~~ request for assistance, Rowton stated that he would be much more interested in this development, when and if LIRING/3 could get the identity of the comrade of "Rómulo" whom he was to provide a safehouse for. Rowton suggested that LIRING/3 put this person up when he appeared for a few days, long enough to permit Rowton to get a look at him and identify him. A determination could then be made as to the best course of action for LIRING/3 with regard to this person. In reply to LIRING/3's query, Rowton thought that it would be best to reinsure with the LIRING office regarding this matter by casually mentioning to Iden B that he was performing this service for his FAR friends. LIRING/3 agreed, commenting that he hoped that he would not again be caught in the crossfire between the LIRING Office and the nationalist faction of the FAR.

CONTACT REPORT

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1000, 25/4/69; Camino Real Restaurant.
3. Next Meeting: 1000, 28/4/69; Robbin Restaurant.
4. Reports/Information Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he went to Cuernavaca early on the morning of 22/4/69 alone, since Iden B backed out of the trip at the last minute, saying he had to remain in Mexico City. LIRING/3, however, was able to talk to the Director of the Art Gallery of Iden F himself and arranged an exposition for 7 June, 1969.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that when he returned home late that same night he found a note from his wife informing him that she had gone out to telephone long distance and would not be back until late that night. When she returned she informed him that she had received a telegram informing her that her father had died at 2030 on the previous evening (21/4/69) and that she had been attempting to telephone her mother in PBRUMEN but had not been able to get through. LIRING/3 continued that his father-in-law was buried on 24/4/69 and that his wife was still in a state of depression and grief, especially since she had been unable to see her father before his death or attend the funeral.

LIRING/3 also reported that at about 1030 on 23/4/69 a Guatemalan, aged about 25, poorly dressed and somewhat resembling Carlos Vega, had appeared unannounced at his apartment with a small piece of paper on which were written LIRING/3's name and address. He introduced himself without name simply as a "friend of the León Barrios brothers from Guatemala City," and asked LIRING/3 to put him up for a few days. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he agreed after some reluctance, suspecting that this was the person referred to by Mario Mendez ("Rómulo"), although the young Guatemalan did not mention "Rómulo" by name. LIRING/2 told Rowton that before promising to put the Guatemalan up, he commented to him that although he had a great deal of personal respect for the León Barrios brothers he was disappointed that neither they nor their mother had written to him for the past several months, apparently because they believed the calumnies spread against him by Carlos Perzabal, . According to LIRING/3, the young Guatemalan told him that his friends back in Guatemala City continued to have confidence in LIRING/3, but "had to respect the opinions of others, and had no alternative but to discontinue correspondence with LIRING/3, at least for a respectable period." He continued that LIRING/3 should realize that their organization in Guatemala City was in no position to check out various and sundry charges made against their friends and had to let time take care of most of their problems of this nature.

LIRING/3 told Rowton that he finally gave the unexpected house-guest a cot to sleep on in the room of his child, moving the latter to his studio. He then asked the guest to remain as inconspicuous as possible, informing him that he expected a number of children that afternoon for an art lesson in the apartment. The Guatemalan promised to be out of the apartment during the day and to return late at night. LIRING/3 told Rowton that in fact he did not reappear until about 2300 that night, and left before 0700 the following morning. When he returned at about 2200 on the night of 24/4/69 he informed LIRING/3 that he would be leaving the apartment the next morning early and would not have to return. He thanked LIRING/3 profusely the next morning (25/4/69) and left at about 0900 without telling LIRING/3 where he intended to go.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that at about 1930 on 23/4/69, when he returned to his apartment, he found "Rómulo" (Mario Mendez Aguilar) in his living room having coffee with his wife. LIRING/3 took the occasion to tell Rómulo about the unexpected houseguest. According to LIRING/3 "Rómulo" appeared genuinely surprised and asked for the identity and physical description of the person. When LIRING/3 told him as much as he knew, "Rómulo" stated that he could not identify the person as a friend of his. He speculted that the unannounced guest had been sent to check on LIRING/3 and advised him to be cautious and as normal as possible in his routine while the person remain in the house. He said that he did not exclude the possibility that this person had been sent by the LIRING office "to check on LIRING/3's private life". "Rómulo" then offerred LIRING/3 a revolver for his self-defense, but LIRING/3 turned it down, saying that he was not worried to that extent. According to LIRING/3, "Rómulo" stated that he himself preferred to avoid meeting the young Guatemalan since he could not identify him. He reassured LIRING/3 that his own comrade who might also be in need of a saferoom would not appear unannounced in such a manner, adding that to date he did not have any definite word on this person's ETA in Mexico City.

LIRING/3 told Rowton that he expects "Rómulo" to revisit him at his home sometime during the late evening of 26/4/69. He told Rowton that it occurred to him that he might invited Iden B to the apartment on the same night in the hope that he could witness a face-to-face meeting with "Rómulo" and Iden B. He felt that this would serve to keep his hands as clean as possible in the eyes of the LIRING office, since he was certain that Iden B would report promptly of his meeting with "Rómulo." Rowton agreed, feeling that it was important for LIRING/3 to bring his occasional meetings with "Rómulo" fully to the attention of the LIRING office, on the off-chance that they already did not know about them, and that Iden B would be the best channel for this.

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date & Site of Meeting: 1000, 5/5/69; Robin Restaurant.
3. Next Meeting: 1000, 7/5/69; same place.
4. Reports/Information Given by Agent:

LIRING/3 announced with apparent pleasure that at long last the commo channel with the FAR had been reopened. He stated that he had just received a letter from the elder of the two León Barrios brothers (Miguel and Juán) indicating that in his mind the long period of "probation" was over ~~that~~ and that closer contact could be expected in the near future. LIRING/3 then showed Rowton a letter dated 28 April,1969,in the handwriting he stated he recognized as that of Miguel León Barrios, in which the writer, who signed the letter as "Julio Antonio", informed LIRING/3 that he had just been released from prison ("sanatorio") and was planning to leave town until things cool off for him. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he understood the double-talk of the writer to mean that he needed money (Q.100) to travel to Mexico where he hoped to visit LIRING/3. Rowton's photostat and translation of the letter is attached herewith.

The envelope, postmarked Guatemala City,2/5/69, is addressed to LIRING/4 (as previously requested by LIRING/3) and bears the return address J. Antonio Medina, 24 Calle 1-65,Zona 1,Guatemala, and was sent special delivery. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he did not recognize the return address,and assumed that it,as well as the sender's name, Medina, was notional. He added that "Violeta" was the code word for operational contact with anyone arriving on behalf of the León Barrios brothers, and that Doña Luisa referred to Marta, the mother of the León Barrios brothers.

When Rowton agreed that LIRING/3 should send some money,no more that 1,000 pesos (Q 80) with a cover letter from LIRING/4 (ostensibly) but in his own handwriting, explaining in double-talk that fortunately he is doing fairly well financially and that LIRING/4 is now working in an art gallery and expects to inherit money from her father who recently passed away. LIRING/3 promised to have the cover letter and envelope ready when he met with Rowton on 7/5/69 so that he could insert the money order. L/3 told Rowton that he felt it best to send the money order in the name of Elsa, the eldest of the León Barrios sisters, rather than to the mother (Marta) as requested in the letter. He explained that the last money order (actually certified bank check) in Elsa's name, sent by LIRING/4, arrived safely and apparently was cashed without difficulty. Rowton suggested that LIRING/3 send the letter, registered with receipt requested, just to be sure that the letter arrived at its destination.

ATENTAMENTE K-10 y K-23

Guatemala, 28 April,1959

Dear LIRING-4:

I am very happy to be able to write to you. Excuse me for not having been able to do so until now, but it was only last week that I was able to leave the sanatorium. My departure from such a place was quite a relief. My health was declining and I almost had a relapse. Everyone at home celebrated. My brother sends you his best.

My letter has two purposes: first to excuse myself for not being able to get to your home; it's becasue, since I am still not recovered,the doctor has told me to recuperate in the country, and, to avoid problems these days, I'm planning to go to uncle Tío's farm. In any case they'll be coming to see you on behalf of Violetta since they are still talking about the business here and are very interested. That should take place any day now.

My other purpose in writing to you is to bother you for a favor. I should tell you that I have married Liz and she is now expecting a baby. (Finally I was able to follow your advice). Now that I am leaving for the farm, she will be left alone and with some financial difficulties. Since you had invited both of us there, and this is not possible, I hope you will be able to send her something. I think she could put about Q. 100 to very good use. If you could send it to Doña Luisa - she and I would be very much obliged.

Everything else is going very well. I am as ever your friend,

REFERENCE: HMMA-36603, 27 February 1969

1. Attached for Addressees is a translation of a report received from LINLUCK on 28 February 1969 on Humberto GONZALEZ Vega (201-845437), Guatemalan Communist exile in Mexico who has been in contact with LIRING-3 (201-798301). The report was submitted by LINLUCK in response to the query for additional information on GONZALEZ mentioned in paragraph [illegible] of reference.

2. It will be noted that LINLUCK's information tends to confirm earlier reporting that GONZALEZ is connected with the PGT rather than the FAR -- though he would appear to have some contacts with the latter organization. While LINLUCK's report is based in part on details dredged up from the past, it is believed that his comments may be of interest to Addressees.

3. LINLUCK has promised to provide any additional information on GONZALEZ which he may be able to develop.

ATTACHMENT TO HMM-20680

(Translation of report from [illegible] on Humberto GONZALEZ Vega)

1. The business card used by Humberto GONZALEZ Vega is printed with the legend: "Salvat Editores Mexicana, S.A., Telephone 46-27-47, Madrid 21, Mexico 6, D.F.". GONZALEZ' name and -- "Division Medicina" have been added to the card.

2. GONZALEZ recently (date not known) obtained a Guatemalan passport at the Guatemalan Consulate in Mexico City. When applying for the passport, GONZALEZ indicated it would be used to travel to Venezuela on behalf of his company (Salvat). One may have doubts about this story of travel to Venezuela. GONZALEZ is a long-time member of the Guatemalan Communist Party (PGT). When he joined the PGT in 1952 he was [illegible] section of the Ferrocarriles de Guatemala. In 1954 he went to Buenos Aires as an exile, and -- along with other Communists -- was imprisoned in the jail of Villa Devoto on orders of General PERON. (It is only just to add that there was no valid reason for jailing them). Years later GONZALEZ returned to Guatemala where he has a wife and several children that he claims to support. He is separated from his wife (who is still in Guatemala) and lives with another woman in Mexico.

3. In any event, GONZALEZ is still a member of the PGT, and has spent many months in jail because of his Communist activities. On one occasion he was jailed during the regime of Miguel YDIGORAS Fuentes, and again when Colonel Enrique PERALTA Azurdia was in power. GONZALEZ has lived in Mexico as a political asylee, but has returned clandestinely to Guatemala on several occasions, only to be expelled from that country again. In Mexico he has almost always been the "responsable" (one in charge) of the Guatemalan Communists living in Mexico... that is the representative of the PGT in Mexico. At least the visible representative. Even while Victor Manuel GUTIERREZ Garbin was alive, and GUTIERREZ died in 1966, GONZALEZ had a responsible position. Among his functions was keeping an eye on GUTIERREZ.

4. It is possible that GONZALEZ' perseverance in seeking a Guatemalan passport, and it took him nearly two years to get it, is because of a desire to go to Cuba or one of the Iron Curtain countries. Or again, it may be that he wants to go to Venezuela as he claims. He gives the impression that he receives a salary from the PGT, and his employment (with Salvat) -- if he is employed there -- is nothing more than a cover for his political activities.

5. GONZALEZ' nickname is "El Gato" (the cat) -- a nickname applied to him because of his light colored eyes. He is about 5'7" in height, has light colored skin, strong build, and has a stoop. He has a large head and a closely trimmed moustache. His most distinctive features are his large cheeks. He is what you might call puffy-cheeked. When he walks he struts. Undoubtedly the Security service in Guatemala have numerous photographs of Gonzalez, as well as a more accurate physical description. The description I have given is largely from memory.

6. As the writer and GONZALEZ have known each other for many years (and the writer also gave him some help in getting his passport), GONZALEZ, at a recent (no date) chance meeting, invited the writer for coffee. Naturally he [illegible] much information of importance, but he did say the following:

> "Guerrilla warfare is not the revolutionary line to be followed in Guatemala. The guerrillas were knocked out, and the only result (of guerrilla warfare) was that it demoralized the masses and has set back the revolutionary movement several years. The Central Committee of the PGT committed a grave error when it allowed the "jovenes" (here refers to the young violent revolutionaries) to assume a role of importance. Many of these "jovenes" were trained in Cuba. (What happened was) that the PGT Central Committee was on the verge of being completely replaced by the youth leaders. To avoid this, the Central Committee found it necessary to include some of the youth leaders in the Central Committee. This naturally led to a change to the "guerrilla line". Most of the capable political leaders of the Party have died uselessly for this cause."

Later in the conversation GONZALEZ became quite agitated and said:

> "And to think that I just met with some guerrilla leaders and some other young men who just came to Mexico from Guatemala who want aid, money, and recruits in order to reorganize the guerrilla bands in the interior of Guatemala and continue the fight. This would serve no purpose and I refused to give them my aid. The only thing I told them was that this was the wrong approach."

1. Headquarter's files contain the following information on a Humberto GONZALEZ and Humberto GONZALEZ Vega who is probably identical with the GONZALEZ described by LIRING/3 in reference.

a. In September 1954 one Humberto GONZALEZ, in company with other exiles, was deported from Guatemala to Panama. On 9 September this exile group arrived in Panama on board an Argentine military aircraft. It was further reported that on 10 September, this same group departed for Argentina via Guayaquil, Lima, and Santiago. GONZALEZ, described as a Guatemalan national, utilized safe conduct pass #1292 or #12925, which listed his occupation as being a railroad worker [illegible] was 2 October [illegible]. (Source: HZP-1100, 17 September 1954)

b. In early May 1957 one Humberto GONZALEZ Vega was reported as being a member of the Alianza de la Juventud Democratica de Guatemala (AJDG), a Communist youth group. This group was active in the preparation and distribution of propaganda which was being directed against the Guatemalan Government. GONZALEZ was further identified as an individual who had previously taken asylum in the Argentine Embassy, had a known Communist background, and was presently employed as a salesman for the HICOL Company in Guatemala City. d. In May 1959 one Humberto GONZALEZ Vega was reported as being a member of the Batallon Guatemala. This group had been recruited to join the Nicaraguan revolutionary forces in trying to overthrow the Nicaraguan Government of President Luis SOMOZA Debayle. This same report indicated that GONZALEZ had been involved in the Nicaraguan Revolutionary movement, was a member of the PGT, and worked as sales manager for the Amalia de NICOL Company. The address for this company was reported as 6th Avenue and 10th St. Zone 1, Guatemala City. (HGG-1331, 22 May 1959, ESGEM/1 from ESGEM/15)

1. Forwarded herewith as attachment #1 are eight reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the latest developments of the LIRING-3 operation. The most important of these are reviewed below.

a. "Romulo," who later described himself as Mario X*MENDEZ, appeared on the scene as the liaison man between LIRING-3 and the Guatemalan FAR. Humberto X*GONZALEZ Vega, whom MENDEZ called "El Gato," apparently made initial contact with LIRING-3 on his own initiative. MENDEZ said that "El Gato" was a "good element" but emphasized that he (MENDEZ) would be the person LIRING-3 would deal with on FAR matters. A copy of the sketch of MENDEZ drawn by LIRING-3 was shown by the Station to LIREBEL-2. The latter, without any hesitation, identified it as Javier X*CONTRERAS, leading FAR representative in Mexico and a suspected PBRUMEN contact. The Station had the LIEMBRACE team cover the entrance of the building where MENDEZ and other FAR members have an apartment they use for clandestine meetings with LIRING-3. Despite the fact that the team knows LIRING-3 from previous surveillance and that a copy of LIRING-3's sketch of MENDEZ was also provided, the LIEMBRACEs spotted neither man. The Station naturally plans to cover another meeting and is also exploring the possibility of determining who rented the apartment and from whom. It is of some interest to note that MENDEZ, although he gave LIRING-3 the agreed upon recognition signal, may still not be the "Pavel" LIRING-3 was told he would meet. LIRING-3 was shown a photograph of Oscar (201-841522) Arturo PEREZ Ramirez (known to have serviced a letter drop in Mexico City used by Michelle Jeannette FIRK before her death in Guatemala). LIRING-3 thought it looked like a poor print of a photograph of "Pavel" shown to him while still incarcerated.

b. LIRING-3 is apparently still suspicious in the eyes of the PBRUMENers. He has received several letters (see paragraph 2) from members of the FAR in Guatemala warning him that adverse rumors (some of them calling him a WOFIRM agent) have been circulated in that country by Carlos PERZABAL Marcue. Knowing that PERZABAL's father-in-law is a close friend of Chief, LIRING, LIRING-3 sourced the rumors to the LIRING headman. He first took up the matter of the accusations made against him with LIRING-9. The latter said there was nothing to this, but, and there was a but, LIRING-9 reminded LIRING-3 that in the past he had been connected "with a person of mysterious and suspicious affiliations," a clear reference to ROWTON, LIRING-3's Greek friend. When LIRING-3 insisted he wanted to discuss the matter of the allegations made against him directly with Chief, LIRING, LIRING-9 promised to make an appointment for him. This appointment, however, never materialized. That Chief, LIRING may have spread the allegations made against LIRING-3 by PERZABAL was confirmed by Rolando SUAREZ (see ROWTON's report dated 31 December). LIRING-3 also took up the matter of the PERZABAL denunciations with MENDEZ, who told him that the FAR had paid no attention to them and even accompanied LIRING-3 to PERZABAL's house. LIRING-3, however, made the mistake of giving his name when asked who was calling. The result, as could be expected, was that PERZABAL was "not in." MENDEZ agreed to accompany LIRING-3 to LIRING to talk to its Chief, but he warned LIRING-3 not to make accusations without proof. MENDEZ, incidentally, does not appear to be pro-PBRUMEN. This is interesting in view of the fact that CONTRERAS, with whom he may be identical, is a suspected contact of the PBRUMENers.

c. So far, it does not seem that the FAR has been greatly disturbed by the accusations made against LIRING-3. In fact, MENDEZ and the two other FAR members LIRING-3 met on 1 January have urged LIRING-3 to join them in the hills of Guatemala, where guerrilla warfare, they said, will soon be intensified. They did not hide that their purpose was to broadcast LIRING-3's name and the fact that a Mexican had joined their fight. This was apparently to appeal to the Mexican left and gain their support. While LIRING-3 has declared himself ready to go back to Guatemala (if this was what ROWTON wanted him to do), he did not need ROWTON to decide that broadcasting his name from the jungles of Guatemala was not a thing he wanted anyone to do. At Station directive, LIRING-3 pointed out that after his recent imprisonment he had to take care of his wife before doing any more for the cause. The best way to do this was to take LIRING-4 to PERUMEN and leave her with relatives. This led LIRING-3 to ask what, if anything, he could do for the FAR in Mexico. So far, however, his FAR friends have not risen to the bait.

23 December,1968

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact by "Pavel" of FAR.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1000 on 23/12/68 at the restaurant in the Camino Real Hotel that at long last the FAR contact promised by the León Barrios brothers had appeared. LIRING/3 told Rowton that at about 1900 on 19 December a Guatemalan came to his apartment and introduced himself as "a friend of Violeta." L/3 invited him in but asked him not to discuss anything sensitive in the presence of his wife. After about ten minutes of chit chat in the apartment, L/3 and the Guatemalan, who gave his name simply as "Rómulo", went to a nearby restaurant to talk privately.

2. According to LIRING/3, the Guatemalan stated that he had been ordered by FAR to maintain contact with L/3. When queried by L/3 regarding the Humberto González Vega whom he had met previously, "Rómulo" exclaimed, "Oh, you mean 'El Gato' - he's a good element, but he will not be your FAR contact. I have been entrusted with that mission." "Rómulo" also stated that he knew Francisco Lara well and had worked with him in Guatemala City some time ago until Lara was arrested. "Rómulo" added that unfortunately Lara's mother had betrayed him to the police and he barely escaped arrest at that time. "Rómulo" confirmed that Lara had been under a cloud as far as his superiors were concerned and had made the ill-fated trip in order to attempt to clear himself of charges against him.

3. When LIRING/3 told "Rómulo" that he had been in touch with the LIRING office since his return, the latter exclaimed,"But what have the LIRING people to do with us?" This gave L/3 the definite impression that "Rómulo" himself was not in touch with a PBRUMEN representative in Mexico City,and, in any case, did not like the LIRING establishment.

4. He then asked L/3 to give him a summary report of the arrest and detention. L/3 told Rowton that he balked at this at first, protesting to "Rómulo" that he had already given the details to the León Barrios brothers and"Cebollito" who he was sure had passed on the report to the FAR in Guatemala. When "Rómulo" explained that he would appreciate an oral report on the spot since he was not fully informed because of communications problems, LIRING/3 told Rowton that he went over the whole episode for "Rómulo's" benefit. "Rómulo" then asked to see LIRING/3 again at 1100 on 21 December to continue their discussion. He promised to meet L/3 on the street in front of his apartment house at the appointed time.

5. LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that much to his surprise and indignation he received a letter on the following day(20/12/68) from Martha, the mother of the León Barrios brothers, in which, among other things, she stated that "the man on the bicycle", which L/3 explained to Rowton meant Carlos Persabal had written a letter containing grave charges against LIRING/3. The letter, which L/3 read aloud to Rowton, went on to assure L/3 that these charges were not believed but constituted a source of annoyance to the writer's friends.

6. LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that he felt so indignant and shocked at this unpleasant development that he decided to see the Chief LIRING and have it out with him. L/3 explained that since the Chief LIRING is on very friendly terms with the father-in-law of Persabal he might be aware of the letter and even possibly encourgaged Persabal to write it. L/3 told Rowton that he then got in touch with LIRING/2 by telephone and made a date to meet him at the LIRING establishment at 0930 on 21/12/68. When he arrived at the gate at that time he was told that LIRING/2 had not yet arriveed. After a wait of some twenty minutes, LIRING/2 appeared but asked LIRING/3 to wait a little longer since he was very busy. After another annoying wait, LIRING/9 appeared instead of LIRING/2 and talked with LIRING/3 on the patio. LIRING/3 explained that he wanted urgently to talk with the Chief LIRING since something had come up with regard to Persabal. He reminded LIRING/9 that he originally had expressed a desire to have a face-to-face confrontation with Persabal in the LIRING office so that he could present his report on the arrest in his presence. LIRING/9, according to LIRING/3, brushed this off again with the comment, "But as I told you before, you're making a mountain of a molehill. You're exaggerating the whole business."

7. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he then took out Martha's letter and insisted that LIRING/9 read it. The latter expressed amazement at the revelation of Persabal's action but did not agree with LIRING/3 that the Chief LIRING would be able to shed light on it. LIRING/3 then told LIRING/9 that he did not like the games that everyone seemed to be playing with him, and asked LIRING/9 point blank what it was that motivated him to ask for a written report of the arrest and, after L/3 complied with the request, to drag his feet. L/3 continued that he felt he had been frank with the LIRING office, whereas on the other hand they were not honest with him in telling him what they thought of him. L/9 then assured L/3 of his confidence inhim and added that in the past certain persons, including Hugo, the assistant to LIRING/11, had felt thatLIRING/3 had been connected with a person of mysterious and suspicious affiliations. L/3, understanding this to be a clear allusion to Rowton, admitted to having known this person in the past and having had a few business transactions with him, including the sale of a number of his paintings, but insisted with some annoyance that this had not bearing on his political activity. LIRING/9 agreed and added that it was really a thing of the past that should not bother LIRING/3. He promised to make an appointment for LIRING/3 to see the Chief LIRING sometime the following week.

8. LIRInG/3 continued that when he met with "Rómulo" later that morning he also showed the letter from Martha to him. According to L/3, "Rómulo" became indignant and suggested that they talk to Persabal together to get to the bottom of the matter. L/3 and "Rómulo" then took a taxi to the residence of Persabal in the hope of finding him in at the time. When L/3, however, rang the outside bell he was told by a woman (who he suspects was either Persabal's wife or sister-in-law) that Persabal was not at home. L/3 noted the woman's astonishment in her tone of voice when he stated his name at her request. "Rómulo" who was present later commented that L/3 should hot have given his name since it was obvious that Persabal was at home but did not want to see LIRING/3.

9. According to L/3, "Rómulo" at the second meeting stated that "several" friends of his were planning to return to Guatemala to continue their work for the FAR and that he hoped that LIRING/3 might be able to help in this mission. "Rómulo" did not specify what kind of assistance he expected from LIRING/3 but promised to give him details when the time came for action in this matter. He promised to see L/3 again at 1600 on 24 December,1968.

10. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he planned to insist on seeing the Chief LIRING IN THE HOPE of determining his reaction to the charges by Persabal in view of the Chief's friendship with the in-laws of Persabal.

CONTACT REPORT

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date and Site of Meeting: 1100, 26/12/68; Camino Real Restaurant.
3. Next Meeting: 1100, 28/12/68; " " "
4. Reports/Information Passed by Agent:

a) Contact of Carlos López: L/3 reported that about 1430 on 24 December as he and his wife arrived at their apartment, they found a "chaparito" who introduced himself as Carlos López, a Guatemalan friend of Jacobo Rodríguez(Padilla), and gave L/3 a note of introduction from that person. L/3 gave Rowton the original letter, which is attached herewith. L/3 told Rowton that López stated that he was anxious to send various items, including medicines, to PBRUMEN, and appealed to L/3 since he "understood" that L/3 and his wife had contacts through which he could send the items. López, according to L/3 appeared very interested to be reassured that L/3 really did have good contacts with the LIRING establishment. When L/3 assured him that he did see LIRING respresentatives, López went on to refeal that he was a friend of Carlos Perzabal and that he was fully informed concerning the recent "tragic situation" of both Persabal and LIRING/3. This bomb shell shock L/3 badly and he felt obliged to launch into a diatribe against Perzabal. When López commented that "naturally we have to take Perzabal's word against yours, since he know him better," L/3 told Rowton that he demanded an explanation of who the "we" were. López simply replied that it meant "important" persons in Guatemala and Mexico. He added that, "as you know", Persabal was known even to César Montes. L/3 retorted, "But Montes has been stripped of his authority, as you should know." This led L/3 to the counterclaim that he also had good friends in Guatemala and Mexico who could testify on his behalf.

LIRING/3 told Rowton that he then showed López a photostatic copy of the attached letter which he had written to Perzabal demanding an explanation of the calumnies he was known to be spreading against him, and which he (L/3) had already sent to the CP Mexico and Spain. He asked López to keep the copy and tell his good friend Perzabal where he got it and under what circumstances.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that he had to cut short the rather heated exchange with López since he had a date at 1600 that same day with "Rómulo" outside his apartment house.

b) Contact with "Rómulo": LIRING/3 told Rowton that he again saw Rómulo, the FAR liaison, outside his apartment house at about 1610 on 24 December, as prearranged. In view of what had transpired a ~~few~~ short time earlier that afternoon, he told Rómulo about the comments made by Carlos López. Rómulo, according to L/3, did not indicate that he knew López at all, but agreed with L/3 that the accusations of Perzabal must be met head-on. He suggested the following course of action: L/3 should wait for the reply from Marta (mother of León Barrios brothers) as to the exact charges made by Perzabal before taking up the matter with the Chief LIRING. HE tended to agree with L/3 that the LIRING establishment might have inspired Perzabal's letter, but felt it would be better if L/3 had a statement from Marta before accusing the PBRUMENers of bad faith with him. Rómulo added that in the meantime he would try to arrange a confrontation with Perzabal in the presence of three "important FAR officials in Mexico", including a certain "Julio" also known as "Buda". Rómulo felt that Buda could lure Perzabal to a private meeting sinne the latter ~~has~~ already had interviewed him some time ago and would be anxious to see him again. This would provide a good pretext for a confrontation between Perzabal and LIRING/3 to clear up the whole matter.

C) Proposed Meeting with LIRING Chief: LIRING/3 told Rowton that he felt it essential to see the LIRING Chief on the morning of 27 Dec even if he does not receive a reply from Marta by that time. He explained that he felt he could get some sort of statement from the LIRING Chief, either affirming or denying his knowledge of the Perzabal letter so that he could use this in a possible meeting with the latter in the presence of Rómulo and his colleagues. He said that he felt this important in view of a possible invitation to PBRUMEN that he might receive momentarily.

5. Information/Guidance Given to Agent: Rowton cautioned L/3 against jumping the gun in accusing the LIRINGs of inspiring the Perzabal letter, pointing out that it could just as easily and logically have come from such Guatemalan exiles as Navarette,Capuano,or even persons of the César Montes group,who are expected to be close to the LIRINGs and the CPM as well as possibly the PTG.

Subject: LIRING/3 Identification of "Rómulo" Reported FAR Lisaison.

1. At 1100 on 28 December, 1968, LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at the Camino Real restaurant that he had again met briefly with "Rómulo" in front of his (L/3's) apartment house about 1600 on 27/12/68. On this occasion "Rómulo" identified himself as Mario Mendez and promised to give LIRING/3 a telephone at which he could be contacted in the future.

2. With regard to the Perzabal accusations, "Rómulo" again cautioned LIRING/3 against jumping the gun with the Chief of LIRING (i.e. accusing him of having inspired the charges), since if the LIRING Chief called his bluff, L/3 would have no proof. "Rómulo" recommended that L/3 wait until he received a reply from Marta giving details of the accusations before proceeding further. He added that at that time he and his colleagues would gladly confront Persabal and clear up the matter.

3. LIRING/3 described "Rómulo" as a Guatemalan of about 28 years of age, 5'6", 125 lbs, sraight black thinning hair, small eyes, clipped moustache. L/3 added that "Rómulo" frequently squints his eyes, either from a nervous habit, or some physical defect. LIRING/3 drew Rowton a rough sketch of "Rómulo" as he recalled him from the three brief meetings he has had with him to date.

4. LIRING/3 also gave Rowton the original of the letter from Marta postmarked 18 December, 1968, in which mention was made of the Perzabal charges. L/3 reminded Rowton that Perzabal is referred to in the letter as "el hombre de la bicicleta", and that the León Barrios brothers (sons of Marta) as "los patojos."

5. LIRING/3 also gave Rowton the original letter of Oscar Moisés Roldán Espinoza dated 27 November, 1968, which LIRING/3 had received on 1 Decemner, 1968. The envelope bears the same return address as that of 7 November, 1968. Roldán encloses the negative of a snapshot of himself as a "recuerdo." The letter contains general greetings and a plea for whatever help L/3 can manage to give Roldán.

6. LIRING/3 asked Rowton's approval to send 500 pesos to Marta (via her sister) to encourage her to continue writing him and keeping him informed of what develops, especially if and when her sons are released. Rowton agreed but stressed that L/3 should explain that he had managed to have this extra money as a result of his recent exposition and to regret that he could not send more.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Meeting with FAR Members in Mexico City.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at the Robin Restaurant at 1700 on 30/12/68 that when he returned to his apartment at about 1200 on 28/12/68 he found Mario Mendez (aka "Rómulo") waiting in the company of another FAR member, whom L/3 described as "very fat" aged about 28 with a dropping moustache. L/3 told Rowton that since he did not wish to involve his wife in conversation with these persons, invited them outside to a nearby restaurant.

2. According to LIRING/3 Mario Mendez and his friend told him that FAR had decided finally to withdraw all its forces from the cities and to regroup in the mountains, in view of the increasing "repression" and the virtual impossibility of effective action in the urban areas of Guatemala. They stated that they and a number of their comrades in Mexico were planning to return to Guatemala and join the FAR forces in the mountains. They then invited LIRING/3 to accompany them on their return trip, feeling that in that way he could contribute more to the struggle. In reply to L/3's queries they did not specify how L/3 was to survive another trip and in fact be of any use to them in the mountains. They simply said that they felt it would be useful to give wide publicity to L/3's presence in the mountains, once he reached that area. L/3 told Rowton that he reacted to this somewhat startling proposal in as logical a way as possible, saying that he would have it give it careful thought, inasmuch as it raised a number of very serious problems with him and his family. Mario Mendez and his friend concluded with a rousing cheer for the "real revolutionaries" who put aside all thoughts of personal safety and comfort and rush into the battle. When L/3 pointed out that they themselves after all had withdrawn from the action they replied that precisely for that reason they intended to return and do their share for the cause.

3. LIRING/3 also reported that he and his wife spent the 29th of December with Orlando Suarez in Cuernavaca and had lunch with him and Jorge Godoy. Suarez remarked privately to L/3 that he had visited the LIRING offices on 24-25 December and was "not pleased" with comments he had heard concerning LIRING/3. He recommended that L/3 see the Chief LIRING"as soon as possible" to put the record straight concerning the circumstances surrounding his arrest and especially his subsequent release. Suarez intimated that the Chief LIRING apparently favored the version given by Perzabal, with whose in-laws he was on very close personal terms. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he planned to try again to meet privately with the Chief LIRING on the morning of 31 December,1968.

4. In reply to Rowton's questions concerning the identity of the following names that appear in the letters to him from Marta Barrios de León, LIRING/3 made the following clarifications:

1) "Los cabchitos" and "Los patojos" refer to Juan and Miguel León Barrios.
2) "Elsa" is the true name of the eldest León Barrios sister (apparent age 25).
3) "La negra" is a León Barrios sister aged about 14.
4) "La chiquita" is a six-year-old sister of the León Barrios brothers.
5) "Felissa" is the novia of Juán José León Barrios.
6) "Yuri" is a child, probably of Maria Elena, who is a close friend and possibly relative of the León Barrios family.
7) "La gordita" and "Cari" whose identity L/3 never learned are both active members of FAR who frequently visited the León Barrios brothers and acted as FAR couriers.

5. LIRING/3 told Rowton that as regards the proposed revisit to Guatemala, he was prepared to discuss this with Rowton and would be willing to undertake the hazardous mission, "if there were no other alternative", but that in any case careful plans would have to be worked out especially with regard to commuuications, if Rowton hoped to profit by L/3's renewed involvement with FAR in Guatemala.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Meeting at FAR Safehouse.

1. At 2100 on 1/1/69 at the Robin Restaurant LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he went, as requested by "Rómulo", to Calle Coahuila 221 (across from Woolworths near the corner of Insurgentes Sur) and found "Rómulo" in apartment 12 in the company of two other persons, previously unknown to LIRING/3. Both appeared younger than "Rómulo" and one could easily be his brother because of the physical resemblance. The other, apparent age 25, light skinned,who was introduced simply as an Ecuadorian, had a good Guatemalan accent, and revealed in his remarks an excellent knowledge of Guatemala. The Ecuadorian, who had the most pleasant personality of the three, remarked during the conversation that he had been imprisoned in the old penitentiary in Guatemala City and subsequently "thrown" over the border to Salvador.

2. LIRING/3 told Rowton that the small apartment contained nothing that he could see but a table and several chairs and was obviously a safehouse rather than a residence. "Rómulo" later confirmed this when he told L/3 that they would have to meet there in the future only by appointment since they did not live there but came only from time to time to talk. As a result, LIRING/3 made a date with them for 1600 on Friday, 3/1/69, at which time he, L/3, would come to the apartment. "Rómulo" promised to wait for him at the entrance to the apartment building so that L/3 would not have to ring the bell and wait outside the door unnecessarily.

3. During the friendly discussion that ensued in the apartment,L/3 took the line previously agreed on with Rowton with apparent success. The young Ecuadorian showed his approval by nodding his head several times, when L/3 outlines his reasons for not accepting at once the proposal to return to Guatemala. "Romulo" was less sympathetic, and when L/3 stated that he felt it necessary in any case to travel first to PBRUMEN to get his wife settled "Rómulo" shrugged his shoulders,remarking, "But can't she get by herself." L/3 then offerred to be of any service while in PBRUMEN, but did not receive any positive reaction. "Rómulo" responded simply with a "Yes, we'll see." L/3 made sure to drop the statement that he was planning as a matter of fact to see LIRING/9 the following morning to talk about the trip which L/9 himself had already volunteered to arrange.

4. When the subject of Ferzabal's calumnies against L/3 came up toward the end of the conversation, "Rómulo" told L/3:"Don't worry about that any more. A guatemalan, whom you don't know, will take care of that matter 'de una vez' L/3 told Rowton he felt this remark was too full of foreboding for him to ask for details. He agreed to come again to the apartment at 1600 on 3/1/69.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Address of Mario Mendez,aka "Rómulo".

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1000 on 1/1/69 at the Robin Restaurant that he had not succeeded in seeing the Chief LIRING as he had hoped the previous morning since the latter did not appear at his office by 1000, when LIRING/3 had to leave to make the contact with "Rómulo" at his apartment. LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that when he arrived at his apartment about 1015 he found a note from "Rómulo" asking him to come to the following address ~~at~~ between 1130-1200 the following day (1 January,1969):

Calle Coahuila 221.

2. Rowton therefore made another date with LIRING/3 for that same evening at 2100 at the Robin Restaurant in order to get L/3's report of this meeting. Rowton showed LIRING/3 the two pictures passed to him by the Station of persons suspected of being "Rómulo" and the fat colleague. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he could see no resemblance to either person, but he felt that the photo of the stout person corresponded to the description of the "Pavel" he was supposed to meet. He recalled that at the time the León Barrios brothers told him they would arrange for "Pavel" to contact him in Mexico City upon his return, they showed him a rather poor reproduction of a picture of Pavel that had appeared in the local press following a gunfight that Pavel had had on the border while crossing into Mexico.

3. Rowton then expressed to LIRING/3 his grave reservations concerning ~~any~~ the proposed travel of L/3 to Guatemala in the company of his new FAR friends. Rowton pointed out that such a trip would be extremely risky for L/3 personally with little hope of any worthwhile production for Rowton. LIRING/3 agreed and said that he felt he would have to continue to stall, even at the risk of alienating the affections and confidence of his new contacts. Rowton suggested that L/3 tell them that before he could possibly consider such a return trip he would have to visit PBRUMEN with his wife and child to get them settled there so that they would not again be exposed to the difficulties they suffered during his last trip - financial as well as psychological. This would give L/3 at least another month before he would be faced with the trip. Rowton added that L/3 should offer to do "everything possible" in Mexico for his friends, reviewing for them his knowledge and experience of the border areas, his service in the navy as well as his reasonably good knowledge of photography.

4. Rowton then stressed that L/3 should assume that everything,at least in summary form, that he discussed with the FAR officials he was in contact with would directly or indirectly be reported to the LIRING office,and that hence he should "play it straight" with both sides.

8 January,1969

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Allegation of WOFIRM Affiliation.

1. At 1000 on 7 January,1969, at the restaurant of the Casino Real Hotel LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had just received three letters from Marta Barrios de León, the mother of the León Barrios brothers (Miguel and Juán) whom he had originally met during his confinement in Guatemala City. He gave the original letters, Rowton's translation of which is attached, to Rowton to copy and study. LIRING/3 appeared genuinely shaken at the revlation in the second paragraph of the letter,dated 29/12/68, that the "man on the bicycle" (Carlos Perzabal) had written in his letter to Marta that LIRING/3 was "working for another company (WOFIRM) and that Marta should not confide in anything LIRING/3 might write to her." LIRING/3 told Rowton that he had suspected that Perzabal had accused him of perhaps causing the arrest, but he never dreamed that Perzabal would go so far as to accuse him outright of being a WOFIRM agent.

2. LIRING/3 then speculated that Perzabal could not have done such a serious thing of his own initiative, but must necessarily have been inspired by some outside source, most probably the LIRING establishment. He continued that he therefore felt it more necessary than ever to put the LIRING Chief "up against the wall" and force him to admit his complicity. LIRING/3 added that he had seen "Rómulo" on 3 January as planned and had told him about the letter from Marta and Perzabal's treachery. According to LIRING/3 "Rómulo" became indignant and volunteered to accompany LIRING/3 to the LIRING establishment to have the whole thing out once and for all. LIRING/3 appeared so disturbed at the unexpected news that Rowton found it impossible to check with him on the exact time and place he allegedly met "Rómulo" on Friday, 3/1/69. When Rowton stated that he felt it very important to identify "Rómulo" positively (Rowton alleged that he had access to the Gobernación "mug file" of persons wanted by the Guatemalan Government and given to the Mexicans for identification), LIRING/3 volunteered to arrange to meet "Rómulo" somewhere in public as soon as possible so that Rowton could get a good look at him (as he had previously done in the case of "Garcia").

3. Rowton advised LIRING/3 not under any circumstances to attempt to lure "Rómulo" to any public place, especially since the latter had established a pattern of meeting with him in a safehouse, but simply to tell Rowton the next time he was invited to visit the safehouse and Rowton would cover the place from as convenient a spot as possible (e.g. Woolworth's across the street). Rowton also encouraged LIRING/3 to talk again with LIRING/9 rahher than the Chief LIRING IN THE hope of more production.

Reference : HMMA-36114, 27 December 1968

1. Forwarded herewith as attachment #1 are eight reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the latest developments of the LIRING-3 operation. The most important of these are reviewed below.

a. "Romulo," who later described himself as Mario *MENDEZ, appeared on the scene as the liaison man between LIRING-3 and the Guatemalan FAR. Humberto *GONZALEZ Vega, whom MENDEZ called "El Gato," apparently made initial contact with LIRING-3 on his own initiative. MENDEZ said that "El Gato" was a "good element" but emphasized that he (MENDEZ) would be the person LIRING-3 would deal with on FAR matters. A copy of the sketch of MENDEZ drawn by LIRING-3 was shown by the Station to LIREBEL-2. The latter, without any hesitation, identified it as Javier *CONTRERAS, leading FAR representative in Mexico and a suspected PBRUMEN contact. The Station had the LIEMBRACE team cover the entrance of the building where MENDEZ and other FAR members have an apartment they use for clandestine meetings with LIRING-3. Despite the fact that the team knows LIRING-3 from previous surveillance and that a copy of LIRING-3's sketch of MENDEZ was also provided, the LIEMBRACEs spotted neither man. The Station naturally plans to cover another meeting and is also exploring the possibility of determining who rented the apartment and from whom. It is of some interest to note that MENDEZ, although he gave LIRING-3 the agreed upon recognition signal, may still not be the "Pavel" LIRING-3 was told he would meet. LIRING-3 was shown a photograph of Oscar Arturo *PEREZ Ramirez (known to have serviced a letter drop in Mexico City used by Michelle Jeannette FIRK before her death in Guatemala). LIRING-3 thought it looked like a poor print of a photograph of "Pavel" shown to him while still incarcerated.

b. LIRING-3 is apparently still suspicious in the eyes of the PBRUMENers. He has received several letters (see paragraph 2) from members of the FAR in Guatemala warning him that adverse rumors (some of them calling him a KOPIRM agent) have been circulated in that country by Carlos PERZABAL Marcue. Knowing that PERZABAL's father-in-law is a close friend of Chief, LIRING, LIRING-3 sourced the rumors to the LIRING headman. He first took up the matter of the accusations made against him with LIRING-9. The latter said there was nothing to this, but, and there was a but, LIRING-9 reminded LIRING-3 that in the past he had been connected "with a person of mysterious and suspicious affiliations," a clear reference to ROWTON, LIRING-3's Greek friend. When LIRING-3 insisted he wanted to discuss the matter of the allegations made against him directly with Chief, LIRING, LIRING-9 promised to make an appointment for him. This appointment, however, never materialized. That Chief, LIRING may have spread the allegations made against LIRING-3 by PERZABAL was confirmed by Rolando *SUAREZ (see ROWTON's report dated 31 December). LIRING-3 also took up the matter of the PERZABAL denunciations with MENDEZ, who told him that the FAR had paid no attention to them and even accompanied LIRING-3 to PERZABAL's house. LIRING-3, however, made the mistake of giving his name when asked who was calling. The result, as could be expected, was that PERZABAL was "not in." MENDEZ agreed to accompany LIRING-3 to LIRING to talk to its Chief, but he warned LIRING-3 not to make accusations without proof. MENDEZ, incidentally, does not appear to be pro-PBRUMEN. This is interesting in view of the fact that CONTRERAS, with whom he may be identical, is a suspected contact of the PBRUMENers.

c. So far, it does not seem that the FAR has been greatly disturbed by the accusations made against LIRING-3. In fact, MENDEZ and the two other FAR members LIRING-3 met on 1 January have urged LIRING-3 to join them in the hills of Guatemala, where guerrilla warfare, they said, will soon be intensified. They did not hide that their purpose was to broadcast LIRING-3's name and the fact that a Mexican had joined their fight. This was apparently to appeal to the Mexican left and gain their support. While LIRING-3 has declared himself ready to go back to Guatemala (if this was what BOWTON wanted him to do), he did not need BOWTON to decide that broadcasting his name from the jungles of Guatemala was not a thing he wanted anyone to do. At Station directive, LIRING-3 pointed out that after his recent imprisonment he had to take care of his wife before doing any more for the cause. The best way to do this was to take LIRING-4 to PERUMEN and leave her with relatives. This led LIRING-3 to ask what, if anything, he could do for the FAR in Mexico. So far, however, his FAR friends have not risen to the bait.

2. Forwarded under separate cover as attachment #2 are the following documents:

a. A copy of a letter from Oscar Moises *BOLDAN Espinosa.

b. A translation and a copy of a letter, dated December 1968, from Marta *BARRIOS.

c. Translations and copies of letters from Marta BARRIOS to LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 dated 29 December and from "Violeta" dated 17 November.

d. Copies of two letters and two postcards received by LIRING-3 from Rafael and Rigoberto *ARGUETA Alvarado dated 10 December (see BOWTON's report of 19 December).

e. A copy of the letter sent by LIRING-3 to Carlos *PERZABAL Marcue with copies for the Mexican and Spanish Communist Parties. This letter is dated 25 December.

f. A copy of an article written by LIRING-3 and published in a Mexican magazine. The date, number, and name of the magazine are marked on the copy.

g. A copy of the note written by Jacobo *RODRIGUEZ Padilla (a longtime member of the Guatemalan Communist Party living in Mexico) introducing Carlos *LOPEZ (who was an important FAR leader in Guatemala until he came to Mexico in late 1968).

h. A copy of an article which appeared in a Chiapas newspaper announcing LIRING-3's release.

Postmarked 18 December, 1968, Guatemala.

Guatemala, December, 1968.

Dear Carlos:

Excuse me for not having replied to yours of 12 November until today, but the affairs of the "patojos" keep me on the go and besides I have been sick and upset and I keep forgetting everything. That's the reason I haven't put a date on this letter; you won't believe it but I write two letters that never got off, but it's true. We hope that you are as well as ever with your family.

I have to tell you that the "hombre de la bicicleta" wrote me last week and that I am a little peeved at him because he speaks ill of you. You should move cautiously, but don't think that it's a problem with us - we don't believe it. We feel that it's from fear. I lost his address and for that reason don't intend to write to him.

"El vigotudo" sends you regards; la negra a warm embrace; la chiquita a kiss; Elsa.FelisaCari,Maria Elena,Guri and the "patojos" many regards and embraces for the Chirstmas holidays. The "patojos" are still in the "pina" so they couldn't come. We'll see whether they can be with us the 24th; if not we'll have to go there to be with them. In any case I'll let you know when they come here.

So long with many best wishes and congratulations to you and your wife and children. Excuse the long and boring letter.

So long Carlos,

Gautemala, 29 December, 1968.

Carlos,

I'm writing this after returning from the farm where I had a chat with "los canches"; your three mmm letters came the same day, as well as the postcard which is very attractive. Thanks for all your trouble. In yours of the 20th you ask me to send a letter to the "E.C." but I don't understand where you mean, and to whom, since I don't recognize those initials. Please explain to me clearly what you mean so that I can comply.

As to the letter from the "man on the bicycle", I mislaid it since I didn't like what it said, but if I can locate it I'll send it to you, as the "patojos" told me to from the beginning, so that you can have an exact account of it. I, however, thought the weight they gave to it exaggerated. In any case he wrote to tell me that you were working for another company (CIA) and for that reason I shouldn't confide in anything that you might write to me. But I'm very sincere in that respect and for that reason I got very angry. Consider this, that when you both were here, the mother of that person was very nice to me, lavishing flattery and gifts on me, for which I am sincerely grateful and do not forget, but his action doesn't seem (honest) to me. We all have to be loyal and faithful to our convictions and not be shameless with respect to our comrades; we have to be responsible in all our actions.
I haven't been able to write until today since I'm running around town arranging things. All this must be boring to you. Receive greetings from Miguel, chiquita, negra, Maria, Felisa, my grandson, Elsita, Gorditaand Cari. Also my own "abrazos" and good wishes.

/s/ Marta

Carlos: Lesbia ("La Negrita") sends you fond remembrances. Excuse the red pen and the bad handwriting. Imagine! you fooled all of us since we thought you had made the Christmas card yourself -since you paint so well, but you'r not going to believe that. I'm writing you just a few lines because mamá didn't leave me much space. Greetings to your wife and children, even though I haven't had the pleasure of meeting them. So long,

/s/ Lesbia

Guatemala, 29 December, 1965

Dear Chichai,

This letter is to send you greetings in the hope that you are well together with your husband and children.
I was happy to learn that the person who wrote to me was you; it was quite a practical joke when I found out that it was really Carlos who was writing. Tell him that the letter he sent with the clippings has not yet been received.
Many "abrazos" and endearments from your friend

Carlos: I'm writing simply to send you my best wishes for a prosperous and happy new year. /s/ Elsa.

Guatemala. 17/11/62

Carlos,

I send you my best, wishing that you and your family are well. Everything here is the same as when you were with us. We learned that your trip was good in all respects.
You can settle with the "Chino" the accounts you left here. He's going to send you two postcards that are very interesting. I trust you'll appreciate how difficult it was for us to find them among so many attractive cards we have here.
You can write to Doña Luisa. Greetings and "hasta pronto."

Carlos: al escribir esta le hice al regreso de la finca despues de platicar, con los cuaches, tus cartas vinieron el mismo dia las tres y la tarjeta que esta muy linda muchas gracias por todas tus finezas. En la que viene con fecha 20 me mandas a decir que le envie una carta o la E C. pero no te entiendo a donde es o a quien, pues no conosco esas iniciales, hasme el favor de explicarme bien con eso cumplo con lo que me pides. La carta del hombre de la bicicleta creo me desagrado tanto la extravié pero si la encuentro te la mando pues los patojos me lo dijeron desde un principio para que tu te dieras cuenta exacta de ella pero yo creí muy exagerada la medida. El me mandó a decir que estabas trabajando en otra compañia (CIA) por lo tanto no me confiara en lo que tu me mandabas a contar. pero yo soy muy sincera a ese respecto y por lo mismo me enojé mucho. Toma en cuenta que cuando Ndo estuvie aquí. la mamá de él se portó muy bién con migo. pues me llenó de alagos y regalos lo cual agradezco de todo corazón y no lo olvido pero la acción de él no me parece que nosotros debemos de ser leales fieles a nuestras convicciones y no ser sinverguenzas con nuestros compañeros, para ser responsables con todos nuestros actos. [illegible]

Sr. director:

En el No. 805 correspondiente al 27 de noviembre del presente año, fue publicada en su estimable revista una carta mía sobre la "granja penal Pavón" en Guatemala, lugar donde estuve confinado por unos meses. En el No. 808 del 18 de diciembre, la señorita Gloria Menéndez Mina, agregada de Prensa —me imagino que de la embajada de Guatemala en México— responde a ella.

Considerando que su respuesta no se apega a la realidad, pues lógicamente un funcionario como la señorita Menéndez no puede hacer otra cosa que elogiar el régimen del cual depende, me permito hacer algunas aclaraciones que por cierto ella me pide en su carta. Por lo tanto ruego a usted de la manera más atenta se sirva dar a la publicación las siguientes líneas:

Srita. Gloria Menéndez Mina
Agregada de Prensa de Guatemala.

Evidentemente que nadie que sufra prisión saldrá de ella hablando maravillas, pero de esto a falsear la realidad hay una gran diferencia. Quiero aclararle que no fui a Guatemala en plan de reformador como usted dice. Los motivos de mi detención son ya plenamente conocidos y no voy a repetirlos ahora. Sólo debe usted saber que fui ABSUELTO de los delitos que se me imputaban. ABSUELTO quiere decir libre de cargos y dicha absolución me concedió libertad inmediata; es decir, que no se encontraron pruebas del falso delito del que la policía me acusó. Por lo tanto el adjetivo de "reformador" no me corresponde.

Sostengo que la "granja penal Pavón" es un campo de concentración y que no reúne ni una sola de las condiciones de una prisión común y corriente. Lo que escribí sobre ella es real y no exageré en nada. Usted dice que la "granja" sustituye a la antigua Penitenciaría que fue demolida. Eso es cierto, pero sí se llegó improvisadamente a su establecimiento. Probablemente los planos de sus constructores así como la opinión de los penalistas que menciona, contemplaban el establecimiento de granjas penitenciarias auténticas pero si es que tuvieron esa idea no la hicieron realidad.

En esa "granja" no existe ninguna ventaja sobre la vieja penitenciaría. Las condiciones de vida son infrahumanas y, como dije antes, sostengo lo escrito en mi anterior carta. Le propongo que el gobierno de su país permita la visita de periodistas y fotógrafos extranjeros (en ningún otro país se opondrían a que visitaran sus centros de reclusión) así como de la Cruz Roja Internacional, para que sean ellos quienes opinen y den a conocer al mundo la realidad de lo que llaman "Granja Penal".

Es una lástima que la revista SIEMPRE! no circule libremente en Guatemala. De ser así con toda seguridad que mucha gente de su país le haría sus aclaraciones sobre que esta "granja" es una prisión modelo.

Usted me pide que concrete nombres y fechas de personas secuestradas y asesinadas en la carretera de la "granja". Por ahora le daré dos: El 6 de abril de 1968 fueron secuestrados y asesinados por la policía los señores René Orellana e Ignacio Rolando Cruz. Nunca dije que en Guatemala no hay presos políticos; existen unos 100 aproximadamente en todas las prisiones del país. Son en cambio más de 4,000 los asesinados por el actual régimen. Sobre estas muertes y la violencia que priva hoy hay suficiente información y le [illegible] información a la Comisión por los Derechos Humanos de la ONU, donde existen numerosas quejas y datos muy concretos.

Sobre que "personajes como yo" son los que ponen en entredicho la buena amistad y las relaciones entre pueblos y gobiernos, yo creo que exagera. Salí absuelto y no soy "un redentor" ni un "sacrificado" como usted me nombra. El fallo de las leyes de su país confirma esto.

Atentamente:

Carlos Jurado.

VIET-NAM

SAIGON, 21 de octubre. —Los Estados Unidos devolvieron hoy a 14 soldados de las fuerzas de liberación. Expresaron la esperanza que la acción conduzca a poner en libertad más prisioneros. Los liberados fueron conducidos a tierra en pequeñas embarcaciones, mientras se suspendían en ambos lados las acciones militares.

PELIGRO DE GUERRA

BELGRADO, 21 de octubre.—El peligro de una nueva guerra mundial está muy cerca y no se excluye la posibilidad de que las grandes potencias empleen armas atómicas, dijo hoy el presidente Josif Tito hablando hoy en dos pueblos sudorientales servios durante una gira especial.

Carlos Jurado fué absuelto

En un cable procedente de Guatemala, la AFP informa que la Corte de Apelaciones de la República vecina, declaró absueltos por falta de pruebas a los profesores mexicanos. Carlos Jurado y Carlos Manuel Perzábal, quienes se encontraban presos en un campo de concentración guatemalteco desde el pasado 14 de abril, supuestamente acusados de actividades conectadas con el movimiento guerrillero.

La noticia alegrará sin duda los círculos intelectuales de nuestro Estado, ya que Carlos Jurado es un chiapaneco distinguido que a través de su gran calidad artística como pintor y grabador, ha hecho grandes aportaciones a la cultura nacional. Como ciudadano el pintor Carlos Jurado ha desempeñado con verdadera pasión difíciles tareas en el Instituto Nacional Indigenista, en varios de sus centros. En el de San Cristóbal fue fundador, junto con Rosario Castellanos y Marco Antonio Montero, del extraordinario teatro guiñol "PETUL", que en lengua tzeltal desarrollara una gran labor entre la población indígena de los altos de Chiapas.

La injusta encarcelación de los profesores Jurado y Perzábal (este último profesor de la Facultad de Economía de la UNAM) movilizó a amplios grupos de intelectuales [illegible] a través de la Secretaría de Relaciones Exteriores de nuestro país, exigió al Gobierno de Guatemala respeto a la vida de ambas personalidades y demandaron un juicio apegado a la Ley. Entre las numerosas peticiones en este sentido se destacó la hecha por el Colegio de Abogados de Tuxtla Gutiérrez.

Ambos detenidos estaban acusados por supuestos actos de "propaganda subversiva", realizados el día 17 de abril: es decir tres días después de haber caído presos cuando se dirigían, en un viaje turístico a la República de El Salvador.

El cable de la AFP infor forma que ambos profesores fueron trasladados desde la cárcel hacia el aeropuerto, donde abordaron un avión [illegible]

LA SITUACION EN PANAMA

PANAMA, 21 de octubre.— El llamamiento para una huelga general por 72 horas hecha por la Federación Estudiantil de Panamá, en protesta por el reciente golpe de estado militar, tuvo poco éxito hoy. Informes procedentes de la ciudad nos dicen que se verificaron aislados incidentes de violencia.

Algunos comercios permanecieron cerrados y el tránsito pareció más rápido que el usual.

Salieron de Checoslovaquia

BUDAPEST, 21 de octubre.—Las primeras unidades militares húngaras que abandonaron checoslovaquia llegaron hoy a este país, cruzando la frontera por tres puntos. Este es el primer contingente militar que parte de tierras checas, después de ser ratificado el tratado checo-soviético, respecto a la permanencia o retiro de las tropas del pacto de Varsovia.

EL APOLO VII CUMPLIO SU PROGRAMA

CABO KENNEDY, 21 de octubre.— Los astronautas del Apolo—VII hicieron hoy su última trasmisión por televisión a la tierra y mantuvieron la nave en una órbita menor, para iniciar el descenso a la tierra el día de mañana en el Atlántico Occidental.

Minutos después de la trasmisión apareció en las pantallas de los televisores el Director del vuelo, quien expresó que la misión del apolo VII había conseguido todo lo que se había propuesto, la inyección del motor principal del Apolo, situándolo en una órbita más baja, colocándolo en la posición propia para la misión cumplida

SUBJECT

Activities Against PBRUMEN Targets in October and November 1968

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: See paragraph 13.

Reference : HMMA-35591, 10 October 1968

1. Personnel: There were no changes in personnel in the PBRUMEN Section of the Station during October and November. Wallace B. ROWTON returned from his TDY on 15 October. Leslie I. HENDRIQUE was at the Station TDY 26 through 30 November in connection with the LISAGA case. Henry J. SLOMAN was at the Station TDY on 8 November to debrief AMSTRUT-16. Leonard S. TORMET visited the Station during the last week of November in connection with the LIRING-3 case.

2. Operations in PBRUMEN and Against Visiting PBRUMEN Officials:

A. LIAGILE-1: LIAGILE-1 came to Mexico on 19 October and returned to PBRUMEN on 1 November, but he did not contact the Station. (See MEXICO CITY-7974.)

B. LICARD-1: LICARD-1 returned from his TDY to Madrid in October. His mission was unsuccessful. The Madrid Station provided detailed reports on this operation.

C. LISAGA-1: LISAGA-1 returned to Mexico on 25 November 1968. He remained in Mexico to receive special training and to undergo debriefing by a Headquarters TDYer until 9 December, when he returned to PBRUMEN.

D. Subject of MEXICO CITY-6266: LIADLIB-1 finished his debriefing of Subject during this period. (See HMMA-35618)

E. HAGLIDER-1: HAGLIDER-1 did not return to Mexico during this period.

F. YJWAIT-2: YJWAIT-2 did not return to Mexico during this period.

G. Subject of MEXICO CITY-7595: Subject defected to the Mexicans during the Olympics. The Station arranged for a press conference through LITAMIL-3. LITAMIL-3's debriefing revealed that Subject did not have any intelligence of value. (See also MEXICO CITY-7621.)

H. AMWILLOW-1: AMWILLOW-1 arrived in Mexico on 22 November and returned to PBRUMEN on 2 December. FRADYER could not meet him as he was at Headquarters on TDY. (See MEXICO CITY-8215 and -8335.)

[illegible]

3. Active Leads to Prospects in PBRUMEN:

A. Subject of MEXICO CITY-5442: LICOMET-2 received a call from Subject on 24 November asking him to take care of two friends who were visiting Mexico from PBRUMEN. During the same call, Subject indicated he would be coming to Mexico City soon on vacation and would notify LICOMET-2 of the exact date and details.

B. AMICARUS-1: After enlisting the cooperation of AMICARUS-3 in Veracruz, the Station is awaiting the arrival of AMICARUS-1, scheduled to transit Mexico City from PBRUMEN, to re-establish contact between the two and have AMICARUS-3 develop AMICARUS-1. (See MEXICO CITY-8136, et cetera.)

C. AMCAJOLE-2: Per MEXICO CITY-7451 and -7453, AMCAJOLE-1 was scheduled to visit Mexico from PBRUMEN. However, his father at the last minute reportedly "blocked" his departure. (See also MEXICO CITY-7574 and -7622.)

D. LIALMANAC-1: LIALMANAC-1 told ROWTON on 23 November that he is a close, long-time friend of the Subject of HMMA-36016. He says now he believes he can develop a close relationship with QUMOON, Mexico City.

E. Subject of MEXICO CITY-7946: The Station is cooperating with LNERGO in preparing for the arrival of Subject's son in Mexico. The Station has assisted in getting a Mexican visa for the son. The son arrived in Mexico on 2 December, but it has not yet been determined whether he is willing to be contacted and, hopefully, debriefed.

4. Legal Travelers to PBRUMEN:

A. LIRING-4: According to LIRING-3, LIRING-4 is in no condition to accept any assignment or instructions for a trip to PBRUMEN. There is, however, some possibility that LIRING-3 may go to PBRUMEN on a "cultural" mission, at which time he will report directly to PBRUMEN officials on his activities in Guatemala. LIRING-9 has reiterated that he wants both LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 to go. but has not suggested dates for this travel. (See MEXICO CITY-8159 and -8228.)

B. LIRENO-2: LIRENO-2's papers are finally in order, and she has indicated that she is still willing to travel to PBRUMEN. However, the recent death of her mother, as well as the recent incarceration of her son (in a frame-up by his employer - see MEXICO CITY-8182), has brought her to a physical and psychological low. The Station is allowing her time to recuperate before raising the question again.

C. LIANKLE-1: LIANKLE-1 has not yet settled in Mexico City. There was no contact with her during this period.

D. LIARM-1: Per MEXICO CITY-7433, LIARM-1 was met during the Olympics, but did not have access to much information of value. (See MEXICO CITY-7563 and -7741.) In spite of the fact that he was in daily contact with PBRUMEN participants, some of whom spent considerable time with him, he came up with virtually nothing. The Station, at present, has no contact with LIARM-1, who has returned to the Monterrey area.

E. Subject of MEXICO CITY-5853 (News contact of LITAMIL-3): Subject has been reapproached about making a trip to PBRUMEN now that the Olympics are over. He has indicated his willingness to make such a trip now. LITAMIL-3 is arranging a meeting between Subject and a Station Case Officer.

F. LIRENO-8: On 17 October LIRENO-8 was instructed to actively arrange for a trip to PBRUMEN, and, if he goes, to see about taking some courses in that country. (See MEXICO CITY-7738 and HMMA-35593.) In the meantime, he has become completely integrated into the PBRUMEN Consulate and cultural institute in his town. In this capacity he will be in a position to report on PBRUMEN activities in that area.

G. Subject of HMMA-35516: The Station is still planning to have ROWTON explore the feasibility of approaching Subject and using him as an eventual source in PERUMEN, where, by the nature of his function, he still maintains contacts. (See HMMA-35516.)

H. AMSTRUT-16: Subject traveled to PERUMEN on 18 October 1968 and returned on 1 November. On her return to Mexico she was debriefed by Henry J. SLOMAN, who came to Mexico on TDY for this purpose. The results of this debriefing were received in UFAA-355.

I. Subject of MEXICO CITY-8319: LITAMIL-3 was contacted by Subject, who returned from PERUMEN on 2 December. Subject was debriefed by a Station Case Officer on the current status of the relationship between his organization and the PERUMEN Government, and on other requirements given him before his departure for PERUMEN. The most promising factor in this operation is the fact that four of his subordinates will be coming out for a conference in April 1969. Subject promised to give the Station access to any or all of these individuals.

5. Technical Penetration and Coverage of LIRING and the Residences of LIRING Personnel:

A. MKTRAP in Chief, LIRING's Residence: MEXICO CITY-7982 reported on the difficulties encountered in trying to have a LIRISK unit installed in the LIHACK-4 LP. The Station made its own LIRISK installation on 23 November. (See MEXICO CITY-8182.) All attempts to activate the MKTRAP have so far been unsuccessful. (See MEXICO CITY-8303.)

B. LISAMPAN: LISAMPAN coverage of BAKER continued. EASY was lost on 9 October as a result of a routine installation in the same building by the LIRISK company. Attempts to activate EASY from LISARI were unsuccessful. (See MEXICO CITY-7598 and -8232.)

C. LIENVOY: LIENVOY coverage has remained unchanged. The LIRING Commercial line still has not been reconnected.

D. LIFEAT: LIFEAT coverage of LIRING-21 was discontinued on 15 November for security reasons. The coverage was renewed on 6 December.

E. LIONION: LIONION-1 continued to perform his photographic and audio duties. His ability now to identify people by name by monitoring DOG is particularly useful.

F. LIROSIN: LIROSIN-1 was kept on full salary during the period. In late November he was given the assignment of renting a new LP which was spotted by LITAINT-2. He successfully rented this LP on 4 December, after LIRENO-1 laid the groundwork, and will move into it on 18 December 1968. This will be the base for an audio operation against LIRING-2, LIRING-9, and LIRING-13.

G. Trash Operation: The trash operation was not reactivated during this period.

H. Audio Against the Residences of LIRING-21 and LIRING-24: Via LIREALM-1 the Station located empty apartments in the same buildings where these two LIRING officers live. Attempts to rent at least one of these for an audio operation proved difficult in view of the need for a cosigner and finding suitable people to move in. LIROSIN-1 was going to attempt to make some arrangement when the LP described in subparagraph 5F turned up. The Station decided the latter was of higher priority and discontinued its efforts to rent the apartments next to LIRING-21 and LIRING-24.

6. Physical Penetration and Coverage of LIRING:

A. PBRUMEN Deputy in Merida: This target left PCS on 15 November 1968. (See MEXICO CITY-8148.)

B. LITAMIL-7: The Station had no contact with LITAMIL-7 during this period. She was, however, seen chatting with LIRING members on several occasions. She was not observed visiting LIRING.

C. Female Access Agent (Subject of MEXICO CITY-5988): No contact was established during this period.

D. LIRING-3/LIRING-4: On 29 October ROWTON met LIRING-3 after his release from jail. The results of the initial debriefing were cabled in MEXICO CITY-7900. LIRING-3 indicated that LIRING-4 was very nervous and upset, and that he wanted all his own activity and association with ROWTON to be kept from her. LIRING-3 has been meeting fairly frequently with LIRING-9, who has been debriefing him on his encarceration in Guatemala. (See MEXICO CITY-8159 and -8228.)

E. PBRUMEN Maids: The Station decided to mount an operation against the PBRUMEN maids, and selected LIEMBRACE-3 as a suitable access agent. (See MEXICO CITY-7861.) The Station is in the process of turning LIEMBRACE-3 over to LIREALM-1, who will be the outside Case Officer on this operation. (See also MEXICO CITY-8124.)

F. Chief, LIRING: The Station has corresponded with Headquarters about a false flag cold approach against Chief, LIRING. This still is in the exploratory stages. (See MEXICO CITY-8242.)

7. Harassment of LIRING: There were no new Huarache leaflets put out during this period.

8. LICOMET Debriefing Center: MEXICO CITY-8066 reported that the charitable sponsorship covering the overt activities of the debriefing center ended on 31 October 1968 and that the extra financial cover for the office space would end 30 November. Headquarters' assistance was requested in resolving this problem. (See also MEXICO CITY-8179 and -8287.) HMMA-35887 forwarded more detailed LICOMET-2 reports on the LICOMET cover problem.

9. QUMOON: There were no operations against QUMOON during this period. QUMOON's activity in Mexico remained normal.

10. Double Agents: LISASSY-1 returned from his European trip on 17 November and was recontacted by LIRING-9, who levied requirements on him as reported in MEXICO CITY-8339. LISASSY-1 continues to have difficulty satisfying LIRING-9 requests for information on the activities of the PBRUMEN community in Mexico City and Miami. The CI aspect of the LISASSY-1 operation was virtually at a standstill for two reasons: first, at one time or another, either LIRING-9 or LISASSY-1 was out of Mexico; and second, the Station has been unable to come up with information which LISASSY-1 could pass to LIRING-9. In this last respect, LISASSY-1 continues to be an excellent channel of WOFIRM-controlled information to the PBRUMEN Government via LIRING-9.

11. Operations Against PBRUMEN Subversive Activities in Latin America:

A. LIRING-3: See MEXICO CITY-7900 for RONTON's initial debriefing of LIRING-3 on conditions in Guatemala. MEXICO CITY-7945 reported that LIRING-3 received a letter from Guatemala which he interpreted as a check on a new commo channel between the Guatemalan rebels and him. LIRING-3 reported at length to LIRING-9 on his contacts with FAR members while in jail. At LIRING-3's suggestion, LIRING-9 may send LIRING-3 to PBRUMEN to make a personal report on this. (See MEXICO CITY-8159.) More detailed reports were forwarded in HMMA-35905. HMMA-35904 forwarded a report of LIRING-3's imprisonment in Guatemala.

B. Letter Drops: The PBRUMEN letter drops being covered by the Station only produced one interesting letter during this period. (See HMMA-35873.) The Station suggested that Headquarters follow up on the lead provided.

C. LIRING-7: LIRING-7 continued to see his Mexican leftist student "friends" during this period. (See HMMA-35823.) He also escorted a high-ranking member of the Orthodox Church during a visit to Mexico. One intelligence dissemination was made on the basis of information produced by LIRING-7 during this visit.

D. LIHACK-4: When he was in jail in mid-November, LIHACK-4 was approached by some Mexicans arrested in connection with the student disturbances. He was asked to take a walkie-type radio into jail for their commo, and was asked if he would be willing to assist them with his ham radio equipment for direct commo between the revolutionaries and PBRUMEN, since going through LIRING was not satisfactory. The Station is taking a wait-and-see attitude to see how this develops. (See MEXICO CITY-8213.)

E. Subject of HMMA-35872: Via LIFEAT, LIENTRAP, and the LIEMBRACEs, the Station identified a Mexican student contact of LIRING. Background information on this person, including photos, was passed to the LITEMPOs on 21 November 1968 with a suggestion that they arrest and interrogate the person. (See HMMA-35872 for details.)

12. Miscellaneous:

A. AMBOOK-3: AMBOOK-3 is employed by a local Mexican television station and apparently does not intend to return to PBRUMEN. The Station had no ops contact with AMBOOK-3 during the period of this report. He planned to travel to the United States to cover the Apollo/8 launching at Cape Kennedy in late December 1968, but this was not definite.

B. Travel Control Information: LIFIRE, LICOMET, and LITEMPO continued to provide this type of information.

C. PBRUMEN Fishing Fleet: There was no activity against this target. Several fishing boats, however, did seek shelter at Isla Mujeres, and on each occasion several crew members sought asylum. The LICOMETs were alerted each time to try to obtain debriefings of these men. (See MEXICO CITY-8039.)

D. MHVIPER: The LICOMETs continued to provide QUMOON cargo manifests, and LIRENO-1 provided crew and ship manifests. The manifests were pouched to JMCOBRA and Headquarters for processing. (See HMMA-35912.)

E. AMDESTINE-1: AMDESTINE-1 was terminated per Headquarters direction. See MEXICO CITY-7664, DIRECTOR-42579, and MEXICO CITY-7739.

F. AMDAUB-1: On 17 October AMDAUB-1 asked for assistance from LNPURE. (See MEXICO CITY-7709.) On 25 October he left Mexico for Miami, where he was met and handled by WH/Miami. (See JMCOBRA-1427.)

G. LIAMATOL-1: LIAMATOL-1 was met on 17 October 1968 and agreed to cooperate with the Case Officer by furnishing information on the activities of the PBRUMENers in the Veracruz area. LIAMATOL-1 requested that his main line of communication with the Station be through LIRENO-1 for security reasons. (See HMMA-35913 and -35917.)

H. Subject of MEXICO CITY-7515: The Station notified Headquarters of the arrival in Mexico of a person on the list of "40." The Station was asked to contact this Subject's brother to determine the present status of Subject. This was done, and the report submitted in MEXICO CITY-7754 indicated that he was content with his life in PBRUMEN and was not interested in contacts, even with his own brother, if there was to be pressure applied for him to remain outside PBRUMEN.

I. During a baseball game between PBRUMEN and the United States during November, the PBRUMEN players attacked several spectators. Through LITAMIL-3 the Station is trying to arrange to have one of those attacked sue a LIRING employee. (See MEXICO CITY-8044, -8048, -8078, and -8285.) However, the Station-cleared lawyer ran into difficulties with the Mexican Government. Court authorities who passed the lawyer a transcript of the original charges against the LIRING employee advised the lawyer he would be wasting his time on this case because orders from an unidentified high Mexican Government official indicated that the planned charges against the employee would not be accepted for trial.

12. AMSTET-1: AMSTET-1 sent a letter to the home of AMSTRUT-8, who in turn notified the Station to come and pick it up. The contents of the letter were forwarded to Headquarters in MEXICO CITY-8130. This is a Headquarters case in which the Station participates only as a letter drop via AMSTRUT-8.

13. As can be seen, all the above has been previously reported to Headquarters. In view of this, and the fact that the PBRUMEN Section, in addition, submits regular quarterly progress reports on its projects, it is felt that reporting on the Station's activities against the PBRUMEN target is adequate. Therefore, the Station once more suggests that formal PBRUMEN Section monthly or bimonthly reports be discontinued. Please advise.

1. Forwarded attached are the two last contact reports written by Wallace B. ROWTON on LIRING-3 before ROWTON's departure on TDY in late January 1969. These reports are dated 15 and 22 January. Also forwarded is another report by ROWTON, dated 28 November 1968, which the Station somehow failed to forward.

2. That LIRING has forwarded information to the Mexican Communist Party casting suspicion on LIRING-3's past activities did not come as a great shock. Heraclio ZEPEDA is known to the Station as a previous teacher at the University of Jalapa who said in 1960 that he would accept a teaching position in PBRUMEN, a country he has visited on several occasions at the invitation of its government. ZEPEDA also spent some time in 1965 in the U.S.S.R., where he was described as Foreign Correspondent of La Voz de Mexico, an official organ of the Mexican Communist Party (see HMMA-27727, 24 November 1965). ZEPEDA apparently also visited Communist China. He appears to be well acquainted with LIRING-9. In view of the above, the Station instructed ROWTON to ask LIRING-3 to refrain from attempting to use ZEPEDA to obtain a "bootleg" copy of the LIRING letter to the Mexican Communist Party. The Station feels a copy of this letter would add little to the known fact that LIRING-3 is a person that LIRING continues to view as "suspect." LIONHEART has been asked for up-to-date information on ZEPEDA's Party position. Any information passed by LIONHEART will be forwarded to Headquarters.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Meeting with LIRING/9.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 0915 on 27/11/68 that he had met with LIRING/9 at the LIRING establishment from about 1745 until 1900 on 26/11/68. He stated that he gave LIRING/9 his written report on his recent experiences in Guatemala and the conclusions he drew from talking with FAR members there. L/3 also stated that he did his best to assure L/9 that, although he sympathized with the laments of the León Barrios brothers, he was really on the PBRUMEN side and offered to do all he could to assist the LIRINGs in their attempts to assist the revolutionary forces. The following is Rowton's reconstruction of the conversation, based on LIRING/3's report:

L/3: "I'm sorry to be late, but I had to finish the report."

L/9: "Alright. I've been waiting here at the gate so there wouldn't be any further delay. Let's go to my office so we can talk privately."

Upon entering office, L/9 removes jacket and offers L/3 a seat in the office.

L/3: "Well, here's my report. I must apologize that it's in rough draft form. I had to write it rather hurriedly when my wife was not around. It's really just a series of badly organized thoughts and ideas but I'll be glad to explain. There's a great deal more, of course, that I could explain on the subject. Do you wish me to read it?"

L/9: "No, that's alright.

L/9 glances through the report and continues:

"I'll read it carefully later. I really didn't expect such a long report. I appreciate it. In the meantime, how are you doing in your personal affairs?"

L/3: "Well, as I told you last time, I'm very much up in the air at the moent. My exposition has started but is not going as well as can be expected - as well as I had hoped. You know, these things have their up's and down's. I'll sell some things, at least to cover my current expenses, but I'll really have to get better organized financially in the near future. The first problem that I'm really worried about is my wife, and I frankly feel that I must appeal to you for help.

L/9: "Of course. Well, what is the problem?"

L/3: "As you know, some time ago my wife and I had a series of unpleasant situations that almost led to a separation.."

L/9: "Is that right! Was it that serious?" "anything political?"

L/3: " No, absolutely not. It was purely a domestic misunderstanding. Now I feel that I must be very frank with you. I was probably responsible because of an affair I had with ~~the~~ Carmen, - you know, the daughter of the doctor we just said hello to as we came in, the one talking with LIRING/2. "

L/9: "Is that so? I had no idea!"

L/3: "Well I assumed you knew, since Carmen's father is a close friend of your Chief. In any case, it's over now, and I don't expect any trouble from that quarter. However, I feel that I should explain that I have an obligation to my wife for all that she did not me while I was in jail with no help from anyone, as you well know."

L/9: "Yes, it was difficult for her."

L/3: "You see, my wife is a sincere revolutionary, but she really doesn't want any part of the activity that a revolution demands. She's like so many others, including my former cell-mate and his famous uncle, who talk a great revolution, but fall apart when the chips are down."

L/9: "Yes, we know plenty of those types."

L/3: "Well, anyway, my wife wouldn't approve of my reinvolvement and keeps pressing me to take a "respectable" job which she knows I could obtain through my friends. What I really wnat to do is to somehow calm her down and arrange things so that she won't have any idea of my political plans. As you know her father is very ill in New York, and she is anxious to see him before he dies. I can arrange an exposition in Montreal and then ask the father to come up to see us there. That would get around the problem of a U.S. visa, which I'm sure neither of us could get."

L/9: "No. I'm sure you couldn't."

L/3: "The only problem is transportation. Air passage is too expensive and unfortunately there are no boats going from here. They all stop at New York. Don't you have regular ship traffic to Montreal, so that we could go that way?"

L/9: "Yes we do. I'm sure that could be arranged. I see no problem."

L/3: " We could then kill two birds with one stone, by stopping off at the PBRUMEN capital enroute."

L/9: " Yes, there's really no problem."

L/3: "I hope you understand my problem. I'm in a very serious way financially at the moment, and couldn't possibly solve this problem myself without your help."

L/9: "Well, how are you doing otherwide - I mean in meeting living expenmses?"

L/3: "Just getting by. You know we live on a very modest - day to day basis.

Att #1 HMMA-36408

29 November,1968

"The exposition is not going as well as I expected. But the problem I'm really concerned about is that of my wife."

L/9: "Let her go to PBRUMEN."

L/3: "what do you mean? I don't understand."

L/9: "Well, I mean with you, when you go."

L/3: "Oh, yes, I see. Of course. She can see her relatives and there won't be a problem. You know my wife was getting pretty desperate about seeing ~~X/9XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ her father and she even talked of going to the Northamerican Ambassy for a visa so that she could go to New York. Imagine that! I told it would be no use - just a waste of time since she woiulnd get the visa."

L/9: "For heaven's sake, tell her not to go! That would create no end of interrogations in the PBRUMEN capital. Calm her downaby all means.

L/3: "Getting back to my report, as I said, many points can be expanded."

L/9: "Yes. Let's meet again on,say, Monday, at a time convenient for you."

L/3: "You know I have plenty of time now. I'm up in the air, as I said, not doing much - just the exposition. On the other hand you're a busy man. You set the time."

L/9: " I think about 1000 would be good. Is that okay with you?"

L/3: " Yes. I'll be back."

L/9: "I'm gald you covered the important point as to what the FAR thinks of us. This is very important to us. Also you say that you expect a contact with one of them here?"

L/3: "Yes, with a certain 'Pavel' but I don't know when. I am in contact as you can see. They have been writing me more or less regularly since my departure." (L/3 takes two letters from pocket and shows them, but L/9 makes no move to take them or read contents.)

L/9: "Well, I'll be waiting for you at 1000 on Monday."

2. LIRING/3 told Rowton at a subsequent meeting (1100,28/11/6800 that when he returned home the previous evening, he found to his surprise a note slipped under the door from LIRING/9 asking him not to forget to come by at 1000 on Monday, 2 December,1968.

W B Rowton

SECRET ATT #1 HMMA-36408

13 January 1969

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Activities for the Period 7-13 January, 1969.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at the Camino Real Restaurant at 1000 on 10 and 13 January. He reported the following developments in connection with the accusations made against him to Marta Barrios de León by Identity A

(a) On the evening of 8 January, 1969, Identity B called on him at his home unannounced and made an effort to smooth over the hard feelings that had arisen between LIRING/3 and her husband. She denied any knowledge of charges made by her husband against L/3 and claimed that she could not believe them in any case. When L/3 stated that he had definite proof in the form of a letter Identity B insisted on seeing it. L/3 (who had given the original letter to Rowton) stalled promising to produce the letter on 10 January in the presence of her husband. L/3 told Rowton that when he attempted to contact Iden B and her husband by phone on the morning of 10 January, he found the phone constantly busy and suspects that the receiver was left purposely off the hook.

(b) On the evening of 12 January, 1969, Arturo Serrano of the CPM, visited LIRING/3 at his home and told him that the Central Committee of the CPM had discussed his feud with Identity A, in response to the letter LIRING/3 had sent to it alleging that Iden A was maligning him unjustly. Serrano continued that the CC of the CPM had found the letter too vague to make any sense, but in any case could not take Iden A seriously. Serrano told L/3 that Iden A and Identity B had been recently formally expelled from the party for ideological reasons, but still had a number of friends willing to vouch for them. On the other hand Serrano stated that the CC of the CPM had received information "some time ago" from the LIRING office alleging that LIRING/3 had been acting in a suspicious manner, especially with regard to certain information he had provided concerning Julián López that "could not have come from a source other than the police." Serrano continued that although the CPM had no love for the LIRING office it nevertheless had to take such a report into consideration and the burden of proof was really on LIRING/3.

22 January, 1969

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Address of Guatemalan Refugees in Mexico City.

1. At 1000 on 21/1/69 LIRING/3 told Rowton that his old Guatemalan friend Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla was residing at Calle Veracruz 14, apartment, and that the Carlos Vega, whom Jacobo had sent to LIRING/3's home with a note asking L/3 to help Vega, was living in the azotea (servant's) room belonging to Jacobo's apartment.

2. L/3 also reported that Carlos Vega again called on him unannounced at his apartment on 20 January.and asked him to arrange through his PBRUMEN friends to send a package of medicine to a son of Turcios who was living in the PBRUMEN capital. Vega also asked L/3 to send two "very important" letters to PBRUMEN through friends who could bypass the usual censorship. L/3 promised to do what he could and asked Vega to deliver the letters tohim on 25 January.

3. Because of the obvious possibility of provocation in this rather unexplained behavior of Carlos Vega (he originally told L/3 that he was a close friend of Identity A), Rowton agreed with L/3 that no attempt should be made to open the letters and that they should be delivered promptly to the LIRING office for whatever disposition that establishment might wnat to make of the letters. L/3 promised to note carefully the addressees of the letters.

4. Rowton told L/3 that he would have to leave town for a visit to Monterrey and was not certain when he would be able to finish his business there. He made a date, however, for 1000, 3 February, at the Camino Real restaurant, and asked L/3 to return to the same place at 1000 on 7 February in the event that Rowton did not appear at the first time and date.

Serrano, as a friend, advised L/3 to "take the bull by the horns" and send as much data as possible to defend himself to all "important progressive" organizations. He volunteered to pass a copy of the letter from Marta Barrios to the CPM and L/3's version of the arrest and detention as soon as he had prepared it.

2 2. In response to Rowton's query as to any other friends L/3 might have in the CPM who might be able to obtain a copy of the original letter from the LIRING Office, LIRING/3 recalled that an old acquaintance from Chiapas, Heraclio Zepeda, had recently invited him to dinner and appeared anxious to re-establish contact with him. L/3 told Rowton that he had known Zepeda in the PBRUMEN capital some six years previously and recalled that Zepeda had traveled and studied in Communist China and the Soviet Union before returing to Mexico. Zepeda recently told L/3 that he was employed in CONASUPO and that he had written several articles favorable to L/3 in "Renovación" a daily newspaper he controlled in Tuxla-Gutierrez, Chiapas. L/3 told Rowton that he later learned thatthe newspaper was actually owned by Hank González, general director of CONASUPO, who apparently had political ambitions.

3. Rowton suggested that L/3 get in touch with Zepeda not only to determine why he had recontacted L/3 after so long a time, but to ascertain his current relationship with the CPM and the LIRING office, if any.

4. LIRING/3 stated that he had not been recontacted by "Rómulo" and promised to advise Rowton in advance of a future meeting so that Rowton could cover it in the hope of getting a good look at the FAR representative.

d) FULFILLER:

Change - Due to his absence from Chile from 15 July to 15 October 1950, all payments during this period should be suspended. Payment should be made however for half of the month of July 1950, due to the overlap of 15 days in July in which he assisted FULMAR in taking over all the agents.

2. Future operational duty reports submitted on the first of each month will reflect the above changes.

KAPOK
CLASSIFICATION

TO : Chief, Foreign Division T
DATE: 17 November 1950
FROM : Chief of Station, Santiago
SUBJECT: GENERAL- Operational Matters
SPECIFIC- ACQUISITION SAFE-APARTMENT: FULMINATER-1

1. Due to the exigency of providing safe quarters for the polygraphic examination of FULMINATER-2, this Station acquired a safe-apartment for FULMINATER-1 to bring FULMINATER-2 to the polygraph team. The authority for this action was believed to have been construed in WashF-19400. The following details pertain to this apartment:

Location: Calle MacIver 272, ninth floor, apartment 915.

RENTAL: Monthly rent: P/3,800. According to local custom it was necessary to pay an advance over and above the initial month's rent also paid in advance. Therefore, P/3,800 was paid for one month, 12 November - 12 December 1950, and P/2,566 was paid as the advance guarantee for twenty days.

Renter: Juan SIVORI, same as FULLNESS safe-apartment, arranged for by FULLNESS.

Negotiator: FUMARIC handled all the negotiations between SIVORI and the owner, whose name is not immediately available at this writing.

Description: The apartment is completely furnished according to Chilean customs and consists of one living/dining room combination, a bathroom and a small kitchen.

Control Status: This apartment is known as FULMINATER-1's apartment and aside from FULLNESS, FUMARIC, the polygraph team, FULMINATER-2 and Maria JANDA, no one else directly or indirectly connected with this Station will have knowledge of or access to this apartment.

Use: Present: The apartment has been used by the polygraph team to conduct its examination of FULMINATER-2 and Maria JANDA. The translater of the team, resided in the apartment during his stay in Santiago.

FORM NO. 51-28

CLASSIFICATION

1·28764

Future: It is desired to retain this apartment as long as required in order to provide a safe meeting place for [illegible]-1 and [illegible]-2.

2. In order to clarify this Station's authority to retain the above safe-apartment and to assume the expense of same, it is requested that Headquarters so authorize this Station accordingly as early as practicable.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW

COUNTRY CHILE PERIOD COVERED JAN-MAR 1951 CRYPTONYM FULMINATOR-1

OBJECTIVES AND TASKS: Cut-out between FULMINATOR and FULMINATOR-2. Responsible for the direct handling of the latter as required by this Station. In addition to this function, Subject has performed services for this Station in the fulfillment of BRGHYTHM-LCACTING directives.

SALARY: $50 U.S. per month; terminated 28 February 1951. Paid $100 U.S. for special services pertaining to LCACTING project.

EVALUATION OF SERVICES: A very serious, conscientious and loyal American, who has demonstrated his willingness to serve his country in the above capacity. It is believed that he will be of future value in matters pertaining to BRGHYTHM-LCACTING in Chile.

EVALUATION OF INFORMATION RECEIVED: Not applicable.

OTHER FACTORS: Security of Subject under FULMINATOR project considered satisfactory. On the BRGHYTHM-LCACTING project Subject is handled by FUMARIO under satisfactory security conditions.

COMMENTS: Subject provided a useful service to this Station under deep cover conditions in the handling of FULMINATOR-2. It is contemplated that latter agent will be deported from Chile in the immediate future and that FULMINATOR-1 will then be available for other duties related to the BRGHYTHM-LCACTING objectives in Chile.

EVALUATION OF SERVICES: A very serious, conscientious and loyal American, who has demonstrated his willingness to serve his country in the above capacity. It is believed that he will be of future value in matters pertaining to BRGHYTHM-LCACTING in Chile.

EVALUATION OF INFORMATION RECEIVED: Not applicable.

OTHER FACTORS: Security of Subject under FULMINATOR project considered satisfactory. On the BRGHYTHM-LCACTING project Subject is handled by FIMARIC under satisfactory security conditions.

COMMENTS: Subject provided a useful service to this Station under deep cover conditions in the handling of FULMINATOR-2. It is contemplated that latter agent will be deported from Chile in the immediate future and that FULMINATOR-1 will then be available for other duties related to the BRGHYTHM-LCACTING objectives in Chile.

1. Headquarters records reveal that dollar payments to allottees in the United States are being made for the following agents used by your station:

FULFILLER	$125 per month
FULLER/CZ	$100 " "
FULMINATOR	$ 50 " "
FULMINATOR-1	$ 50 " "

2. This process has become so cumbersome in view of world-wide requirements, that it has become necessary to ask field stations to make salary payments locally, either in dollars or local currency, whenever possible. Please advise by return pouch whether it will be possible to make the above-listed payments locally.

3. It is further requested that you clarify the status of FULMINATOR, FULMINATOR-1, and FULMINATOR-2. The most recent exchange of cables (S/GO-160 and WASH-79482) left headquarters with the impression that the entire FULMINATOR project was about to be discontinued, in which case, it is presumed, dollar payments for FULMINATOR and FULMINATOR-1 should be discontinued. Please advise by pouch.

1. Pending preparation of a chronological review of the recent developments of the [illegible] Project since submission of TCS-A-1257, Headquarters is advised that this Station desires the termination of payments to [illegible] and [illegible]-1 as of 28 February 1951 and that no payments be made for the month of March 1951 or henceforth until further notice.

2. Due to the anticipation of an early termination of this project and the absence of any further need for the [illegible] Safe Apartment, this Station has allowed its control on same to lapse as of 10 March 1951.

3. It is anticipated that the abovementioned review will be ready for submission to Headquarters in the next available pouch. Meanwhile for Headquarters information the control over [illegible]-2 has passed to [illegible] who will handle the former's debriefing and deportation as early as practicable.

He will work closely with PP/CRTV Office.

2. In accordance with the provisions set forth in the Director's Memorandum of 14 February 1949, entitled "Security and Operational Clearances," a covert security clearance is granted for the covert use of the Subject as described in your request set forth in paragraph 1 above.

3. The Subject is not to represent himself as, nor is he to be represented as, an employee of CIA.

4. Your attention is called to the fact that a covert security clearance does not constitute complete compliance with the provisions of CIA Regulation 10-9. Therefore, if you should desire at a later date to change the status or use of this individual, a request for clearance to cover any proposed change should be submitted to this office.

5. This clearance becomes invalid in the event the Subject's services are not utilized within 60 days of the date of this memorandum.

MILESTONE

A most important gentleman had an unusually important day this week. Charles Philip Arthur George, son of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, and England's future king, became three.

It was a happy day all round. For not only did Bonny Prince Charles enjoy to full measure the usual delirium of the small boy's birthday, but the King felt fit enough to attend the party and invite a Press photographer.

The King's rapid recovery to the point where he can walk unaided and move with no apparent strain has astonished and delighted the nation. The TIMES photographer - the first member of the public to see him since his operation - reported in some amazement that the King showed no sign of illness, laughed and chatted happily and seemed altogether out of character for a man so recently at grips with major surgery.

The Prince's birthday began, as every such day should, with eager opening of many parcels. He was then taken for his usual outing in St. James's Park - that delightful playground that he can never fully enjoy. For, as a royal prince he must not sail boats in public ponds or feed ducks, or ride on the swings. Still, he seems happy enough as his nanny pushes the pram between admiring strollers, followed by bulky men stamped Scotland Yard all over. He's a friendly child with a democratic tendency to talk and wave to everybody as he clutches two grubby lead soldiers. He's a firm had the spirit

On his third birthday, he shows many of the qualities of warmth, manliness and downright commonsense that he has shared so much. He spends much of his time with adults and is way past the baby-talk stage; he is bright, interested in everything and very obviously no cissy. He has had to learn to bear long absences from his parents and conduct himself with dignity in public. London, the world's most critical judge of royalty, awards him top marks all round in its third Report on Progress, and heartily wishes him very many happy returns.

TRAP

Londoners face a new hazard, another pit in the treacherous bog of regulations that surrounds today's law-respecting citizens.

This week, careful sidesteppers along the narrow pathways of rectitude learned that the phone may lead to a fine.

In our public telephone boxes are two buttons: after the money has clicked into the box and some sort of response been evoked the caller presses Button A so that the other end can hear him. If he gets the wrong number or none at all he presses Button B and gets his money back, usually. Sometimes, the mechanism appears to develop an unusual contrition in its behaviour and pours out a shower of coins wildly in excess of the Button B presser's due. Till now, this pleasant quirk has invested the dull business of telephoning with a certain sporting quality. No call is complete without a hopeful lunge at Button B.

The other day, it seems, a youth trying to phone his girl-friend was getting no reply, which is trouble enough, anyway. Pressing Button B, he was rewarded with eightpence, five more than he was entitled to. If there's one soul in the whole of London's ten million who wouldn't have pocketed that extra fivepence it certainly wasn't our young swain. Unfortunately, somebody spotted his transaction and the lad eventually found himself in court as wrong a number as anyone ever got.

They fined him ten shillings, saying that he should have returned the other fivepence to the box or a post-office. The authorities explain that people who forget to press Button B to regain their money claim on the Post Office and, therefore, anyone pocketing money thus hurled at them is robbing the Postmaster General. There may possibly be people who claim for the odd forgotten threepence, but this column has never met even a remote friend of one.

So something of the sport has gone out of life. And a lot of people are congratulating themselves on a narrow escape from disgrace. There, but for the grace of God. The lad seems to have had less than a generous deal from Fate. London hopes he at least enjoyed the consolation of a plausible explanation by his girl-friend.

Among the more frightening visions floating in the mind's eye just now is one of cohorts of plump ladies standing purposefully on their heads. For somebody has discovered that this unedifying caper produces a reduction in weight.

Britain's amateur bantam-weight boxing champion had a spot of bother up at Wembley this week which necessitated his checking a overweight so he took a hot bath and jogged about a bit and had another shot. No matron ever registered more disappointment on a weighing machine - he was still overweight. A bystander, who might have been a witch-doctor but who was a more than ordinarily knowledgeable gymnast, suggested the dejected bantam-weight should stand on his head. Surprisingly, instead of giving the know-all a clip on the ear for ill-timed levity, the boxer did as he was told. They weighed him again and he had lost the surplus six ounces. The story ends happily enough, as he won his fight a few hours later.

Now, there's another fight in progress between the "experts." Some doctors refused to believe it, like the man who first saw the giraffe. Others say that standing on the head couldn't have had any effect; it was something else. From Harley Street comes the theory that being upside down disturbs a body's air content and sends some of it higher; this reresults in a temporary loss of weight. But this isn't among Whatever the explanation, the trick has fascinated London which, in the privacy of its homes, is spending more time than usual upside down, in test runs. Whether this is the answer to the middle-aged ladies' prayer for an easy summer isn't yet clear, but it's certainly due for a thorough going into. More than ever, the Atomic Age woman needs a good head on her shoulders - preferably with a flat top.

There'll be no extra food at Christmas, says the new Food Minister. More time for devotion and somewhat less for digestion this year.

FRANCE IN MOROCCO

THERE has always been discussion about the peculiar trait of human nature which finds expression in a feeling of pleasure in contemplating the misfortunes of others. The great Lucretius in his poem "De rerum natura" tells of the satisfaction enjoyed in witnessing, from the safety of the shore, the shipwrecked mariners struggling in the sea; but he does not seem to have found anything reprehen[illegible] in the sentiment. Nowadays we should, of course, indignantly deny any such baseness in ourselves, though we may not be so sure about "the other fellow" who is quite capable of putting a banana—skin on the path for our special benefit. However this may be, it cannot be ignored that the "foreign" press tends to gloat over the difficulties of Great Britain, formerly in India and Palestine, now in Iran and Egypt, conveniently forgetting the fact that no country in the world with international responsibilities can hope, in present world circumstances, to evade situations dangerous to national prestige.

Just twenty years—no more—have passed since a magnificent "Exposition Coloniale" was held in the Parisian suburb Vincennes, which attracted visitors from all parts of the world and was proudly pointed to in many countries, as being convincing evidence that the great nations of Europe, and the United States with them were in no way disposed to accept the concept of "the twilight of the West" or to renounce their "mission civilistrice".

How stands that Colonial Empire today? It has to be remembered that France, as a colonial power had a great asset shared by no other Western nation—the absence of a rigid colour bar. The extending to "native" peoples of the full rights of French citizenship went beyond legal formulae; mixed unions are not frowned on and "a touch of the tar brush"—or of yellow paint in the Far East, conveys no stigma, whatever other handicaps may have to be overcome. Moreover, colonial France has called forth the energy, and in not a few cases, the genius of great soldiers and administrators, second to none, and whatever may happen in the fu[illegible] their place in history is secure. Nevertheless, though the [illegible]coleur still flies over many lands and over millions of many races, all of them, potentially if not actually, overseas Frenchmen, the wave of nationalism rising to full tide after the disasters of the second world-war has swept away many land-marks that seemed to have their foundations firmly based in tradition. Syria and Lebanon, with their great French Crusader castles, speaking still of warriors and heroes of the past who left their giant bones from Antioch to the Gulf of Aquaba and beyond-all gone. On Indo-China and Annam, Tonquin and Madagascar, we see French dominion fighting there for very life, and fate hangs daily in the balance. Now the interest and anxiety concentrates on Morocco, a question that really concerns all French Africa, north and central.

In Morocco the position is peculiar. Less than fifty years ago, though so near Europe, Morocco was very little known and foreigners were not welcomed there. The mutual jealous[illegible] of European powers helped to perpetuate this situation un[illegible] became intolerable, and in return for the usual shady agreements not to interfere with the ambitions of others elsewere, France was given a free hand to go ahead. By 1912, it was possible to speak of "pacification," and since that date, with a shadowy native ruler in nominally supreme authority, the civilizing of Morocco had gone far enough by 1913 for that country to have its "pavilion" in the Exhibition. But under the surface nationalism fermented, raising difficulties for the Sultan as well as for French military and civil authorities. These difficulties have now become acute, and have been raised in the United Nations by the representative of Irak, [illegible] that led the French representative to leave the Mandate Commission during the hearing. It is not only Great Britain that has to struggle with problems in the Mediterranean area!

Dear Sir,

Last week's pin up was certainly amongst your best . but tell me who writes the captions for the photographs? I presume you import them but do you adhere to the original description. I always have an uncomfortable feeling that my leg is being pulled yet I should not be so bold as to say that you tamper with the text. However, I find it more than difficult to believe that a girl with a name like Daphne Codd should be selected by the International Pearl Divers' Association (A.F.L.) as the "GIRL WITH WHOM WE WOULD LIKE TO SHUCK OYSTERS". One other point! Is there an International Pearl Divers' Association and would they be affiliated with the American Federation of Labour.

Sincerely yours,

"Doubtful"

The captions for S. P. M. pin-ups are invariably rewritten by the staff not, however, to stretch credulence but to fill space. Miss Daphne Codd was not only selected by the International Pearl Divers' Association as the "GIRL WITH WHOM WE WOULD LIKE TO SHUCK OYSTERS" but stood as a candidate for the title "MISS BEACH-MINDED 1951, in which contest she failed to place: This fact was, therefore, omitted in order not to unnecessarily strain readers' doubts. Finally to the best of the editors' knowledge there is an International Pearl Divers' Association and Mr. Murray (president of the A. F. L.) would assuredly welcome them to the A. F. L. ED.

KOREAN CEASE FIRE LINE RATIFIED IN PLENARY SESSION: CESSATION OF LAND FIGHTING REPORTED

Into the chilly, rain-soaked, roadside tent at Panmunjon this week swept a gust of accord. United Nations and Communist delegates set a thirty day deadline for concluding a truce as they, at the same time, came to an agreement on the second item of the peace agenda—the location of the cease fire line.

Agreement came just five months to the day after Soviet Deputy to the United Nations, Jacob A. Malik, proposed that both sides open negotiations for a cessation of hostilities based on the thirty-eighth Parallel.

In those five, weary, bloody months proposal after ill-fated proposal flailed the negative air of Communist obduracy and U. N. insistence. Meanwhile, the fighting had gone on, savage and costly. And ridge by dreary ridge had fallen, taking their toll of thousands of lives.

And what of the final settle~~ment? It clearly defined~~ a U N territorial victory:

The present battle line—now from ten to forty miles inside North Korea—will become the permanent truce line if agreement is reached within thirty days on outstanding agenda items. If the agreement is forthcoming the armies will surrender any territory gained in the next month's fighting. If there is no accord the discussions will go on and a new line will be drawn up along the points of battle contact at the time the peace is finally signed.

Ratified by a plenary session of negotiators after lower echelon groups had debated for days the topographical details, the line that will separate the two armies extends from a point south of Kosong on the east coast to the mouth of the Imjin river on the western seaboard. Extending along the length of the twisting line is a neutral corridor two and a half miles deep, which includes Panmunjom, site of the armistice negotiations for the past month but falls by several miles to encompass Katsong, former peace city.

But three multi-pronged problems of the five-point peace agenda remained to be settled. In order of scheduled appearance these are the three questions:

(1) SUPERVISING THE ARMISTICE: Each side distrusts the other and each fears that the other might use the lull for reinforcement and re-equipment with new weapons. To obviate difficulties and to allay suspicions some sort of inspection system is called for. The United Nations Command proposed a joint policing team, free to travel anywhere in Korea. The Communist proposal calls for a joint armistice commission responsible for armistice arrangements and supervision. Never ones to tolerate unauthorized nosing in their own backyard, the Communist plan made no mention of inspection behind the lines.

(2) EXCHANGE OF WAR CAPTIVES: In United Nations prison compounds are 168,346 prisoners—148,736 North Koreans and 19,610 Chinese. Just how many U. N. prisoners the enemy is holding is not known since neither North Korea nor Communist China is a member of the Geneva convention on war prisoners, therefore does not report them. Currently missing are 10,871 U. N. troops and 88,390 South Koreans. At Tuesday's plenary session, when the cease fire line was ratified, Admiral Charles Turner Joy, chief of the United Nations delegates, suggested each side prepare statistics on prisoners to speed that issue when it comes up for debate. The senior delegate proposed that each side prepare the latest available information on names, nationalities and other identification of all war prisoners and the location of all prisoners of war camps.

3 RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE GOVERNMENTS CONCERNED: Never a clear point, this vaguely worded item results from a U. N. refusal to put on the agenda the withdrawal of troops from Korea. The U. N. insists that troop withdrawals form part of a political aspect and have no part in armistice discussions.

At week's end came a blurred report from the battle front that all land warfare had ceased and that only the sea and air warfare was still going on. Correspondents reported large fires along the Communist front and complete tranquillity.

It was not clear from where the cease fire order had emanated but from Key West, Florida, where President Truman is taking his winter vacation, came a vigorous denial from Presidential Press Secretary Joseph Short. Said he: "There can be no cease fire in Korea untill an armistice has been signed."

EAST AND WEST CONTINUE VERBAL CLASH IN U. N.

East and West were still poles apart and no move yet made in the spacious chambers of the Palais de Chaillot, where the sixth session of the United Nations General Assembly is convening, seemed capable of bridging the yawning hiatus of suspicion and tension now so much a part of East-West relationships.

Disarmament was still the number one issue on the business like agenda and the Big Two (Soviet Russia and the U. S. A.) were no closer to agreement now than they had been at the outset.

But now there was a new point of friction, which Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky raised last week. It concerns a provision in the American Mutual Security Act, which became law last October. The provision authorizes the President to spend up to $100 million out of military aid funds "for any selected persons who are residing in or escapees from" Russia and the satellites "either to form such persons into elements of the military force supporting the North Atlantic Treaty organization or for other purposes.." The sponsors of the provision claim that "other purposes" provides an opening for them to aid underground forces behind the Iron Curtain

The Russians protested that the Mutual Security Act was designed to "finance subersive activities of persons and armed groups . . (to) finance traitors and war criminals who fled from their countries" They branded the $100 pledges exchanged by President Roosevelt and former Soviet Foreign Minister Maxim Litvinoff in 1933 when the United States formally recognized the Soviet state.

The pledges were made at the insistence of Washington which had a wary eye on the Comintern, predecessor of the Cominform. In the exchange each side promised not to sanction efforts at "bringing about by force . . a change in the political or social order" of the other country.

Washington and the rest of the West conceded the move to Russia. It was an astute piece of diplomacy and one more step in a long-range plan—a peace propaganda battle.

At week's end the West took the initiative and simultaneous announcements from Washington, London and Paris declared that the Western Big Three were prepared to confer secretly with Russia and Luis Padilla Nervo, president of the United Nations General Assembly in an effort to reach an agreement on a common proposal for disarmament and the abolition of atomic weapons.

Taken off guard Foreign Minister Vishinsky asked for time to consider the proposal.

THE PROBLEM OF WEST GERMANY'S SOVEREIGNTY

Three facts were tangling the issues of West German sovereignty last week, all vitally interlocked and all hinged to a none-too-clear future.

How was the (West) German Ferderal Republic with its huge Ruhr industries and technical resources to be welded to the West and how was it to be fused into the Atlantic Community and its potential military manpower tapped so that it would flow into Community channels?

Last week the Western Big Three Foreign Ministers and the Bonn Government made an approach to solve these problems. U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman met with Bonn Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Paris. They approved an agreement which moved Chancellor Adenauer to remark with rhetoric flavour: "An historical event which has brought Western Germany forever into the Western camp."

The essentials of the agreement are:

Bonn occupation will end but Allied troops will remain on West and foreign affairs. The Allies will reserve certain rights in specific fields. The Allies will have the right to intervene and [illegible] some control of the [illegible] in any emergency [illegible] their own position is endangered, and make decisions on the [illegible] question of West [illegible] German unity.

The new Allied-Bonn arrangement would await agreement on a European army. That is a multinational army composed of units from France, Germany, Belgium, Italy and Luxembourg.

The uncertainties surrounding the agreement stem from three sources. First of these is the political situation in West Germany where Dr. Adenauer's stength has been weakened by losses in recent by-elections to extreme Rightist parties and especially to the powerful, well-disciplined Socialist party of Dr. Kurt Schumacher. The Socialist party leader has accused Dr. Adenauer of a "sell-out" to the Allies. He is inflexibly opposed to the European army proposal and insists that Germany rearm as a national equal with the Atlantic Pact countries or refrain from participation.

The second factor is French distrust of Germant rearmament for which reason they piloted the European army idea into prominence in an effort to head off any independent German rearmament plan.

The third factor, and perhaps the most important of all, is the dazzle of unity, long the hope of all Germans and recently brought to the fore again by an East German invitation to West Germany to participate in nation-wide elections.

However the issues were resolved even the most guileless optimist would not predict full West German membership in the N. A. T. O. before 1953.

GUILTY CROSS

"The Colonial tower of San Francisco—the cause of humorous polemics between the Mayor of Santiago and the Prior of the Franciscan Fathers—has upset local painters. In accordance with an order from the Mayor reconstruction work has begun on the outside walls of the church and tower. Taking advantage of the ascent to the bell towers the Prior ordered that the tilted cross be straightened—the cross is 30 metres above the street and was struck by a strong bolt of lightening during a storm. Local painters have always liked to go into the green gardens of the Order, and from there paint the picturesque tower with ancient tilted cross. But now that they have seen the new position of the cross they have countered with bitter statements: "Now we must remake all our paintings because of the cross".

"Simply by answering a question concerning the yearly export of Chilean nitrate, Professor Charles K. Ranson and his wife have won a free trip throughout South America. The fortunate couple arrived yesterday in Santiago. The luck began on a radio program called "Your Tropical Trip" Professor Ranson was called before a jury and asked about the annual exportation of nitrate from Chile. He answered that it was a million tons a year (he had only ten seconds to answer). His answer was closest to the fact: the actual figure is 690,000 tons per year.

Only last year Professor won another radio prize, a trip to Honolulu, on a program called "Earn Your Vacation"

The Ransoms will stay in Santiago about ten days".

PublPRESS

One of the advantages we have over most readers of the S. P. M. is that we can see what goes into print before publication and if we feel like commenting can do so at once without waiting for next week's edition. Thus we can acknowledge "Chatter Box's" comment on our column of the week before. We had asked for examples of words, which like "innings", have a singular form along with an "s" termination. Chatter Box came up with "series" and it is a good example—the dictionary states clearly that is serves both as singular and plural. Chatter Box also mentions that the headline "STIX NIX CRIX PIX" from "Variety" would produce blank despair on the face of any Englishman that came across it. It would do the same to 99 out of one hundred Americans. Probably ninety percent of those who do grasp the translation live, or have lived, within a one mile radius of Times Square. Although it will be comparable to translation from the Urdu (we used to speak it, but now have forgotten; you know how it is when you don't keep a language up) we shall attempt to clarify the meaning. First of all the strict meaning, in the terse language of Broadway: Stix means sticks, Nix is "says no to". Crix is critics and Pix is pictures. In other words the movie fans who live in the country do not swarm to the box office when a film that has been highly praised by reviewers arrives at the local flicker-house. WALL STREET LAYS AN AGG is, obviously, a reference to the crash of '29. "To lay an egg", when one is not speaking of a bird, means to drop a brick or put your foot in your mouth.

Words are fun, even the serious study of serious words. If you find yourself in the house some rainy afternoon without a game of canasta to fill your time pick up the dictionary and browse through it. The dictionary, etymologically speaking, is a fascinating tome. Take the word shibboleth,' for instance. Today it means "password, watchword; a party slogan." Its original meaning in Hebrew was "ear of corn or stream in flood". Its present usage stems from the time Jephtha used it as a battle-line password to distinguish his men from the fleeing Ephraimites —who could not pronunce it correctly. The same idea is used in today's warfare. English speaking troops often employ words that cannot be pronounced easily by the opposition. The idea even went further in an anecdote published in these pages a few weeks ago. American soldier to unknown: What are the words of "The Star Spangled Banner"? Answer: "Damned if I know them". Soldier: "Advance American soldier, and be recognized."

"Buncombe", also known as bunkum, was the name of a U. S. Congressman who made a pointless speech to impress his constituents. "Chauvinism", the practise of blind patriotism, comes from the name of Chauvin, a soldier who was continually boasting of Napoleon's glory. "Cabal", an intrigue, is a word composed of the initial letters of the names of five English gentlemen who conspired against authority. With these words we have hardly started in an investigation that can be as exciting as reading detective stories. But if the history and use of words is an interesting study, the observation of the mis-use of words is even more fun. We blush to say that we have an Aunt who "blurshes" when she is excited and often remarks on the "beautiful revenue of trees" in front of her house. Aldous Huxley once wrote a delightful story about a young man who thought the word "carminative" meant red, of or pertaining to that color. Huxley recounts how the fellow bandied the word about in an intellectual manner, and, most of the time got away with it since none of his listeners knew the difference. Actually the word describes a remedy for flatulence. And now we are going to stop before association makes someone think of descriptive words for this twittering.

A few weeks ago I commented that the performances of the Karadura Koncert Kompany, some twenty-five years ago, must have been as corny as their name. One of the organizers of that enterprise, Mr. Bert Gould, has since informed me that they were very good and that furthermore by their efforts were able to raise the sum of one thousand pounds for Earl Haig's Fund. The members of the party were all members of the British Legion and that once more demonstrates my contention that Legion Members of those days were more serious about their membership and the objects of the Legion than the new members of nowadays. To anyone who may feel offended at my comments about the name of the company, I apologise most sincerely, but nevertheless I still consider that the Name, Karadura Koncert Kompany, was a crumby one. Or should I say "krumby"?... incidentally, the suggestion put forward by "JOE" last week that the apparent lack of enthusiasm on the part of the new members may be attributed to the fact that there are now more ladies who qualify for membership, and so forth, doesn't convince me very much . . I recall a dinner at the Country Club, two or three years ago, at which the ladies sang the barrack room ballades of the 1939-1945 affray with quite as much gusty enthusiasm as the men . . And anyone who states that the ladies are not as keen on a party as the men prevaricates, and the truth is not in him . . . Mr. Bert Gould, who has always been active in Legion affairs, and for his service in the Second World War was decorated by the Chilean Government and rewarded handsomely by His Majesty's, is still around and very vital. Now that the election of officers is approaching, I emphatically suggest that the members of the Legion couldn't do better than vote for Mr. Albert C. Gould, M. M., as President . . . . This is not a paid announcement. It's just the expression of a personal opinion, to which anyone is entitled. Mr. Gould may put his medals on back to front, or the wrong way round, when he attends Church Parade, but, as he says, "What the heck! The Sergeant-Major won't be here"!

D. A. P. in his "Hell Box" the other week expressed his confusion at vagaries of the English Language as used by the reporter of a Cricket Match. He needn't feel so upset about it, because I am more than sure that there are many Englishmen who would be as equally puzzled by many of the terms . . . And I can't imagine a greater punishment for any Englishmen than to be cast on a desert island with the Sports Section of an American newspaper as a sole companion . . . I have to confess that, even after a residence of some six years in New York, and in spite of the fact that I was a staunch supporter of the Baseball Team formed by the employees of the Bank that had the doubtful honor of [illegible]ing me among them, I still am unable to explain the [illegible] points of the game . . . Once it was explained to me very carefully by a profound student of the sporting world how Baseball was evolved from cricket, but I can't even recall that interesting point . . . Maybe the fact that the ground which the team used was attached to Tromer's Brewery in Brooklyn, and the liquid refreshment was good and plentiful has something to do with the fact that I didn't pay as much attention to the game as I should have done . . As for the word "innings", which bothered D. A. P. so much, I was always under the impression that it was one of those peculiar English words with a plural form, but is really singular. Such as "series". The question is one for a philologist to explain, and if there is one in the audience, now's the time for him to step forward and do his stuff . . . Talking of the difference between English as used in England and the United States one must not overlook that famous weekly of [illegible] business Variety . . . Such [illegible] headlines as STIX [illegible] CRIX PIX and WALL STREET LAYS AN EGG are undoubtedly inspirations but I don't think they will produce anything but blank despair on the face of any Englishman who comes across them . . . Yet the fact remains that there are English people who firmly believe that they can understand fully and will be understood amply, in the United States just because they can make sense out of the stories in the Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal. It isn't as easy as that believe me!

NEW YORK Notes

BUSINESS DEPT., Francis J. Whitehair, the Under Secretary of the Navy, conferred with President Truman who suddenly asked him: "One of your ancestors was the chief of the Osage tribe, wasn't he?" . . . "Yes, Mr. President," said Mr. Whitehair . . "And didn't he trade 5,000 acres of choice Kansas farmland for a carload of whiskey?" said the President . . . "Yes, sir," said Mr. Whitehair... The President smiled at the Under Secretary and said: "Don't you go trading any carriers without talking to me."

SCHOOL DEPT.: On Thursday afternoon, in New Haven, there was a meeting of university presidents. One of the attendants was Dr. Franklyn Murphy, the new head of the University of Kansas, who is only 35 years old—the youngest head of a major university. The 35-year-old Murphy said to Whitney Griswold, the president of Yale: "I've become somewhat of a curiosity—being pointed out, the youngest, etc. I think I should have my hair pulled out or else dye it gray" . . . "Just wait two years," the 40-year-old Griswold replied. "Two more years at the job—and your hair will fall out."

PHOTO DEPT.: Dr. Albert Einstein continues to rank among those whose photo is published most frequently. A visitor at Princeton said to Einstein: "You are a scientist, mathematician, teacher, author—if you were asked to give your profession, what would you say?" . . . "My profession?" said Einstein, "photographer's model."

ART. DEPT.: Tom Benton, whose home is in Kansas City, decided to use his talents as a painter to help the victims of the recent flood. He therefore prepared lithographs depicting the plight of the flood-sufferers, struck off enough copies for Congress and mailed the lithographs to the Congressmen in the hope of inducing them to legislate increases in relief funds . . . Most of the Congressmen, unaware of the worth of a Benton lithograph, ignored it. Rep. Dick Bolling and his staff visited the offices of his colleagues, retrieved the Benton lithographs from their waste-baskets, took the lithographs to Kansas City and sold them at auction for the benefit of flood victims.

SCHOOL DEPT.: Michael DiSalle, the Price Stabilizer, was invited to make the commencement address at St. Mary's, in South Bend, Ind. DiSalle's daughter, a pupil at that school, is a member of the graduating class. In his letter of acceptance, DiSalle told the head of the school: "Thanks for your invitation. I was going to be there anyway."

Mike Todd has become the jumping jack of show business Before he came to Broadway he won and lost several fortunes, and a series of hit shows made him rich again. Then he gambled it away, made another fortune and lost that too. Now he and Lowell Thomas have been devoting their time to the production of tri-dimensional movies. Sir Alexander Korda saw a sample, spread the word that it would revolutionize movie-making and again Todd is riding high, with capital gain offers which can net him several millions. "I'll come back to Broadway only when I have enough not to worry about a review," said the producer. "I'll produce a show only when I feel that my life doesn't go with it."

The Overseas Press Club, which invited the Mayor to be guest of honor at a luncheon to discuss and be questioned about his recent trip abroad, received no reply. They withdrew the invitation . . . Sen. Bricker hears that Michael DiSalle's official announcement of his candidacy for the U. S. Senate will be made on Feb. 15 . . . The Associated American Artists, which developed a ceramics business for its 20 artists, now is venturing into another field—fabrics. They'll be featured at Macy's . . . THE WINDFALL

BY

ERSKINE CALDWELL

WHEN Waldo Murdock, whose trade, when he felt like working at it, was rendering creatures, came into the unexpected inheritance, there had been no commotion in Brighton to equal it since the time when, eleven years before, one of the Perkins brothers, with no more forewarning than a clap of summer lightning, ran away in broad daylight with the resident minister's second wife.

As for the townspeople, none of them, not even Aunt Susie Shook, who told fortunes by reading tea leaves or coffee grounds if necessary, had ever had the remotest idea that anything in the nature of sudden wealth would fall into Waldo Murdock's scrawny lap, while at the same time, of course, people were quick to say that if he had not been sitting down, as usual, instead of being up and doing, there would have been no lap of his for it to fall into; and certainly Waldo himself, even though he daydreamed about almost everything else under the sun, had never entertained such a farfetched thought in his mind.

Waldo did not even know he had a brother in Australia and, even if he had known it, he would never have imagined that he would be remembered in a will. From Bangor to Burlington, all the Murdocks, especially the home-owning branch of the family, were known throughout the entire region north of Boston for their trait, which relatives-by-marriage and other outsiders called cussedness, of not acknowledging kinship with one another. And as it was, it was all Waldo could do to force himself, after having cast aside pride of long standing, publicly to admit blood relationship with another Murdock, even if he had lived in Australia, long enough to go to the bank in Waterville and cash the check the lawyer from Portland had handed him.

"Pay no mind to what the people say," he told the clerk in the bank. "There may be others in the State of Maine bearing the name of Murdock, but there's not a single drop of mingling blood that I would own to. I'd sooner claim kinship with my old black cow than I would with a so-called Murdock."

Dessie, Waldo's wife, was, at the beginning, the most levelheaded of all. She maintained her mental balance, if only at the start, much better than Waldo and some of the townspeople. Dessie, although afterward she regretted not having gone along, even remained at home and tended the house chores while Waldo was away in Waterville cashing the check. There was only one thing she did out of the ordinary that forenoon, and that was to make Justine, the hired girl, air the parlor and shake out the scatter rugs, even if it were not Saturday.

During all that time the neighbors were ringing her up on the phone and asking what she was going to do with all that money, but that, too in the beginning, failed to veer the even measure of her thoughts.

"When the check is cashed, if it's not worthless, and it'll be a wonder if it's not, there'll be ample time at hand for me to go out of my way to think about it," she told them. "Right now, and likely forever after, it's nothing but a scrawl and a promise on a slip of paper."

Dessie went back to work with her lips a little tighter each time she finished talking to one of the neighbors on the phone. She was not exactly worried, she told Justine, but she was feeling impatient. Waldo failed to come home at the noon hour for dinner, and it was not long after that before she, like everybody else in Brighton who was working himself into a frenzy over Waldo's sudden windfall, began thinking what could be done with the money.

Late that afternoon Waldo drove up to the dooryard and left the automobile standing there instead of putting it away in the shed where it belonged.

Justine came running to tell her.

[illegible] of several [illegible] when Justine, who was as excited as she, [illegible] into the room where she was.

"Mr. Murdock's back!" Justine cried, twisting her fingers.

"He'd better be!" Dessie said. "If he hadn't got home when he did, he could have just kept on traveling, for all the concern I'd ever have."

"I guess Mr. Murdock has the real money," Justine said, looking over her shoulder. "He looked like he was feeling good about it when he got out of the auto."

Dessie leaped to her feet.

"Go on about your tasks, whatever they be, Justine," she said crossly. "It's none of your money, if there is any, anyway."

Justine went to the kitchen and watched Waldo come along the path to the side door.

Waldo came in, throwing his hat on the table. He looked at Dessie for a moment, cocking his head a little to one side. His coat pocket sagged heavily.

Neither Dessie nor Waldo spoke for a while.

Presently Dessie walked up to him and held out her hand.

"Guess I'll take charge for the time being, Waldo," she said stiffly. "Hand it over."

Waldo reached into his coat pocket, drawing out a mostly empty bottle and handing it to her. She stepped back, looking at it severely. Then, without a word, she grabbed the bottle by the neck and slung it with all her might across the room. It struck the wall, shattering into dozens of pieces.

"I might have known it, and I would have, if I had only had the sense God has given most people!" she said, raising her voice. "I've got only myself to blame!"

Waldo reached for a chair.

"Now, there's no cause for a human to take on so, Dessie," he said. "Everything turned out, from here to there and back again, like it was made to order."

[illegible] pocket [illegible] of greenbacks [illegible] tightly around the [illegible] with a piece of heavy twine. Dessie forgot her anger the instant she saw the money. The scowling lines on her face disappeared completely while she watched Waldo bounce the roll up and down in his hand.

"All I've got to say," she began, "is that I never thought I'd live to breathe the air of the day when a deceasing Murdock would have the decency to do the honorable thing with his money, even if he couldn't find means of taking it along with him when he went, which would be a wonder if he didn't try to do, and he probably did, anyway."

Waldo leaned back and let her talk to her heart's content. He felt so good himself that he wanted her to have a good time, too. He let her speak what came to mind without uttering a single grumble.

"Have you any more blood relations that we've neglected to remind ourselves of, Waldo?" she asked, leaning toward him. "It seems to me that I recall your second cousin in Skowhegan saying once some years ago that a Murdock went to California at the end of the Spanish-American War and prospected for gold. It might be that he struck it rich out there, which a lot of people did, so I've read, if reading can be believed. If we'd been more particular about your blood relations in the past, we wouldn't have to sit here now and wrack our brains trying to call them to mind at a time like this."

"Guess I have no blood relations of the name of Murdock," Waldo said firmly.

Dessie drew a deep breath and looked longingly at the large roll of greenbacks bouncing up and down in her husband's hand.

Suddenly she leaned forward and grasped the roll desperately.

Waldo snatched it from her.

"This is Murdock money, woman," he said quickly. "A Murdock made it, and a Murdock shall spend it."

Dessie sat up decisively.

"Well, anyway, we'll be sensible," she said calmly. "We won't throw it away on trifles like a lot of people would who I could mention if I had a mind to."

"I've got it all settled, Dessie," Waldo told her, smiling as a kindly feeling came over him. "Guess we can afford to have a good time now at our age. Maybe we won't be lingering here much longer, which would be a shame if we hadn't taken full advantage of it by the time we went. Wouldn't be no sense in hoarding it only to have to pass it along to somebody else after we are gone."

Dessie nodded approvingly, her spirits rising again.

"I've always wanted a fur neckpiece, Waldo," she said, her face bright with hope.

Dessie did not sleep a single wink that night. For an hour after they had gone to bed, she lay silently tense, listening. Waldo did not stir. He lay on his back listening to Dessie's labored breathing.

Just before midnight Dessie got up as quietly as she possibly could and tiptoed to the foot of the bed where Waldo had laid his pants over the back of a chair. It was dark in the room with the shades drawn, and she took care in feeling her way to the chair. She was trembling nervously when she touched it, and the jerking of her breath had started a pain in her chest. Without losing any more time she slid her hand into the pants pocket.

"Get your hand out of my pants, Dessie," Waldo said, rising up in bed. "Leave that money be."

Dessie dropped the pants without having touched the money, and went back to bed without a word. Neither of them spoke as she lay down again and tried to [illegible] the chair.

Just as dawn was beginning to show the first signs of breaking, Dessie slid carefully from the bed and crawled on her hands and knees toward the chair. As she was rising up to reach the pants, Waldo sat up erectly.

"Don't want to have to mention it again about you putting your hand in my pants pocket," he said. "Leave that money be, Dessie."

Dessie dropped the pants and went to the window. She stood there watching a red dawn break in the east. After a while she began dressing, and as she was leaving the chamber she heard Justine starting a fire in the kitchen stove.

While she and Justine were preparing breakfast, she began to realize how uneasy she really was about the money. She had spent a sleepless night worrying over the wealth, and she was afraid she would not get a chance to spend a single penny of it herself.

"Mrs Murdock," Justine said, coming and standing beside her. "Carl and I could get mated right away if we had the money for a chamber suite."

"Let Carl Friend make his own money," Dessie said sharply, turning on the girl. "Me and my husband have worked hard all our lives for what we possess. It won't hurt Carl Friend to do the same for you, if he wants a family."

"I couldn't sleep much last night for staying awake wondering if you and Mr. Murdock wouldn't want to help me out," Justine said persistently. "Especially because I've worked here for you six years without asking favors, and I didn't think you'd miss a little of all that big inheritance from Australia."

"Mind your own affairs, Justine!" she said sharply. "Besides, Carl Friend can get the money from his own family if he wants to furnish a house for you. Those Friends have made plenty of profit in roof-tinning in the past."

"They won't help any, Mrs. Murdock," Justine said sadly. "And Carl and I don't want to have to wait and wait and wait."

"You don't have to hurry the marriage for any reason, do you?" Dessie asked suspiciously.

Justine looked at her for several moments her thoughts racing through her mind.

"Not exactly," she admitted at [illegible]

"Well, then," Dessie said, turning away, "in that case, you can afford to wait."

In turning abruptly she almost walked headlong into Waldo. He had come into the kitchen and [illegible] the [illegible] empty coffee can and left, going through the kitchen and out the door without a word being spoken. Dessie watched him leave, wondering what he was about to do. She went to the window and watched as he walked to the tool shed and came out a moment later carrying a spade. With the coffee can in one hand and the spade over his shoulder, he disappeared out of sight behind the barn.

It was not until almost ten minutes had passed that Dessie realized what Waldo was doing behind the barn.

Just as she was opening the door to run out there and observe him from the corner of the barn, Waldo walked into view. He came toward the house, carrying the spade but not the coffee can. Dessie's heart sank. He had buried the can, and the money with it, and she had failed to get out there in time to see where the wealth had been hidden. She walked back into the kitchen and placed breakfast on the table.

Waldo came in a few minutes later washed his hands at the pump, and sat down at his place. He began eating as though nothing out of the ordinary had taken place out behind the barn. Neither she nor Waldo had anything to say to each other during the whole twenty minutes they were at the table. When he finished eating, he got up and put on his hat.

"Have some affairs to attend to in the village," he said shortly. "Will be away for the forenoon, the whole of it."

Dessie nodded. She had to grip her hands tightly in order to hide her impatience. She waited until Waldo had got into the car and driven over the hill out of sight, and then she grabbed Justine by the arm and pulled her through the door. Pushing Justine ahead, Dessie ran as fast as she could to the tool shed, where she quickly snatched up two spades, and then hurried toward the back of the barn.

She set Justine to digging right away, while she looked the ground over carefully, hoping to find evidence of a freshly covered hole. She searched for nearly half an hour without finding a single trace of the hole she was positive Waldo had dug, and after that she went to work, digging methodically.

After several hours Justine slumped to the ground, completely exhausted. Dessie was tired, too, and the blisters on her hands made digging so painful that she could hardly bear to hold the [illegible] Justine [illegible] feet and tried to push the blade of the spade into the stony earth. She wanted to beg Dessie to let her rest some more, but when she glanced up and saw Dessie's closely clamped lips she knew it would be useless to ask.

Dessie stopped for a moment to ease her back. When her eyes were raised from the ground, she saw Fred Paxton leaning over the stone wall beside the road a hundred feet away.

"Going fishing, Dessie?" he called. "See you're digging fishing worms."

Dessie thrust her hand against the small of her aching back and straightened up a little more.

"Thought I might," she said slowly. "It's been a long time since I went."

"Now that you and Waldo have all that money to falute on," Fred said, "I guess you and him can afford to spend all your time doing nothing but fish, if you have a mind to."

"Maybe," she said, tightening her lips.

The mere mention of the money inflamed her thoughts until she could not see clearly. She bent over the spade, thrusting the blade into the rough, stony ground with all her might. She kept doggedly at it until she was certain Fred had walked out of sight over the hill.

Later she sent Justine to the kitchen for some bread and potatoes left over from breakfast, and when Justine returned, Dessie sat down in the shade of the barn and ate hurriedly.

"While I was in the house, Mr. Murdock phoned and said he wouldn't be back in the forenoon," Justine said. "He told me to tell you he would be away in the afternoon, too, the whole of it."

Dessie leaped to her feet.

"Why didn't you tell me right away when you came back a minute ago?" she said angrily.

Justine glanced at the stony ground.

"We're not going to dig out here the whole afternoon, too, are we, Mrs. Murdock?" she inquired pleadingly. "My hands are raw with blisters, and—"

"Never mind that," Dessie said firmly. "We are going to dig this afternoon, the whole of it!"

"But, Mrs. Murdock—"

"Shut up, Justine, and do as you are told!"

When Dessie fell on the bed at dusk that evening, she had never before in all her life felt so thoroughly miserable. Not only had she spent the entire day digging in the stony ground behind the barn, but, moreover, [illegible]

Once up in the bed, she moved her body [illegible], easing herself into a prone position. Justine had gone out earlier in the evening with Carl Friend and Waldo still had not returned. Dessie felt so tired and lonely that she wanted to cry. Just as she felt tears coming into her eyes, the phone began to ring. She lay motionless, listening to it ring for several minutes hoping all the while that it would stop so she could begin crying.

The phone did not stop, and it sounded as if it never would as long as she lived. She got to her feet, pressing her hands over her ears in order to keep out the sound, and stumbled painfully to the hall. There she sat down in the chair beside the stand and lifted the receiver.

"Hello," she said unsteadily.

"Is this Waldo Murdock's wife?" a voice boomed.

"Yes," she answered, wondering who it could be.

"Then you'd better bestir yourself and fetch Waldo home where he belongs before it's too late. This is Charles Mason. Waldo is over here at my place, in the east part of town, annoying my household, and if he was a Democrat, I'd shoot him myself, instead of turning the job over to his wife. I've never in my life seen a man behave like he's doing. I guess it's public knowledge by now, otherwise I wouldn't be repeating it that sudden wealth has gone to his head, but that's still no excuse for the way he's doing."

"What's Waldo doing?" Dessie asked, shouting impulsively into the phone.

"He's befuddling Miss Wilson, the schoolteacher who boards at my house, into going away with him. He says he's going to set sail for Australia or somewhere."

"But he can't do that!" Dessie protested.

"That's what any average, normal, level-minded human being would think, too, but I don't know what's going to stop Waldo if you don't come and get him right away, because he's already befuddled Miss Wilson into going to Boston with him tonight, and starting out again from there the first thing in the morning. He's got Miss Wilson believing everything he says, the lies along with the common truth. Looks like she would be on her guard, knowing she's associating with a newlyrich, but she's too far gone now to listen to reason. Waldo pulls out his wealth every few minutes and waves it in front of her, and the sight of that big roll of greenbacks acts on her just like chloroform [illegible]

[illegible] you [illegible] Waldo has a [illegible] roll of money?" she [illegible] "Greenbacks tied with a string around the middle?"

"He surely has, Mrs Murdock. It's the biggest roll of money I've seen on a man since the Democrats took over."

Dessie who had risen from the chair until she was almost erect, sat down, hard.

"Let him be!" she said coldly. "I don't want part or parcel of him. He had me digging in stony ground all day looking for that money in a coffee can, and it wasn't there at all. Let the schoolteacher take him. I've had my share and more of suffering, and now I'd be comforted to see somebody else have a goodly portion of it. Sudden wealth will show up a man's true nature every time, and I'm glad I found out the true size and shape of Waldo Murdock's nature before I wasted another single day of my life on him."

"You mean you're not going to try to stop Waldo from going away to the other end of the world with Miss Wilson?"

"No!" Dessie said emphatically. "Waldo Murdock has a free hand from now on!"

She hung up the receiver. A moment later she slumped brokenly in the chair. She called Justine several times before remembering that Justine had gone out with Carl Friend.

After that she hurried into her clothes and went back to the phone. She rang up Thornton Blanchard, her lawyer, and told him to come right away. He lived only a few miles distant, and he promised to be there within fifteen minutes.

While waiting for Thornton Blanchard, Dessie paced up and down the hallway, her face grim and determined. Her mind was made up, and she knew the sooner she acted the better she would feel.

After a few more minutes, he drove up to the house and stopped his car in the dooryard. Dessie went to the step, holding the door open for him. Thornton Blanchard hurried inside and went directly to the table in the center of the living room.

"Is there something wrong, Mrs. Murdock?" he asked anxiously.

"There is now, but it won't be much longer," she said, sitting down at the table, "not after I set things right I should have attended to twenty years ago."

Blanchard sat down and opened his brief case, slipping out a pad of ruled yellow writing paper and a pencil. He watched Dessie's face, waiting for her to begin.

Growing Popularity [illegible] Rugby League Football

Walter Pilkington

Sports Editor of the "Lancashire Evening Post" and contributor to leading sports publications in Britain

TWELVE months ago a French Rugby League team visited Britain and lost by nine points to 14 at Leeds, North of England centre of an area more attached to this offshoot of the rugby game than to Association football. Since then the French converts to the Rugby League code have become international champions. Thus the return visit to Yorkshire by France for a match at Hull against Other Nationalities (comprising ten Australians, two Scots and one New Zealander, all of them players with English Rugby League Clubs) was a recent attractive feature of a crowded programme spiced this winter by the tour of New Zealand Kiwis

These visits and the French tour of Australasia this year when they broke crowd records nearly everywhere they went have proved the ever growing popularity of the Rugby League professional game.

Enthusiasts for the code are not without hope of inspiring a liking for the game in the United States American National Football League. Sunderland's idea is to encourage the formation of a pioneering team to visit the English centres in the same way that Jean Gallia's Frenchmen first came 17 years ago, learn the game and return to encourage others to take it up. The French learned so well that an international championship which included France was formed in 1935.

AUSTRALIAN TOUR

Although travel tired after playing 22 games with only two defeats in the recent Australian tour the Frenchmen went to New Zealand and lost only one of seven matches. To show how the game is thriving in Australia the Sydney cricket ground was packed, when the third and deciding Test Match was played, by 67,000 spectators. Winning by 35 points to 14, the Frenchmen inflicted a more overwhelming defeat than any suffered by an Australian test team in the long history of Rugby League in that country. The speedy clever Frenchmen taught lessons which will be taken to heart by the selectors in choosing a young team for a return tour of England and France next year.

This girdling of the globe by a comparatively new game is amazing when one reflects that it was enduring a struggling infancy at [illegible] twenty [illegible] [illegible]. The [illegible] to England of the North to Rugby Union in 1895 with 22 clubs drawn exclusively [illegible] in Lancashire and West Yorkshire. Three years later unrestricted professionalism was introduced. The inevitable break away from strictly amateur rugby followed. In 1906, 13 players a side instead of 15 was tried. Other milestones were the first visit of a New Zealand team in 1907, the first England v. Australia Test match the following year, the first visit of a United Kingdom team to Australia in 1910, the changing of the title from Northern Union to Rugby Football League in 1922, and the First Cup Final in London seven years later.

The capital regarded this intrusion of the northern rugby hosts with disdain and indifference so that the modest attendance largely comprised followers of the Cup [illegible] in Lancashire and Yorkshire. But the power, stamina, speed, [illegible] and expert football of the Rugby League men eventually won the support of a more cosmopolitan public with the result that the Cup Final crowds became comparable with those seen at Wembley Stadium on great Association football occasions. Last year record receipts of £24,782 were taken at the stadium on the most eventful day in the Rugby League calendar.

HAD TO FIGHT FOR EXISTENCE

Yet it is well within the memory of many people how great clubs like Wigan, the Lancashire stronghold of the game, came into being. Wigan, since World War II, has won the League title three times in six seasons and taken the Cup twice in the last four. The club has been Lancashire champions and Cup winners every year since 1945 and 13 times altogether [illegible] 50 years ago Wigan [illegible] to fight for existence. The ch [illegible] poor and almost penniless leag [illegible] a field from the railway compan [illegible] The ground was raised and leve [illegible] led by paid and voluntary wor [illegible] ers and the first match took pla [illegible] in September 1902. The play [illegible] themselves helped in groun [illegible] improvements. At first there we [illegible] no dressing rooms. The grad [illegible] progressive changes which mac [illegible] Wigan renowned as a club hav [illegible] marked the development of t [illegible] game in other towns and countrie [illegible]

In England it is thriving [illegible] Lancashire and Yorkshire, th [illegible] counties which gave it birth, an [illegible] gaining a greater hold in sout [illegible] Wales. The time will come whe [illegible] it will spread to the north-eas [illegible] midlands and south, and th [illegible] winter's visit of the fifth team o [illegible] New Zealand Rugby League play [illegible] ers to go to England and of th [illegible] touring Frenchmen cannot fail t [illegible] stimulate wider interest.

[illegible] have flown as far as the Haggis which arrived for the Santiago Society last Saturday.

By kind courtesy of Mr. Robert Taylor, Manager of British Overseas Airways, Santiago, the haggis (1) for Saturday's dinner at the Country Club was flown out from Scotland, and was ceremoniously received at Cerrillos by a group of four Kilted Scots (2) and the President of the Santiago Society, Mr. Alex Macdonald C. B. E.

On delivering his charge, the skipper of the Argonaut Speedbird was presented with a bottle of whisky, in appreciation of his services in bringing with him the first "Great Chieftain of the Pudding race" to have reached Chile by air.

(1) Usually made in the large stomach-bag of a sheep, or one of the smaller bags called the king's hood, and composed of a mixture of oatmeal, the lights, the liver and the heart.

(2) Messrs., Reid, McLean, Ruxton and Murray.

TOC H BIRTHDAY FESTIVAL—

This year Toc H Cradock Branch and Toc H (Women's Section), Valparaiso, celebrated their Birthday Festival during the week-end November 24th - 25th. The following members from Santiago attended:— Mesdames C. T. Henry, Grace Jones, Isabel Holloway and the Misses Margaret Cater, Sally Fuenzalida, Tatiana Antipaff, Otilla Bozza, Jane Plunkett and Margaret Henry.

On Saturday evening there was a short service in the Union Church at which the Rev. Murdoch MacLeod officiated and Mr. Albert Turner played the organ. The Rev. Edgar Pearson gave a most interesting and appropriate sermon, and specially mentioned the valuable help that Toc H were giving to the Seamen's Mission.

After the Service a delightful cold supper was served in the adjoining hall. The Hon. Commissioner, Mr. David Blair, then welcomed the Santiago members and friends who had come to spend the evening with Toc H.

This cricket match was [illegible] at the Prince of Wales Country Club on Saturday [illegible] of November and resulted in a win for St Peter's by 23 runs.

The Grange won the toss and as is usual in these one innings games put St Peter's in. By lunch time at 1.15 P. M. the score was 7 for 49 runs, St. Peter's having lost 3 wickets for 3 runs and 4 wickets for 11 runs. But Naylor's 20 was a very useful help to their side and the innings closed for 59. For the Grange, Vigil had 6 wickets for 21 runs and Henderson and Stringfellow each got 2 wickets. The fielding was mediocre; although 3 catches were held, several were dropped and the ground fielding needs a lot of practice and improvement.

The Grange started their innings equally badly losing 3 wickets for 9 runs and with no one except Shearman, who scored a "shaky" 10 runs, making double figures - they were all out for 36, leaving St. Peter's the winners by 23 runs.

Naylor and Wilkins bowled unchanged for St. Peter's, the former taking 3 for 18 and Wilkins 7 for 13. In fact it is fair to say that these two boys won the match for their side.

St. Peter's fielding was also only mediocre and several catches were dropped, but undoubtedly the better side won.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE

We are informed that Mr. Henry Boys has been appointed resident Layman of the Valparaiso Seamens' Institute as from the 1st December next.

[illegible] on November [illegible] at Wallasey, Liverpool. Mr. Hallam was sixty-seven years of age.

In Chile he worked in the Accounts Department of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company up to the year 1931 when he returned to England. In 1935 he left this country to serve in the first World War, joining the Royal Engineers, "D" Company Signalling Corps. In August of that year he was sent to France, where he was engaged in communications work. [illegible] worked for the Admiralty in Liverpool.

In Chile he will long be remembered as a keen football player, and before the first War as one of the best half-backs of the "Valparaiso" Football Club. He took part in several Intercity and International Matches.

Mr Hallam leaves a widow and one daughter now resident in Wallasey; his many friends in Chile will join us in extending to them our deep sympathy.

The Little Man Of The Chimes

Once upon a time there was a Very Old Lady who lived by herself in a small brown house. She had a rocking chair, a thick storybook, and a clock that chimed. Every day the Very Old Lady sat in her rocking chair beside the window. Slowly she rocked back and forth and read stories from the thick book. There was a story about a white-topped mountain in Japan, one about a gray castle in Spain with a thousand rooms. And one was a story of a golden horse in Africa that could run faster than the wind.

At the end of each hour, as the Very Old Lady read from the thick story book, the clock played its chimes. They were as sweet as the song of a bird in Springtime, as sweet as a babbling brook rippling over the pebbles, as sweet as a baby cooing to its mother.

The Very Old Lady was happy, for she loved the clock and her thick storybook and her rocking chair.

But one day when the Very Old Lady sat reading, the chimes in the clock sounded tired. Every hour, as they rang out, the notes came more slowly. Finally, at six o'clock, the chimes did not ring at all. The only sound from the clock was its soft ticktock.

The Very Old Lady opened the glass door that covered the face of the clock. She took down a key and wound the spring. She tapped the clock very gently. Then she sat down in the rocking chair to wait.

The hands of the clock told the Very Old Lady that it was seven o'clock. But again no chimes sounded. Only the quiet ticktock of the clock could be heard. The Very Old Lady waited for another hour. But at eight o'clock the chimes did not play. At nine the Very Old Lady put away the thick storybook, turned out the light, and went to bed. She thought and thought about the chimes and wondered what could have happened to them. She wondered whether they would ever play again.

The Very Old Lady was almost asleep when she thought she heard a queer sound in the room. It was close to her ear. She sat up in bed and lighted the lamp. She got up and looked in all the corners of the room. There was no one there. She looked behind the door. There was no one there.

"It must have been the wind in the trees," said the Very Old Lady. And she turned out the light and went back to bed.

She closed her eyes. But just as she was drifting to sleep, she thought she heard the queer sound again.

The Very Old Lady sat up in bed and lighted her lamp. She got up and looked in all the corners of the room. There was no one there. She looked under the bed. There was no one there. She looked behind the door. There was no one there.

"It must have been a dog barking outside," said the Very Old Lady. And she turned out her light and went back to bed.

"Don't turn out the light! I can't see," commanded a tiny voice.

The Very Old Lady sat up and lighted the lamp. And there on a post of her bed stood a wee man no taller than the Very Old Lady's thumb. He was wearing a little brown hat, brown trousers, and a jacket as green as the grass in the meadow. On each of his boots glittered a golden buckle.

"My goodness!" exclaimed the Very Old Lady. "Who are you?"

"I'm Chymer," said the wee man. "I play the chimes in your clock."

"But the chimes didn't play tonight," said the Very Old Lady.

"I know!" said Chymer. "I'm tired of playing them. Every hour of every day for years and years I've played the chimes. I want a vacation. I want to travel. I want to see tall forests and gray castles and white-topped mountains and blue oceans. I'm going to go places and see all these things!"

The Very Old Lady smiled and nodded her head. "Yes," she said. "They are beautiful. But those things are all many miles away. How will you travel so far?"

"I'm going to walk," replied Chymer. He pointed to his feet. "See my shiny new boots!" he said proudly. "They have thick soles; so they won't wear out."

"But you're so tiny!" exclaimed the Very Old Lady. "You will be stepped on. Dogs will growl at you. You'll soon be hungry and cold and tired if you start out to see all those things."

Chymer's face grew sad.

"Oh, dear!" he said. "I didn't think of that! Perhaps I'd better not go after all. But I can't play the chimes for you when I'm not happy. And I'll never be happy again until I learn all about the beautiful places and things in the world."

The Very Old Lady was silent for a few moments. She was thinking of the chimes that sounded like the song of a bird in springtime and a babbling brook and a cooing baby. She was thinking about the wee man who wanted to travel to tall forests and white-topped mountains and blue oceans. At last she spoke.

"I go traveling every day," she said. "Every day I read my thick story book. It tells me about many beautiful places and things in the world. If you will stay and play the chimes in my clock, I will read to you from my book. Then, in imagination, we can travel together all over the world."

And that is just what happened. Every day after that the Very Old Lady sat in her rocking chair by the window, with Chymer perched on her shoulder. The Very Old Lady read to him from the thick storybook. She read about the whitetopped mountain in Japan, the gray castle in Spain with a thousand rooms, and the golden horse in Africa that could run faster than the wind.

After that every hour, day after day, Chymer climbed into his home in the clock and rang the chimes—chimes as sweet as the song of a bird in springtime, as sweet as a babbling brook rippling over pebbles, as sweet as a baby cooing to its mother.

A Christmas Gift For Dad

Your father would rather have a gift you made than the most expensive present you can buy. Here is something you can make that will surely please him. Ask Mother to buy you a small pocket comb. Now lay this on a piece of paper, and trace carefully around it. By drawing another line 1/2 cm outside this line, you have a pattern for a comb case, just a little larger than the comb. Using this pattern, cut two pieces of felt. (Perhaps Mother has an old felt hat she doesn't want anymore. It can be washed and pressed, if it is dirty.)

Now, stitch the two pieces together carefully around the edge, using bright yarn. (Don't forget to leave one end open, so that the comb can slide in.) Tie a small strip of felt around the last tooth of the comb, to make a little handle for pulling the comb from the case. There. It's all finished, and doesn't it look nice?

AUNT KITTY WISHES MANY HAPPY RETURNS TO FRANCIS REES, MICHAEL COLLELA, PETER FIRMIN, MARGARET CASTELAARS LESLIE POLLOCK AND DAVID VALDES

AUNT KITTY'S LETTER

Today is the very last day of November, and do you know what that means, children It means that in only 25 days, old Saint Nicholas will come creeping down the chimney with his pack full of toys. Have you made out your Christmas list, Bonnie? And you, Peter and Michael, it's time to start being very good boys so that Santa will bring you more than a bundle of sticks! And all of you had better start thinking about making presents for your friends and families, because Christmas will soon be here!

ANTOFAGASTA

THE retiring British Ambassador, Sir Bertrand Jerram, K. C. M. G., arrived at Antofagasta in the M. V. "Sarmiento" on November 13th en route to England. His Excellency was met by the British Consul, Mr. Thomas Bates, O. B. E. As the vessel was to load minerals at Mejillones on the following day, Sir Bertrand accepted the invitation of Mr. L. V. Duff to stay overnight at Antofagasta. This allowed him sufficient time to enjoy a motor run towards the pampa, visit the Auto Club and to call upon the Intendente of the Province

On re-visiting Antofagasta, the Ambassador took the opportunity to present the Insignia and Warrant of Appointment of membership of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire to the British Vice Consul, Mr. Stuart E. Sword. The presentation ceremony was celebrated at the English Club in the presence of the Dean of the Consular Corps, Don Max de la Fuente Locker, Consul General of Peru; the British Consul, Mr. Thomas Bates, O. B. E., don Ramón Yoma, Presidente of the Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Mansel McMahan, Vice Consul of the United States; and Mr. J. G. Macfarlane, President of the English Club. Among others who were present were the Rev. J. B. D. Cotter, and Messrs. Malcolm E. Sword, E. McLean, P. Williamson, J. R. W. Stansfield, W. R. James, W. Hughes, L. V. Duff, A. P. Sexton, T. J. K. Barber, S. Dacre, D. J. Dakin, J. L. Hill, C. F. Ferrand, C. Wood, R. Ferrand, J. W. Balshaw, W. E. Mitchell, G. W. Craig, Captain Wardale of the "Sarmiento" and Captain Rice of the "Salamanca".

Punctually as the clock struck noon, the Ambassador was conducted into the room by the Consul and spoke as follows:— "It " is with peculiar pleasure that, " as my very last act as Ambas- " sador in Chile, I obey His Ma- " jesty's command to deliver a " decoration to so loyal and long- " standing a member of the Brit- " ish Consulate at Antofagasta " Mr. Vice-Consul Sword has been " performing valuable duties at " this Consulate, of which he has " often been in charge, for a " great many years, and is a " highly respected member of the " British community. Stuart Elliot " Sword:— I am commanded by " His Majesty the King to deliver " to you personally, not by way " of investiture, but in an official " and ceremonious manner, the " badge of a Member of the Civil " Division of the Most Excellent " Order of the British Empire " which the King was graciously " pleased to confer on the oc- " casion of His Majesty's last " Birthday in recognition of your " long and valuable services I " am commanded at the same " time to hand to you the Grant " of Dignity signed by the Queen " Mother and bearing His Ma- " jesty's sign manuel."

Following the ceremony cocktails were served and the health of Mr. Sword was drunk by the assembly.

— :: —

Sir Bertrand Jerram, accompanied by the Consul, proceeded to Mejillones by car at 10.00 a. m. on Wednesday to rejoin the "Sarmiento". His Excellency was attended by Mr. John Hopwood, M. C., and others before bidding farewell to Chilean soil.

[illegible] Rancho which had been most kindly conceded for the occasion

In accordance with time-honoured custom, the majority of the ex-servicemen mustered at the English Club and, so far as is known, only one member failed to answer "Here!" to his name and escaped the ensuing operations. He may have deserted by air, as he was not observed either wriggling across no-man's land on his stomach, or swimming from the wreck to a Carley float.

At the bugle's call, the troops were transported in mechanised vehicles of 1914 to 1945 vintage to the Rancho, where the roll call was taken and the survivors of the initial skirmishes were found to comprise the following veterans:— R Ferrand, President, C. Wood, Vice - President, A. J. Brown, Secretary, R. L. Davies, Treasurer, D. H. Maird, J. W. Balshaw, T. J. K. Barber, J. K. Benson, M. M., D. J. Dakin, A. F. Daniell E. S. Dyer, C F. Ferrand, J. L. Hill, E. H. Holmes-Brown, J. Hopwood, M. C., I. McDowall, M. C., E McLean, W. E. Mitchell, R. Pocock, R. P. Perez, R. A. C Pritchard, H. F. Rooke, J. Slater, S E. Sword, M. B. E., E. N. Thomas, also in representation of the Chuquicamata Branch:— A. F. Swain, M. B E D S C, and E. W. Witcombe, M B E. The British Consul, Mr. T Bates, O. B E., the American Vice-Consul, Mr. M. McMahan, and Mr. A. Grondys of the Dutch Forces had been recruited as guests.

Little time was lost in sounding "Come to the cook-house door, boys", to which there was a ready response. Since the close of the campaign some of the brave lads have been heard to opine that the rations were of such quality that the reply of the senior hand of the mess to the enquiry of the officers of the day was a satiated "No complaints, Sir". However, such was the confusion created in the ranks by thrust and counter thrust that it is difficult to determine precisely of what those rations consisted. Since an important feature of the general tatical strategy had seemed to consist of their being thoroughly washed down, it is possible that is was the iron rations that had been dished out.

The serious stage of the manoeuvres included the individual firing off of toasts, executed by numbers in Bisley-like perfection by R. Ferrand who gave "The King", C. Wood who welcomed the "Visitors", S. E. Sword who recalled a host of "Absent Friends" and A. J. Brown who spoke of "Sweet-hearts and Wives"; but a Big Bertha blast was exploded by E. W Witcombe. The force of the blast apparently knocked out the Sergeant Major, for he proved incapable of reporting exactly what it was all about. A wounded straggler who limped in imagines that the rollicking Major dealt with such confused subjects as Montgomery and Mossadegh; the triangle of error and love's sweet song, pinching boots on a lengthy retreat and what Gladstone said in 1864, plus an expression of his opinion as to whether Scottish boys should wear [illegible] or [illegible] [illegible] out every now and then to say it, but were [illegible] blue-coated with rifle butts before they could say it again

A rallying call of "Up, Guards, and at 'em" saw all ranks jump to it as they did at Waterloo. "It" being the hospitable Rancho Bar, behind which were ranged the invitingly grinning sappers who had valiantly blazed a way for the advancing suppers The movement developed into a brisk general action that became further enlivened when a piano, which had been cunningly camouflaged in its dark retreat, was spotted and commandeered Relentlessly frog-marched to the canteen, it was promptly stripped of every removable piece of equipment and clothing by the M. P. It threatened to collapse with shell-shock upon being displayed in all its pristine nakedness, but made a startling recovery when copiously lubricated with whatever class of medicine, strictly of a liquid nature, that came to the hand of the Sick Berth Attendants. The timely arrival of scouts with a prisoner, Bob Condit of the American Legion, saved the critical emergency that had arisen from developing into a military disastre Bob proceeded to do his stuff, and if Santiago Branch failed to hear the responses of the rank and file gathered around the camp fire, it was not the fault of the Antofagasta troops.

So continuous became the roar of barrack-room voices [illegible] a startling feint by enemy skirmishers passed almost unobserved. They wormed their way to the rear, cleared the breach of land-mines, and ambushed comrade John Hopwood whom they carried off in triumph to their base at Mejillones, despite the stout resistence he offered, a prisoner [illegible] in dens [illegible] and the [illegible] Lamps became ever louder. Small wonder then that the troops were hazy as to the hour at which the determining phases of the action occurred, or who were the directing strategists of this historic military event. Let us imagine then that the good old hanging steel crowbar had clanged 2.00 a. m. and that unconquerable Arthur Swain and [illegible] Brown figured among the plotting General Staff. We would even amend the stricken hour to 2.30 if thereby we could escape court-martial for unseemly exaggeration. In any case, the expert scrounging of a sticky - fingered batman "won", from heaven knows where, a silver cup of fantastic proportions and unfathomable capacity The order "Fall in" was given—and the phalanx almost did fall into it, for it brimmed with an insidious brew concocted of every liquid ingredient stocked in the canteen or in any neighbouring camps. Beer was betrothed to whiskey, liqueur linked with pisco, cognac coquetted with vermouth and each with one another; the falsified frivolling with the imported. This was just a hang[illegible] conceived, get-together, one-and-all-united, one-for-the-long-long road loving-cup dram. Obedient to command and willing to serve every man did his duty and partook That probably was what finally ensured the hard-won victory, with its compensating glory for the maimed and wounded of the cheers of the welcoming homefolk when they reached their billets in time for breakfast. In short, as we stated at first, we celebrated another British Legion armistice dinner at Antofagasta

(The editors are happy to welcome a new Antofagasta correspondent, Mr. T. Gathering, well-known resident of the Port City. We feel sure that readers will join us in the wish that Mr. Gathering's reports become a weekly feature of these columns —ED.).

Mrs. Ann Macleay and children [illegible] and Dinah left by air for Buenos Aires on the 15th September, from whence they left by the "[illegible] Grange" for New Zealand. They expect to be absent from Punta Arenas for about six months

We deeply regret to record the death, which took place recently in Santiago, of Mrs Kenneth Cara, an old resident of Punta Arenas, and take this opportunity of expressing our sympathy with Mr Cara in his sad loss.

— :: —

Mr. and Mrs Cecil Wells returned by air to Punta Arenas recently, after a holiday in Canada. We understand that in the autumn they will again leave Punta Arenas to take up permanent residence in Canada.

The Commander in Chief of the Chilean Navy, Rear Admiral don Carlos Torres Hevia, recently presented to the British Club a painting of the Cruiser "Chacabuco". The presentation was effected by Rear Admiral Carmona, Chief of the 3rd Naval Division, on behalf of the donor, at an informal Cocktail Party in the Club Rooms, and the President of the Club, Mr. A. D. King, made a speech in which he asked Admiral Carmona to convey the sincere thanks of the Committee and Members to Admiral Torres for his generous gesture. Among those present at the ceremony was Rear Admiral don Olegario Reyes del Rio, who served as a midshipman in the "Chacabuco" in 1901.

On the 14th July a very enjoyable party took place at the Rio Seco Staff House, in aid of the Golf Club. The guests were requested to wear something reminiscent of the "Gay Nineties." Some of the get-ups were extremely clever, and greatly added to the hilarity of the evening. The "Tennis Girl" dancing "Boogie Woogie" with the "Churchwarden" was quite a sight to behold. On the 8th of September a similar party took place at the Staff House, the proceeds this time being divided between the Golf Club and Rio Seco Charities. The guests were asked to wear "Hidden Book Titles," and prizes were given for those who guessed the largest number of titles within a given time. These were won by Miss Leslie Stirling and Mr. L. C. Saunders respectively. Among the cleverest representations were those of Mr. Eric Davies-"The Enemy Within," Miss M. Harper-"Great Expectations," Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Saunders-"We Took to the Woods," Mr. J. Price-"Cheaper by the Dozen," Mr. S. B. Robson-"The Seats of the Mighty," and Mr. E. I. Clifford - "Britannia Mews."

Among those who spent the Diez-y-Ocho holidays in camp were Mr. and Mrs. E Buchan, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs K O Maclean at "Rio Verde," and Mr. and Mrs. J. Price, who were the guests of Mr. E. I. Clifford at Estancia Punta Delgada

— :: —

Several Members had an "indoor picnic" at the Golf Club on Diez-y-ocho, those present being Mr. and Mrs. J. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. King, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. King, Mr. and Mrs. G. Crew, Miss L. Stirling and Mr. F. P. Arthur.

— :: —

During the winter months fortnightly "hops" were held at the British School, in aid of the Golf Club, the total profit thereon being in excess of $ 10 000 —.

Among those who came in from camp to attend the recent party at Rio Seco were Mr. E. I. Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. K. Maclean, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Davies and Mr. and Mrs. W. Macleay.

The sector of the town which has been without telephone service for nearly ten months-since the hurricane of November last-has now had that somewhat mixed blessing bestowed upon it once again. Mixed is the blessing indeed -on the day our 'phone was connected we were rubbing our hands in glee, and wondering to whom to give the honour of our first call, when we received our first call, which turned out to be... "wrong number." After that the blessed instrument went on strike, and for the next ten days, though it rang on an average of once every ten minutes, we could speak to nobody, not even the exchange. We understand that a representative of Erikssons is now in Punta Arenas, trying to come to an agreement with the local authorities which would enable automatic telephones to be installed, but up to the present nothing definite seems to have been arranged.

News has just been received of the death, which took place in England, of Mr. P. A. de Bruyne, father of Mr. H. B. A. de Bruyne, of Estancia Rio Verde.

The territory lost another of its pioneers recently when don José Menendez Behety lost his life in a motoring accident near Buenos Aires. His two sons, José and Arturo, who were with him, were injured, but we understand that both are progressing favourably.

Alcalde don Jerman Saelzer Balde returned from a visit to the Capital where in company with the Parliamentary representatives he visited the various Ministerial Departments with promising results.

It is announced that the construction of the new railway station in Calle Anibal Pinto has been definitely resolved, though nothing is stated about the initiation of its construction.

Promises of funds for the construction of the Intendencia Building which will house the Post and Telegraphs, the Corte de Apelaciones and the offices and private dwelling of the Intendencia, have also been made to the extent of Seven Millions which sum will be augmented when the work is advanced.

The 25th anniversary of the Cruz Roja de Hombres, Valdivia Branch, and of the Club Aéreo de Valdivia 13th anniversary were celebrated during the week. There was also an imposing ceremony in the Plaza on Friday last when the ladies and members of the Cruz Roja de Señoras processed through the principal streets and speeches were made from the bandstand

The first regattas of the season were held on Sunday morning with the participation of the five clubs of the Association. They were of special interest owing to the innovation of regattas Single and Double Sculls and attracted an enormous crowd of spectators to the river front. The Arturo Prat obtained first place in points followed by Centenario and Phoenix-Valdivia, the last named senior crew participating in the respective event.

On Sunday aftenoon the Nacional F. C. beat the Magallanes F. C. by 2-1 in a closely contested football match in the Municipal Park which was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators.

The Club is now the proud possessor of two handsome trophies, one, a Quaich, having been presented by Mr F. D. Paton, to replace the one lost in the fire, which had been presented many years ago by him and the late Mrs Paton. The second of these trophies, the Warwick Cup, has been presented by Mr. W. C. Warwick, to replace the trophy presented by him on the occasion of his visit to Punta Arenas some years ago.

On the 4th. inst, the official inauguration of the new Club House at the Golf Course took place, and the opening ceremony, was largely attended. Mr. K. C. Ross, the new President, declared the building open, and then handed to Mr. Jorge Claude a silver ashtray from the Members, as a token of their gratitude for his kindness in designing and overseeing the construction of the new building, at the same time he presented a bouquet to Mrs. Claude.

The bidding

3 spades	Pass	3 no trump	Pass
4 spades	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: king of clubs

An attempt to deceive the opposition is untimely when the facts speak for themselves.

South reached the perfectly sound contract of four spades and saw that fulfillment would be difficult if hearts failed to break, which on percentage rated to be the case. West cashed the king and ace of clubs and shifted to the jack of hearts, drawing East's queen and South's ace. Burying his head in the sand, declarer, in ostrich like fashion, proceeded to lead all his trumps but one in the hope that someone would fall into the error of unguarding the hearts so that the king and another heart would establish the fourth card of that suit. This was the height of futility because the cards spoke for themselves and no player out of incarceration could hold onto diamonds and let go hearts.

Declarer would have been better advised to attempt to visualize the adverse holdings and he might have hit upon a scheme to win the hand without resort to chicanery. Declarer should start extracting trumps. When West shows out on the second round, he pulls one more, leaving East with the nine. Declarer cashes the ace of diamonds and then plays the king of hearts. If East ruffs he has nothing but diamonds to return, permitting declarer to dispose of his two losing hearts. If East refuses to ruff, declarer simply plays the three of trumps and forces East to win with the nine. This is a Greek gift for the forced diamond return puts an end to the contest.

BEAUTY AND YOU

DO YOU RUN LIFE.. OR DOES IT RUN YOU

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Few of us run our lives. Our lives run us. If we are to lead responsible full lives this has to be so to a certain extent. However, over and over again I am impressed with the fact that few people consciously make choices. Few are firm in their determination to get from life that which has greatest meaning for them. Most persons go along in the usual groove with only a sideways glance at the things they long to accomplish; the things which have always held great interest for them.

We fail to realize that we should have an energy budget just as we have a money budget. We have only so much energy to spend without nervous exhaustion.

We should budget it in order to have time for the realization of some of those dreams and the accomplishment of some purely personal interests.

Women are supposed to run houses but most houses run women to death. In this, as in all activities, you must choose what is really important to you. Is it more important to have a perfectly kept house, or a home where everyone is comfortable and you are gay and everyone is happy? Is it important to you to entertain formally and flawlessly or to have enough energy left to enjoy your guests when they arrive?

I am not advocating a messy house. This leads to fatigue and hecticness. Charm of atmosphere and a certain amount of order are certainly essential.

Myriad small wastes in energy add up to fatigue. If your kitchen work table is not the correct height for you it will be a handicap. If you stand when you could sit that is another. If you plan your grocery lists carelessly those mad dashes to the store are tiring and hectic.

You can safely bet that those women you know who accomplish so much and still seem to have time and energy to enjoy life have learned to avoid many such small wastes in their energy budget. You can recoup your energy larder with short periodic ten minute rest periods

LONDON FASIONS

An afternoon dress with full skirt, natural shoulder line and three-quarter sleeves designed by Rembrandt.

[illegible]

The city of San Francisco, California, looms largely as the background of films we saw during the week, and very nice it looks, too, although a friend of ours who once lived there complained bitterly of the fog—and he was a Liverpudlian, at that. In THREE HUSBANDS (Tres Esposas) Emlyn Williams, for his first Hollywood picture, if we are not mistaken, abandons his predilection for playing psychopathic murderers as in Night Must Fall and phthisical coal miners as in The Citadel and breaks out as a polished Oxonian who oozes charm all over the place. What he was doing in San Francisco isn't made quite clear in the film, but he has a very modern establishment and entertains handsomely. He is very friendly with three married couples and has a cardiac condition, which is medicalese for a weak or diseased heart. As is not infrequent with such patients, he dies suddenly, but as he is a tireless prankster he leaves with his lawyer three letters, addressed to each of the husbands of the couples with whom he has been friendly, to be delivered to the addressees on the day of the funeral. In these letters he makes the simple statement that the relations between himself and the wives have been more than just simple friendship, and the film deals with the effect the news has on the husbands and we are shown in flash-backs that Mr. Williams had innumerable opportunities for developing the relations at which he hints.

It is all played with great skill, and the ladies concerned, Miss Ruth Warrick, Miss Vanessa Brown and the incomparable Miss Eve Arden, are provocatively charming. The dialogue is entertaining, adult and bright, Mr. Emlyn Williams is undoubtedly the type for whom the ladies wouldn't mind leaving home, and the picture is very neatly directed by Mr. Irving Reis, we think, though we wouldn't swear to that name on oath.

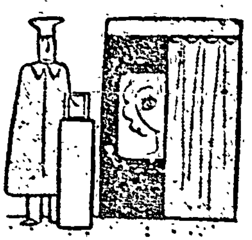
The other side of life near the Golden Gate is portrayed in SHAKEDOWN (Extorsión) where Mr. Howard Duff turns up as a taker of pictures for the newspapers. Funny the professions these Duffs get into We know of only two others and one is a Bank Manager and the other an Insurance Man. Perhaps Howard Duff is in the most respectable business. It's practically a certainty that he rakes in more shekels for his efforts.

In the course of his free-lancing, Mr. Duff gets one or two shots that are really good news-pictures, and is hired by a paper, despite the fact that the editor, Mr. Bruce Bennett doesn't care for the Duff fellow as a type. In the pursuit of his reportorial duties Mr. Duff obtains some more pictures that would definitely incriminate one or two of the local gang-leaders if they were published. These he holds on to and approaches the gangster with proposals that amount to nothing else but blackmail. One thing leads to another and he eventually finishes up pumped full of bullets by a gentleman who dislikes him considerably, but Mr. Duff has the presence of mind to press the camera bulb before he kicks the bucket and so leaves a picture of his assassin for the record, though it didn't really matter-there were scores of witnesses present.

The film is quite exciting in spots and gives a close-up of one way of earning a living, but it is, perhaps, wiser to stick to either Banking or Insurance.

—oOo—

Miss Ginger Rogers, in the course of her long career in the movies, has possibly not had a tougher job to tackle than her part in STORM WARNING task to [illegible] that she does it well, though the sisters are apt to be bothered by the memory of her dancing cheek to cheek. We recall being in the audience in the old Palace Theater of Vaudeville in New York when Phil Baker, a headline comedian with an accordion and a stooge in a box, spot-lighted Miss Rogers in the audience and described her as a Little Girl with a Great Big Future. He invited her up on the stage to sing, and she accepted. Mr. Baker was the embarrassed one: she wanted to sing "I Got Rhythm" and it taxed his ingenuity to produce a satisfactory accompaniment on his accordian. That was many years ago, and we think it may safely be said that Mr. Baker's prophecy of those day has come true.



In the film Miss Rogers is the model who accompanies a travelling dress salesman on his expeditions, and while on their way to some Southern Center in the U. S. she stops off at some small town 'Way Down South to visit her married sister. No sooner is she off the bus than she witnesses a rather brutal butchering by the Ku Klux Klan and two of the members of that inspiring organisation have been silly enough to leave off their hoods. She sees them, of course, and troubles begin when she arrives at her sister's and discovers that her brother-in-law is one of the unhooded hoodlums she has seen. What would you do? Your duty to the community at large by bearing witness against your brother-in-law and causing your sister endless distress, or keep quiet? That's the problem poor old Ginger has to face and it's made all the more difficult when she finds that Ronald Reagan is the District Attorney. It isn't very difficult for a girl to fall in love with Mr. Reagan, so there you are. After a series of unpleasantnesses, among them the whip-lashing of Miss Rogers by the Ku Klux Klan in solemn conclave, the thing is finally worked out, but it definitely leaves an unpleasant taste in one's mouth.

A foreword to this picture states that the goings-on recorded in the picture do not necessarily give an authentic picture of happenings in the United States, and we hope to goodness that is so. Nevertheless the producers must bear in mind the 99% of the people who see the picture will not take the trouble to read all the rigmarole that precedes the actual photographs and will come away from the movie with the fixed notion that these things do take place in the United States. It's regrettable, but we can't see the situation any other way.

"TRY AND GET ME," NEW FILM, RELEASED IN SANTIAGO TODAY

The important paper of the motion picture industry "Showmen's Trade Review," published the following comments about the film "TRY AND GET ME" (La Justicia Injusta"), which opens to-day at the Florida Theater, of Santiago city, through United Artists release:

"This is an engrossing, realistic melodrama; a fast-moving, exciting, suspenseful story that deals with mob violence and the terrific effect of lawlessness on all people. Splendidly acted and directed, it holds its emotional grip from start to finish, and since no effort has been made to glamorize either the people or the surroundings, it is startlingly real. Frank Lovejoy, as the unemployed man caught in the web of circumstances because of his inability to get work to support his family, scores in a performance that not only rings true but wins sympathy. Lloyd Bridges, an extremely versatile actor, handles the role of the megalomaniac killer with accustomed efficient ability. Kathleen Ryan, a newcomer, is very good in a characterization that calls for true understanding to be convincing. Impressive in supporting roles are Richard Carlson, Adele Jergens and Katherine Locke. Director Cyril Endfield demonstrates his ability to ensnare the true aura of off-beat situations of the American scene with his handling of the mob scenes; and his direction throughout is practically flawless. The storming of the jail by the mob (actually filmed on location in Phoenix, Ariz. with townspeople and police participating) is one of the tensest most gripping sequences the motion picture camera has captured in a long time. The film's story premise-an appeal for judgment by reason rather than by emotion, is clearly something to provoke discussion and thus build patronage through word-of-mouth. Some people may declare that the picture is too much for them, but they'll go right on talking about it and thus excite the curiosity of others who won't be able to rest until they, too, can go see it. Robert Stillman deserves plaudits for an outstanding production."

INTER-CITY MATCH IN VIÑA

The Inter-City match played at Viña last week-end was interesting enough to merit a commentary from R. C R-G or E. W. Swanton. However, yours truly must suffice. The weather was fine. Lucky Chilean cricketers, as last year's Wisden pointed out to find this unexceptional.

Wonderful to relate the players were nearly all ready to start, as the secretary had ordained, at 10.30 a. m. sharp. However, nobody seemed to have faith in this coincidence and the game duly started at 11 a. m. Santiago won the toss and chose to bat. One Viña optimist was heard to remark that this was defeatism, choosing to play for a draw. But by lunch-time with Santiago 90 odd for one and Meredith seeing the ball football size there were some signs of complaisance amongst the Santiago players. Manning had by this time been exasperating the bowlers with his smothering tactics which effectively closed up one end while Meredith made hay. Even so it had not been fast moving and it looked as if the draw-prophecy was not without foundation. Jones had made a useful if lucky 26, Meredith was clear of his 50 and Manning was well, still there. Manning, incidentally, was using a substitute run getter.

From Viña's point of view, the lunch interval, always a stiff hurdle for the batsmen, worked wonders. It awoke Manning, who spluttered fitfully with a four like golden-rain fire-works and then went out played-on to Ness. It made Meredith careless and had him bowled by Freestone. Thereafter the score-sheet shows a steady fall of wickets until the end of the innings. Santiago were unlucky to lose Hobsbawn, run out on his own call, who had been shaping up well, but apart from him and Tienken there had been no other serious attempts to stop the rot. Ness had taken 6 wickets for 55 and Freestone 2 for 15 when Stuart's wicket fell caught at the wicket by Fairbrass off Maxwell at 3:30 p. m. Paine with 5 maidens out of 8 overs had been bowling with a consistency that was to be rewarded in the second innings. Apart from a few muffed catches the fielding had been keen and it was anybody's game. Although on paper it was then to be expected that Viña would be able to put on over 200 in reply and leave Santiago to make up the difference in their 2nd innings.

But the fates in cricket are no respectors of paper probabilities and Viña wickets fell with alarming rapidity. An overeager Paine played late and outside a fatally straight ball from Tienken. Sutton lost an L. B. W. suit to Meredith. Tienken teased Fairbrass into passing a fly-ball to Knowles and Freestone allowed Marshall to knock off his bails. Maxwell and Reid were in together after tea and looked as if they might pull the game out of the fire but Maxwell, the safer of the two, played a weak forward stroke to a good length ball from Meredith to be bowled. Then it was Yeomans' turn to be nibbling at Marshall and missing. And Moodie was out to the last ball of the day, being caught and bowled off a half-hearted stroke to a ball from Meredith. Reid was still there with 53 but there was Saturday night to come.

On Sunday it was not long before the Viña tail lay down and died and the scores stood at 135 to 146: still anybody's game.

In their 2nd innings Santiago were off to a bad start when Paine had Meredith caught at the wicket for O.

Then came Manning, and the bowlers heaved a sigh of resignation, but 17 was a welcome stimulus to his team's fortunes and he left with 3 boundaries to his credit when once again played on to Ness. Then Paine bowled Jones who at 39 looked dangerous and the games' complexion changed perceptively. Knowles played some pretty strokes for his 14 but never looked safe, which is a safe commentary since he confesses to never having felt safe, but Busbridge scarcely gave himself time to settle down. Paine also removed Macqueen and Marshall winkling them out as it were with the sharp pin of a consistent good length.

Once again Hobsbawn & Tienken held back the flood of Viña impatience, but once again Hobsbawn overestimated his fleetness of foot. "Getting too fat" he was heard to say in excuse although he had hurled himself headlong as bravely as any ball player making a base. His 25 runs had been well deserved and welcome to his side. The last two wickets fell to Paine bringing his bag up to 8 with an average of 5.9. Good winkling!

Set only 130 to get at a rate of about a run-a minute looked well within Viña's capabilities but again the first 3 batsmen failed to come off. This time it was Fairbrass who had to hold the side together and his canonical 66 was delightful to watch. Yeomans and Reid played 1st and 2nd end stoppers while Fairbrass-Hamlet spoke his monologue. The ghost was played by Freestone who though down as No. 7 was not allowed to bat. The cousins Hardy divided the match though which it was who made the winning hit your correspondent is unable to relate since he was then relaxing under a shower. Tienken had bowled consistently with little luck and Meredith aggressively with some. Marshall was unusually dissatisfied with himself but seemed greatly improved on last season.

There had been two full days of interest and excitement.

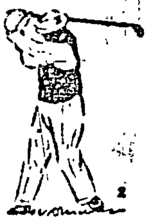
VALPARAISO C. C. won by 3 wickets

Start your downswing in the form pictured in the next and you'll be doing all right. You can see this player is perfectly balanced on his feet and he has that straight left arm in there to guide the club-head down in a wide full circle.



And his right elbow is under the shaft so that he can pull his hands down toward his right pocket permitting the hip and shoulder pivot to supply the necessary outward swing of the club head so that clubhead meets ball from an inside-out swing and passes slightly across the direction line.

Because of that straight — but not locked — left leg — his head is going to remain in fixed position throughout the downswing so there will be mechanical precision in the swing and as a result a straight, far-flying ball.

IN the first division of the English League the first eight [illegible] maintained their positions. A start was made in the [illegible] round of the F. A. Cup. Portsmouth beat [illegible] League match by 2-0 and Arsenal were too good for Bolton Wanderers. Newcastle United, playing away, were too good for Manchester City.

LIGHTER VEIN

One of financier Bernard Baruch's friends spoke so often about his love for hunting that Baruch finally invited him to his South Carolina plantation for a turkey shoot. The friend tramped for two days shooting madly, but he failed to hit a single turkey.

Mr Baruch made no comment. The next morning however, the friend was ambling along a path near the house when he saw a fat gobbler sitting motionless in a tree. He crept up close, fired point-blank, and was overjoyed when the turkey fell at his feet. It was only when he picked it up that he noticed a card tied around its neck. The card read, "With the compliments of Bernard Baruch."

"Have you been to any other doctor before coming to me?" asked the grouchy physician.

"No, sir," replied the meek patient. "I went to the druggist."

"You went to a druggist!" exclaimed the doctor. "That shows how much sense some people have. You went to a druggist. And what idiotic advice did he give you?"

"Why, he told me to come and see you," replied the patient.

Two would-be sportsmen from the city decided to rough it for a season and rented a cabin in the North Woods. Neither had done any hunting before, but they were well-supplied with equipment and enthusiasm.

The day of their arrival, Bill, who was particularly eager to get on with the hunting, said to his companion. "You make the fire, Joe. I'll go shoot a bear for dinner."

He had walked only a few hundred feet from the cabin when he saw a large black bear. Taking careful aim, he fired. When the smoke cleared, he saw he had made a direct hit. But the bear was not dead; wounded and enraged, she was charging Bill.

Dropping his gun, the amateur hunter made for the open cabin door, the bear in hot pursuit. Just before he reached the safety of the cabin, however, the hunter tripped and fell. The wounded bear, unable to slow down, went charging right on into the cabin where the hapless Joe was struggling to get a fire started.

Bill rose and brushed himself off. Strolling over to the door, he shouted, "Okay, Joe. You skin that blighter. I'll go get another one.

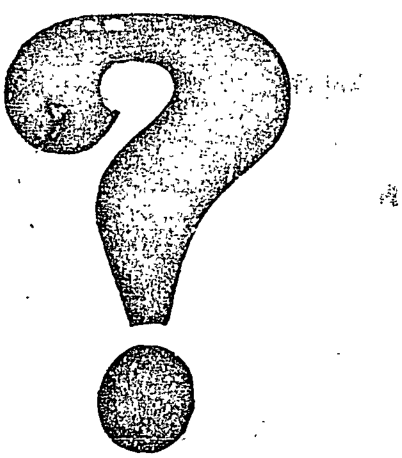
SPM SPOTLIGHT



JOHN HARDBOTTOM

(Singed in the Great San Francisco fire)

"For some time I have read and enjoyed your weekly feature which "Spotlights" various members of the English-speaking community. Interesting reports, but hardly typical. While most of the characters you have written of have lived rich, full lives and experienced everything from flood to famine, the average S. P. M. reader is not this type at all. The average S.P.M. reader is, in fact, as dull as glazed glass. May I describe him for you?

His name is John Hardbottom. He lives in a two-room apartment in Los Leones, not under a flat rock, as one would be led to believe from his appearance. He was educated in a private school and, to the infinite surprise of his parents, won his colours in ping-pong, a sport which he has since given up as too strenuous.

His first sex experience was when he stubbed his toe on a thick volume of Freud, and he has had nothing to do with the subject after this unhappy accident.

He has met his share of disasters. He was in Santiago during the great Chillan earthquake and was [illegible] nia, only seven months after the Great Fire. "Just think", Mr Hardbottom says, "if Aunt Minnie had died a few months earlier I might have been singed".

Mr Hardbottom claims to have no special eccentricities, although he does admit, with a guilty grin, to a liking for hard-boiled eggs. He decries hobbies in general as a waste of time although in his youth he had a collection of paper napkins "borrowed" from hotels. He engages in no special sports, but enjoys a brisk walk around the living room every morning before breakfast.

When asked just what he did do with time, Mr. Hardbottom replied that he is an enthusiastic linguist. "I have only been in Chile for 57 years", he says proudly, "and I am going to start using the past tense in my Spanish any day now". He also plays bridge, and often recounts the occasion when, in 1922, he bid a small slam. (Noble effort, but he went down three tricks). Mr. Hardbottom is candid in admitting that he likes to play for stakes, usually as high as one cent (avo) per hundred.

Hardbottom's cardinal virtues. He uses the same razor blade half a hundred times and hasn't changed toothbrushes in years. "I understand," he told us, "that they are making the things of nylon these days." He buys his copy of "El Mercurio" from the same boy every morning of the world and the customer-seller relationship has grown through the years. "I've literally watched that boy as he grew a beard," Hardbottom reports. Also an avid reader of the S.P.M., he never fails to read a copy at the house of Dura Hardbottom, his spinster sister.

Present plans for Hardbottom include a trip to the country, possibly as far as Melipilla. "Too much hustle and bustle for me in the city", he reports. "It's the pace of life. I' ve had my share of excitement, now I just want to relax".

That, Dear Editor, is the typical S.P.M. reader, not the glamorous creatures that have been adorning your back cover.

Sincerely,

H. V. S.

Santiago.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

OGC 77-2335
11 April 1977

David M. Curry, Esq.
First Assistant U.S. Attorney
Western District of Pennsylvania
633 U.S. Post Office and Courthouse
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219

Dear Mr. Curry:

Re: Joseph Raymond Merola

In response to your letter of March 10, 1977 I wish to advise you that the Central Intelligence Agency had one meeting with Joseph Raymond Merola prior to August 1961. In late 1960 Joseph Raymond Merola made several telephone calls to a CIA office offering his assistance in a general way in connection with Cuban matters, which was refused. However, on 6 February 1961 Merola claimed to have information on a Latin American senator who was a "close friend and confidant" of "Che" Guevera. Since Guevera was listed as being the subject of foreign intelligence requirements, the CIA employee agreed to meet with Mr. Merola. The meeting took place on 6 February 1961 and is the only meeting with Merola prior to his incarceration which you stated in your letter began in August 1961.

Mr. Merola was not employed by the Central Intelligence Agency. His contact with the CIA could not be described as an undercover Government informant as alleged in the Writs of Error Coram Nobis by Victor Carlucci and Daniel Hanna. This one contact on 6 February 1961 by Merola with the CIA was voluntary on his part.

Mathew McVane, an employee of the CIA, did testify in San Diego in November 1975 concerning CIA contacts with Joseph Raymond Merola. The citation we have for that case is U.S. v. Dalton C. Smith, et al. in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California, No. 74-2277-GT.

The testimony given in that trial is not inconsistent with the response given above. It is true that after Merola was released from prison he again volunteered information to the CIA. Merola was a voluntary source of foreign intelligence.

I hope this provides sufficient information for you to file your response. If not, please call me at (AC 703) 351-7531.

Sincerely,

John K Greaney

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. John K. Greaney
Special Assistant to the General Counsel

FROM : Maurice A. Sovern
O/SA/DO/O

SUBJECT : Joseph R. Merola

REFERENCE : Assistant United States Attorney, Pennsylvania Letter, 10 March 1977, Subject as Above

1. The question in reference is the nature of any involvement of Merola with CIA prior to August 1961.

2. The Directorate's first recorded contact with Joseph Raymond Merola prior to August 1961 occurred on 6 February 1961. It followed a series of telephone calls over a period of several months (late 1960 - early 1961) in which Merola had expressed interest in offering his assistance in connection with Cuban matters. Our officer had declined contact until 6 February when Merola claimed to have information on a Latin American senator who was a "close friend and confidante" of "Che" Guevera. Because Guevera was the proper subject of foreign positive intelligence collection requirement our officer agreed to a meeting.

3. The last recorded contact, except for the litigation outlined below, with Merola was a telephone contact with Merola in late July 1975 when he volunteered additional foreign positive intelligence.

4. At the end of August 1975, Merola contacted a staff officer to ask for testimony in the criminal fraud trial in San Diego, California (U.S. v. Joseph R. Merola, et al, Southern District of California, CR 74-2277-GT) which we subsequently provided on 13 November 1975.

5. Subject is characterized as a voluntary occasional source of foreign positive intelligence who was in sporadic contact with us.

6. We greatly appreciate the Assistant United States Attorney's concern for the confidentiality of our information. The information above may be made available to the AUSA and the court as appropriate without further restriction.

A review of the files confirms that the DDO was not in any way involved operationally with Joseph R. Merola prior to 1961. However, it should be noted that subsequent to his release from prison in November 1962, Merola was in contact with members of the Frente Revolucionario Democratico, an anti- Castro organization of interest to this Agency.

trial, "actively engaged in the service of the government."

Irving Green, attorney for Carlucci and Hanna, said the prosecutors, Hubert I. Teitelbaum and Daniel J. Snyder, knew Merola was a government agent and therefore "perpetrated a fraud upon the trial court."

Teitelbaum and Snyder are now federal judges in Pittsburgh and have not commented about the action filed by Green, which is still pending. But an official familiar with their position said the two judges will, if necessary, swear they did not know Merola was a government agent.

Cuban Connection

"The answer to this whole thing revolves around Cuba," said this official.

Green, who represents Mannarino's son-in-law, said he didn't think Merola's testimony in Chicago had been particularly "helpful" to the prosecution. A "more logical assumption" is that Merola was freed from prison because of what he could do for the government in Cuba, he said.

"This guy works anywhere he wants to," said Green. "The government has protected him in California, Chicago and everywhere else. He still has to be of value to the government."

One thing is certain: Merola is well known in the Miami Cuban community and among those who have been linked to alleged Castro assassination attempts.

"Joe was an undercover agent, he was closely associated with the government," Frank Sturgis, of Miami, told The Bulletin. "He did have an association with the CIA."

Sturgis, who gained notoriety as one of those convicted in the Watergate burglary, was a top Castro lieutenant during the revolution who served as a double agent for the CIA. He later worked against Castro in the Bay of Pigs operation and has admitted plotting to kill Castro.

"I know Joe was involved with the revolutionaries," said Sturgis. "I know he had an association with the CIA, but because of compartmentalization, you don't know what they're doing."

Tied to Burglar

A source close to the House Assassinations Committee said Merola was "a good friend" of Eugenio (Rolando) Martinez, another of those connected of the Watergate burglary. Martinez was associated with the CIA in the Bay of Pigs effort and in other anti-Castro moves.

"Joe's place in Miami Beach was on the water and it was used by anti-Castro groups to smuggle arms to Cuba," this source said. "Martinez was one of them."

"I can't recall," Martinez said, when asked by The Bulletin about using Merola's dock. "Really, I can't tell you anything about it.

"He was connected with helping people here in Miami against the dictatorship of Batista. He might have been in some other branch that I don't know about."

Alfredo Borges, a Miami business consultant and a Bay of Pigs veteran, told a Bulletin reporter inquiring about Merola to "please write me a letter."

"I don't know who you are," Borges said. "I cannot talk over the telephone."

One investigator interested in Merola said the matter is "very sensitive, records are hard to come by."

"He seems to fit everything," this investigator said. "He's a pilot, he speaks Spanish, he knows Cuba and he's connected. But nobody wants to cooperate."

A Scared Man

Records indeed are hard to come by. Official and unofficial attempts to obtain complete records of Merola's arrests proved fruitless. So did efforts to determine what encounters he might have had with officials responsible for watching the nation's borders.

But despite the belief of some that Merola enjoys the protection of the government while at the same time being welcomed by organized crime, those who know him say that is not the case.

"Joe has got a little money," said one Florida acquaintance. "I don't know where he gets it. But he's an informer and they hate informers. The man is concerned.

"He goes around Dade (County), but he is very, very careful where he goes. Joe is scared."

SUBJECT: Court Appearance on 13 November 1975, San Diego, California

1. On 13 November 1975, Matt MacVane appeared as a witness for the defense at the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, 325 West F Street, San Diego, California. The case was the United States of America V. Dalton C. Smith, et al. MacVane was called to testify by E. Mac Amos Jr., attorney for defendant Joe Merola. In honor of the subpoena MacVane appeared at the court. On 13 November 1975 at approximately 16:30 hours San Diego time MacVane was called to the witness stand.

2. Mac Amos, attorney for defendant Joe Merola began questioning after MacVane was sworn in as a witness. Amos asked how long MacVane had been employed by the CIA? He asked if MacVane knew defendant Merola? He asked if MacVane were told by Merola about a shipment of surplus helicopter parts going to the country of El Salvador? He asked MacVane if Merola had volunteered other information to the Agency? He then asked if Merola were ever paid for such information? Amos also tried to establish the value of surplus parts in Latin America compared to the US. This was objected to by attorney Robert Thaller, prosecutor in the case. The judge sustained the objection and MacVane did not have to answer the question. Amos finished his questioning and Thaller began a short cross examination. Thaller asked if MacVane ever heard Merola mention stocks? He also asked if MacVane knew the name of the corporation that Merola represented? He then pointed out that even if some stock fraud were occurring, MacVane would not be witting because MacVane was not an investigator, but rather a collector of foreign information. The cross examination then ended. All questions were answered to the best of MacVane's ability and knowledge.

3. There appeared to be little purpose in the appearance of MacVane because it was obvious that MacVane knew nothing of any value concerning the case. MacVane's total time on the witness stand was about 10 minutes. After completion of his testimony MacVane was released.

U.S. Citizen Registered to DEA/MIAMI Dec 74

FYI:
Today, Randy Daugherty, DCD case officer, asked to borrow subject 201 because he wanted to take it to Office of Genl. Counsel for Mr. John Greany.

There is to be a meeting today between Mr. Greany, Bob Starling, DCD COPS, and Matt McVane, DCD man in Miami who is visiting Hqs. McVane has an interest in MEROLA.

Told Randy that MEROLA was DEA source and that matter should be coordinated with NARCOG.

This transpired during lunch hour - Randy was in a hurry and I gave him file. He said he would tell Mr. Greany that Subj. was DEA source.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Joseph Raymond Merola

1. On 3 November I talked to Mr. Matt McVane, DCD officer stationed in Miami, and he said that he had received the subpoena from E. Mac Amos, Jr. to appear as a defense witness in the trial in San Diego on 11 November. Mr. McVane agreed to come to Headquarters on 6 November to discuss the information in the files and Mr. Robert Starling of DCD agreed to join in the meeting. Mr. McVane told me that Lt. Colonel Douglas W. Haldane, who had previously been on detail to the DCD Miami Office, had returned to the Army and was currently assigned somewhere in Europe and that his address was Headquarters, USAREUR, APO New York, New York 09403.

2. Since this Office had received a letter from Mr. Amos with a request for the current address of Colonel Haldane, I called Mr. Amos on 4 November and explained to him that Colonel Haldane was no longer with the Central Intelligence Agency and it was our understanding that Colonel Haldane was stationed in Europe. Mr. Amos did not want the current address of Colonel Haldane. He did state, however, that Mr. McVane would not be needed in San Diego until Wednesday morning, 12 November. As things stood now, Mr. Merola was the fifth defendant and it would be that length of time before Mr. McVane's testimony would be needed.

3. Mr. McVane told me that he had been called by Mr. Robert Thaler of the U.S. Attorney's Office in California. I told Mr. McVane that I would contact Mr. Thaler. I called Mr. Thaler who is a a member of the Organized Crime Strike Force, Department of Justice, Room 2307, 300 North Los Angeles Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, telephone No. (AC 213) 688-5808. Mr. Thaler was pleased to hear that Mr. McVane was being made available to testify and explained that he thought Mr. Amos had already prepared a motion to dismiss if Mr. McVane was to be denied as a witness for the defense. I explained to Mr. Thaler that Mr. McVane was coming to Headquarters on Thursday, 6 November, and said that we would call him to discuss the role Mr. McVane played in receiving information from Mr. Merola.

4. If this case runs parallel to many criminal prosecutions, the defense may never put Mr. McVane on the stand when he actually shows up as this may prove detrimental to their defense. However, we should be prepared for his testimony if, in fact, it does take place.

Office of the General Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Sir:

Our firm represents Mr. Joseph Merola who is presently on trial as a defendant in the Southern District of California in an action entitled United States of America v. Dalton C. Smith, et al. (No. 74-2277-GT). In order to properly defend Mr. Merola, we need to utilize the testimony of Mr. Matt McVane and possibly the testimony of Col. Douglas Haldane. We understand that Mr. McVane is employed by the Central Intelligence Agency and works out of the Miami office. We also understand that Col. Douglas Haldane is employed by the Central Intelligence Agency but we do not have an address for service upon Col. Haldane.

Enclosed you will find copies of Subpoenas issued for Mr. McVane and Col. Haldane. These Subpoenas require the attendance of the individuals in the Southern District of California at San Diego, California on November 11, 1975 at 9:00 a.m. Enclosed you will also find a copy of the Order signed by Judge Gordon Thompson authorizing the issuance of the Subpoena for Mr. McVane. Since we do not have an address for Col. Haldane at this time, the court has not approved the issuance of a Subpoena for him in which the government would be responsible for all of the expenses and costs.

We have been informed by Mr. McVane that it is necessary for him to obtain the approval of your office before he can testify in this matter. Accordingly, we request that he be granted the necessary approval in order to allow him to testify in this matter. In addition, we request that we be provided with an address for Col. Haldane and that he also be allowed to testify in this case. We would appreciate being advised as soon as possible with respect to whether these persons will be available for testimony. If we can provide any additional information with respect to this case, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned. Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: Joseph Raymond Merola

1. On 23 October, Mr. Robert Starling of DCD called to say that Matthew McVane (phonetic), a DCD officer who is stationed in Miami, Florida, had received a telephone call from a San Diego attorney saying that he was mailing a subpoena to him. The attorney, E. Mac Amos, Jr., is a member of the law firm of Holt, Rhodes and Hollywood at 1010 Second Avenue, San Diego, California 92101, telephone No. (AC 714) 238-1712. Mr. Amos advised Mr. McVane that the subpoena was for his appearance on behalf of Mr. Merola who was on trial in San Diego.

2. Mr. Starling indicated that the charges against Merola had something to do with exporting airplane parts without a license. I called Mr. Clyde Bryant, Office of Munitions Control, Department of State, to determine if this prosecution was related to 22 U.S.C. 1934. Mr. Bryant called back and said that Merola was one of seven defendants being tried on criminal fraud charges for having engaged in a flimflam operation against the Salvadorian government. The scheme was to establish a facility in Salvador to assemble and service helicopters. The group had assembled a collection of Army surplus parts for helicopters and was in the process of shipping them without an export license and they were seized by U.S. Customs officers on 21 February 1974. Mr. Bryant indicated that the Assistant U.S. Attorney in San Diego in charge of the prosecution was a Mr. Robert Thaller, telephone No. (AC 714) 293-5668. Mr. Bryant also indicated that an individual by the name of Henry Maierhoffer was also one of the defendants and it was Mr. Bryant's recollection that Maierhoffer had some previous connection with CIA.

3. I called Mr. Starling and reported this information to him and he said that Mr. Merola was a real operator in the Miami area, always involved in some scheme to buy and sell weapons but that he had volunteered information to the DCD Office, some of which was useful. I asked Mr. Starling to have Mr. McVane call me when he got the subpoena but that he would not have to go unless they furnished the travel funds.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Domestic Collection Division

ATTENTION: Mr. Shaun P. Ryan

SUBJECT: Joseph R. MEROLA

REFERENCE: HH 25826, 8 January 1974

1. On 10 January 1974 the WH/2/GS desk received the referenced memorandum from the Domestic Collection Division indicating the Miami field office had been in contact with one Joseph R. MEROLA. MEROLA had just returned from a business trip to El Salvador; and he reported that a friend of his had identified a Mr. Gremillion in the Political Section of the American Embassy in San Salvador as a suspect CIA representative. Headquarters traces on Joseph R. MEROLA indicated that on several occasions in the past MEROLA had claimed that he was a CIA agent. The Chief of Station, the Mr. Gremillion referred to above, was recently questioned regarding any Embassy contact with MEROLA while the latter was in San Salvador. The COS stated that both within the Embassy community and at social functions MEROLA had frequently referred to his contact with the CIA, past and present. He also volunteered this information to a former Station contact.

2. In light of the above, it would appear that MEROLA had taken advantage of his agency contacts in an inappropriate manner to the potential embarrassment of the San Salvador Station. We would, accordingly, appreciate that this be given due consideration in your assessment of the advantage of your continued contact with him.

Patti,

We have sent a private channel letter to the COS on this matter, ~~noting at~~ asking at the end for comments as to whether MOROLA is "embarrassing" the Station or CIA generally by talking so much about his CIA connections. If his reply is in the affirmative, ~~I~~ it will probably be best for you to draft a note to ~~[illegible]~~ DCD suggesting that he somehow be silenced, perhaps by their withdrawing from contact with them since it is obviously something that he brags about and otherwise tries to take advantage of gtc.

Matt MacVane, DCD officer in Miami, met with Joseph R. MEROLA on 15 January 1974; at which time MEROLA identified the friend in San Salvador who had identified Mr. Gremillion in the American Embassy in San Salvador as a CIA representative. [redacted] MEROLA also provided the names of two women employed in the Embassy who were ~~reported~~ involved in compromising situations with both Americans and local nationals. MEROLA identified the two women as Nancy SHALLOT and Delia OBESA. MEROLA was met again on 17 January 1974 ~~in an effort to determine any other possible~~ at which time he provided the name of a third woman in the Embassy, Gloria, who has also been involved in compromising situations. Upon ~~query~~ inquiring Headquarters personnel who had recently returned from San Salvador, the above identities were confirmed; all three are American citizens assigned to the Embassy in San Salvador.

Above is a note dated 24 January 1974 from Patti Burke, WH/2/GS/IA, based on information received orally from DCD.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Case 61401 - CIA Operativo in El Salvador

REFS : A.) MIM-006-74, 4 January 1974
B.) TWX DCD/Washington 96860, 16 January 1974
C.) Ryan/MacVane telecon 16 January 1974

E.) Ryan/Mainwaring telecon 17 January 1974
F.) TWX DCD/Miami 12475, 17 January 1974
G.) TWX DCD/Miami 12476, 17 January 1974

1. One of our sources in Miami, Joseph Merola, revealed the name and position of an individual reported to be an Agency official in El Salvador to Matt MacVane during the course of an interview on 21 December 1973. This was reported in MIM-006-74 4 January 1974. This report was forwarded to the El Salvador Desk on 8 January 1974. On 16 January 1974 the Desk requested that DCD obtain the name of the individual mentioned in this memorandum who said he knew a CIA officer in the Embassy. This request was passed by telecon and TWX to MacVane by Ryan on 16 January 1974. The El Salvador Desk also questioned the reliability of our source, Joseph Merola, at this time and requested we query Miami as to his reliability.

2. On 17 January 1974 at the request of MacVane, Ryan visited the El Salvador Desk to ascertain their objections to our source, known to us as a convicted felon. Desk objections stemmed from a 1964 report which indicated that Merola had informed persons that he was a "CIA agent". Further conversation elicited the fact that Merola had again made this statement in 1973 at an Embassy function. We advised the Desk that DCD was well aware of Merola's criminal background but that he had provided DCD with reliable reports in the past unrelated to his own "pursuits".

3. The El Salvador desk confirmed the fact that the individual mentioned by Merola's informant as being a CIA officer was in fact such. Ryan advised MacVane of this per telecon on 17 January 1974. MacVane and Mainwaring told Ryan they were sending two cables relating to this case. The first would provide the name of the person who reportedly knew the CIA official. The second provided the names of two women employed in the Embassy who were reportedly involved in compromising situations with both Americans and local nationals. This latter cable was requested after the El Salvador desk officer advised that all avenues and possible leads were to be pursued to determine who leaked the information relating to the CIA official. These two names (phonetically spelled) were provided in the second cable by Miami. All of the information received in these cables was passed via secure phone to the El Salvador desk by Ryan upon receipt.

4. MacVane advised Ryan via telecon that he anticipated meeting with Joseph Merola at 1400 on 17 January to address further matters concerned with this case. MacVane advised Ryan that he would forward such information as soon as possible.

MURAWSKI??

1. Joe Merola contacted the Miami Office on 21 December 1973 to explain that he recently had spoken with a friend of his in San Salvador, El Salvador. The friend, who allegedly works for the El Salvadoran Secret Service, told Merola that when he (Merola) comes to El Salvador not to go to the US Embassy to see a man named Vermillion. The friend told Merola that Vermillion is the Commercial Attache at the embassy and is under surveillance because he is suspected of being the CIA man in San Salvador. Merola told his friend that he did not know a man named Vermillion, nor would he ever have cause to see such a man. The friend then told Merola that he was only telling him for his own good, and that if he (Merola) were to see this Vermillion that Merola would become a suspected CIA agent as well.

2. Merola said that he was passing this information to us in case we did indeed have a man in San Salvador by the name of Vermillion. Merola has been a contact of the Miami Field Office for some ten years, and during that period he has passed to this office some very reliable information.

Lt. Van Buskirk advised that Clifford V. CONNELL, who was arrested about two months ago for illegal possession of about 1½ tons of dynamite will claim as his defense that he was performing a patriotic service for his country by working with Joseph Raymond MEROLA who has on numerous occasions claimed to be working for KUBARK. The trail date has not yet been set. Others involved the same case: Remer Estuez ODOM, and Harold WIDDEN. MEROLA was born 10/9/25, Pittsburgh, Pa. and posseses FBI #4989299. Van Buskirk wanted to know if any of the above are working for KUBARK. Results of Station traces are attached.

Charlie McKay said "Joe has been of interest on intelligence level, informant type not an agent, not on payroll and not in position claim employment". McKay does not want to lose this source of info. He said one John Alie, French National, trying to overthrow Duvalier govt Haiti which might account for dynamite cache.

From Mitch Lawrence
Regarding Joe Merola: Information passed on to Lt. Van Buskirk per our discussion. Van Buskirk advised that we should have somebody ready to go to court and to deny the claim of Connel that he was working on our behalf. The date for the trial is not as yet set and Van Buskirk said there is no hurry, but he would like to know whether or not we would have somebody there in as much as this person intends to base his defense on the basis of his working for us.

MARCH 1977

The Incident

by Taylor Branch and John Rothchild

How two mild-mannered reporters, on the trail of a Washington bomber, landed in Caracas and ran afoul of the Venezuelan secret service, warring Cuban terrorists, the Miami police, the State Department, the C.I.A., the F.B.I. and the most dangerous man alive—all this, and their mothers didn't know a damn thing about it

Are There Pay Phones in Caracas?

They are on the Pan Am night flight to Caracas, three hours away from at least a hundred murder stories and a lot of steaming intrigue.

"What are our chances of getting through this alive?" asks Rothchild.

"Well, that all depends on who you talk to and how paranoid they are," says Branch. "Our friends in Washington used to be simple journalists and policy analysts. Now they are three-pay-phone men. That means you can't call them without using three pay phones. You call them up and all they'll say is 'phone number one.' Then they go to pay phone number one and you call them again. Then they ask you for the number of another pay phone near yours, and they call you on that one."

"What do you talk about?"

"Things like pay phones and letter bombs and whether the Feds can be trusted. The last time I called they told me we would be walking into four nests of known killers: the Cuban exiles in Venezuela, the Venezuelan secret police, the C.I.A. and the Chilean secret police."

"Is that true?"

"Well, it's true that all those people are down there," Branch says, "but I don't think they would be after us."

Rothchild does not look reassured. He does not like the way Branch reels off the life histories of all the C.I.A. Cubans he has known, especially since the point is always that the situation is too complicated for words. "Tell me," Rothchild says gravely, "did you tell your mother you were going to Venezuela?"

Branch squirms at the cruel question. He wants to appear as knowledgeable and confident as possible, because he has dragged Rothchild into this adventure on less than a day's notice. "No, I didn't tell her," he admits. "It's too complicated. But I think we'll only have one point of danger."

"When's the point of danger?"

"Well, we may get into the prison and get our answers," Branch replies, "or we may get them from people in the Venezuelan government. Either way, we'll know who did the murders and who paid the killers and what other murders they've done. That's what we hope, anyway. If we get that information, we'll be hot until we get rid of it. We'll have to phone it out of there and then run like bandits."

Branch looks out the airplane window and pictures Orlando Letelier lying in the middle of Massachusetts Avenue, his legs blown off at the thigh, his torso pulverized, detectives all around. On the curb nearby sat his passenger Ronni Moffitt, her eyes frozen, holding her throat. The bomb in Letelier's car had blown a sliver of metal through Ronni Moffitt's carotid artery, and she was drowning in her own blood. Her husband sat nearby, suffering from shock, watching his wife die. She was twenty-five. The killers were the kind of people who would machine-gun a whole crowd of people in a public square just to hit their mark. They wouldn't care about the others. Ronni Moffitt could just as easily have been half the people Branch knew in Washington. The next day Jerry Ford rode right over the bloody spots in the road on his way to a reception for the president of Liberia; he never said a word about Washington's first gangland-style political assassination. Unwise to talk about it, especially if the force behind the murders is most likely the government of Chile. The military junta there overthrew Salvador Allende with a big boost from the C.I.A., which is still thick as thieves with the generals. Letelier was ambassador to the United States under Allende, then foreign affairs minister, interior minister and defense minister. He had been jailed and tortured by the generals after the coup, then, a year later, deported, and in September of last year he was stripped of his citizenship.

From the day of the murder, Branch had been pondering the bomb he thought was used on Letelier—C-4, a white, odorless dough resembling Silly Putty. Branch had heard many Cubans tell tales about C-4 and its predecessor, C-3. It was the C.I.A.'s favorite substance for sabotage in the war against Castro, and thousands of Cubans were trained in its use. Branch had not been surprised when evidence came out that Cuban exiles might have pulled the Letelier job, but he was surprised by tips he received that they had also killed hundreds of others on a big spree in the Caribbean. God, there is something big going on, he had thought. And all his sources and his instincts told him the answers were in Venezuela, of all places.

It was now October 21, one month to the day since the Letelier murder.

"So you decided to take a little trip to Caracas too, I guess." It is Hilda I[illegible]n, a reporter for The Miami News, standing in the aisle, looking down at us. She is a specialist on Latin terrorism in Miami.

"Looks like it," says Branch, shrugging. So much for the secret trip. Yet he is inclined to trust Inclán, even though he and Rothchild had met her only that day, while going through clips at the morgue of the News. The three work out a way to make contact in Caracas. Branch is embarrassed at being a little reserved. Inclan is candid, her face cheerful and open.

Inclán leans over and whispers, "Listen, I think you should be careful. There's something strange going on. This flight is crawling with cops and prosecutors from Miami."

Branch and Rothchild turn their heads in unison, and their necks sink down into their shoulders. There are two young Latin men in the back with neatly trimmed beards, unisex hairdos and brightly colored shirts. There are several men in the front who do not look like ordinary passengers. Rothchild decides there might not be any ordinary passengers.

"What are they doing here?" Branch asks bluntly.

"Who knows?" says Inclán. "I know these guys from Miami. They give me tips sometimes. But now they aren't giving me the time of day. I don't understand them, so I'm going to act just like they are. I don't think you should let them in on what you're up to, either."

"Those cops are Cubans, aren't they?" Branch asks.

Inclán nods. Branch worries. Cubans on the Miami police force are a strange lot, he has heard. The cops want to infiltrate Cuban terrorist groups and drug-running organizations, but sometimes it turns out that the terrorists and drug runners are infiltrating the cops.

Branch and Rothchild exchange signs of bewilderment as Inclán drifts back to her seat. "Jesus Christ, Orlando Letelier's bombed car, Washington, D.C.

continued

John Rothchild Hilda Inclán Taylor Branch

John," Branch mutters. "I figured we'd be in for some scrapes, but I never thought it would start before we even got there." Then he's all business. "I've got to give you a quick briefing on our main man while we have the chance. We may not have as much leisure time as we expected."

Branch pulls down their dinner trays and spreads out a pile of notes and news clippings. Then he pulls out a police mug shot. "Meet Orlando Bosch," he says.

Rothchild stares incredulously at a porcine Cuban man with a thin moustache and thick lips. "He looks like the headmaster of a military school."

"I know," Branch says, "but he's a killer. He's also a pediatrician. This whole thing's like that—yin and yang, Boston Strangler and Mad Hatter all mixed up." Branch eyes the mass of clippings and notes, wondering where to begin. "It would take all night to go through what I've heard about Bosch, so I'll get you up to Letelier as quick as I can for now. The background is simple: Bosch has been a political terrorist—what they call an action man—ever since the late Forties in Cuba. He worked for Castro, then for the C.I.A., and then he denounced the C.I.A. He has been an anti-Castro outlaw since the mid-Sixties, always telling the Miami Cubans not to trust the C.I.A. in their war against Castro. Now most of the hard-line Cubans believe him. Bosch is the patriarch of Cuban terrorism."

Branch pauses, then flips briskly through the clippings. "Bosch got arrested and indicted pretty regularly all through the Sixties. He usually got off. The witnesses against him tended to sweat a lot and forget things on the stand, if they even showed up. In general, Bosch had a threefold operation: first, political terror against Castro sympathizers; second, ordinary crimes like extortion from rich people and companies to finance the political terror; and third, all kinds of wars and feuds with his terrorist rivals. Finally, Bosch got nailed in 1968 for shelling a Polish freighter in Miami harbor. He got ten years, but he was paroled in 1972. That brings us to his international period."

Branch picks up one particular clip and holds it in readiness. "Bosch went underground two years after his parole and the pace of Miami bombings escalated. So did terrorist bombings against Castro's embassies all over the world. Then, in 1974, important Cubans started getting knocked off in gangland-style murders. A lot of groups, including Bosch's, took credit for them. The word was that C.I.A. stooges were being eliminated. Bosch became a phantom. Mysterious figures with names like Ernesto would pop up in the Miami press to speak for him. Here's a Miami News clip from this period. It's headlined 'Bosch Declares War on Castro.' Hilda wrote it. She's the last American reporter to interview Bosch. Shortly after it came out, Bosch slipped out of the country."

While Rothchild studies the clips, Branch continues. "He got arrested in Venezuela about two years ago. The Justice Department decided not to ask for his return to the United States despite all he's wanted for. That's weird. Then the Venezuelans turned him loose and he left with a bunch of Chilean bodyguards and a big pile of money. I heard all kinds of stories about Bosch being down in Chile with the Pinochet junta there, bargaining. Now the stories jump to February of last year, when Bosch got arrested in Costa Rica right before Kissinger visited. The rumor is that he was plotting to assassinate Kissinger. Bosch got out of Costa Rica somehow, and pretty soon there was a secret meeting in the Dominican Republic of all the major Cuban terrorist groups, which the Dominicans allowed, of course. There was a negotiated truce, and the terrorists united under Bosch in an umbrella group called CORU, supposedly with the support of several juntas in Latin America.

"Now in the last month there has been the Letelier murder," Branch continues grimly. "The terrorists showed that they were not afraid to kill in the United States, right in the capital. They have even threatened to kill one of the F.B.I. agents on the Letelier case. And his fiancée. The anonymous threats show they have collected a lot of intelligence about the agent's life. The F.B.I. is upset. Then, two weeks after Letelier was killed, terrorists blew up a Cuban plane near Barbados, killing seventy-three people. Castro blamed the C.I.A. and canceled the anti-skyjacking treaty. The terrorists loved it: Castro and the Americans getting mad at each other. Then Bosch got ar[illegible]d in Venezuela again, along with a whole bunch of Cuban exiles. Stories have been seeping out in the Venezuelan press linking Bosch with both Letelier and the Cuban plane. I picked up similar stories in Miami. My sources there tell me the Cubans in jail are almost all former C.I.A. men, F.B.I. informants and a few veterans of the Venezuelan secret police, the DISIP. Some people say DISIP has tortured the hell out of these guys, but other people say DISIP is in bed with them—holding them under protective custody till the heat blows over. It's the biggest damn mess you ever saw."

"You folks wouldn't mind telling me who you are and what you're up to, would you?"

Rothchild and Branch look up at the man standing in the aisle. He wears a leisure suit with a flashy shirt opened to his sternum, showing a lot of tan and some tufted chest hair.

"Well," says Branch, "I'm not sure. What are you doing? We're just thinking about racetracks and Cubans and stuff like that."

"Come on now. You can tell me," the man urges.

"Don't tell him anything," says Hilda Inclán from behind. She is laughing as if it were a game, but her eyes signal a warning.

Branch is way off-balance. "I'll take the fifth. Why don't we start with you?"

"Okay," says the man, smiling. "I'll play it your way, friend. My name's George Yoss. I'm an assistant state's attorney out of Miami." He flashes an ID card. Branch and Rothchild can't believe it. He seems more like a condominium salesman who wishes he could be a golf pro. "Is that right, Hilda?" Branch asks.

"Yeah, but he's being a bad boy tonight," she replies. "Tell him to mind his own business, whatever that is."

"Okay," says Yoss, "I'm going to give you one more chance. I know you're a journalist. Why don't we start with who you work for?"

Branch looks down and notices that his hands have been covering up the news clippings unconsciously. "These gave me away, eh?" he says weakly. "I'll tell you what. You've got me a little paranoid. Why don't you give me the name of your hotel and I'll call you when we get our feet on the ground? We can talk this over."

"Why don't we start with who you work for?" Yoss persists. He is still kidding, but there is an edge to it. "You may need me down here. You never know. This is a strange country and you guys could find yourselves on the next plane out. I'll give you one more chance."

"I think I'll lay low for the moment," Branch says.

Yoss makes a few more thrusts, then saunters off.

"Maybe I was too set on getting into the country on the sly," Branch says. "That sure didn't work out. This flight's like a goddamn convention! Tell me, Hilda. None of the Cuban cops is named Raúl Diaz, I hope?"

"That's Diaz right behind you," she replies.

"Oh, shit!" says Branch. He turns slowly in his seat and finds himself staring at one of the handsome Cubans.

"You must be Taylor Branch," Raúl Diaz says with a smile.

"And you're Raúl." Br[illegible] gives him a limp handshake and slumps down in his seat. Hilda Inclán shakes her head and walks off.

"Who's Raúl?" asks Rothchild.

"He's Rolando Martinez' son-in-law. One of the Watergate guys. I spent a lot of time with him in Miami."

"What's so bad about that?" asks Rothchild.

"I don't know. It's just that he probably knows who my Cuban contacts are, and I don't know what the hell he's up to. You see, some of the people who have been telling me about the terrorists are right-wingers and some of them are left-wingers. I don't care about anything except the Letelier murder, but I think it would be healthy for us if we could keep the two groups separate. The only way we can do that is to stay kind of incognito."

"You're doing great so far," Rothchild says. His mind has been wandering over the Bosch briefing. "What makes you think we can get into the prison to see Bosch and his friends?" he asks. "And why would they want to talk to us?"

"It's a long shot," Branch answers. "But Bosch is in a tough spot. The Castro government wants him, and Bosch knows that would mean curtains for him. He also knows that he could get killed any day in Venezuela by either his friends or his enemies. He may figure that his best chance to survive is to come to the United States. What we hope is that he wants to get some of his story out in the American press to force the government to turn the screws and get him back in the States. That's what I hear from some of our Venezuelan contacts. I don't know if it's true, but they are pretty high up. Now even if we can't talk to Bosch and the other prisoners directly, we might get stuff indirectly from the Venezuelans."

"What happens if all the Venezuelan contacts turn out to be flaky?"

"Then we'll just have to poke around," says Branch. "I have a lot of names. There's only one guy I know down here personally. He's a Cuban named Ricardo Morales. I interviewed him back in 1974, just before he came to Venezuela. People in Miami tell me he's way up high in the DISIP, the secret police. I don't know what he's doing now, but he might be a good fallback if nothing else works out."

Rothchild is encouraged. At least Branch knows one real person. "What's he like?"

"He's one of the most cynical people I've ever met," Branch replies, "but I liked him anyway. He doesn't have any illusions about the business he's in, and he makes fun of all the people who do. Ricardo is an old operator, even though he's only in his late thirties. He worked for Castro's secret police. Then he worked for the C.I.A. as an explosives expert. He fought for the Agency in the Congo in the mid-Sixties, and then became an F.B.I. informant. He's the guy who got Bosch convicted in 1968. Small world, isn't it? He surfaced in court with everything on tape. Then all hell broke loose. Morales' car was blown up. He survived but blamed Bosch for trying to kill him. Morales himself was indicted for first-degree murder, but he got off. He's a survivor if there ever was one."

"So he must hate Bosch, then," says Rothchild.

"Well, yes," says Branch.

continued

"It sounds like Bosch and Morales have tried hard enough to kill each other." Branch hesitates and then decides not to tell Rothchild that some of the old C.I.A. Cubans in Miami believe Bosch and Morales have patched things up. Branch does not believe it and it would make things too gnarled. "It's amazing that the Venezuelans would have a guy like Morales high up in their security apparatus," he says absentmindedly. "I mean he's a Cuban, and he has worked for Castro, the C.I.A., and the F.B.I., and he's a veteran of gangland-type warfare. It's like finding a West German high up in the C.I.A. and then discovering that he has also worked for the KGB and the Shah of Iran. But from what I hear, that's a pretty common background to have down here. There are Cubans all over Latin America."

Branch begins packing up the newsclips. "I'm paranoid as hell about this plane," he says. "We're supposed to get a call at the hotel around midnight. That gives us an hour to get through customs and get settled. I want to hustle away from these guys and make sure we're on time."

A Greeting from Rómulo

Rothchild and Inclán notice a huddle of shady five-footers lurking in a dark corner beside the airport entrance. They must be a Venezuelan tour group, Rothchild thinks, waiting for a bargain flight out of the country. I'm not going to get paranoid about everything I see. But the group stares at the passengers; their suits blend so well into the shadows that all you see are their mirror sunglasses. They look like a display of Foster Grants at the back of an unlighted drugstore.

They stop looking only when the Miami assistant state's attorneys and cops, the same ones who have been bugging Branch on the plane, go over and give some of the men in the shadows warm, Latin embraces. Inclán thinks it is a meeting between the Miami law-enforcement contingent and the Venezuelan secret police. She catches up in the line and says she has recognized one of the people in the police huddle as Ricardo Morales, the mysterious Cuban who is supposed to be Branch's fallback contact in Caracas. Branch is stunned. First he is reading clips about Cubans and cops, and the Cubans and cops start fingering him on the airplane. Now Morales.

"Give me your papers and follow me!" a voice booms suddenly. It belongs to a man in a turtleneck sweater and leather jacket. A flunky moves next to each reporter in the line. There is nothing to do but hand over the passports and follow.

Turtleneck and his gang herd the reporters into a special room at the back of the airport. He disappears into another office, leaving them alone with an old man seated behind a desk. There is furious typing coming from the adjacent room into which Turtleneck has disappeared. His flunkies keep running back and forth from one room to the other.

In about ten minutes, Turtleneck returns and hands each of the reporters a citación—in triplicate. Rothchild, translating for Branch, doesn't remember the legal definition of the word citación. He does, however, recognize a word farther down in the document—cárcel. Cárcel means jail. The reporters are being summoned to attend some kind of meeting in a sinister-sounding room, D-034, in a building somewhere in Caracas at nine a.m. the following day. The letterhead belongs to DISIP.

Turtleneck keeps saying it is all routine—just sign the citación and everybody can get a good night's sleep. While Rothchild struggles to understand the fine print, Inclán tells him she thinks it might be a mistake to acknowledge the summons. It might conceivably be construed as an admission of something, and the reporters don't know what it is for. Inclán decides to try an offensive to get information. She whips out her notebook as if to write a traffic ticket and asks Turtleneck what his name is. He doesn't answer. She repeats the question and finally he mumbles, "Inspector Rómulo."

"That's all there is to it?"

"Yeah. Just Rómulo."

"Who ordered you to do this?"

"I don't know. I can't say. It's just a procedure."

"Why is this happening to us?"

"It is so because it is so."

Inclán writes that down.

Branch, whose rudimentary knowledge of Spanish often led him to offend the Cuban community in Miami—where he would mean to say "what a grand wedding this is" and end up saying "what tremendous tits you have"—is getting a headache trying to keep up with the conversation. "Isn't there somebody who speaks English here?" he keeps asking.

"That's all right," says Rothchild. "The guy isn't saying a damn thing in Spanish, either." Inclán agrees.

The reporters get nowhere. Police keep circling, and an evasive Rómulo keeps cracking his knuckles, pacing back and forth between rooms, thrusting pens into the reporters' hands like a door-to-door salesman pushing magazine subscriptions. Inclán asks him if they will go to jail for not signing. Rómulo says, "No, you won't go to jail for that, and I don't care what you do. My orders were to hand you this citación, and that I have done. The rest is entirely up to you."

Inclán decides to accept the summons but not to sign it, based on Rómulo's assertion that it remains in force no matter what. Branch and Rothchild go along after a brief huddle. Rómulo is definitely peeved. He hands each of them a summons in an envelope and tells them to leave.

"I don't understand how they picked us out," says Inclán in the cab. "Especially you, John. You're not even coming as a reporter. They couldn't have gotten us off our documents." The o[illegible]ogical explanation is that someone on the plane tipped off the Venezuelans. But why?

Branch thrashes around in his spy world for answers. Nothing seems to fit. The three of them theorize all the way to the hotel, and they can only settle, like Alexander Haig, on a sinister force. Branch is still sure that the summons will be lifted as soon as he can talk to his friendly contacts in Venezuela. Rothchild keeps looking out the window for a tail.

A Visit to a Small Hotel

The taxi drops them off at the Anauco Hilton, where Inclán is staying. Branch offers to carry Inclán's bags. The lobby, amazingly, is filled with the same DISIP lurkers; they have managed to move their whole scene intact. They are leaning against walls and sitting on the couches. Branch looks toward the elevator in time to see the Miami attorneys and cops scurrying to get inside, frantically pushing buttons to get the door to close. They are as jittery about seeing the reporters as the reporters are about seeing the Venezuelan goons. And the most jittery of all, in the middle of the elevator, is Ricardo Morales himself. Morales is staring at the ceiling, trying to avoid eye contact, and Branch has the feeling that Morales is scared. It is the first time he has seen fear on the face of this hardened veteran of Congo wars and Castro plots and murders. Seeing Morales scared makes Branch scared. He warns Inclán not to go anywhere or do anything—just to call him when he arrives at his hotel, the Avila.

Back in a taxi Branch is going through another run of Cuban politics. "I don't know, John," he says. "Maybe Morales is behind all this, but I can't figure out why he's doing it. He sure looked as if he's in trouble. He could have been making some secret deal with those cops. Something he knows about one of those bombings in Miami. Morales might not know that we were on the flight by accident. He might think we were tailing the cops."

Rothchild is trying not to listen. The only sure contact he thought Branch had has suddenly turned into a potential enemy. Rothchild is petrified by the thought that Branch has gotten in over his head. "I think we are in more trouble," he says. "Look behind you."

This time there is a tail. The other car is right on their bumper as they wind up the back streets of Caracas. "They aren't even pretending not to be following," Rothchild says. "I don't think that's a good sign."

Branch, overwhelmed, keeps looking at the car behind them. "You know," he says with a smile, "this is the first time I've ever been tailed." Rothchild feels as if he is being cranked through the roller of Graham Greene's typewriter.

They reach the Hotel Avila, a Casablanca-type place at the top of a hill. It seems deserted until Rothchild looks down from a balcony near their room. There are people pulling into the driveway in small cars, and they have walkie-talkies and revolver bulges at the waists of their plain dark suits. They station themselves around the hotel entrance and even in the flower beds. They have the place surrounded.

There have been no phone calls—or at least that is the word from the desk. Branch paces nervously around the room. He thinks that something he already knows about C.I.A. Cubans and terrorism must be the key to what's happening, but he doesn't know what it is. He tells everything he knows to Rothchild, going all the way back through Prio and the pre-Castro student movement. Rothchild thinks Branch has lost his mind. It is fear, he figures. Branch realizes that Rothchild is lying down on the bed pretending not to be awake, that he has fallen into a stupor. It is fear, Branch figures.

Then a call comes through, but it is not the contact Branch awaits. It is Inclán, who has been denied a room at the Hilton (even though she had a reservation) and she can't reach anybody at the U.S. Embassy. She wonders what the hell is going on. Branch tells her the situation at the Avila, but she decides to come over; there are lots of rooms and at least the reporters can show some solidarity.

It takes a long time, too long, for Inclán to show up. Branch wanders downstairs; Rothchild waits by the phone for calls that never come. There is an uproar at the desk. The clerk is telling Inclán there are no rooms available even though the bank of keys is behind him in full view. He holds that position for about five minutes, then retreats to "there is some problem with you people. I can't give you a room." He seems scared. Everybody seems scared. Denying a woman a room at three a.m. in Venezuela is a serious violation of the chivalric code. The three reporters talk about it, but they can't sit down or move around without being followed, almost mimicked, by cops. There are now at least six of them in the lobby at all times. Inclán decides she will sleep on a couch in the lobby, and she wonders if she should put on her nightgown for the goons. She sets her bags beside one couch, and the bellhop directs her over to a better one with a gracious flourish; he could have been opening the door to the wedding suite.

After vainly scouring the lobby for pay phones, the reporters agree that they have to make a move for the room so they can talk near a phone. The three make their way up the stairs like Cary Grant tiptoeing between bedrooms. To their relief, no one stops Inclán.

Branch offers Inclán his bed, saying he will sleep on the floor. Rothchild doesn't say anything, but his paranoia tells him it is foolish to give the Venezuelans a chance to arrest them under the pretext of immoral conduct. Rothchild keeps opening the door because of his paranoia; Branch keeps closing it because of his. He doesn't want to be listened in on. Branch and Rothchild are not communicating much with each other by now. Each is worried that whatever he says the other will think it is crazy.

Inclán tries to phone her editor in Miami, but it becomes clear after about an hour of excuses that the desk clerk isn't going to put through her call. Local lines still seem to be available, but whom to call? Branch has his list of connections, but these people are in their own delicate situations and Branch doesn't want to blow their covers by calling at four a.m. on what is certainly a tapped line. Inclán can't get an answer at the U.S. Embassy. Rothchild has nobody to call, and that is one of his problems. Since he is so unconnected with the story, he is sure that the police will figure he is the heavy—a deep-cover C.I.A. man out of retirement from the Everglades.

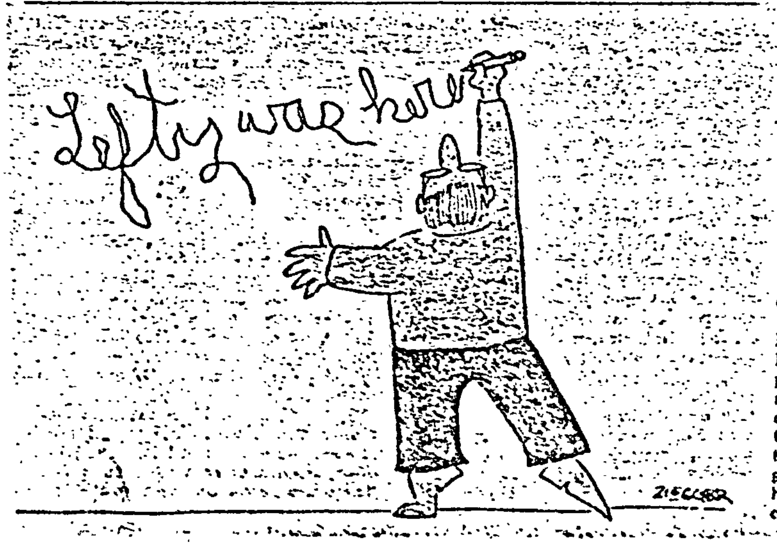
By elimination, the reporters can think of only one person in Venezuela that they could contact. Inclán has figured out, from her visit to the Anauco Hilton, what floor Ricardo Morales is staying on and she thinks she knows what his room number is. Her plan is to call him directly. It is clearly a desperation move. Inclán rings up Morales at the Anauco Hilton, apologizes for the hour and begins to explain her predicament, but it is clear things are not going well. Morales apparently is denying that he is Morales. "You aren't Ricardo Morales?" Inclán asks incredulously. "You know me and I know you. I talked to your nephew in Miami yesterday. His family is fine and he sends his warmest regards."

There is a pause and Inclán begins to sound like a panelist on What's My Line?. "You've never heard of a Morales? Who are you then? Your voice sounds familiar. You're not a Venezuelan. You sound Cuban. Are you a Cuban?" Morales says he is tired of being interrupted in his sleep; he hangs up the phone.

An air of resignation has settled over the room. It is almost morning and the goons are still standing by the bushes. The reporters are under some kind of house arrest and they feel caged. They wonder why Morales has just denied being himself. Maybe all this is happening because they know who he is and Morales fears they will ruin his cover identity. Or maybe Morales doesn't want Branch to reveal his background to anybody in Venezuela. The reporters kick this notion around, but it doesn't fit. It seems preposterous that the Venezuelans don't know about Morales' previous lives, which are talked about all the time in the Miami rumor mill.

Branch paces around the room, trying to make his mind catch up with his fears. He even asks Inclán whether she is guarding some secret that might have caused the trouble. Inclán says no and politely doesn't return the question. The reporters already trust each other instinctively, but the spy world threatens to swallow them up, too. They decide there is nothing to do except try anything to reach the outside world in the morning before getting shuttled off to the DISIP.

Inclán goes off to the lobby for some sleep on her couch. Branch tells Rothchild the rumor about the rapprochement between Morales and Bosch, saying he'd even heard Bosch had been staying in Morales' apartment. But it doesn't make any sense. Nothing does. Branch babbles on until he finally runs out of nervous energy. "Well, John," he says, smiling thinly as he sinks onto the bed, "I was right about one thing. I told you it wouldn't be a boring weekend."



Morales Takes Over

It is five-thirty a.m. and somebody is pounding on the door. Rothchild, a light sleeper, jumps out of bed. He opens the door just a crack, and then the door is thrown back so hard it bangs against the wall like a gunshot. A man in a green suit with a long walkie-talkie hanging from his belt bursts past Rothchild, throwing on all the lights.

"Pack!" he yells. In half a second he is all the way across the room. "Pack!" Branch sits up straight in bed and in the most plaintive voice Rothchild has ever heard him use, a mixture of recognition, terror, disappointment, confusion and pleading, says just one word: "Ricardo?"

It is Morales all right. Branch watches him snatch back the curtains to check the balcony, then dart around the chairs. "Pack!" There is a rhythm to his order. He is moving like a cat, frenzied but in total control. Rothchild feels the energy coming off him in waves. He slips into the bathroom to piss just to get away from Morales, but he is so scared that nothing comes.

More orders come out in staccato bursts—"Get those bags closed! Give me your passports! Give me your airline tickets!" Branch and Rothchild are convinced that he wants to destroy the documents before he kills them. Morales leaves the room within two minutes, but his performance leaves so much afterlife that Rothchild and Branch don't do anything once he has left. They don't call anybody, they don't sneak off the balcony, they don't even say a word to each other.

Both of them jump off the floor when the phone rings, then look dumbly at each other. Branch picks up the receiver, grunts, and puts it down. "All the guy said was, 'He is waiting,'" he tells Rothchild. Branch's own voice sounds far off to him.

Inclán has had rough going downstairs, maybe rougher than the other two because she is alone and also because she is not yet a U.S. citizen. Morales wakes her up with the same staccato commands. She thinks maybe he is going to take her away and have her deported back to Havana. She is so scared that she locks herself in the bathroom and doesn't come out until she hears the other two reporters stumbling downstairs with their bags.

Morales twists the knife with a little humiliation. "Pay your bill!" he yells. Branch doesn't think he should have to pay for the hospitality he has received, but he pulls out his wallet without a second's hesitation. "Pick up your bags! Let's go!" The reporters are hustled out of the lobby, past a squadron of sunglasses. Morales is already ahead of them, barking orders on his walkie-talkie. It is still dark.

The reporters are put into the back of a car. Morales and a driver are up front. Nobody is talking much. Branch is wearing his best suit, which he does not remember putting on during Morales' brutal prodding. Now he thinks maybe something deep in his unconscious had ordered him to look his best. Rothchild is terrified that they are traveling in a private car instead of an official police car. His fear of being officially detained is rapidly being replaced by a fear of being unofficially bumped off. He keeps looking back at the car full of goons that is following close behind as they careen down the mountain at one hundred twenty kilometers an hour.

The car is heading out of town now, [illegible] the populated areas and into those [illegible] where executions and accidents take place. Branch is desperately trying to make contact with Morales. He mentions some people from Miami that he and Morales had once talked to together. But every time Branch drops a name, Morales turns the volume up on the radio. He leaves it that way, blaring, until the questioner gives up and sits back in his seat. But desperation creates another question, another try, which ends in another mambo blast. Branch gives up on the name-dropping and even tries some spy-world guilt production. "Rip would not like what you are doing to us," he says. "Rip would be ashamed." Rip Robertson was Morales' gun-toting case officer in the Congo operations. Rothchild thinks Branch is foolish to bring up the Congo and remind Morales how little he cares for human life. Morales says nothing. He just gives the radio knob another twist.

Inclán is taking the personal route again, talking about this nephew she has seen, mentioning other relatives of Morales who live in Miami. Morales isn't answering her, either. He is getting tired of the radio. Now he just leans his head over against the door to get some sleep. Watching Morales nod, the fury turned off like a light, Branch's mind is filled with memories of Miami Cubans telling stories of legendary agents who would drop off to sleep just before landing in Cuba on a C.I.A. commando raid. He never quite believed the stories, but he thinks Morales' nap is very effective theater. Rothchild is also watching the nap. Every time Morales nods, Rothchild thinks he is ducking so that the bullets from the car behind won't hit him. Rothchild ducks, too.

After about twenty minutes of driving, the road flattens out and the reporters can see the airport in the distance. Morales mentioned "airport" once back in the hotel lobby, but the reporters were never sure he intended to take them there. If he were just planning to expel them, it would seem that he could afford to be more communicative, more curious about what the reporters were doing, more worried about the kind of story they might write about him. But Morales asked no questions. Rothchild knew from Branch's incessant briefings that Morales wore a lot of hats: terrorist as well as informant, mercenary as well as cop, bomber as well as representative of a government. It might be more paranoia to think he would kill them, but all last night's paranoia had come true.

The reporters know one thing: they have stumbled onto a story that is big enough and sensitive enough that top people in the Venezuelan DISIP are interrupting their sleep and risking diplomatic reprisals to scare the hell out of them. It isn't routine in Venezuela, one of the few South American countries left with any sense of freedom of the press. There is something big going on, and the reporters don't know, as they speed through Cara[illegible] whether they will ever get to find out what it is. Nobody, after all, knows where the reporters are, and the only thing on their side, besides some vestigial compassion that might reside somewhere even in goons, is the sense that world opinion would be on Morales' back if they did get tortured or killed. But that's just the point—world opinion was on the terrorists' backs about the Cuban airline crash and about Letelier and Moffitt. They killed them anyway. They didn't give a damn.

The car pulls up at the airport. It is less than eight hours since the reporters entered the country, and they have talked to nobody except Morales, the goons and each other. Their best guess is that Morales plans to keep it that way.

Breakfast at Ricardo's

Morales marches the group through part of the airport lobby and then up some back stairs, past the meteorology room and into the tower section. They arrive at a locked, knobless door with a small pass-through window, and Morales has to knock before it is opened from the inside. They have arrived at the goon control center. There is a four-drawer cabinet where the DISIP police file their guns and bullet clips like memos. There is an old couch, a few desks, and in an adjoining room some bunk beds. All the people from the night shift are still there, including Rómulo, in the same turtleneck and the same leather jacket. The most impressive new lurker is a character they call "El Largo," or "The Long One."

It is clear now that the plan is not torture, it is deportation, but the reporters sense that the plan could easily be changed. Morales is stalking between rooms, giving orders and making calls, and when he looks at the reporters he seethes with anger. Inclán and Branch are directing more questions at him from the couch. He answers only with contemptuous looks.

No one is prepared for what happens next. Morales walks out with a wide grin on his face. He clasps his hands together like a waiter and cheerfully addresses the reporters: "Is anybody hungry? Are you ready for some breakfast?"

The reporters follow Morales dumbly down the maze of corridors. They decide there is something oriental about recent developments, and they are convinced Morales could show them great courtesy one moment and yank out their toenails the next. They follow Morales down the corridors until they come to a small dining room that appears to be reserved for airport personnel. Branch gives fleeting thought to the idea of making a scene, but he decides Morales would not have brought them here unless he controlled the area. Besides, Branch realizes, he does not have the courage to make a scene in front of Morales, who still has the reporters nearly paralyzed with fright.

Morales lays his big walkie-talkie down on the table and snaps for a

waiter. "What will you have?" he asks graciously.

The reporters had figured breakfast was probably a ruse, so they think about food for the first time. It is a struggle. Rothchild's stomach is filled with embalming fluid. He feels queasy looking at the menu. Branch asks only for coffee and an order of toast. Rothchild follows suit. Morales looks disappointed and urges them to eat more heartily. Inclán orders eggs and Morales looks pleased. He orders a sumptuous breakfast for himself. It arrives promptly.

"Well," he asks grandly, "who do you think will win your election, Carter or Ford?"

The reporters exchange the look, familiar by now, that signals their agreement that absurdity has reached new heights. They mumble offhand answers as Morales listens intently.

"You don't really have much choice, ~~do you?~~" he asks. "I mean, you have two guys who don't have any ideas and don't have any backbone, right? And neither one of them can command anything or stop anything, so it doesn't make any difference, right? At least that's what I get from Time magazine."

Inclán tries to change the subject. She asks Morales about his position in the DISIP and gets no response. She mentions Morales' nephew, whom she knows in Miami, and Morales parries the remark. Suddenly a cloud comes across his face.

"What's the matter with you?" he demands. "Why aren't you eating?" He points down at the dry toast, which Branch and Rothchild have been picking at like wafflers at Communion. "Aren't you hungry?"

Branch nods yes; Rothchild nods no. "You told me you hadn't gotten any breakfast, so I give you breakfast," Morales declares angrily, waving his arms. "If you are not hungry, you are liars! What's the matter with you?"

The reporters are exasperated. "We are afraid and confused," says Inclán, "because nobody will tell us why this is happening to us. I am a reporter like all the other reporters down here. I want to interview Orlando Bosch like I did once before . . ."

"Never heard of him," interrupts Morales. He gives us an exaggerated shrug and a quizzical look.

Inclán shakes her head in despair. "Oh, come on. You testified against him eight years ago in Miami and now he's the most famous prisoner in Latin America. He's in your jail."

"Did he make Time magazine?" asks Morales.

"Yes," says Branch.

"I guess I missed it," says Morales. He pauses, then turns to Inclán. "You should not be running around asking so many questions," he says sternly. "You are a woman. Women should be at home having babies and making their men happy. Nothing else."

Inclán is ruffled. "I can work as well as most other reporters," she says.

Morales shakes his head vigorously. "No you can't. You are a hundred miles aw from reality." He looks off and sa again.

"I don't think so," says Inclán. "I think you are."

"No," says Morales. "You are a hundred miles from reality, and I am a hundred years from reality. You understand the difference?"

"I don't know what I understand," says Inclán. "I know something about you. Taylor says he talked to you about your background in Miami and you talked to him like a friend. He says you were nice and now you are . . ."

"I am not nice," snaps Morales. "You know what I used to do in Cuba when I was a kid? I sent anonymous death wreaths to my friends. All the time. Is that nice?"

Branch does not like this subject or the faintly homicidal look he sees before him. He decides to make another stab at levity. "Look, Ricardo," he says, "I'm upset that you and your men have kept me from seeing anything about the last game of the World Series last night."

"The World Series," he says, his eyes opening wide. "Let me tell you about the World Series. It is just like the world everywhere: the Reds are winning and the Yanks are losing!" Morales breaks into laughter. Something snaps in the reporters and they laugh, too, uncontrollably. Fear floats out of their mouths and they feel better.

Branch wades in to reestablish contact. "Look, Ricardo," he says gamely, "I can't help thinking this is some kind of mistake. I want to be straight with you. All I'm interested in is the murder of Orlando Letelier. That's what I came down here for, and I want . . ."

"He's the guy who got blown up in Washington, right?" Morales breaks in. "I think I saw that in Time."

"That's right. He was blown up right around the corner from my apartment."

"Wel' what are you doing in Venezuela i[illegible] was killed in Washington?" Morales demands.

"Because I think the people who conspired to kill him are here. That's what my sources say, and it has even been in some of the Venezuelan newspapers."

Morales looks disgusted. "You shouldn't read the newspapers," he says tightly. "They lie. And you should investigate that murder in Washington instead of coming halfway around the world."

Branch tries another tack. "I don't understand what's behind this, Ricardo. You aren't like you were the last time I saw you, in 1974. Don't you remember? It was at night in Miami Beach, and you brought your girl friend over to the house I was staying in. And Fotingo Silva was there. And Tamayo was there. We talked almost all night about the Congo. Why have you changed? Is there something . . ." Branch stops because of what he sees on Morales' face.

"You are lying!" he explodes. "I have never heard of Ricardo Morales! This is the first time I have ever met you, and it is the first time you have met me! Understand? I have never seen you before in my life! If you say different you are lying! And bad things happen to liars!"

Inclán comes to Branch's rescue. "I have seen your picture," she says, "and I'm sure who you are. If you're not Morales, then what is your name?"

"I don't answer personal questions," Morales says, smiling, trying to look shy.

"I think maybe you figure there's a little spy conspiracy here," Branch ~~observes,~~ ~~stabbing~~ in the dark. "But there isn't. John and I are old friends, but we just met Hilda yesterday. She is interested in Bosch and his friends because of the bombings in Miami and the Cuban plane. We are interested in them because of Letelier. The three of us just happened to come down here on the same plane."

"Oh, really?" says Morales dubiously. "I guess you are good friends now."

"I guess we've gone through something together," says Rothchild.

"Now you have something in common," he nods, feigning tenderness. "Let's see, what else is there? Have you all been married?" The reporters nod. "How about divorced?" The reporters nod again. "Once?" They nod again.

Morales holds up three fingers. "I have been divorced three times," he says, "after four kids. I haven't seen them in seven years." This hangs in the air.

"Do you miss them?" asks Inclán.

"Not the children," Morales says softly. "Just the wives sometimes. I don't miss much. You know I haven't slept in two years." The reporters give each other significant looks, like shrinks attending a primal-therapy session.

"If you are going to kick us out of the country, you should at least let us call our families," Inclán says. "My editors are going to be worried. We have appointments and those people don't have any idea where we are. Why can't you let us make at least one phone call?"

Morales has shed his melancholy and slipped into a new persona. He is eager. "You're right," he says. "I'll call them. Anybody you want. Tell me who your appointments are with." He pulls out a pen in a flash. Branch blinks. He is startled by how fast Morales moves and how fiercely he snaps the point down.

The reporters glance knowingly at each other. They share a vision of Morales hauling their contacts down to DISIP's welcome wagon. We're not that dumb, they think.

Inclán tells Morales to call her editor at The Miami News, a safe, serious call. Morales spells out the name letter by letter as he writes on his napkin like a schoolboy taking down his homework. He is putting on a show. He looks at Branch.

"Tell Orlando Bosch it doesn't look as if I'll be able to make it this trip," Branch says. "He's in the DISIP prison."

The reporters giggle, but Morales deadpans. "T-e-l-l O-r-l-a-n-d-o B-o-s-h . . ."

"You've spelled Bosch wrong," says Inclán. "It's B-o-s-c-h."

"I'm sorry," says Morales.

Morales keeps writing. "You are a funny one," he says jovially. He looks up. "Anybody else?"

"Yes," says Branch. He has been trying to think of one of his contacts in Venezuela who would not be vulnerable to Morales but whose clout might impress him. Any name is a risk, but he decides to take one. "Tell the governor of Caracas that I won't be able to see him. His name is Diego Arias. Do you know him?"

Branch studies Morales for a reaction, but there is none.

After breakfast, as the procession goes by a pay phone, Inclán suddenly announces, "I'd like to make one call to the American Embassy." She breaks step and marches toward it, the first sign of overt resistance. Morales freezes Branch and Rothchild with a malicious glance and walks with her, shaking his head. Support goons appear from around corners. They seem relaxed. Morales fingers his walkie-talkie. Inclán gets to the phone and starts fumbling for Venezuelan change and her phone numbers. Morales leans up against the wall near the phone. He looks amused. His body seems to twitch a little under his suit, as if he might need some exercise.

Branch and Rothchild keep telling themselves that Inclán is making a futile gesture, but they admire her. "She's got more guts than we do," whispers Rothchild.

Branch and Rothchild watch her lift the phone from the cradle, but they don't think she has the change or the number. She is nervous. She looks Morales in the face, which is probably a mistake. He stares at her, shakes his head, and hangs up the phone gently.

An hour later, Morales suddenly mobilizes his entire office. Some of his men grab the reporters' suitcases and vanish. Others take off for unknown destinations. The rest fall in around the reporters and Morales leads them briskly out the door.

Rothchild figures they have just enough time to make the ten a.m. flight to Miami that he had seen posted on a board some time earlier. He senses an end coming and feels some relief. But when the entourage emerges on the airport's main concourse, Morales turns toward the exit into Caracas, not toward the planes.

"I thought you were putting us on the plane," says Branch. "Where are we going?"

"To the other airport," says Morales. His mind is elsewhere.

"What happens if we make a fuss when you put us on the plane?" Inclán asks. "What then?"

Morales' face is taut but breaks into a tour-guide smile. "You will either leave Venezuela nice and happy, or . . ." He pauses. "Or you will leave nice and happy." He delivers the last line with a lilt, as if making a rhyme. The reporters absorb the menacing smile and fall silent.

Several cars screech up to the curb. Once loaded, they take off at the usual torrid pace. Branch feels panic opening trapdoors under his lungs and he leans over to Rothchild. "Holy shit, John," he whispers. "I don't think there is another airport in Caracas."

After racing a quarter mile down the road, the cars turn abruptly into a parking lot. The reporters are baffled by the rush and the short trip but relieved to be staying near the airport. They figure they are headed for a plane from a different direction, but Morales leads them through another maze of corridors and into a new holding room. It has a big waiting area with two rooms partitioned off on the side. The doors are metal with no handles. They lock from both sides.

Morales vanishes, leaving Rómulo and El Largo in charge. Rómulo's fingertips do push-ups on his desk while he looks on, stone-faced. Rothchild gets the impression that Rómulo likes to stare at blank walls more than at people. El Largo, who seems to be a notch above Rómulo in the pecking order, moves into one of the partitioned offices and stays almost continuously on the phone. He reminds the reporters of his presence from time to time by loudly sucking phlegm up his long spiny nose.

After about ten minutes, Branch starts pacing away from Rómulo. "Goddamn it," Branch spurts, "I don't think we know enough about Morales to make him do all this. He's going to a lot of trouble to seal us off from Venezuela, but it doesn't make sense that he would do it just because we know who he is."

"Why not?" asks Inclán.

"Because," says Rothchild, "what we already know is going to come out anyway if he kicks us out of the country."

"I think maybe Morales is more worried about what we might find out if we ever get out of his clutches," says Branch. "I think maybe it's the fact that this terrorism is organized internationally. Bosch moves around on illegal passports and has fancy fund-raising dinners with supposedly respectable people in lots of countries. He's supported by at least part of a lot of governments. And this stuff looks cross-national—Cubans killing Chileans and so forth. Now look at how Venezuela fits in. It's kind of an entrepôt for everybody on all sides. The government is in a real pickle. It has to get along with the military juntas that have taken over most of Latin America, and it also has to get along with Castro. This country is filled with left-wing Chilean exiles and right-wing Cuban exiles. Letelier is buried here, which is a tilt to the left, but the people who helped conspire to kill him might well be right in the DISIP, which is full of Cubans like Morales. President Pérez [Carlos Andrés, of Venezuela] has got his own little Watergate here, because his own government is tangled up with both the terrorists and the anti-terrorists. This whole country is like a tinderbox. The government is making little gestures to both sides, trying to keep the lid on.

"Okay," Branch continues. "Let's assume that Morales is not bootlegging us out of the country on his own. That seems stupid to me. Let's assume that at least the people in the interior ministry know what's going on. And let's assume they're afraid we'll get into the country and find a story that goes something like INTERNATIONAL TERRORIST ORGANIZATION HEADQUARTERED IN VENEZUELA. OPERATIVES MOSTLY CUBAN. EXILES WITH CIA AND FBI TIES. VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT PLAYING BOTH SIDES. And we go on to say that Bosch has brought a lot of Latin governments around to his position, which is that it's better to trust each other than to trust the C.I.A. Now, what I'm saying is that a story like that would really screw up the Venezuelans, especially if it's fleshed out. It's the last thing the government here needs right now."

"So what side is Morales on?" asks Rothchild.

"I think he's on both sides," says Inclán.

"I think so, too," says Branch, "just like the government. Morales is in the underworld of both sides."

Inclán thinks for a moment. "There's only one big problem," she says. "If they're so afraid of a story like that, why do they let other reporters stay and just throw us out? Why do they pick on us?"

"I don't know," Branch sighs. "I don't know much about the correspondents here. They're getting some stuff out, but my impression is that they cover nine countries and just fly in for the coups and earthquakes. That still doesn't make us so special. But maybe we are to Morales. We know him. He knows Hilda knows a lot about Bosch and Miami connections. He knows that I got pretty deeply into the C.I.A. Cubans. Then he sees us with the prosecutors. That may have been too much for him to take chances with us. I don't know. Maybe he thinks we're C.I.A."

Swords on the Runway

El Largo picks up the three passports off Rómulo's desk and points them toward the locked door like a baton. "Vamos," is all he says.

The metal door is unlocked by El Largo, and once again the DISIP cortege appears from nowhere. They escort the reporters down another staircase and cut toward an immigration stall in a large room that is completely isolated. It is a busy part of the day at a major airport, but the DISIP keeps finding these empty halls and empty rooms to stick the reporters in.

Something about approaching this immigration stall, which is not attended, and knowing he will pass through it and get on an airplane and not find Letelier's murderer starts to galvanize Branch. There is a tiny passage to go through and El Largo is motioning them to walk on, but Branch is having these visions of the bombed car outside his apartment and he is getting mad. The madder he gets, the slower he walks. "We can't just get on this plane," he says to Rothchild. "We have to at least do something." He and Rothchild, and then Inclán behind them, go into a stall—not a complete stop, but they are slowing it way down. Morales might have clamped down on this little insurrection in a second, but El Largo seems merely agitated. He is getting in front of the reporters, pleading and begging, pulling with his arms as if they are all connected by an invisible rope.

In complete exasperation, he starts sputtering threats. "If you don't move through here, I am going to use the force!" Two guards go running down to the end of the room, apparently to go find the force, which turns out to be four young soldiers in green fatigues and paratrooper boots.

With the army behind them, the reporters continue their shuffle. Two move ahead a few feet and one hangs back. Then the members of the armed forces plus the DISIP people surround the straggler, prodding him along, while one of the other two breaks away to the same spot the straggler just vacated.

Out of a picture window the reporters can see the plane being gassed up. It is VIASA, the Venezuelan airline, and not Pan Am. Inclán, finally expressing some paranoia herself, says, "Well they could blow us up on the plane, but they wouldn't sacrifice a Venezuelan plane. They don't have that many of them."

They have been dragging on this walk for almost forty minutes now, and they can see the busloads of tourists being flushed back out from their vacations. The buses are stopping at the back stairway of the plane. Then Branch gets his idea. "In here where there is nobody to see us we can't do much," he tells Rothchild. "But out there, in front of all those tourists, we can get some help. Let's go." Rothchild and Branch huddle with Inclán. They [illegible] the plan and agree. Then all three abandon their shuffle, to the surprise of the herders, who have been pushing all along. Suddenly they see their quarry running off in front of them. El Largo doesn't catch on right away, but he knows that whatever the reporters want to do, it must be the wrong thing. So he starts running after them, yelling, "Stop!" Branch and Rothchild hit the double glass door with Inclán and El Largo and the army just behind. They all pour out onto the runway to the curious looks of hundreds who are lined up to get on the plane.

For the first time since they landed in Venezuela, Inclán is visibly upset. She rushes out to the line of passengers, screaming in Spanish and English that she is a woman reporter whose dignity has been trampled on by the secret police. The police, who are massing behind her in greater numbers than ever before, don't know quite how to deal with this. The passengers don't know whether to accept her as a lunatic traveler whom they don't want with them on the plane, or to believe what she is saying, which would be unpleasant. Most of them pretend that nothing is happening and go on up the ramp.

Branch, meanwhile, has planted himself on the stairs that lead to the front cabin of the plane. He is sitting down and his hands are clenched to the rails like a Quaker chained to the White House fence. Rothchild is sitting on the steps just below Branch, and they are being surrounded by a brigade of reinforcements, the sword company. The men in brown uniforms have circled them, and they pull the swords a few inches out of their long scabbards ready to hog-stick Rothchild and Branch into the airplane. Behind them officials and police seem to be pouring out of the doors and official jeeps are screeching up and screeching off, and Rómulo has even showed up again.

The captain of the airplane, a Venezuelan, comes down the same ramp on which Branch and Rothchild have been doing their sit-in, and he has a scowl on his face. Venezuela has enough trouble developing tourism and here is his plane being held up and his passengers' last memory of Venezuela will be these goons with swords and blackjacks prodding Americans up the ramp. He steps over Branch and goes right down to the huddle of secret police, where the current brains of the operation, Rómulo and El Largo, are standing. The captain proceeds to chew them out, tell them that they are idiots to pull a show like this and that he will not take passengers on his airplane if they are loaded by force. The security risk, for one thing. If these people are that dangerous, then why should they be flying alone on his airplane?

El Largo and Rómulo don't quite know how to handle this sudden obstacle. They get a let's-talk-this-one-over-buddy look on their faces and go into a huddle with the captain. They also defer to even higher authority, a beefy cop named Camargo, who is wearing a short-sleeve shirt. Camargo arrives in the middle of the scene, looking like the frustrated director of a runaway cast. There are now dozens of DISIP men in plain clothes, a few representatives from about four different military detachments, frantic jeep drivers, airline authorities, pilots and ground-crew personnel, all crowding around to watch or take part in the action. Camargo looks skyward, thinking under pressure, and gets his idea. "Why don't you let me go with these people?" he asks the pilot. "If I take them to Miami, I guarantee there won't be any funny stuff on your plane." Rothchild thinks this is a little ironic. The reporters come down to investigate one plane bombing and return under guard so that they can't pull one off themselves.

The pilot doesn't think too much of Camargo's idea. "Do you have a U.S. visa?" he asks Camargo. "No." "Then, do you know what they will do to you when you get to Miami? Much worse than whatever you have done to them here." Camargo doesn't like the way that sounds. He scraps the plan, and the captain returns to the plane.

The reporters aren't sure of what they have just done. They have scored a theatrical victory—just look around at all these cars and soldiers and distressed officials—but they don't like the prospect of lunch with Ricardo Morales. Nobody seems to be running to call the American Embassy or any other outside help, so the plan is a qualified failure.

The three of them head back to the passenger line, where people are still loading, and start writing phone numbers on little scraps of paper—the numbers are of editors in Miami, friends, and even mothers. They try handing them out to boarding passengers. The reporters are received in this effort like Salvation Army collectors at the racetrack. Only a few of the passengers actually take the notes, but just to make sure, the DISIP people are picking them off at the higher end of the line. Some passengers even go out of their way to hand over the notes, with an air of having done their civic duty. It develops into a kind of assembly line, notes in and notes out, the DISIP goons collecting just as fast as Inclán, Branch and Rothchild can scrawl.

It is now, with the plane about to close its doors, that Branch comes up with another plan: send one, leave two. Branch still is hoping he can break the Morales logjam and get out into friendly territory, where his contacts are waiting to help him. Inclán speaks the best Spanish and seems the most adept at handling inspectors and bureaucrats. They will stay and Rothchild is chosen to leave. Branch reminds him, in front of the sword brigade, that he is an "expectant father," but Rothchild needs no encouragement. He instantly calls for the captain and explains that he wants to get on the plane. The captain hesitates, then agrees, and Rothchild runs for the stairs. As he passes Branch and Inclán, Branch sticks one page of phone numbers in his pocket and, as a diversionary tactic, clumsily sticks another note in his hand, this one in full view of the cops. As the sword carriers are frisking Rothchild, the second note is triumphantly confiscated. They don't know that it says "Joe Morgan" on it. The name of the great Cincinnati second baseman will go somewhere into the DISIP files.

Halfway up the ramp, Rothchild senses that the pressure has somehow been reversed, that now the DISIP wants to keep him on the ground. Several cops are following him as if they want to get ahead and stop him at the door. He scurries inside the plane and rushes back to a seat; they are still following him. He has his seat belt buckled almost before his ass hits the cushion, and the two cops reach out as if to grab him, then change their minds and abruptly leave the aircraft. But they quickly return. They tell Rothchild in a very friendly tone that his friends down on the ground want to have a word with him and that he better unbuckle and come down. Rothchild is so agitated he believes them. He gets as far as the plane entrance, the top of the stairs, when he hears Branch yelling, "Get back." He bowls over a stewardess on the way to his seat.

The cops are not through yet. They return with another ploy: Rothchild has not filled out the necessary papers and he must return to an office in the airport. "Are you sure this isn't a trick?" Rothchild asks. "No, no trick. Just a procedural matter." Rothchild tells them he isn't moving an inch until he talks to the captain.

Out his little window, Rothchild sees further agitation on the runway. They have brought up a car and they are trying to force Branch and Inclán to get into it. Camargo is flailing his arms like a giant windmill, determined to get all three reporters together—on or off the plane. The reporters are equally determined to split up. Branch and Inclán keep telling Camargo that they will not move from the runway until the plane takes off. They want to stay in plain view of all the passengers, fearing that the goons will grab Rothchild once the other two are safely out of view. Branch and Inclán keep encouraging each other and making jokes about how incredible all the commotion has become. Workmen in orange suits are crouched in the shade, smoking cigarettes, and several hundred gawkers are spread out in a semicircle like fans in the bleachers.

Camargo tries a whole string of tricks to get Branch and Inclán out of sight. Will they move into the airport, please? No. He goes off into a huddle and comes back. Will they get in the car so they can get out of the hot sun? No. Will they get in the car if he promises they can watch the plane from there? No. After one huddle, the mood changes and several goons swing little brown blackjacks. Branch and Inclán say a prayer, refuse to move and wave ostentatiously at the airplane. The goons shove and menace but then go off again. Rómulo comes back with his gun pulled, looking like a crazed assassin. Camargo soon yanks him back to the goon huddle. The plane starts taxiing on the runway and Camargo says, "You've won. Let's go." The reporters huddle and say not until it's off the ground. Camargo looks furious and barks a command to his walkie-talkie man. The plane stops immediately and sits in the middle of the airstrip. Camargo controls the tower, the reporters conclude. The game, played by inches and bluffs, goes on for nearly an hour.

Camargo Plays Hardball

Branch and Inclán are spread-eagled against the back-door openings of the goon car, facing each other, when the jet finally takes off. They have held this position for the last fifteen minutes or so of the cat-and-mouse game. The roar of the jet engines sets off tremors in Branch's gut, and he is flooded with relief. He feels tears welling up.

Rómulo is now wearing his gun tucked inside his pants at the navel. His turtleneck is soaked with sweat. He and Camargo and the head blackjack man escalate their nudging again, and extras crowd in behind them. The reporters, talking over the roof of the car, decide that the plane will not be called back. They get in the car. Rómulo sits next to Branch, and Camargo takes the front seat. They peel off down the runway with other cars following.

"How long will it take the plane to get to Miami?" Inclán asks Camargo.

"A little more than three hours," says Camargo. "It has to stop in Maracaibo."

Branch shivers and asks Inclán to translate the Spanish to make sure he heard right.

"I thought you said it was a direct flight to Miami," Inclán says in disbelief.

"It is going direct to Miami, señora," replies Camargo, "but it is stopping in Maracaibo."

The reporters discuss with renewed horror the fact that Maracaibo is still in Venezuela; they envision the DISIP people paying a call on Rothchild. Camargo grins at them. His lips slant in one direction, and the upper row of his front teeth slants in the other, making an X. Branch thinks Camargo must file his teeth. He inches away from Rómulo until he is almost in Inclán's lap.

Three hours later, Camargo summons the two reporters to his office after more consultation with Central Caracas. Only one thing has changed, he says graciously. Both their visas have been officially revoked; they are ordered to leave at three-thirty. The reporters ask why, and Camargo shrugs.

Without warning, the session is interrupted when one of the younger goons strolls in and hands Camargo a brand-new Jim Palmer baseball glove and a box of six baseballs. The reporters are astonished.

"Excuse me," says Camargo, who begins to pound his fist in the new glove. He is beaming. He and Branch start talking baseball, with a bewildered Inclán translating. A bond is formed. Camargo lets Branch pound his fist into the glove.

Camargo is now expansive, as if the reporters were guests in his home. He says he knows a lot about the United States and walks over to a corner where there is a stack of framed diplomas on the floor. He flips through them and hands Branch a diploma from the U.S. Army School of Special Warfare. It is signed by General Joseph W. Stilwell, Commandant. Then he hands Branch a certificate from the International Police Academy, a training school for the world's policemen. It has closed after a dose of scandal. Branch wonders if all the DISIP goons have been trained by the Agency; he would like to meet their American contacts.

Rothchild has landed in Miami. He goes straight to The Miami News and causes an uproar with his story. The editors there have been worried about Inclán since she missed her check-in call six hours ago. The managing editor calls the American Embassy in Caracas and lifts it off the ground with rage. The embassy promises to investigate immediately. Rothchild begins to reconsider his views on newspaper editors.

Camargo comes into the holding room wearing the look of a man who has just accomplished something.

"Your visas have been officially confiscated," he announces.

The reporters look at him blankly. "What's new about that?" asks Inclán. "You have had them all day."

"Now they are permanently confiscated," says Camargo. He shows them a new Venezuelan seal stamped on each one. Over the seals, someone has scrawled, "Visa fue revocada."

Before the reporters have time to figure out what this signifies, Camargo gives the order to move out. He says the plane is late. The goon squads materialize.

Inclán explains to Branch that they are in big trouble. Even if Camargo lets them go, she says, they could be stopped ten feet outside the airport and asked for their papers. They could be slapped in prison for the "revocada" on their passports. For the first time they are not on solid legal ground. Branch shakes his head wearily and tells Inclán they have lost a round of hardball.

They follow a triumphant Camargo to the plane.

Epilogue: More Pay Phones

On October 24, two days after the reporters left Caracas, Deputy Interior Minister Marco Tulio Brunicelli talked with the press to clear up the matter. Brunicelli said Hilda Inclán had arrived carrying documents that "did not conform with national norms," and that "she was cordially asked to leave the country because it is necessary to comply with our laws." As for Branch and Rothchild, he declared that they "expressed solidarity with their colleague and decided to leave the country."

That same day, Branch was checking with Cuban sources in Miami to find out why Morales had turned on him. He received worse than a cold shoulder, and some of his best Cuban friends told him to stay out of Miami. The most loyal veterans of the C.I.A.—people who had spent years denouncing and exposing terrorists as a detriment to the anti-Castro cause—now supported the terrorists and expected nothing but opposition from the Agency. "If you don't help the good people fight Castro," said one old C.I.A. Cuban, "then we have to help the bad ones do it. There's nothing left but terrorism." Branch was stunned by how rapidly the anti-C.I.A., pro-terrorist trend had progressed in even the two years since he had left Miami. C.I.A. loyalists were now in very short supply. The last defectors were Cubans whose secret histories stretched back to the Fifties and Sixties, when their anti-Communist movement was in the American mainstream. The C.I.A. trained the Cubans to work by stealth—to lie, smuggle weapons, move illegally in and out of countries, make bombs t strike secretly against Castro targ. Some of them were "official" terrorists, who would stoically accept long jail sentences rather than reveal a C.I.A. secret. Now they were no longer official.

Rothchild was back home in the Everglades. On Monday he received the first of several phone calls from a man identifying himself as a "consultant to the government of Venezuela." He wanted to give Rothchild some money to write about Rothchild's background. Very weird, thought Rothchild. He began to worry that his trip to Caracas would follow him.

Press reports from Venezuela quoted interior ministry officials in Venezuela as saying that Ricardo Morales "did not cause the expulsion of the American journalists." In an official statement on October 26 the ministry said Morales "does not even work for the DISIP."

A few days later, Branch received a letter from someone in Venezuela who was working on the terrorist network. It came by messenger and read like Sherlock Holmes: "The key to this thing—whatever it is—is Morales, and the key to him is something you already know. It seems that something he once told you or knows you know will click with something you would be likely to hear here, or would reveal something here, that he didn't want out. Think."

Branch went to see Eugene Propper, the assistant U.S. attorney in charge of the Letelier investigation. Propper wanted to know about the Venezuela trip because he was thinking of going there himself. The leads pointed there, he said. He asked questions about the Cuban terrorists. Branch outlined what he knew. He took a reading of Propper and was satisfied that he wanted badly to solve the case. Branch only worried that they were both way over their heads. His worries skyrocketed when Propper asked to see a copy of The Miami News, which contained articles about Morales and the Venezuela trip.

Propper knitted his eyebrows and scrutinized the News as if it were a moon rock. Something gave Branch a sinking feeling. "The News and the Herald in Miami have an awful lot of stuff about terrorists," he said. "You have all that, don't you?"

"I don't think we get them," said Propper.

"You have to have them," Branch pleaded. Propper made a couple of unsuccessful phone calls around the Justice Department and said he would get these newspapers from the Library of Congress as soon as possible.

Branch knew what it must be like to call the police station in the middle of a robbery and find its phone disconnected. He recovered and offered to do anything he could to help, even to go back to Venezuela.

"I've only got one major reservation," he said, "and that is the informant problem. You have to rely on the F.B.I. and the C.I.A. to investigate, and the fact is that most of the suspects and likely witnesses are old C.I.A. and F.B.I. men of some sort."

Pr r said it could be handled. The F.B.I. ople on the case would arrest their own mothers if they had to. The terrorists had threatened to kill an F.B.I. agent. The Bureau had two hundred agents on the case. It was the biggest thing in the F.B.I.

"What about the Agency?" asked Branch. "Look, I don't think the C.I.A. had anything to do with these murders, but the terrorists are using their old C.I.A. connections in more ways than one. The Agency is in a bind. It has created a monster. The whole world of secrets in Miami has turned upside down. But I'll bet those old pros over at the Agency aren't about to sacrifice their security and secrecy to help solve a murder."

Propper said he was getting cooperation, reams of stuff in fact. Branch asked him to test it. "Ask them for their file on Luis Posada," he said. "I know they've got one on him. He came into the Agency through the M.R.P. before the Bay of Pigs. Ask the Agency what it has about Posada's involvement with a bootleg assassination attempt against Castro in 1965 involving a guy named Herminio Diaz. Diaz was caught and killed in Cuba. Now, if the Agency doesn't have anything on that, they're just giving you a lot of smoke." (Posada is the Cuban detective from the DISIP now held by the DISIP for the Cubana de Aviación bombing.)

Propper agreed. (On a later visit, Propper would say he was getting Agency cooperation but declined to give Branch any details.)

On November 4, the State Department responded to Branch's request for a position statement on the Venezuelan expulsion, which the U.S. Embassy in Caracas had been investigating. A State Department representative read a portion of a press briefing as follows:

Q: What did he (Branch) say and what's the State Department going to do about it?

A: He described the dealings he and two others had with the Venezuelan authorities at Maiquetía Airport when they arrived there last week. I'm not going to discuss details of what he said. That would be for him to do, if he wishes. Our Embassy has expressed our concern over this incident to the appropriate Government of Venezuela officials.

An hour later, an agitated woman from the State Department called back. "Mr. Branch," she said, "I'm afraid there's been a big mistake. That briefing that was just read to you does not constitute the department's public position. It is a guideline."

"What is a guideline?"

"It is a policy draft setting out what the people here are authorized to say in response to inquiries. What you have there is what we would have said had we been asked. But it is not what we have said publicly. We have no record of being asked on the record, although some reporters may have inquired privately, in which case we would have responded according to the guideline."

"So what is the State Department's position, then?"

The woman went on to say, in so many words, that State was holding steady at an expression of concern.

That afternoon, Branch met with Propper and the senior F.B.I. agent on the Letelier case. The agent was convincingly determined to solve the murders. Branch sketched out what he knew again. The agent advised him strongly not to return to Venezuela, observing that the DISIP was perfectly capable of chopping off his hands and assembling a dozen Venezuelans within thirty minutes to swear it was an accident. He felt the F.B.I. had to put away the killers, who had come to Washington in order to check the terrorists' boldness. Otherwise Washington could gradually turn into Miami, and Miami could turn into Beirut.

Branch agreed and asked if the F.B.I. was planning a trip to Venezuela. The agent replied that he was not sure of the Bureau's own physical safety there, and that furthermore the F.B.I. did not have jurisdiction for such a trip. He outlined the restrictions on the F.B.I. and C.I.A. as they apply to cases that are both domestic and international, criminal and related to the national security. It added up to catch-22, but it did not destroy the agent's confidence.

Branch's confidence, however, was low. He was just offering to do what he could again when a call came through for Propper. The agent became excited and asked Branch to excuse him. On the way out the door, Branch overheard the salutation: "Is that you, Joe?" asked Propper. "Listen, are you calling from a pay phone? Okay. Give me the number of another pay phone near there and I'll call you back." #

WARNING NOTICE-SENSITIVE INTELLIGENCE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED

1. The information provided below is taken from a Santo Domingo Station liaison report transmitted to Headquarters under HDCA-11074, dated 29 November 1976. The information dated 29 August 1976 was received by the liaison service from one of its agents assigned to Miami, Florida. It is being sent to you for information only. All information below was reportedly stated in testimony at the trial of the Cuban terrorist Rolando Otero in Jacksonville, Florida, and Antonio Gonzalez had obtained immunity from prosecution. The declarations he made were corroborated by Cubans Ciro Orizondo and Manuel Revuelta, former comrades of Otero in the Frente de Liberacion Nacional Cubano (FLNC).

2. According to Antonio Gonzalez, there have to be in Miami up to 500 pro-Castro agents operating; that in a supposed plot to kill Fidel Castro in Venezuela, there had been with him and Rolando Otero, a Cuban named Ricardo Morales and infiltrating into the affair, he tried to frustrate the plan. Gonzalez also said that Morales, supposedly worked for the "CIAin the Congo" and actually is an agent of the Government of Venezuela, used to investigate those Cubans who enter and exit from Venezuela. Gonzalez also said that in reality, Morales is a Castro agent.

1. FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS SINCE REFS:

A. WKDIET-5 REPORTS THAT ON 24 JULY WKTANGO-1 STATED THAT, WITH PRESIDENT PEREZ/ BACKING, HE IS DECLARING WAR ON CUBAN EXILES AND IF ANYTHING UNTOWARD HAPPENS, HE WILL TAKE "BLOOD BATH FROM NEW YORK TO CARACAS." HE ALSO MENTIONED AS ADDITIONAL IMPLIED THREAT THAT CUBAN SUPERTHUG, RICARDO MORALEX NAVARETTE, HAS BEEN FULLLY REINSTATED IN DISIP.

B. INFLUENTIAL LOCAL CUBAN EXILES ARE IN SOMEWHAT OF AN UPROAR OVER WHAT THEY REGARD AS POTENTIAL CAMPAIGN OF REPRESSION IN VENEZUELA AND ARE TRYING TO ENLIST SUPPORT OF BOTH COPEI OPPOSITION PARTY AND EX-PRESIDENT BETANCOURT, STAUNCH ANTI-CASTRO-COMMUNIST, TO OFFSET MOVES OF PRESIDENT PEREZ WHOM THEY CONSIDER TO BE IN BED WITH CASTRO. COPEI HAS ALLEGEDLY COME OUT FULLY IN SUPPORT OF LOCAL CUBAN

C. AMBASSADOR MET PRESIDENT PEREZ FOR BREAKFAST MORNING 28 JULY. NOTHING WAS MENTIONED ABOUT CUBAN EXILE SITUATION.

2. WHAT WE COULD HAVE AS BASIS OF THIS WHOLE SITUATION IS CUBAN FORGERIES OF LETTERS FROM BOSCH TO BRING PRESSURE ON CUBAN EXILE COMMUNITY IN VENEZUELA WHICE REMAINS ALMOST TOTALLY ANTI-CASTRO. IT IS INTERSTING TO NOTE LETTERS PASSED BY CUBAN AMBASSADOR TO PRESIDENT PEREZ WERE TYPED, NOT HANDWRITTEN, AND ONLY SIGNED BY BOSCH. IN ANY EVENT, AMBASSADOR STRONGLY DISTRUSTS WKTANGO-1 IN ANYTHING INVOLVING CUBAN EXILES AND SUSPECTS THAT RICARDO MORALES IS EMOTIONALLY, IF NOT MENTALLY, UNSTABLE AND A CUBAN AGENT(SO DO WE). COS DISCUSSED GENERAL SITUATION WITH AMBASSADOR THIS MORNING. AS OF NOW, AMBASSADOR DOES NOT WANT TO GIVE ANY INFORMMATION TO VENEZUELANS ON CUBAN EXILES EXCEPT ON ESTABLISHED TERRORISTS AND ADVANCE NOTICE OF IMPENDING TERRORIST ACTIONS, LEAST OF ALL DOES HE WANT US TO DEAL WITH WKTANGO-1 ON THIS SUBJECT.

1. ANY ADDITIONAL INFO WE MAY OBTAIN ON NATURE OF MORALES CONTACT WITH SLFAT-1 WILL BE CABLED TO ADDRESSEES. AT THIS POINT ALL WE HAVE IS INFO PROVIDED IN REF B.

2. WHILE IT POSSIBLE, WE DON'T THINK THAT MORALES' CONTACT WITH SLFAT-1 IS RESULT OF A WKTANGO-1 DIRECTED RECRUITMENT OP. WE ARE MORE INCLINED TO BELIEVE THAT THIS IS SOME SORT OF STRANGE LIAIOSON OR DOUBLE-AGENT OPERATION, PROBABLY SUGGESTED BY MORALES HIMSELF, OSTENSIBLY TO MAKE HIMSELF USEFUL TO WKSCARLET. IT HAS BEEN MENTIONED BEFORE, AND WE HAVE LONG SUSPECTED, WITHOUT ANY HARD EVIDENCE, THAT MORALES MAY BE A CASTRO CUBAN AGENT. IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT HE HAS CONNED THE VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT, OR WKTANGO-1, INTO BELIEVING THAT HE HAS SOME SPECIAL ENTRE WITH SLFAT-1. BRIEFS

WORKERS' HOUSING--An executive message to the Chamber of Deputies asks for the authorization of 120 million pesos for the construction of cheap housing for workers employed by the city of Santiago. The bill will be considered soon by the proper committee. (CE1180 Santiago, Apr. 4, 1952, 0030 GMT--R)

TRANSPORTATION APPROPRIATION--The Finance Ministry has dispatched the decree putting 94 million pesos at the disposal of the national transport authority for the acquisition of trolley buses and supplies to the comptroller's office. (CE1174 Santiago, Apr. 4, 1952, 0100 GMT--R)

TEACHERS' STRIKE--At the meeting of striking teachers held Apr. 3 it was decided to adopt the following procedural points: 1--To continue the strike indefinitely; 2--to demand that salaries be fixed at a rate equal to that of the minimum paid to private employees, plus 20 percent; 3--to protest the refusal of two Deputies to give their votes to the draft of a bill to readjust the earnings of public officials, which also provides that exonerated Communist professors will be reinstated; 4--to protest an anti-strike editorial published in EL MERCURIO; 5--to meet on Apr. 4 at the University of Chile to determine the course to follow. (CE1174 Santiago, Apr. 4, 1952, 0100 GMT--R)

COPPER SITUATION--The Minister of Labor has declared that as long as the Finance Ministry does not solve the problem of exchange, the nitrate dispute cannot be solved. (CE1174 Santiago, Apr. 4, 1952, 0100 GMT--R)

FOREIGN MINISTRY--Juan (Marin) has been authorized to continue in his post as Chilean Charge d'Affairs in India, and Juan Guzman Cruchaga in his important Foreign Ministry assignment. (CE1174 Santiago, Apr. 4, 1952, 0100 GMT--R)

IMMIGRATION PLAN--The Sociedad Italiana plans to invest 100 million pesos for the purpose of cultivating and exploiting sugar beet crops in southern Chile with colonies of Italian immigrants. The society is collaborating with the Development Corporation and the Agricultural Settlement Fund and will acquire 16,000 hectares in the Province of Cautin for the purpose. (CE1174 Santiago, Apr. 4, 1952, 0300 GMT--R)

PRESS FREEDOM COMMITTEE--The President will form a committee for the purpose of studying laws which include repressive measures against the freedom of the press, on Mar. 18 at La Moneda. Press representatives are Emilio Pacul, Juan Honorato, and Mario Vergara. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 17, 1952, 2322 GMT--R)

COAL SITUATION--Reports from the coal region state that the situation is normal and that the workers have decided to work with provincial authorities in trying to reach an agreement after the failure of the Santiago talks. Metallurgical workers at the Lota and Coronel mines have returned to work in accordance with union directives. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 17, 1952, 2325 GMT--R)

CHAMBER PRESIDENTIAL LINE-UP--Since the Chamber of Deputies will meet Mar. 18 to open the special session which will extend to May 21, it is interesting to note the position and strength of its members in regard to the roster of Presidential aspirants: Favoring Arturo Matte Larrain are 33 Liberals, 21 Conservative-Traditionalists, 5 Agrarian Laborites, 2 Liberal-Progressives, and one Independent Democrat, or a total of 63. Favoring Pedro Enrique Alfonso are 42 Radicals, 9 Conservatives and 5 Democrats: total, 56. Carlos Ibanez del Campo: 9 Agrarian Laborites, 5 Socialists, one People's Democrat, and 2 Independent Conservatives; total, 17. Salvador Allende: 6 Socialists and one National Front; total, 7. The only unknown positions and numbers are those of the National Falangists, and the Independent Deputy, Melendez Anfruns. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 16, 1952, 2350 GMT--R)

GATH Y CHAVEZ CLOSING--Gath y Chavez has announced a closing-out of its entire stock of merchandise, thus terminating the career of one of Santiago's best-known business houses. The company closed its doors last Christmas as a result of a strike declared by its personnel. (Santiago, AFP, Mar. 15, 1952, 0000 GMT--R)

IMMIGRATION PROGRAM--The bill drafted by the Government Immigration Committee, presided over by Under Secretary of the Interior Grez, is designed to legislate all matters connected with the immigration of foreigners. The plan proposes the creation of an immigration department or office which will be under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and which will be in charge of orienting all immigrants arriving in Chile. Also under consideration is the plan to exempt all immigrants from paying taxes for a period of 5 years. This would include customs duty on their property and machinery as well as income tax. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 14, 1952, 2326 GMT--R)

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS--With the retirement of Vice Admirals Carlos Torres Hevia, Immanuel Holger, and Horacio de la Fuente, the Navy will reportedly make some important promotions. Besides raising Naval Capt. Danilo Basi to the rank of Rear Admiral, and raising Enrique Lagreze and Francisco Oyarzun to naval captains, Victor Oelkers has been made rear admiral, and Alberto (Cass) Wigand, Juan Mercado Munoz, and Alfredo Lopez have been made naval captains. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 15, 1952, 2310 GMT--R)

FISHING STRIKE--Valparaiso fishermen have joined the Talcahuano fishermen who declared a strike to protest against the Purse Seine fishing enterprises. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 15, 1952, 2320 GMT--R)

U.S. PASTOR--Protestant U.S. Pastor Erickson, whose activities have been attacked in many sectors where he has held public religious meetings, will soon go to Santiago where he will hold meetings in the Caupolican Theater. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 15, 1952, 2335 GMT--R)

MINING TAX--The Government has imposed a one and one-half percent tax on sales made by "small" mining companies. All companies capitalized at less than 5 million pesos fall under this category. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 15, 1952, 2340 GMT--R)

HOUSING CONSTRUCTION--From the total of 200 million pesos allotted for public housing by the Ministry of Public Works, 20 million will go to Iquique and Santiago respectively, 25 million each to Arica and Antofagasta, 30 million to Coquimbo, 40 million to Valparaiso, and 10 million each to Concepcion, Cautin, Magallanes, and Llanquihue Provinces. (Santiago, EL TARAPACA, Mar. 13, 1952, 2334 GMT--R)

HYDROELECTRIC PLANT--Guillermo Moore, manager of the Empresa Nacional de Electricidad has announced that a new central hydroelectric plant will shortly be constructed on Rio Rapel and three more will be constructed in the southern zone. (Santiago /Official/, Diplomatic, Mar. 14, 1952, 1553 GMT--R)

CHILEAN-SWEDISH TRADE--The Minister of Foreign Affairs received the Swedish Minister who proposed negotiations for the drafting of a commercial and cultural treaty. This treaty is designed to increase the exchange of Swedish-manufactured products and machinery for Chilean Agricultural products and minerals. MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, CIA Defector Committee

FROM: OSO Representative, CIA Defector Committee

SUBJECT: Army Disposal Action on Defector to Chile.

1. On 17 August 1951, CIA received a priority cable (IN 21787) from Santiago advising that the Chilean Consul in Frankfurt, Germany, had requested authority from his Foreign Office to issue an "ordinary visa" to Boguslaw Borowiez, a Russian defector (actually a Polish defector), stating that American Intelligence had requested the visa on the same basis as in the case of earlier defectors. Santiago indicated that Chilean officials did not look on this with favor.

2. On 17 August the undersigned was able to ascertain that Borowiez had defected to the 66th Detachment, CIA, in Germany in late May 1951 and since that time had been held in ECIC.

3. On 17 August CIA queried German Station (OUT 71605) as to why Borowiez had not been placed in the DRC and requested that Borowiez be sent to Chile.

4. On 17 August 1951, the undersigned telephoned Mrs. Dorothy Matlack, G-2, and requested her to have a cable sent to Germany by G-2 forbidding the disposal of Borowiez to Chile. The undersigned provided Mrs. Matlack with the serial number of the pertinent CIC memo. Mrs. Matlack stated that she would do everything possible to have this cable sent even if it required her to come in the next day, which was Saturday.

5. On 20 August CIA advised Santiago (OUT 71940) that it had no knowledge regarding this disposal action and was opposed to any more disposal actions to Chile at this time.

6. On 22 August, CIA received a reply from Germany (IN 22176) stating that this Borowiez matter was entirely within the province of CIC and under the circumstances it was impossible for CIA in Germany to have had the body sent to the DRC. It was also stated that ID EUCOM was arranging for departure on 21 August 1951. The undersigned immediately advised Mrs. Matlack of this ETD and she stated that she was doing all she could to have a priority cable sent at once.

7. On 22 August about 1600 hours, Mrs. Matlack telephoned the undersigned and stated that G-2 did not have a copy of the referenced CIC memo. She requested the undersigned to come over to the Pentagon immediately in order to exhibit the CIA copy of the CIA memorandum, as otherwise G-2 would not send out the desired cable to CIC, Germany. This the undersigned did and such a cable was eventually sent out priority by G-2 to Germany (IN W 23393).

SECRET

8. On 27 August 1951, CIA received word from Germany (IN 23698) that on 21 August Dorowics had left by plane for Chile and would apparently require no assistance there since he had his own funds.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: John K. McLean

1. On 28 April the undersigned was introduced to Mr. John McLean by Mr. Wallace Lampshire, a staff officer. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss Mr. McLean's connection with Mr. Gordon Barton McLendon (201-79764) and Mr. McLendon's stated desire to help his government.

2. Mr. McLean is a former staff officer (DDI/OCI) who resigned to enter the field of finance. He has been a banker, a stock broker (Sade & Co.) and currently is Vice-President and Treasurer of International Ventures, Inc., 888 17th Street N.W., Washington 20006, as well as Vice-President of Riviere & Berens Securities Corp., stockbrokers located at 1832 M St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

3. Mr. McLendon was born in Paris, Texas 8 June 1921 and now lives in Dallas. According to Who's Who in the South and Southwest, Mr. McLendon is the owner of a number of radio stations and is listed as the president of numerous companies in radio, TV, and motion picture theatre fields. Mr. McLendon is reputedly a multi-millionaire.

4. Mr. McLean and Mr. McLendon have maintained a friendship since their years at Yale. Mr. McLean recently visited Mr. McLendon at his ranch some thirty miles from Dallas. During this visit Mr. McLendon expressed his fears of the future of the dollar and said that he has moved millions of his dollars to Europe where the money has been put into Swiss and French francs, plus German marks. Most of the money is apparently in savings instruments of one kind or another plus a night club that Mr. McLendon has bought in Stockholm. During these conversations, Mr. McLendon wondered if these foreign operations might not be of interest to the Government (read CIA as Mr. McLendon was an ONI officer during WW II and is aware of Mr. McLean's former employment with the Agency.) Mr. McLendon mentioned his night club as a possibility, as it is frequented by persons of many countries, including the USSR.

SECRET

5. Mr. McLean has business interests in Dallas and said that he is willing to explore this possibility with Mr. McLendon if we provide guidance.

6. Mr. McLean himself perhaps offers more potential via International Ventures, Inc. Mr. McLean is seeking venture capital opportunities abroad. For example, he and a Mr. Lincoln Epworth in New York City are working with a Japanese named Ikvo Kasai who is President of Nichimen Co. of Tokyo, a firm seeking to export to the States. Mr. McLean was frank to say that International Ventures is more a dream than a reality in terms of business but the concern is making progress. Mr. McLean offered to be of any assistance.

Comment: I have sent for Mr. McLean's file and upon its receipt I will seek a PCSA.

REF: LONDON 81224 (IN 2003461) Y

1. OBYEDKOV ACTED AS A GUARD AT THE SOVIET EMBASSY IN MEXICO CITY, ALTHOUGH HE APPEARED TO BE BETTER EDUCATED THAN HIS DUTIES AS A GUARD WOULD DEMAND. AMONG HIS MAIN DUTIES, HE TENDED THE SOVIET EMBASSY TELEPHONE, STOOD GUARD DUTY AT THE GATE, TOOK MESSAGES FOR OTHER SOVIETS, NOTIFIED THEM OF MEETINGS, AND ARRANGED APPOINTMENTS. HE ALSO OCCASIONALLY DROVE ONE OF THE EMBASSY CARS ON ERRANDS. DURING HIS TEHRAN TOUR, HE WAS ALSO LISTED AS A GUARD AT THE SOVIET EMBASSY. HE WAS OBSERVED TO BE VERY SECURITY CONSCIOUS. Y

2. ON BOTH PRECEDING TOURS OBYEDKOV APPEARED TO FUNCTION AS A LEGITIMATE GUARD AND WAS NEVER OBSERVED IN THE ACT OF PERFORMING ANY INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES. BECAUSE A SOVIET IS LISTED AS A GUARD AT A SOVIET EMBASSY, IT DOES NOT FOLLOW THAT HE IS NECESSARILY A KGB OFFICER. SINCE WE HAVE NO EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT AN INTELLIGENCE AFFILIATION WE WILL NO LONGER CARRY HIM AS SUSPECT RIS, PROBABLY KGB.

PCS Departure - Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. For your information, we no longer carry Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV (201-779495), guard at the Soviet Embassy in Tehran, as PCS. He was not listed on ROGWEN's April 1971 Presence List nor their December 1971 list. We assume he has departed PCS.

2. During OBYEDKOV's tour in Tehran his wife, Yelena, served as principal at the Soviet school. His son was apparently in Moscow living with Yelena's mother. On 28 October 1969, ROARC reported the grandmother calling to check with OBYEDKOV regarding a tutor for the child. They discussed the possibility of the tutor coming for three times a week, at five rubles per hour, but OBYEDKOV, after checking with his wife, decided on two times a week. OBYEDKOV seemed to be very fond of his mother-in-law. According to our AESCREEN transcriber, she was the only one that could tell OBYEDKOV what to do.

3. The following are comments made by our AESCREEN transcriber on OBYEDKOV on 8 July 1970:

> He is very security conscious, especially in dealing with "official people" or superiors. He mentions his name to his friends freely, but refuses to say his name when he knows that one of the superiors is calling, "this is the duty officer" OBYEDKOV would say several times. He often lectures people when they violate security regulations when talking on the telephone. OBYEDKOV has to be persuaded several times or even begged if someone needs help (getting a vehicle or when asking for a favor), but when he decides to help, OBYEDKOV will stay with the problem until he gets results. Although OBYEDKOVA seems to be more cultured and better educated than her husband, it is certain that only OBYEDKOV makes the final decisions. OBYEDKOV could be very pleasant, helpful and even kind, but it usually depended on his mood.

3. The only Soviet we noted as being friendly with OBYEDKOV during his tour here was Rafik Nazhaf-Ogly ABDULLAYEV (201-808524), Third Secretary, suspect RIS, probable KGB. When speaking to one another they used the familiar "ty". We do not know the extent of their relationship.

4. Forwarded herewith is a photograph, date unknown, received from ROGWEN. We have destroyed the Station file.

DOC. MICRO. SER.

1. Request traces on:

Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV (201-779495)
born 27 August 1927, Ryazan
passport: S-105042 issued 26 May 1967
wife: Yelena born 1928, Moscow
passport: S-105043 issued 26 May 1967
occupation: guard, Soviet Embassy, Tehran arrived: 15 August 1967.

DPOB

Photocopies of the OBYEDKOVs' passports are attached.

2. According to the 1963 and 1964 Checklists of Soviet Officials Abroad, one Ivan Ivanovich OBYEDKOV (201-121531); born 14 July 1912; wife Yelena; A number 04877, was present in Mexico City since August 1962 as an employee of the Soviet Embassy. The Checklist for 1965 lists one Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV (201-779495); born 14 July 1912; wife Yelena; A number 41970, as an employee of the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City since August 1962. Apparently these two OBYEDKOVs are one in the same and although Subject's birthdate is different we believe he is identical with the OBYEDKOV who served in Mexico City. Recently a conversation was recorded on ROARC during which Subject used several Spanish words and expressions. It is possible Subject acquired a knowledge of Spanish during a previous tour in a Spanish speaking country such as Mexico. Please compare the attached photo of Subject with that of the OBYEDKOV who was assigned to Mexico City to determine if they are identical.

1. Forwarded herewith are Summary Traces in SPR format on Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV (201-779495) who is suspect RIS. Paragraph 20 of the Summary is for passage to liaison.

2. Subject is not identical to Ivan Ivanovich OBYEDKOV (201-121531). When Subject first arrived in Mexico in August 1962, he was reported as Ivan Ivanovich and this error was not corrected until May 1965; therefore, two Checklists carried the wrong man PCS in Mexico. When the records were corrected, the Subject's birthdate was not, and the same date was listed for both parties. Headquarters records do not list a wife or other dependents for Ivan Ivanovich OBYEDKOV and, as far as is known, he has not been assigned abroad PCS prior to the date of this dispatch.

10. PERSONALITY, CHARACTER, AND HABITS:

Although Subject acted as a guard at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico, he appeared to be fairly well educated and was not subservient to any of the other Soviets, with the exception of Counselor Boris Aleksandrovich KAZANTSEV. (201-028975). On one occasion Subject was reported to be helping the daughter of Commercial Counselor Georgiy Stepanovich VISKO with her arithmetic homework. On another, Subject was asked about methods of producing metal wire, a subject on which Subject was well informed as a result of his having once worked for a wire factory.

Subject had a tape recorder at home which he liked to listen to. He also occasionally went fishing with other Soviets.

Subject told "Boris" in Moscow to build a large garage, because he was bringing a big car back with him. He also asked whether Boris had bought a refrigerator and TV for the apartment. On another occasion he was negotiating for a can of paint to take back to Moscow with him to repaint "the Moskvich". Subject and his wife were both buying watches just before leaving Mexico. From the above it appears that Subject was fairly well-off financially, for a guard.

11. CURRICULUM VITAE:

Date unknown - Subject reportedly worked at the Serp i Molot (wire) factory in Leningrad.

28 August 1962 - Subject, accompanied by wife and son, arrived PCS in Mexico as an employee of the Soviet Embassy. Subject replaced Vyacheslav Aleksandrovich YEGOROV (201-273431), who is suspect GRU.

6-19 November 1962 - Subject was in the hospital in Mexico City. On the 11th of November he underwent a three hour operation of unspecified nature. The other Soviets had to guard him when he came out of the operating room.

17 August 1963 - Subject stated that he had just returned from a trip with Valentin Vasilyevich BAKULIN (201-261813), who is known GRU. There was no information on where or why the trip was taken.

4 August 1965 - Subject departed Mexico PCS, transiting Belgium on his return to the USSR. He was accompanied by Valeriy Vladimirovich KOSTIKOV (201-305052) who is known KGB. Subject was replaced by Ivan Petrovich KARCHIN (201-782164).

12. INTELLIGENCE AFFILIATION:

Mexico City Station considers Subject suspect RIS because he appears better educated that his duties as a guard would demand, because he seems financially better off than other Soviet guards and because of his apparent association on equal footing with Soviet RIS officers. DERYABIN in 1955 advised LNERGO that the surname OBYEDKOV was familiar to him as the name of a person who was in the Guards Directorate of the MVD in 1951.

In September 1967 DERYABIN and RASTVOROV said that they neither recognized the face nor the name of the Subject. (Both Ivan Ivanovich and Ivan Dmitriyevich were seen by the defectors and they did not recognize either of them.)

13. INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITY:

There was no intelligence activity noted on the Subject's part while he was stationed in Mexico.

14. NON-INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITY:

Subject primarily handled the main Soviet telephone and took guard duty at the gate. Subject took messages for other Soviets, notified them of meetings, and contacted them for appointments with each other. He occasionally drove one of the Embassy cars on errands. He kept a ledger of the telegrams sent out by the Embassy and notified other Soviets when cables came in for them.

15. CONTACTS:

a. Soviet friends and associates.

1. Valeriy Aleksandrovich ANDRIANOV (201-293945), employee in the Soviet Trade Representation in Mexico from February 1961 to May 1964, suspect RIS. When the ANDRIANOVs left Mexico they were planning to get in touch with Subject's family in Moscow.

2. Aleksandr Mikhaylovich DENISOV (201-726491), Second Secretary at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico from August 1962 to April 1967, known GRU. Subject appeared not to like DENISOV. It also appeared that DENISOV was responsible for reimbursing Subject for the gas Subject used in KUKHARENKO's car.

3. Aleksey Nikolayevich GANIN (201-757775), known GRU officer who visited Mexico 31 July - 14 August 1964.

Subject, along with other Soviets who were known GRU officers, met GANIN on his visit to Mexico.

4. Sergey Semenovich KUKHARENKO (201-260831), chief of the Soviet information Bulletin in Mexico from October 1962 to August 1964, suspect KGB. Subject and KUKHARENKO were the best of friends for a time, but then KUKHARENKO began drinking too much and getting into various scrapes. Subject frequently commiserated with KUKHARENKO's wife over her husband's drinking, automobile accidents, money problems. Subject occasionally used KUKHARENKO's car.

5. Oleg Pavlovich MOSKVICHEV (201-285090), employee in the Soviet Trade Representation in Mexico from March 1961 to July 1964, known KGB. Subject gave MOSKVICHEV his home address in Moscow.

6. Vladimir Nikolavevich RADVANSKIY (201-298171), code clerk at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico from September 1964 to March 1967, known KGB. Subject is not known to have associated with RADVANSKIY; however, Subject's wife and RADVANSKAYA worked together in the school and children's camp, and

RADVANSKAYA took over the camp after Subject's wife left Mexico. RADVANSKAYA asked Subject's wife to tell her (RADVANSKAYA's) daughter to enter the institute when she saw her in Moscow.

7. Vladimir Aleksandrovich ROMANCHENKO (201-727109), Second Secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Mexico from August 1963 to July 1967, no known RIS affiliation. When ROMANCHENKO was in Moscow on leave in May 1964, Subject told "Boris" (believed to be Subject's brother-in-law) to send letters to him through ROMANCHENKO when he came back to Mexico.

8. Georgiy Stepanovich VISKO (201-243602), Commercial Counselor in Mexico from July 1962 to circa December 1966, suspect GRU. Subject's wife and Mrs. VISKO taught together in the school and seemed to be good friends. Subject also seemed to be friends with Mrs. VISKO, and he reportedly helped the VISKO's daughter with her arithmetic homework on at least one occasion.

20. TRACES FOR LIAISON:

Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV, born 27 August 1927, accompanied by his wife Yelena Lvovna, and son, Vladimir Ivanovich, born 1953, were stationed in Mexico City from August 1962 to August 1965. Subject was a guard in the Soviet Embassy. Subject is suspect RIS.

1. Reference A reported the departure of Subject from Mexico on 4 August 1965. The Station now believes that Subject departed PCS, and that he has possibly been replaced by Ivan Petrovich KARCHIN, whose arrival on 14 August 1965 was reported in Reference B.

2. According to LIENVOY, KARCHIN has been answering the telephone at the Soviet Embassy, a duty for which Subject was previously responsible. According to LICALLA, KARCHIN has also been taking guard duty at the entrance gate to the Soviet Embassy, which Subject also had as one of his duties.

3. In addition, LIENVOY reported ~~that~~ on 17 August 1965 that "a new school director" had arrived at the Soviet Embassy. OBYEDKOVA had previously been the director of the Soviet school in Mexico, and the fact that she had been replaced indicates that she will not return to Mexico. The identity of the new school director has not been established, although it may be KARCHINA.

4. The attached Soviet Personality Report (SPR) on Subject represents a summary of Station information on him. It is noted that Subject is listed as suspect RIS, service unknown. his previous designation as suspect KGB was based primarily on his presumed identity with the subject of 201-121531, which has now been established as incorrect.

11. CURRICULUM VITAE:

(date unknown)	Subject reportedly had worked at the Serp i Molot wire factory in Leningrad (1).
28 August 1962	Subject, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived in Mexico as employee of the Soviet Embassy. Subject replaced Vyacheslav Aleksandrovich YEGOROV (201-273431, /suspect GRU/. (2) In Mexico City Subject and his family lived at Tacambaro 4, reportedly in Apartment 5 in January 1963 and in Apartment 4 in July 1965. (1).
9 22 July 1965	Subject's wife and son departed Mexico for the USSR (5).

12. INTELLIGENCE AFFILIATION: Suspect RIS.

The Station has no real evidence of Subject's intelligence affiliation; however, because Subject appears better educated than his duties as a guard would demand, because he seems financially better off than other Soviet guards, and because of his apparent association on an equal footing with Soviet officers, he is considered suspect RIS. It is further noted that Subject's predecessor was suspect GRU.

13. INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITY: Unknown.

14. NON-INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITY:

In Mexico City Subject primarily handled the main Soviet Embassy telephone (1) and also took guard duty at the gate (3). Subject took messages for other Soviets, notified them of meetings, and contacted them for appointments with each other. He also occasionally drove one of the Embassy cars on errands. He kept a ledger of the telegrams sent out by the Embassy and notified other Soviets when cables came in for them (1).

On 17 August 1963 Subject stated that he had just returned from a trip with Valentin Vasilyevich BAKULIN (201-261513) (1). /BAKULIN is an identified GRU officer. The Station has no further information on the nature of this trip, nor any reports of other trips taken by Subject./

From 6 to 19 November 1962 Subject was in the hospital (Sanitorio Reforma) in Mexico City. On 11 November he underwent a three-hour operation of an unspecified nature. The other Soviets had to take guard duty with him in the hospital, and it was stressed that one of the Soviet men should be with him after he came out of the operation. (1).

15. CONTACTS:

Subject is not known to have had any contact with non-Soviets during his tour in Mexico, with the exception of an occasional visit to one of the doctors regularly consulted by the Soviets. Subject's closest Soviet contacts appeared to be the following :

a. Valeriy Aleksandrovich ANDRIANOV (201-293945), employee in the Soviet Commercial Office in Mexico from February 1961 to May 1964, suspect RIS. When the ANDRIANOVs left Mexico they were planning to get in touch with Subject's family in Moscow (1).

b. Aleksandr Mikhaylovich DENISOV (201-726491), Second Secretary at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico since August 1962, known GRU. Subject appeared not to like DENISOV. It also appeared that DENISOV was responsible for reimbursing Subject for the gas Subject used in KUKHARENKO's (see below) car (1).

c. Aleksey Nikolayevich GANIN (201-757775), known GRU officer who visited Mexico 31 July - 14 August 1964. Subject, along with other Soviets who were known GRU officers, met GANIN on his visit to Mexico (6).

d. Sergey Semenovich KUKHARENKO (201-260831), chief of the Soviet Information Bulletin in Mexico from October 1962 to August 1964, suspect KGB. Subject and KUKHARENKO were the best of friends for a time, but then KUKHARENKO began drinking too much and getting into various scrapes. Subject frequently commiserated with KUKHARENKO's wife over her husband's drinking, automobile accidents, money problems. Subject occasionally used KUKHARENKO's car. (1).

e. Oleg Pavlovich MOSKVICHEV (201-285090), employee in the Soviet Commercial Office in Mexico from March 1961 to July 1964, known KGB. Subject gave MOSKVICHEV his home address in Moscow (1).

f. Vladimir Nikolayevich RADVANSKIY (201-298171), code clerk at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico since September 1964, known KGB. Subject is not known to have associated with RADVANSKIY; however, Subject's wife and RADVANSKAYA worked together in the school and children's camp, and RADVANSKAYA took over the camp after Subject's wife left Mexico. RADVANSKAYA asked Subject's wife to tell her (RADVANSKAYA's) daughter to enter the institute when she saw her in Moscow (1).

g. Vladimir Aleksandrovich ROMANCHENKO (201-727109), Second Secretary at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico since August 1963, no known RIS affiliation. When ROMANCHENKO was in Moscow on leave in May 1964, Subject told "Boris" (believed to be Subject's brother-in-law) to send letters to him through ROMANCHENKO when he came back to Mexico. Subject said that ROMANCHENKO could be reached through (fnu) MURAVYEV at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (1).

h. Georgiy Stepanovich VISKO (201-243602), Commercial Counselor in Mexico since July 1962, suspect GRU. Subject's wife and Mrs. VISKO taught together in the school and seemed to be good friends. Subject also seemed to be friends with Mrs. VISKO, and he reportedly helped the VISKO daughter with her arithmetic homework on at least one occasion. Mrs. VISKO was planning to send some things to Moscow with Subject when he left (1).

REFERENCE: HMMA 201[illegible], 28 May 1965

1. Headquarters agrees that Subject is probably not identical with Ivan Ivanovich OBYEDKOV (201-121531) as was earlier believed, and has accordingly assigned Ivan Dmitriyevich 201-779495 . A full Headquarters trace under that name turned up no information other than that originating from Mexico City Station, which has now been re-classified into the new file. We are puzzled by the fact that MEXI-1850, dated 1 September 1962, the first piece of correspondence from Mexico City Station on Subject, reported him as Ivan Ivanovich.

2. A photo comparison of the two individuals in this case is not satisfactory proof that they are in fact two people because of the difference in years and exposure in the photographs. The pre-Mexico City traces on Ivan Ivanovich reflect only a date and place of birth as identifying data. It is hoped that Mexico City Station can obtain soon identifying biographic data on Ivan Dmitriyevich in order to firmly resolve the matter.

1. Douglas J. FEINCLASS has reported that the OBYEDKOV who is in Mexico City is definitely Ivan Dmitriyevich, not Ivan Ivanovich as previously recorded. (Source: LIENVOY tapes.) It is impossible to check the original flight manifest listing OBYEDKOV's arrival in 1962, since this has been destroyed.

2. OBYEDKOV also appears to be much younger than the Ivan Ivanovich OBYEDKOV (201-121531) who was born 14 July 1912 and with whom Subject was assumed to be identical. No date of birth is available for the OBYEDKOV in Mexico City.

3. Subject's wife is Yelena Lvovna OBYEDKOVA. They have a son Vladimir, born roughly in 1953. LICALLA photographs of Subject and his wife are enclosed. According to LIENVOY, Subject's home address in Moscow is Moscow E-143, Metrogorodok, Otkrytoye Shosse 26, Building 7, Apt. 69, telephone G3-72-34. In 1964 the apartment was occupied by Boris Lvovich DMITRIYEV and Mariya Borisovna DMITRIYEVA.

4. Headquarters is requested to retrace Ivan Dmitriyevich OBYEDKOV and assign a new 201 number if Headquarters agrees that he is not identical with the Subject of 201-121531.

Subject: Illicit Armament Traffic

Report No: TLB-1191

Date of Information: 29 August - 6 September 1950

Place Acquired: Bogotá

Date Acquired: 12 September 1950

Evaluation: B-Doc.

Date of Report: 18 September 1950

Source: Controlled American Source

On the basis of information communicated to his Government by the Colombian Ambassador in Costa Rica, the National Chief of Detectives, Carlos RODRIGUEZ Tellez, was sent to Costa Rica to investigate reported clandestine movements of armaments in Costa Rican territory which, according to vague reports, might be shipped to Colombia. Reportedly involved in this activity was one Arturo BOTERO, of Colombian nationality, in combination with various Communist elements. A copy of this investigator's report, dated 11 September 1950, is submitted herewith. The following are excerpts of possible interest.

> The detective service in Costa Rica has knowledge of the visits to the Golfito region of the United States citizen Richard BROWN, who at present is in Puerto Limon engaged in arms traffic. We were able to confirm that this man makes frequent trips probably connected with this business. There is another American citizen named Charles LUFBOURW (LUFBORROW), who had a lumber business in this port and later engaged in fishing. He is being watched because he is also engaged in arms traffic. At present he is in Panama.
> In the Customs house of the port we were able to inspect the records which are kept there on the movements of foreigners but found that they are very rudimentary and we obtained no exact data of interest.
> The Costa Rican authorities have sent some of their best intelligence agents to Golfito to investigate the movements of Arturo BOTERO, alias "El Mocho." An agent informed me that he had been unable to discover the presence of a person by that name among the banana loading workers. This agent stated he was investigating the activities of the American Charles Marion LUFBORROW, owner of the fishing launch "Yolanda Bentin" of United States or Honduran registry, reportedly engaged in arms traffic. It was also reported that in Golfito a Colombian by the name of Carlos VALDES Gonzalez, alias Arturo GONZALEZ Molina, is working.
> The region between Palmar and Piedras Blancas is completely infected with Communism. It is reported that at kilometer 44 between Palmar and Golfito a deposit of armament is hidden.
> On some of the fincas around the estero of Sierpe it is reported that there are various deposits of armaments. In this region Communists are active.

Jose FIGUERES has 200 machine guns and 600,000 rounds of ammunition as well as other arms stored on his finca La Lucha.

Conclusions. In Costa Rica the existence of a permanent standing Army is prohibited. Thus the nation is a hot bed for political organizations of any kind which convert themselves into a menace to the stability of Costa Rica. Without the backing of a military organization the other institutions are extremely weak and detectivism, police, civil guard, and so forth, are unprepared to carry out the administration of the Government.

Under these conditions and with the authorization of the Colombian Ambassador in Costa Rica, Dr. Fulgencio LEQUERICA Velez, I suggest that the Colombian Government grant five scholarships to young Costa Ricans to study detective work in Colombia for the purpose of aiding Costa Rica to form a technical corps of Police and set up the basis for an organization which will benefit greatly our country since if this became effective Colombia would have in that country an organization which little by little would reflect our own interests and desires in Central America.

FIELD COMMENT: This report adds very little to our knowledge of arms traffic in Costa Rica, but it is believed to be of interest.

*Documentary

Colombian with good contacts in the National Police.

1. Attached for your information is a copy of a report, dated 11 September 1950, which was prepared by the Colombian National Chief of Detectives following his return from a confidential mission to Costa Rica to investigate the reported clandestine movements of arms in Costa Rican territory, possibly destined for Colombia. The following are excerpts of possible interest.

2. The Colombian investigator reported that the Costa Rican detective service had knowledge of the visits to the Golfito region of the United States citizen Richard Gross, who at the time of the report was in Puerto Limon dealing in the traffic of arms. Another American citizen, Charles Marion Lufborrow, who had a lumber business in Puerto Limon and later engaged in fishing, was being watched because he also was dealing in arms. At the time of the report, Lufborrow was in Panama.

3. The Colombian investigator inspected the records kept in the Customs building at the port on the movements of foreigners, but found them to be very rudimentary and obtained no factual information of interest.

4. The Costa Rican authorities have sent some of their best intelligence agents to Golfito to investigate the movements of one Arturo Rotero, alias "El Mocho", allegedly a Colombian. A Costa Rican agent advised the Colombian investigator that he had been unable to discover the presence of anyone by that name among the banana loading workers. The agent said that he was investigating the activities of Lufborrow, owner of the fishing launch YOLANDA HENTIN of United States or Honduran registry, reportedly engaged in arms traffic. It was also reported that another Colombian by the name of Carlos Valdes Gonzalez, alias Arturo Gonzalez Molina, was working in Golfito.

5. The Colombian investigator reported that he had learned that the region between Palmar and Piedras Blancas is infested with Communism, and that various deposits of armaments were known to be hidden.

6. The investigator concluded that because a permanent standing army is prohibited in Costa Rica, the country was a hotbed for political organizations of all kinds which endanger its stability. Without the backing of a military organization, the law-enforcement agencies are extremely weak and the detectives, police, civil guard, and so forth, are unprepared to carry out the administration of the government. With the authorization of the Colombian Ambassador to Costa Rica, Dr. Fulgencio Lequerica Velez, the investigator suggests that the Colombian government grant five scholarships to young Costa Ricans to study detective methods in Colombia. This would be for the purpose of aiding Costa Rica to form a technical corps of police and set up the basis for an organization which would benefit Colombia greatly since if it became effective, Colombia would have in Costa Rica an organization which little by little would reflect Colombian interests and desires in Central America.

Señor
JEFE DEL DEPARTAMENTO NACIONAL
DE INVESTIGACION CRIMINAL
E. S. D.

Ref.: Informe sobre comisión reservada a la República de Costa Rica.

Atentamente me permito informar a esa Superioridad sobre la comisión que tube de desempeñar en la República de Costa Rica. Recibida que fué la orden verbal del Señor Coronel Samuel Agudelo, Jefe del Departamento, me dispuse a viajar el día 29 de Agosto.

ANTECEDENTES.- Por comunicación de nuestro Embajador en la República de Costa Rica, se tuvo conocimiento de algunos negocios clandestinos de armas que se efectuaban en territorio costarricense y en los cuales participaba activamente un colombiano de nombre Arturo Botero en combinación con elementos de marcada filiación comunista de ese país, cosa que constituiría un peligro para el orden público colombiano ya que dicho armamento y según vagas informaciones podría ser introducido clandestinamente a nuestro país.

DESARROLLO DE LA COMISION.- A la 12 y 30 aterriza el avión que me condujo en San José de Costa Rica. Hago mi presentación oficial al Señor Cónsul de Colombia en Costa Rica, Señor Gamaliel [illegible] quien luego de conversar conmigo promete colaborar en todas las gestiones. Hacemos la cita telefónica con el Señor Embajador Fulgencio Lequerica Vélez a las 5 de la tarde de ese mismo día para comenzar mi trabajo y la presentación oficial. Luego de conversar brevemente con el Señor Embajador me ilustra rápidamente sobre la situación y el plan de trabajo a desarrollar conjuntamente con las Autoridades Costarricenses las que me prestan su valiosa cooperación y sin reservas de ninguna naturaleza colaboran en mi trabajo. Quedé citado para el día 31 de Agosto de efectuar una entrevista con el Señor Ministro del Interior, Mayor Bentura y el Señor Mayor Pacheco, el primero Jefe del Ministerio de Seguridad Pública y el segundo Jefe de Detectivismo de Costa Rica. Hemos convenido ya el primer viaje para la investigación. Saldremos el día 1o. de Septiembre en la [illegible] en un avión de -

"Lacsa" hacia la Costa del Pacífico sitio denominado Golfito. Al efecto tomamos el avión en compañía del Mayor Pacheco quien me acompaña en mi viaje para el reconocimiento de aquellos sitios de la Costa del Pacífico y a los lugares que el Gobierno de Costa Rica considera, se guardan armas, se fomentan reuniones o depósitos clandestinos de elementos bélicos. Se tiene conocimiento en el Detectivismo de Costa Rica, que esa región de Golfito, la visita con frecuencia un ciudadano norteamericano de nombre Richard Brown y quien actualmente se encuentra en Puertolimón dedicado al tráfico de armas. Confrontamos los datos y efectivamente resulta que este señor hace frecuentes viajes probablemente dedicándolos a ese negocio. Hay además otro ciudadano norteamericano de nombre Charles Lufbourw, quien tuvo negocios de madera en este puerto después pasó a un negocio de pesquería y por medio de las Embajadas de Costa Rica en Estados Unidos y Panamá respectivamente, se ordenó su vigilancia, pues es comerciante en armas también; actualmente se encuentra en Panamá. Dicho señor es casado con una dama costarricense de no muy buena conducta y ella hace frecuentes viajes a Panamá y Centro América. En la Aduana del Puerto pudimos revisar los libros que allí se llevan sobre movimientos de extranjeros siendo una ocar muy rudimentaria y no pudiendo obtener datos exactos para nuestro interés. A las 9 de la mañana volamos sobre la Costa hacia el Norte, llegamos a un sitio denominado Parrita concesión bananera explotada por una poderosa Compañía Norteamericana donde trabajan más de quince mil obreros. La constitución de la Costa es selvática e inhabitada siendo la mayor parte costa baldía. Todo este territorio pertenece a la Provincia de Punta Arenas. A los 35 minutos de vuelo aterrizamos en el Palmar después de volar sobre grandes fincas bananeras; esta región es noventa por ciento comunista. Continuamos el vuelo de reconocimiento en la Costa. La constitución de esta zona es totalmente plana e inhabitada siendo puntos vulnerables para acciones subversivas ya que en cualquier sitio pueda aterrizar un avión enemigo del Gobierno actual de Costa Rica con armas que pudieran ser suministradas a los obreros del banano. El control comercial de esta vasta y bella región, lo tiene la United Fruit Company. En las zonas bananeras de esta parte se han presentado movimientos huelguísticos, pero sin consecuencias de gravedad, pues todo este obrerismo no es amigo del Gobierno Central de Costa Rica. A las 9 y 30 de la mañana aterrizamos en el aerodromo de Golfito. En este sitio las Autoridades Costarricenses han destacado a unos de sus mejores agentes del servicio inteligencia, para localizar los posibles movimientos del Señor Arturo Botero alis "El Mocho", colombiano, objeto de mi visita a ese sector. Dicho agente informa que entre el numeroso personal que trabaja dentro de la zona con los cargadores de banano y demás obreros, nunca ha figurado ninguna persona de tal nombre. Dicho agente ha trabajado dentro de las cuadrillas como cargador de banano ya inquirido entre ellos con mucha habilidad por Arturo Botero, sin resultados satisfactorios. Coincide la información de este agente y nos dice que está sobre la pista de un norteamericano de nombre Charles Marión Lufburow, dueño de una lancha pesquera llamada "Yolanda Bentin" de matrícula norteamericana u Hondureña, de quien se tiene noticias fidedignas que es traficante en armas y significa un peligro debido a la extensión de las Costas Costarricenses. Además se ha informado que la Policía Secreta de la República de Panamá lo está controlando en sus viajes. Sería conveniente que el Gobierno colombiano diera órdenes pertinentes al Cónsul General en Panamá para que se informen sobre sus actividades y su posible paso con su embarcación a aguas del Pacífico para llegar a Puertos colombianos. Hay además y como dato adicional que en Golfito trabaja un colombiano de nombre Carlos Valdéz González (Armando), quien se hace pasar por Arturo González Molina, tipo de pésimos antecedentes, acusado por la Policía de crímenes durante la revolución. La Bahía de Golfito tiene un muelle para carga de banano suficiente para estas labores y en tiempo de guerra internacional, los Estados Unidos han aprovechado este Golfo, para resguardar su Flota Submarina, sitio donde puede perfectamente recalar una escuadra de submarinos. El día 2 de septiembre continué mi visita y tuve oportunidad de inspeccionar los Talleres de Mecánica de la Compañía Bananera Americana, admirablemente instalados, modernos y capaces para atender las necesidades del gran movimiento de los Ferrocarriles Bananeros que llegan hasta Puerto Armuelles en territorio panameño. Desde Golfito hasta Finca Limón, (sesenta kilómetros) la vía férrea de ancho 38 pulgadas y de Finca Limón a Puerto Armuelles, (sesenta kilómetros,) hay que hacer un trasbordo, pues la línea solo tiene 36 pulgadas. Desde Golfito hacia el Noroeste hay también línea férrea de 38 pulgadas, llegando hasta Palmar Sur atravesando toda esa región Bananera. Los aeródromos de esa región son: Parrita, Palmar, Golfito, La Cuesta, Cañas Gordas "campo particular de un millonario francés de apellido Chulle en donde no pueden aterrizar sino aviones pequeños" y Armuelles en territorio panameño. A las tres de la tarde con el Mayor Pacheco y con el Licenciado Hector Guevara, Jefe del Departamento Legal de la Compañía Bananera, arreglamos el viaje hasta Palmar Sur en Motor Car "Línea Férrea" a cuatro horas por línea férrea de Golfito con el objeto de continuar nuestra visita a esa región, teniendo entendido, que de Palmar a Piedras Blancas (K.42) está completamente infectado de comunismo. Los medios de comunicación a esta región se efectuan por medio de las Agencias de Radiocomunicaciones y operan también los servicios de radio que atienden a las Compañías Aéreas. El 3 de Septiembre salimos en autocar a las 7 menos diez minutos de la mañana por la vía férrea que conduce a Palmar. Hemos atravesado toda la extensa zona bananera. El ferro que nos conduce con el Mayor Pacheco no lo ha puesto a nuestra disposición el Departamento Legal de la Zona Bananera. Las fincas de banano tienen propias construcciones para sus obreros en un trayecto de 80 kilómetros, hay varias estaciones y un servicio muy completo de trenes. En el Palmar nos recibe el Coronel Daniel Gallegos y en su Jeep nos conduce a la casa de huéspedes. Para continuar mi investigación continuamos con el Coronel Gallegos, hasta la orilla del Río Térraba, allí contratamos una canoa para pasar a Puerto Cortéz, Cantón de Osa, Costa Rica. Las peculiaridades de este pueblo son las siguientes: 6 mil habitantes en su mayoría blancos, boteros, comerciantes chinos. Es facil la entrada del Mar por las bocas del Térraba y operan tres embarcaciones de regular tamaño que hacen su servicio de Cabotaje con Punta Arenas. La idiosincrasia de estos habitantes es interesante: son jugadores, tomadores de güero bebida alcohólica violenta; se suscitan peleas y el servicio policivo, de inmigración es malo. El contrabando se hace sin mayores dificultades, y este es el sitio más peligroso y vulnerable para todo, ya que no hay autoridades de Policía suficientes para el control efectivo del movimiento de personas extrañas. Es un sitio ideal donde residen cómodamente todos los agitadores comunistas que envenenan a los obreros de la zona bananera del Palmar donde existe una fundación muy completa de la Compañía Bananera; hasta Palmar, sobre el Río Térraba hay 3 kilómetros por carretera entre bananeras de regular calidad. Se han hecho las averiguaciones sobre depósitos clandestinos de armas y las informaciones son las siguientes: Entre Palmar y Golfito sobre la línea del ferrocarril en el Kilómetro 44 se tiene noticia de la existencia de armamento escondido cuando los gobiernistas de Teodoro Picado fueron derrotados por los revolucionarios de José Figueres. Posiblemente esté enterrado en este sitio.

VISITA A SIERPE.- Con el Señor Coronel Daniel Gallegos, Jefe de la Oficina de Trabajo de toda la zona bananera y con el Mayor Jorge Pacheco, recorrimos todas las fincas de bananos de la C. B. de C. R. (38 en total). Cada finca tiene su Blub House, sus barracones donde habitan los trabajadores, y casas para empleados, distribuídas en tal forma que se asemejan a pequeños pueblitos. Llegamos hasta el estero de la Sierpe, otro brazo de mar comunicando al territorio de La Costa por un pequeño Río. Estos esteros están prácticament incontrolados, pues como caso curioso, pudimos darnos cuenta, en la conversación sostenida con un guarda de este sitio, que hace más o menos 8 meses habí llegado dos chinos, comerciantes, sin papeles ni documentos legales y vivían las bocas del estero, en cultivos de banano, maderas, [illegible], etc. Con el Coronel Gallegos nos informamos ampliamente sobre la existencia de armas y es de opinión que si las hay en algunas de esas fincas y por otra parte se confirma la idea ya antes expresada por varias personas, entre ellas, agentes del Gobierno, de que esta región es un nido de comunismo, de maleantes y de gentes peligrosas. Concluída la visita a los campamentos obreros, regresamos al alojamiento que se nos había alistado en la casa de huéspedes de "Palmar".

DIA LUNES 4 DE SEPTIEMBRE.- Faltando un cuarto de hora para las ocho de la mañana, tomamos el avión, el Mayor Jorge Pacheco y yo, con dirección a San José de Costa Rica para obtener más datos en esferas oficiales y particulares con el fín de investigar las actividades de la famosa Legión del Caribe. A raíz de todos los sucesos políticos centroamericanos la Legión Caribe tuvo una gran actualidad, pero ahora sus miembros se hallan casi todos plegados al Partido Comunista constituyendo una fuerte y peligrosa organización centroamericana de tendencias perfectamente marxistas. Los principales miembros de la Legión Caribe son los siguientes:

JUAN BOSCH, dominicano, actual Secretario General, del Presidente de Cuba; generales MIGUEL ANGEL y JUAN RODRIGUEZ, dominicanos, residentes en La Habana, Cuba.

JOSE FIGUERES, ex-presidente de la Junta Revolucionaria de Costa Rica, costarricense de origen español. Actualmente se encuentra en Israel.

En Guatemala, donde tiene su asiento la Legión Caribe y donde se encuentra la mayor parte de su armamento, residen los mayores Francisco Sánchez (El Indio Sánchez), [illegible], Mario José Navarro, Adolfo Baez Bone, López Godoy, [illegible], Teniente Coronel Jorge Ribas Montes, Doctor Emilio Gómez Revelo (médico), Mayor Francisco Morazán, de quien se dice fué el oficial encargado para asesinar al Coronel Francisco Arana, Ministro de Guerra de Guatemala y candidato a la presidencia, opositor al Coronel Arbenz, actual candidato a la presidencia de la República, quien cuenta con el apoyo oficial. Toda esta oficialidad es de nacionalidad hondureña.

En la Semana Santa última vinieron a San José, en un avión de la armada guatemalteca, Ribas Montes, Sánchez (el Indio) y José Navarro, y buscaron al coronel Edgar Cardona, ex-ministro de Seguridad Públiez de la ex-Junta revolucionaria de este país y al Mayor Max Cortés, antiguos compañeros de armas en la pasada revolución que derrocó al Gobierno del Lic. Teodoro Picado, y les expresaron que era necesario respetar y cuidar la vida del Jefe Máximo del Comunismo en Costa Rica, Lic. Manuel Mora Valverde, agregaddo que ellos habían atrasado la causa comunista. Esta conversación me la refirieron, en días pasados, Cardona y Cortés, quienes son de ideología anti-comunista. De lo anterior se deduce que estos miembros de la Legión Caribe vinieron a Costa Rica con el pretexto de pasar la Semana Santa, a una misión cerca de Figueres que aún se desconoce, pero que se cree tenga la misma relación en pro del Comunismo, pues a su regreso de México, Mora Valverde permaneció en Guatemala alrededor de dos meses, y siempre temió su regreso a Costa Rica. Figueres es de filiación izquierdista.

MANUEL MORA VALVERDE.-

Es el Gilberto Vieira de Costa Rica. Es persona de 36 años de edad, licenciado en derecho, marxista, hábil político, ex-diputado comunista y Jefe del Comunismo en Costa Rica. Estuvo exilado en México después de la caída del Gobierno de Picado y Calderón Guardia, a quienes apoyó durante sus respectivas administraciones y fué figura influyente y decisiva en dichos gobiernos. Recientemente regresó al país y procedió a reorganizar su Partido "Vanguardia Popular" que por Ley No. 1191 de 1o. de Agosto del año en curso ha quedado proscrito en Costa Rica. A pesar de lo anterior, el partido commista ha organizado, en poco tiempo, 30 sindicatos "independientes" de filiación marxista y el partido está activísimo en todos los sectores del país. Publican clandestinamente su órgano de publicidad "Trabajo" y son numerosas las reuniones que celebran privadamente en casi todas las poblaciones. En ocasiones son descubiertas son puestos en libertad en pocas horas. Actualmente existe, desde hace más de dos meses, orden de arresto contra los dirigentes comunistas Arnoldo Ferreto, Luis Moscoa, Guillermo Marquero y otros más por haberse dictado auto de detención judicial contra ellos y sin embargo dicha orden no ha sido cumplida.

JOSE FIGUERES FERRER.-

Es hijo de padre y madre catalánes; pero nacido en Costa Rica. Fué educado en el Colegio Seminario de esta capital y luego en un Colegio de los Estados Unidos de América, sin haber terminado sus estudios. En ese país casó con una dama estadinense con la que tiene dos niños. Regresó a Costa Rica, y desde entonces se consagró a la agricultura y al comercio. Logró mediante su esfuerzo personal cultivar una gran finca de café y fique, al sur de San José, que denominó "La Lucha". De 1.943 para acá figura en la política costarricense, sin haber ocupado ninguna posición oficial hasta la caída del régimen del Lic. Picado, cuando asumió el mando como Jefe de la revolución. Gobernó 18 meses sin Congreso, nacionalizó la banca y creó un impuesto al capital del 10% y lo acusan sus enemigos de haber derrochado alrededor de 350.000.000.00 de colones, de los cuales buena parte entregó a la Legión Caribe que lo ayudó a derrocar al Gobierno del Lic. Picado.

Es socialista, de temperamento autoritario, de vida austera y de trabajo. Cultivó relaciones con el Gobierno del General Franco, pero a la vez permitió que funcionara en San José una Legación del Gobierno rojo, a la cual visitaba frecuentemente. Rompió relaciones con el Perú, República Dominicana y actual Junta revolucionaria de Venezuela, relaciones que finalmente reanudó con la última.

Me refiere el Mayor Figuls, ex-Inspector General de Hacienda y que fué hombre de la absoluta confianza de Figuerres, estando hoy distanciados políticamente, que de los almacenes de su dependencia retiró Figueres 200 ametralladoras "Reising" con la dotación de 600.000 tiros y se dice que con otros armamentos retirados así mismo de los otros almacenes de guerra las llevó a su finca "La Lucha", antes de abandonar el poder, en donde las tiene ocultas.

Me refiere el Coronel Don Edgar Cardona Quirós, su ex-ministro de Seguridad, ahora distanciado del señor Figueres, que cuando se produjo la invasión del Doctor Calderón Guardia al país en diciembre de 1.948, el Presidente de Cuba, doctor Prío Socarrás, obsequió al Gobierno de Costa Rica un armamento muy valioso consistente en rifles, ametralladoras, cañones de montaña, morteros, bombas para avión, etc. etc. y la suma de cien mil dólares, lo queFigueres, según se dice, entregó íntegro a la Legión Caribe. En esa ocasión el señor Figueres se empeñó que los aviones que traían el armamento lo desembarcaran en el aeropuerto de San Isidro del General, al sur de San José y cerca de su finca y donde con anterioridad había enviado a varios miembros de la Legión Caribe para que lo recibieran. El Coronel Cardona, como Ministro de Seguridad, dió orden a los aviones que ya se encontraban volando hacía Costa Rica para que dichos armamentos fueran desembarcados en esta capital, lo que produjo en el ánimo de su Jefe, señor Figueres, seria contrariedad que fué el principio de su distanciamiento, pues el Coronel Cardona era opuesto de manera resuelta, a seguir prestando auxilios económicos y de armas, a los legionarios del Caribe.

Aprovecho la oportunidad para citar otro desagradable incidente que el Coronel Cardona me refirió. Al producirse la invasión del Dr. Calderón Guardia, que antes mencioné, llegaron a su Despacho de Ministro, el General Miguel Angel Ramírez, Jefe de los legionarios del Caribe, en compañía del Doctor Calderon Valdés, Embajador de Guatemala en Costa Rica, a ofrecerle sus servicios como veterano militar, ya que en Costa Rica no había Jefes militares de escuela. El señor Cardona le expresó las gracias, pero el general Ramírez insistió y le manifestó que él tenía 800 hombres disciplinados y listos para repeler la agresión de Calderón Guardia, a quien apoyaba indirectamente al General Somoza de Nicaragua. El Embajador de Guatemala insistió en que se aceptaran por parte de Costa Rica los servicios de Ramírez. El Coronel Cardona volvió a expresar que mucho agradecería al galante ofrecimiento de Ramírez; pero que él no podría aceptar que tropas o militares extranjeros tomaran parte en aquel conflicto nacional. Ante esta rotunda negativa, - Calderón Valdés se exaltó un tanto, al extremo de que el Coronel Cardona, según me lo manifestó, hubo de golpear su mesa y de expresar al inoportuno diplomático guatemalteco que en su despacho él era quien mandaba. La conjetura que hace Cardona es que esas tropas mercenarias, una vez repelida la agresión, se lanzarían contra Nicaragua y hubieran envuelto a Costa Rica en un grave conflicto internacional. A muy reducido número de sus amistades ha referido el señor Cardona estos graves sucesos que culminaron con su separación del Gobierno, ya que Figuerres era, y sigue siendo, resuelto partidario de una agresión contra Somoza.

OTROS EMIGRADOS POLITICOS.-

A la caída de los Gobiernos de Calderón Guardia y Picado, - tuvieron que emigrar varios costarricenses de filiación comunista y extranjeros al servicio del Gobierno depuesto, quienes en su mayoría se encuentran en Guatemala, México y Venezuela. Entre ellos figuran los siguientes:

JORGE ISAAC [illegible], alias CHACO, panameño, natural de David, Chiriquí. De vida inmoral.

JULIO LÓPEZ [illegible].- Ex-carabinero republicano español. Se dice asaltó y robó un banco en Asturias durante la dominación roja. Llegó a Costa Rica expulsado de Panamá a la caída del Gobierno del doctor Arnulfo - Arias, de quien se dice era íntimo amigo. Casó en este país civilmente con una rica heredera a quien ha despojado en México, de parte de sus haberes. Ahora - ha sido expulsado de México por actividades poco lícitas. Es hombre peligroso por sus ideas extremistas y su falta de moralidad.

JUAN JOSE TAVIO Y SILVA, de nacionalidad cubana, ex-director de policía de Batista. Atrabiliario, inmoral, pistolero. Aquí existen, en los tribunales de Justicia, numerosos procesos en algunos de los cuales se ha dictado sentencia condenatoria contra él por asesinatos, robos y estafas. Casó con una [illegible] rica a quien despojó de sus bienes. Recientemente fué expulsado de Venezuela y se ha radicado, según noticias, en la República Dominicana.

FERNANDO CHAVES MOLINA.- Licenciado en farmacia, químico peligroso agitador comunista. Reside en Venezuela. Costarricense.

JUAN CASTILLO o CASTRILLO, obrero educado en Rusia, habla correctamente el inglés, costarricense, peligroso agitador comunista. Reside en Venezuela.

JOSE MERINO Y CORONADO.- Costarricense, profesor de ciencia - físico químicas, peligroso agitador comunista.

CARLOS LUIS SAENZ, costarricense, poeta, escritor, profesor - de pedagogía Marxista, residente en la Escuela Normal de Panamá.

CORINA RODRIGUEZ.- Costarricense, profesora, agitadora comunista, residente en Guatemala.

EUNICE ODIO.- Costarricense, poetisa, agitadora, residente - en Guatemala.

ROQUE JULIO [illegible].- Este sujeto de largo historial en Perú, Venezuela, Cuba y Panamá, llegó hace alrededor de tres meses. En días pasados le mostró a varios compatriotas un cablegrama de adhesión irrestricta al Excmo. Señor Presidente de Colombia. Falta saber si en realidad dirigió al Excmo. Señor Presidente algún mensaje de adhesión.

JOSE MANUEL BENITEZ.- Natural de Girardot, se dice periodista y se propone editar un número del periódico "El Mundo", que edita a su vez en Ibagué. Es, según lo ha manifestado adverso al actual orden de cosas en - Colombia.

GOLETAS.- Me permito informar que han sido adquiridas por firmas colombianas las siguientes embarcaciones: "CONISPRAY", por la Compañía Marítima Colombiana Ltda., de Barranquilla y "TONNY GILONI", por los señores Alfredo Rojas C. & Co. Ltda. de Cali, Colombia.

CONCLUSIONES.- La República de Costa Rica por mandato constitucional de ese país, tiene prohibido el ejército como institución permanente. De tal suerte que faltando este fuerte eslabón y pilar de una nación, es campo propicio para allí germinen todas las organizaciones políticas disciplinadas de cualquier índole, convirtiendose en verdaderas amenazas para la estabilidad y el orden jurídico de la nación costarricense. Es así, como, además y sin el respaldo de una organización militar, las demás instituciones, son extremadamente débiles, pues tiene que improvisar instituciones de la noche a la mañana, en cualquier cambio de Gobierno, como sucede actualmente, que tanto detectivismo, como policía, guardia civil etc., son impreparados para la gestión administrativa y de Gobierno; únicamente son adictos al Presidente Otilio Ulate, y tras de su nombre trabajan y se desenvuelven y transitan por los complejos e intrincados caminos de la justicia, la investigación, la defensa nacional, la administración pública etc.

En estas condiciones y con autorización del Señor Embajador de Colombia en Costa Rica, Doctor Fulgencio Lequerica Vélez, traigo la gestión de solicitar ante el Gobierno Nacional, la consecución de cinco becas para detectives, de jóvenes de Costa Rica, con el objeto de ayudar a esa Nación hermana a la formación de un cuerpo técnico de policía que vaya sentando las bases de una organización, que beneficiaría muy grandemente a nuestro país, ya que si se llega a hacer efectiva esa gestión, Colombia tendría en ese país una organización que poco a poco reflejaría nuestros propios deseos e intereses en América Central.

De esta gestión había necesidad de informar al Sr. Fulgencio Lequerica Vélez, para que él en su calidad de Embajador haga el ofrecimiento ante el Gobierno costarricense por su intermedio y abrir las vacantes correspondientes en la Escuela de Policía, General Santander.

AUTORIDADES COLOMBIANAS EN COSTA RICA.-

Nuestro país está dignamente representado en Costa Rica. El Embajador Dr. Lequerica Vélez, es un gran caballero y magnífico diplomático. Mantiene grandes relaciones con el Gobierno del país y sus conceptos va-lan y pesan en las esferas diplomáticas. Es muy estimado por el público en general. El Cónsul General Sr. Gamaliel Noriega es una personalidad, trabaja por Colombia y vive alerta para dar oportunamente cualquier información que interese al Gobierno de Colombia. Con él personalmente estuvimos obteniendo datos e informaciones y merced a su acusiosidad me suministró valiosas informaciones sobre la Legión Caribe, política costarricense etc., temas que domina y conoce a la perfección.

Dejo constancia ante el Gobierno Nacional de que estos dos funcionarios diplomáticos, representan a nuestro país, con honor, dignidad y caballerosidad.

CONTRABANDO DE DROGAS.-

Existe una poderosa cadena de contrabandistas en drogas cuya base principal es Cuba, cadena que necesariamente debe tener filiales en Colombia puesto que todo el tráfico de drogas lícitas e ilícitas para Sur América se debe efectuar por nuestro país. Tuve oportunidad de conversar brevemente con el Sr. Jorge Barseló del Departamento de Investigación de la República de Cuba, quien se encontraba en misión oficial también en algunos trabajos encomendados por su Gobierno entre otros el de localizar la red internacional de traficantes ilícitos en drogas heróicas, estupefacientes etc. Además se alcansa a reflejar muy debilmente ante esas Autoridades Centro Americanas la salida de oro, platino, esmeraldas de nuestro territorio, causando grande daño al Fisco Nacional. Sería conveniente que el Gobierno Nacional creara un cuerpo experto en estudio de estupefacientes y contrabandos, localizados para efectuar sus trabajos no en Colombia, sino en Cuba, Panamá, Costa Rica y algunos otros países Centro Americanos, para desde esos sitios tener un mejor control sobre este turbio comercio que afecta hondamente nuestra economía.

VENTA DE ARMAS.-

La venta de armas en Costa Rica es libre. En almacenes que pude observar personalmente se venden revólveres, escopetas, pistolas, fusiles calibre U. munición de 7 milímetros y clandestinamente se consiguen ametralladoras italianas marca "Breda" y "Balcing". De tal suerte que el comercio de elementos bélicos no está bajo el control del Gobierno ni las Autoridades tienen el menor interés en restringirlo ya que como dije anteriormente el precitado comercio es libre.

Dejo en esta forma rendido el informe de la comisión que me fué encomendada.

Atentamente,

CARLOS RODRIGUEZ TELLEZ
Jefe Nacional del Detectivismo.

(Continuación del Informe)

OBSERVACIONES DE CARACTER GENERAL.-

TURISMO.- El país carece de una organización técnica en el Ramo de Turismo. Hay detalles que dejan ver muy claro la falta de propaganda turística que padece Colombia en los Hoteles, Aerodromos, Casinos, Club Houses, etc. Mientras pude observar que países pequeños hacen un gran despliegue de afiches y carteles propagandísticos, Colombia no posee este servicio. En los aerodromos especialmente, hay que colocar leyendas en afiches de colores insinuando al turista que visite a Colombia, y litografiando nuestras bellezas naturales como el Salto de Tequendama, Las Salinas de Zipaquirá, Hoteles de Turismo, Laguna de Tota y mil más, que despierten en el turista el deseo de ver cosas nuevas. Se podrían organizar excursiones de turismo a esos lugares, en combinación con las empresas aéreas, para dar mayores facilidades al turista.

SERVICIO DE POLICIA EN AERODROMOS.-

Pude observar como resalta a la vista la gran diferencia, en cuanto a aseo y presentación personal de la Policía que presta servicios en el aerodromo de Medellín. Mientras en el aerodromo de Tocumen en Panamá, y la Sabana en San José, Costa Rica, tanto el personal de Aduanas como la Policía, está muy bien vestido y limpio y cortéz, en Medellín, se ven los Agentes, sucios, barbados, muy mal vestidos y en posturas nada correctas, como sentados en los descansos para los pasajeros internacionales, o con una pierna sobre las barandas que limitan el campo aéreo.

Estos detalles que al parecer son leves, sería conveniente se corrigieran para impresionar a las personas que nos visitan y que lleven por lo menos mientras esperen en los campos aéreos la salida de sus aviones, un trato agradable y cortéz y una presentación decente.

CON/JEFE CARLOS RODRIGUEZ [illegible]

IMPLEMENT ITS PREVIOUS PLAN TO MONITOR THROUGH A SENSITIVE TECHNICAL OPERATION THE ACTIVITIES OF THE COLOMBIAN DELEGATION TO THE BORDER NEGOTIATIONS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN IN ROME, ITALY, ON 19 MARCH 1973. THE VENEZUELAN 14-MAN GROUP FROM THE DIRECTORATE OF THE SERVICE OF INTELLIGENCE AND PREVENTION (DISIP), WHICH WILL ACCOMPANY THE VENEZUELAN DELEGATION TO THE TALKS, WILL LIMIT ITS ACTIVITIES TO THE PHYSICAL AND ELECTRONIC SECURITY OF THE VENEZUELAN CONTINGENT. SHOULD THE OPPORTUNITY ARISE TO USE SECURELY A TECHNICAL OPERATION TO MONITOR THE COLOMBIAN DELEGATION, ANOTHER DISIP TEAM OF FROM FOUR TO SEVEN VENEZUELANS WILL BE SENT TO HANDLE THIS. (SOURCE COMMENT: BECAUSE OF THE FACT THAT A VENEZUELAN FOREIGN MINISTRY COLDE OFFICER PASSED INFORMATION TO THE COLOMBIANS BASED ON THE VENEZUELAN TECHNICAL OPERATION TARGETTED AGAINST THE COLOMBIAN DELEGATION AT THE LAST ROUND OF TALKS, THE VENEZUELANS FEAR THAT THE COLOMBIANS WILL BE EXPECTING A SIMILAR OPERATION AND MAY TRY TO RECIPROCATE BY MONITORING THE VENEZUELAN DELEGATION. FOR THIS REASON, THE VENEZUELANS HAVE DECIDED TO IMPLEMENT COUNTER-ESPIONAGE RATHER THAN ESPIONAGE OPERATIONS DURING THIS SERIES OF TALKS. ALSO,

1. WKSCARLET-3 PROVIDED THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION ON ~~17 FEBRUARY~~. HE SAID HE HAD BEEN CONTACTED BY TWO U.S. LAWYERS FROM MIAMI, SENT TO HIM BY A CUBAN FRIEND IN MIAMI, WHO REQUESTED HIS HELP AS A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL.

2. THE LAWYERS, HEADLEY (FNU) AND SUDDUTH (FNU), WHOSE ADDRESS IS 1703 FIRST NATIONAL CITY BANK BUILDING IN MIAMI, WORK FOR VARON, STAHL AND KAY, P.A., ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS, LOCATED AT 2432 HOLLYWOOD BOULEVARD, HOLLYWOOD, FLORIDA. THEY ARE REPRESENTING THE INTERESTS OF LLOYD A. DIXON, JR., AN EMPLOYEE OF THE AVM CORPORATION OF JAMESTOWN, NEW YORK, WHICH RECENTLY GOT THE US. $20,000,000 CONTRACT FOR THE VOTING MACHINES TO BE USED IN THE DECEMBER ELECTION. DIXON IS UNDER INVESTIGATION BY THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA, MIAMI DIVISION, BECAUSE OF CHARGES BY EDUARDO BLANCO URIBE AND HANS J. MAGNIN, APPARENT REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ELECTIONS

3. ACCORDING TO COPIES OF THE FIRST PAGES OF SEVERAL DOCUMENTS BROUGHT BY THE LAWYERS, THE CHARGES AGAINST DIXON INCLUDE VIOLATION OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE LAWS AND BRIBERY OF VENEZUELAN OFFICIALS WHO ALLEGEDLY AGREED TO ACCEPT PAYMENTS FROM DIXON FOR THEIR HELP IN SECURING THE CONTRACT.

4. THE FIRST PAGE OF AN AFFADAVIT FILED BY FERNANDO ZOZAYA ITURBE, THE AVM CORPORATION LAWYER IN VENEZUELA, STATES THAT ON 4 MAY 1972, ZOZAYA WAS PRESENT WHEN DIXON TENDERED RELEASES TO BLANCO AND MAGNIN WHICH HAD THE EFFECT OF FORFEITING ALL THE COMMISSIONS DUE THEM FOR THE SALE OF THE VOTING MACHINES TO VENEZUELA. BLANCO AND MAGNIN REFUSED TO SIGN THE RELEASES. DIXON TOLD THEM IT WAS NECESSARY BECAUSE THE AVM CORPORATION WAS UNDERGOING A GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION IN BUFFALO, NEW YORK.

5. THE PURPOSE OF LAWYERS HEADLEY AND SUDDUTH IN CONTACTING WKSCARLET-3 WAS TO OFFER HIM US$50,000 TO PRESSURE

CAR DRIVEN BY UNKNOWN TRACED THROUGH LICENSE PLATES AND REGISTERED FEDERAL DISTRICT GOVERNMENT.

B. 15 FEBRUARY SAME UNKNOWN INDIVIDUAL WITH SAME CAR WENT HOTEL AND PARKED CAR ILLEGALLY. SUBSEQUENTLY TOWED AWAY. UNKNOWN AND GOMEZ RETRIEVED AUTO. UNKNOWN SHOWED IDENTIFICATION TO POLICE OFFICIAL WHO RETURNED CAR WITHOUT QUESTION. ON RETURN TO HOTEL UNKNOWN USED CAR'S SIREN TO PASS THROUGH RED LIGHTS, AND WAS STOPPED LATER BY METROPOLITAN POLICE FOR DRIVING WRONG WAY ON ONE WAY STREET. CITRAILS OBSERVED POLICE EFFUSIVELY SALUTING OUR UNKNOWN WHO THEN DROVE TO HOTEL WITHOUT FURTHER INCIDENT. FROM THIS IT OBVIOUS OUR UNKNOWN IS HIGH-RANKING OFFICIAL METROPOLITAN POLICE. SAME DAY CITRAILS PHOTOGRAPHED GOMEZ AND UNKNOWN. FROM EXCELLENT PHOTOGRAPH IT POSITIVELY DETERMINED THAT UNKNOWN NOT REPEAT NOT WKSCARLET-3. NOW

18. WKSCARLET-3:

During this reporting period WKSCARLET-3 produced eleven disseminations and contributed to four others. As a chief of one of the operations sections of his service, it appeared that he would continue to have excellent access. However, in December WKSCARLET-1 reorganized his service and ostensibly reduced our agent's area of responsibility and access. WKSCARLET-3 was slightly depressed at this occurrence as he believed, and rightly so, that he had not merited this reduction. After the holidays, however, it became apparent that WKSCARLET-1 would continue to use WKSCARLET-3 in special operations and that the reduction in responsibility was solely to take WKSCARLET-3 out of the limelight. Thus, our agent is still able to report on the sensitive operations of his service. As a result of this and his past performance, WKSCARLET-3 was given a salary increase beginning January 1973.

HVCA 19306 Apr 73 Weekly Progress Rept 1 Feb - 3 March

7. WKSCARLET-3

Although WKSCARLET-3 continued his fine production during this time period, it was WHABYSS activity which produced the real interest. Through other cables and dispatches we have reported his involvement in this irregular activity, which if proved true will end in his termination as a BKHERALD asset. At the present time WKSCARLET-3 is the security team leader for the Venezuelan delegation to the Gulf of Maracaibo talks presently being held in Rome. It is planned that soon after he returns, and if we have sufficient hard facts, we will confront our agent in an attempt to clarify his WHABYSS connection.

REPORT NO. CSCI-316/00339-73

DATE DISTR. 31 January 1973

COUNTRY Venezuela

DOI 8 December 1972

SUBJECT Reorganization of the Directorate of the Service of Intelligence and Prevention

ACQ Venezuela, Caracas (15 December 1972)

FIELD NO. HVC-6525

SOURCE An experienced police investigator whose position gives him access to information on matters affecting the internal security of Venezuela. He reports without the knowledge of his superiors. His information has been frequently confirmed by independent sources. He provided a copy of the reorganization document.

1. On 8 December 1972 the Directorate of the Service of Intelligence and Prevention (DISIP) was reorganized by its Director, Dr. Remberto Uzcategui Bruzual. (Source Comment: Uzcategui believes DISIP will be in line for criticism during the election year of 1973 and he wants to remove from positions of responsibility any of his controversial section heads.) The gist of the document issued by Uzcategui reorganizing DISIP follows.

2. The Director of DISIP sets the general policy based on instructions from the Ministry of the Interior and has ultimate control of the Services. The Deputy Director assists him in carrying out these responsibilities and substitutes for the Director during his absence. As its supervisory and fiscal units, DISIP has an Inspector General of Services who has the responsibility of disciplining personnel and investigating employees, and an internal comptroller who verifies the administration of the Services.

3. The following are the DISIP executive positions:

a. Secretary General of Services, which has been assigned to Dr. Oswaldo Dominguez.

b. Chief of the General Information Division, which has been assigned to Lic. Joaquin Chaffardet.

c. Chief of the General Operations Division, which has been assigned to Commissioner Rodrigo Nieves Zarco.

4. The Chiefs of the Zones and other branches in the interior are under the jurisdiction of the Secretary General of Services. They will handle administrative matters, intelligence and operations directly with the corresponding Divisions and will receive from them the general requirements to be fulfilled.

5. The General Operations Division has nationwide responsibility for all police and operational matters. It will be formed by as many operating divisions as there are specific activities to be fulfilled. The current operating divisions are:

a. First Division (Prevention), headed by Commissioner Adolfo Romero Gomez.

b. Second Division (Agent Control), headed by sub-commissioner Arpad Bango.

c. Third Division (Patrol), headed by Sub-Commissioner Julio Cesar Lanza.

d. Fourth Division (Explosives and Armaments), headed by Commissioner Luis Posada.

e. Fifth Division (Protection), headed by Commissioner Luis Martinez Cuerra.

6. The General Information Division has nationwide responsibility for all intelligence and counter-intelligence matters, with the exception of subversion which is wholly the responsibility of the General Operations Division. The General Information Division will be formed by as many divisions as there are specific activities to be fulfilled. Currently these are:

STATUS OF PROJECT AGENTS:

13. This period showed that while WKSCARLET-3 does have a highly responsible position within his organization, he still is being ordered to do special assignments by the chief of the service. These assignments usually involve out-of-town travel and/or long and unusual working hours. This precludes regular scheduled meetings; however, the agent is contacted on the average of once a week. WKSCARLET-3, along with his normal routine duties, was involved in a number of varied activities during the reporting period which he duly reported to the Station. He continues to investigate all possible leads in the kidnapping case of Carlos Domingues. In August he led a small team to Cucuta, Colombia where they uncovered and destroyed a small printing shop which was engaged in the fabrication of false Venezuelan identity cards. He continues the investigation of the activities of Sergio Pineda Ruiz, the Prensa Latina chief in Caracas. The problem of agent/case officer communications has been somewhat alleviated. The agent now contacts the case officer at the latter's home during the evening hours. This doesn't obviate the need for an RS-708 system, but until the details for a concealment device that will be appropriate for WKSCARLET-3's rather spartan office are worked out, phone contact is necessary. During the reporting period WKSCARLET-3 produced three disseminations and contributed to one other.

11. In mid-April CIFENCE-4 was placed in charge of yet another of the CIRASH divisions, with added responsibility and importance. This change has allowed him more time in Caracas, and reflects a continually improving position vis-a-vis CIFENCE-1, the CIRASH Director. This coupled with what now appears the likelihood that CIFENCE-1 will retain this present position until the government changes in early 1974, makes the longevity of CIFENCE-4 with CIRASH somewhat more certain. As part of his new responsibilities, CIFENCE-4 has initiated an extensive investigation of Prensa Latina and its Caracas Director, Sergio Pineda Ruiz. This operation was interrupted in early June by the kidnapping of Venezuelan industrialist Carlos Dominguez, with CIFENCE-4 being placed in charge of the CIRASH investigation of the as yet unresolved case. As of this writing, CIFENCE-4 has been devoting all of his time to this kidnapping case, to the detriment of other operations. Because of the unpredictable work schedule of CIFENCE-4 and the security precautions observed by the Station in contacting him, operational communication has been less efficient than desirable during the reporting period, while security has been maintained. The arrangements have been reviewed and improved, but the Station is looking for a more satisfactory system. The Station tentatively plans to request an RS-708 system for this agent in the near future. CIFENCE-4 contributed to two reports during the April through June quarter.

1. On approximately 5 March 1972, a Station asset, CIFENCE-4, while acting in his cover capacity had occasion to detain and question one Ricardo MORALES Navarrete, a Cuban resident of Miami.

2. Morales N. told CIFENCE-4 that he, Morales, is employed by LNERGO from whom he receives a salary of US$700 per month. Morales said that he was en route to Colombia on a drug case at the time. During the conversation Morales admitted to CIFENCE-4 having been responsible for a killing in Florida.

3. CIFENCE-4 reported to the Station the above, as well as stating that Morales has an extremely poor reputation in the Cuban community, where he is prone to tell nearly anyone willing to listen of his affiliation with LNERGO, with the implication that his employer sanctions his activities.

4. Morales also told CIFENCE-4 that a Cuban (true name of CIGOAL-5) who works with SIFA in Caracas is an agent of BKTRUST.

5. Attached is a copy of the reentry permit of Morales, as well as a clipping from the Miami press relating to the killing which Morales allegedly confessed to having committed.

6. The above is for the information of Station WH/Miami and further action as deemed appropriate. No coordination with LNERGO in Caracas has been effected due to security considerations involving CIFENCE-4.

Cuarto 1309, Hospital Jackson Memorial, 7:10 P.M. Miércoles Diciembre 4 de 1968.

"Yo, JULIO ATON CONSTANZO PALAU, del 752 S.W. Cuarta calle, Miami, Florida, casado con María Constanzo, la cual está aquí presente, declaro lo siguiente: Nací en Palma Soriano, Oriente, en Cuba, el 22 de Mayo de 1936. Yo tengo 32 años de edad. Me casé el 10 de Marzo de 1963 en Miami, Florida.

Yo no soy un ciudadano de Estados Unidos. Yo soy un residente, y tengo una hija, Elizabeth, la cual cumplirá cinco años de edad el 24 de diciembre, la cual nació aquí, en este Hospital, Jackson Memorial.

Mi propósito de hacer estas declaraciones se debe al hecho que la policía ha permitido que pasen varios días, y la gente que intentó quitarme la vida está afuera en la calle, libres.

El 22 de noviembre, alrededor de las 8.30 de la noche, a unas tres cuadras de mi casa, yo estaba caminando y me bajé de la acera en la 7 avenida y la Segunda calle, en la sección del S.W., cuando oí a alguien llamarme "Atón", y miré para ver quien era, y entonces yo sentí que ellos me disparaban, y yo vi las armas con silenciadores.

Yo vi a Ricardo Morales Navarrete, y él estaba en un Chevrolet Impala 1965, de dos puertas, amarillo con dos luces de cola. Estaba situado en el medio de la calle.

Este hombre, Ricardo Morales Navarrete estaba en el asiento de atrás, en la lado izquierdo. El tenía un fusil M-3, con un silenciador, el cual dispara balas calibre 45.

Otro hombre estaba manejando, y yo lo conozco de vista, pero no sé su nombre verdadero. Lo llaman con el apodo de "El Gallego". Este hombre, El Gallego, tenía una pistola que parecía una Beretta, con un silenciador adaptado.

Ambos me dispararon. Yo recibí 15 heridas de bala y 21 perforaciones.

Un tercer hombre estaba en el carro, llamado Francisco Rodríguez al que apodan "El Mejicano", el cual no disparó.

Yo identifico a Ricardo Morales Navarrete como al mismo hombre que testificó para el Gobierno en el juicio de Orlando Bosch.

Dos días antes yo lo vi a él con esta otra persona, El Gallego, observándome en frente de mi casa. Ellos estaban en otro carro, un Polara.

Yo conozco a este Morales Navarrete de La Habana, él era Jefe Asistente de la Sección del G-2 en el Aeropuerto de Rancho Boyeros, Habana, Cuba.

Yo no he hablado con él, pero otro hombre, Eddy Fernández Pla, hace casi dos meses, vino a mi casa a eso de la una de la madrugada para darme un mensaje de Ricardo Morales Navarrete y del Mejicano Francisco Rodríguez Tamayo los cuales no querían ser mis enemigos, que el enemigo era Batista, y que debíamos ser amigos porque las cosas iban a cambiar.

Yo le dije que no quería tener ninguna amistad con gente que trabajaba para Fidel Castro.

La noche que Eddy Fernández Pla vino a mi casa, él estaba con otro hombre, Rogelio Fernández, el cual es un vendedor de la Firestone.

Yo tengo una bala alojada cerca de mi corazón y tiene que ser extraída con un aparato especial, según me dijo el médico.

En estos tres últimos días no me he sentido bien y como tengo todos estos tiros en mi cuerpo sé que estoy en una mala condición y me siento como que voy a morir, y si muero, no quiero morir sin que este gran país castigue a estos asesinos, los cuales son nefastos para toda la sociedad.

Hago estas declaraciones completamente consciente de sus contenidos, sin coacción y de mi propia y libre voluntad.

He tenido atención médica para aliviar el dolor, y no me siento bajo la influencia de ninguna droga, pero me siento muy normal y hago estas declaraciones por las razones antes expuestas".

Venezuelan Security Service Study on the Diamond Fields in the Venezuelan Guyana Territory

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action: FYI

Attached is a study in Spanish language prepared by the Venezuelan Directorate of the Service of Intelligence and Prevention (DISIP) in the Ministry of Interior on a diamond field in the Venezuelan Guyana region which may be of interest to the Venezuelan and Guyana Desks. It was provided by CIFENCE-4, a unilateral security source, on 26 April 1972. According to CIFENCE-4, President Rafael Caldera was very interested in the study and excerpted large portions verbatim for one of his weekly press conferences.

REPUBLICA DE VENEZUELA
MINISTERIO DE RELACIONES INTERIORES
DIRECCION DE LOS SERVICIOS DE INTELIGENCIA Y PREVENCION

Caracas, 27 de MARZO de 1972.-

INFORME:

1. Ubicación y descripción geográfica de la región. Su acceso.-
2. Condiciones de vida y de trabajo de la población minera.-
3. Actuación de las autoridades.-

1. Ubicación y descripción geográfica de la región. Su acceso:

1. 1. El lugar donde se encuentra establecido el Campo minero "La Salvación" está ubicado al Sur-Oeste del Estado Bolivar, en pleno corazón de la selva, cercano a las riveras del Río Guaniamo, unas dos horas aproximadamente por vía aérea desde Ciudad Bolivar. El mencionado poblado esta enclavado en una superficie plana cuyos contornos estan sembrados de innumerables elevaciones de tierras que forman parte del macizo Guayanés.

1. 2. La única vía de acceso es aérea, ya que por la naturaleza de la región y su gran distancia de los centros poblados, es prácticamente imposible que se haga por otros medios. A tal fin se han construido pequeños e improvisados aeropuertos en las cercanías de la región del Guaniamo y mas pequeños aún en cada una de las minas que van apareciendo y dodde se agrupan temporalmente gran número de personas.-

Puntualizando lo antes dicho existe un aeropuerto que sirve como Base de Operaciones en la región, identificado como Aeropuerto de "La Contella", con una longitud de ochocientos (800) metros de pista de tierra, siendo este el de mayor tamaño y desde donde se hacen los trasbordos en avionetas mas pequeñas que salen a los propios campos mineros, situados en un área no mayor de quince (15) minutos ~~de vuelo~~.

En el caso de "La Salvación", este campamento minero se encuentra exactamente a unos siete minutos de vuelo saliendo del Aeropuerto "La Contella". La pista de aterrizaje es igualmente de tierra con apenas trescientos ochenta (380) metros de longitud, lo que hace sumamente peligroso su utilización, mas aún cuando observamos que se encuentra rodeada de árboles gigantescos que alcanzan 40 y 50 metros de altura. Por las características descritas, en esta pista han ocurrido varios accidentes aéreos causando muertos, heridos y varios aparatos destruidos de los cuales actualmente se pueden apreciar en el sitio cinco totalmente inservibles; igualmente no se utilizan los equipos de radio entre las avionetas y los aeropuertos, existiendo el peligro latente de un accidente por el choque de aparatos tanto en el aire como en la propia pista, ya que generalmente existen nubes muy bajas que apenas permiten ver la pista como un pequeño claro en medio de la selva; esta situación empeora aún mas por la irresponsabilidad de las líneas aéreas y los propios pilotos, quienes buscando mayor beneficio sobrecargan los aviones a veces hasta con el doble del peso permitido, sin que exista ningún control de Comunicaciones para regular tal anormalidad. Un ejemplo claro lo constituye la Línea "ASERCA", que en un año registró trece accidentes en la región.-

2. Condiciones de vida y de trabajo de la población minera:

2. 1. Las condiciones de vida de la población que alcanza aproximadamente a unas 6.000 personas (pero que llegó a tener el año pasado unas 15.000), dejan mucho que desear en el aspecto sanitario, habitacional y moral. Las aguas que corren por el lugar están contaminadas por el esparcimiento indiscriminado de excrementos en las márgenes de las quebradas y pequeños ríos, así como en el interior del propio poblado. Las enfermedades, como el paludismo y amibiasis, se observan con bastante frecuencia por falta de asistencia y control sanitario; las enfermedades venéreas abundan por no existir un riguroso control sobre el gran número de prostitutas que existen en la población. La totalidad de las viviendas estan construidas con cartones, tablas y láminas de zinc, que escasamente protegen a sus moradores de las inclemencias del tiempo, siendo mas grave la situación por la gran cantidad de niños que son llevados por sus padres al lugar, por demás peligroso e inapropiado para ellos, sin que tampoco exista ninguna regulación o control al respecto.-

La prostitución cobra marcado incremento en estas zonas, atrayendo mujeres desde diferentes lugares de la República y de países vecinos como Colombia y Brasil, que se agrupan en improvisados bares situados dentro de la población, provocando hechos reñidos con la moral que se llevan a cabo en presencia de niños y de honestas familias de mineros.-

Prolifera en sus diferentes manifestaciones el juego, siendo los mas comunes la baraja y los dados, bingos, etc., estos últimos son transmitidos por altavoces dandole un aspecto de feria nocturna al poblado.-

2. 2. Generalmente los mineros forman grupos de trabajo constituyendo pequeñas sociedades entre las que se repartirá la ganancia que logren obtener, pero como carecen de recursos indispensables se ven obligados a incluir como socios a personas que les prestan los implementos de trabajo o que financian su alimentación, constituyendo esta forma una especie de explotación si se toma en cuenta que generalmente exageran las cantidades consumidas por los mineros. Los compradores de diamantes aprovechan la necesidad de vender los diamantes encontrados por los mineros, para pagarlos a precios muy por debajo de su valor real y los especuladores aprovechan para elevar los precios de los alimentos, medicinas, etc., llegando en oportunidades de escaséz a vender hasta en Bs 40 un kilogramo de arroz. Actualmente dada la competencia y los constantes viajes que efectuan al lugar las diferentes líneas aéreas, entre ellas: "ASERCA", "AEROVEN", "GATIZSA", "LATINCARGA", "AEROTECNICA" y "COMERAVIA", los precios han dejado de ser tan exagerados.-

3. Actuación de las autoridades:

3. 1. Lakprimera autoridad civil del lugar está representada por un Comisario General de nombre JOSE TOMAS GAONA ESPINOZA, pero el verdadero control sobre la población es ejercido por la Guardia Nacional y para el momento de la presente averiguación estaba constituida por un grupo de cuatro Guardias, comandados por un Cabo de apellido CARPIO; este grupo es completamente nuevo en el lugar, a raíz de la salida del Teniente LUIS PRIN y de su segundo, un Cabo de apellido PINATE, quienes fueron sometidos a investigación por su propio Comando a causa de frecuentes denuncias de presuntas irregularidades cometidas en ejercicio de sus - funcionaba. Entrevistados algunos comerciantes y mineros del lugar, pudimos obtener información coincidente entre los mismos informantes de las actividades desagradables para ellos desarrolladas por los efectivos de la Guardia Nacional, citando atropellos cometidos por el Teniente LUIS PRIN y el Cabo PIÑATE, destacando entre ellos los siguientes:

Que cuando el Teniente LUIS PRIN VILLEGAS era el Jefe de la Guardia Nacional en "La Salvación", existía el Bar "Bejuquero", cuya dueña aparentemente era la ciudadana PETRA GUAPE, quien era públicamente amante del Teniente PRIN, ya que eran vistos caminar tomados de la mano por el pueblo y el Tte. dormía junto con ella en el local del mismo Bar, lo grave de los hechos, según revelan los informantes, estaba en que a las nueve de la noche el Teniente ordenaba el cierre de todos los demás bares notificandole a los mineros por intermedio de los propios Guardias que si querían seguir tomando podían continuar en el Bar "Bejuquero", donde en varias oportunidades se vió a los Guardias uniformados despachando cervezas a los clientes en el interior de ese Bar, por lo que se generalizó entre los pobladores la idea de que el Tte. PRIN tenía parte en el negocio. Igualmente informan los entrevistados que los Guardias Nacionales que comandaba el Tte. PRIN VILLEGAS, especialmente el Cabo PIÑATE, se daban a la tarea de pedir a los mineros parte de la tierra que sacaban y donde podría haber o nó diamantes; igualmente cobraban una especie de impuesto a las personas que administraban las casas de juegos. Narran las personas entrevistadas que en una oportunidad los mineros, uno de ellos menor de edad, se jugaban de manos en el pueblo, resultando golpeado el menor y que su amigo, quien lo golpeó, sin mala intención, no opuso ninguna resistencia y voluntariamente manifestó a la Guardia Nacional que estaba dispuesto a enviar al médico por su cuenta a su amigo y a pagar un arresto si era necesario, cosa esta que no sucedió pues el Teniente ordenó esposarlo y propinarle cinco planazos en presencia del pueblo para así sentar un precedente de respeto, según expresó.-

Se pudo conocer que el año pasado, por el mes de Noviembre, por orden de la Guardia Nacional se llevó a cabo una reunión en el Bar del Señor ZABALA, y donde asistieron además el Coronel VALDERRAMA y el Tte. Cnel BECERRA, procedentes del Destacamento acantonado en San Fernando de Apure. En esta reunión se planteó la necesidad de que colaboraran los comerciantes de la localidad para la construcción del Comando de la Guardia Nacional en esa mina; los comerciantes aceptaron hacerlo y negocio a negocio fueron visitados dando un 100 y 200 bolívares cada uno; esta colaboración no fué del agrado de los comerciantes, pero por temor a represalias prefirieron colaborar no pudiendo determinar la cantidad recogida, pero se estiman varios miles de bolívares; con la suma de dinero donada se construyó un galpón de zinc, cercado con alambres de púas que en la actualidad hace las veces de Comando de la Guardia Nacional en "La Salvación".-

Un Mayor de las Fuerzas Aéreas Venezolanas de apellido SEGUIA, se ha hecho en las minas hombre importante en su condición de comerciante. Adquirió junto con otros socios la Línea aérea "ASERCA", piloteando personalmente uno de sus aviones, especificamente el identificado con las siglas: YV-C-ASI-, donde transporta personas y carga, especialmente cerveza traida desde Valencia y Maracay, constituyendose así en el mayor distribuidor de cerveza en la mina; además poséa la única fábrica de hielo que existe en el lugar y una planta para tratamiento del agua, la que igualmente vende en la mina.- Estos negocios estan administrados por un hermano suyo, y que las maquinarias de la compañía que fabrica hielo y potabiliza el agua, distinguida con el nombre de SAFER, fueron trasladadas a la mina en un avión de carga de las Fuerzas Aéreas.-

Esta comisión pudo ver personalmente al Mayor SEGUIA en su función de piloto comercial cobrando a los mineros que transportaba; igualmente la comisión le observó en traje civil, pero según informaron las personas interrogadas, este militar frecuentemente ha sido visto con su uniforme de las Fuerzas Aéreas, por lo que se puede deducír de que actualmente se encuentra activo en nuestras Fuerzas Aéreas.-

De la actuación de los Guardias Nacionales que actualmente se encuentran en "La Salvación" al mando del Cabo CARPIO, no hay acusaciones por atropellos, solamente y eso se pudo notar, toleran el juego y protegen algunos bares que permanecen abiertos hasta pasada dla hora normal. Entse estos bares figura uno donde se practica la prostitución y cuya dueña, de nombre ROSA, se jacta públicamente de ser "la primera dama de La Salvación" por el hecho de ser la amante del Cabo CARPIO.-

En conversación sostenida en un plano amistoso con el Cabo CARPIO, éste manifestó a la comisión que ellos aceptaban regalos en dinero de parte de los mineros por el poco sueldo que devengaban en un lugar como ese donde el costo de la vida es tan elevado.

Esta comisión, luego de hablar con las perso-- que han suministrado algunas de estas informaciones, puedo adelantar que los mismos estarán en condiciones de rendir declaraciones escritas si se les exige, pero hicieron la recomendación de que en ese caso había que hacerlo con suma discreción por temor a futuras represalias.-

Es todo cuanto tenemos que informar al respecto.-

A.- DIAMANTES.- Primera Parte

1 SITUACION EXISTENTE EN VENEZUELA

11 Generalidades

En 1970 la producción diamantífera Venezolana alcanzó 508.661 quilates, siendo esta producción la más alta en la historia de esta actividad en el país. Con relación a 1969 la producción ha triplicado según se desprende de los cuadros anexos de producción.

Esta producción ha sido lograda en su casi totalidad bajo el sistema de libre aprovechamiento, sinónimo de sub-desarrollo en los aspectos técnico, social y económico. En el aspecto técnico el sub-desarrollo se manifiesta en los sistemas rudimentarios de explotación que no permiten el cabal aprovechamiento del yacimiento.

En el aspecto social son de todos conocidas las condiciones infrahumanas en que se desenvuelve la vida del minero, con la falta de servicios elementales, vías de comunicación, falta de seguridad personal imposibilidad de lograr una superación personal a través de una comunidad y familia estables.

En el aspecto económico los circuitos de mercadeo existentes hacen que el minero se encuentre a merced de los compradores organizados a quienes venden su producción en las condiciones que le son fijadas.

Por otra parte hay que señalar que el libre aprovechamiento solo puede ser utilizado donde concurren ciertas condiciones físicas como alta concentración del diamante y agua suficiente para las técnicas primitivas de lavado.

CIFENCE- 4

Con el nivel de producción actual y la riqueza potencial existente se hace necesario efectuar modificaciones en la forma de aprovechamiento, introduciendo técnicas industriales de trabajo.

Igualmente es de señalar que la ley y reglamento actuales de Minas datan del año 1944, cuando la producción diamantífera no alcanzaba ni siquiera el 10% de los niveles actuales. Su modificación es imperativa a efectos de introducir nuevas regulaciones cónsonas con las técnicas existentes inclusive en países menos desarrollados que Venezuela.

No se pretende recomendar la eliminación de la explotación del diamante bajo el sistema de libre aprovechamiento por las implicaciones socio-políticas que esta medida tendría, pero sí complementarla con la utilización de métodos industriales de aprovechamiento enmarcada dentro de una legislación actualizada.

El Ministerio de Minas conoce los pormenores de la explotación bajo el libre aprovechamiento desde hace tiempo, recalcada por los Ings. Francisco Izquierdo y Oleg Andreiev, expertos del MMH, en varias oportunidades.

La actividad diamantífera en Venezuela reviste enorme importancia según puede apreciarse en las cifras siguientes, (sobre datos de 1970):

- Representa el 1,5% de la producción mundial, estimada oficialmente en 46 millones de quilates.

- Utiliza una fuerza de trabajo entre 10.000 y 15.000 mineros. De la cifra anterior es difícil determinar el porcentaje de venezolanos y de Extranjeros indocumentados que trabajan en esta actividad.

- * Aporta a la Nación ingresos fiscalizados de 30.millones de bolivares de los cuales el Gobierno percibe en calidad de impuesto de explotación un 3%.

* El informe [illegible]-Fairbain estima un valor [illegible] para la producción en [illegible] 20.000.000 y un total de 600.000 [illegible] para 197[illegible]

Por información bancaria obtenida extraoficialmente, hemos podido saber que procedentes del exterior fué girado a Ciudad Bolivar una suma cercana a los 70 millones de bolivares destinada a compra de diamantes durante 1970.

- Adoptando una cifra conservadora de 50 millones de bolivares como valor de la producción de diamantes, esto representaría un 10% del aporte que hace el Producto Territorial Bruto el Sector Minero.

- La explotación del diamante determina una serie de inversiones en actividades conexas, altamente remuneradoras por lo general, como por ejemplo las líneas de aviación locales para transporte de mineros como Aerotécnica, Comeravia, Gatic C.A., Tanca, etc.

- Fuente de ingresos para las Municipalidades. El Comercio en el Guaniamo cancela Bs. 15.000 mensuales a la Municipalidad del Distrito Cedeño del Estado Bolivar (sin prestación de servicio alguno hasta la fecha.).

12.- Especificaciones del Diamante venezolano

- Origen

El diamante venezolano proviene de Guayana (Provincia de Roraima y Cuchivero).

Es un diamante de aluvión ó sea que se encuentra en el cauce de los ríos, ó forma en terrazas aluvionales depósitos ubicados a poca profundidad: 3 a 15 metros de acuerdo a la topografía.

En algunas regiones del mundo, los diamantes se encuentran en "chimeneas" ó "pipes"; únicas fuentes primarias de diamantes conocidas- ejemplo: Kimberley (Africa del Sur) - en otras en depósitos aluvionales como en Venezuela ó en las playas del Sur Oeste de Africa; ó en una combinación de ambos - ejemplo : Yakutia, Rusia.

No todas las "chimineas" son productivas y 75% de la producción mundial proviene de aluvión.

La riqueza de los depósitos depende:

- del tenor en diamantes del material extraido
- de la proporción entre los tipos, talla-industrial-bort
- de las características de las piedras (morfológicas y de color)

- Tenor

En Venezuela la cantidad de quilates por tonelada métrica es satisfactoria; para el Guaniamo se puede evaluar en 0,4 - 0,5 quilates por tonelada métrica - cantidad que justifica la permanencia en el sitio del Minero de Libre Aprovechamiento. (1 quilate= 0,2 gramos)

Los valores promedios de los tenores de los yacimientos del grupo De Beers en Africa del Sur son de 0,2 a 0,3 - según se desprende del Informe Anual 1969 de De Beers Consolidated Mines LTD.

COMPARACION ENTRE VENEZUELA Y EL GRUPO DE BEERS EN RELACION CON LA PRESENCIA DE DIAMANTE ENCONTRADO

ACTIVIDAD DIAMANTIFERA DEL GRUPO DE BEERS EN 1.969

Toneladas de material diamantífero extraídas y tratadas = 39 millones

Quilates obtenidos = 9 millones

Costo global = 232 millones de Bs.

Costo por quilate = 26. Bolivares

Tenor del material = 0,23 Qt./Ton.

• Proporción Talla - Industrial - Bort

La linea divisoria entre talla e industrial es a veces arbitraria y no absoluta. Generalmente el diamante propio para la talla se caracteriza así:

- está bien conformado
- es blanco o ligeramente coloreado
- pesa más de 1/20 quilates (10 mg.)

Son comunes en nuestros yacimientos unos diamantes triangulares (equilaterales de 2 a 3 mm de lado?) llamados "panelas" clasificados como industriales pero que pueden aprovecharse para talla.

El bort, oscuro, sirve para hacer polvo de diamante.

De acuerdo a las estadísticas suministradas por el Ministerio; de Minas e Hidrocarburos tenemos que la producción venezolana se distribuye en:

	1969	1970	(Guaniamo)
Talla	61%	25%
Industrial	30%	35%
Bort	9%	40%

Comparado con resultados estadísticos - muy escasos por cierto de otras partes tenemos la siguiente comparación porcentual del diamante de Talla con respecto a la producción total

	Proporción del tipo Talla
Venezuela	25% (aluvión)
Sierra Leone	60% (aluvión)
Wersselton-Kimberley	30% (pipe)
Mir-Rusia	21% (pipe)
Udachnaya-Rusia	12% (pipe)

(Cifras de MMH; Cotty y Wilks, Ingleses; Gnevushev, Bartoshinsky, Zinkov y Sobolev, Rusos).

- Forma

Característica morfológica que define al diamante de talla como un:

- octaedro
- rombo dodecaedro
- cubo
- formas intermedias entre las 3 anteriores

La forma cúbica es la más rara; generalmente en Venezuela hallamos octaedros; muy semejantes a los de Sierra Leone y que aparecen en la hoja - DIAMANTE DE TALLA - DIFERENCIAS MORFOLOGICAS -

Siendo de origen aluvionario se puede apreciar que presentan aristas redondeadas y no nítidas, significativo de un posible arrastre hasta su lugar de extracción.

Los octaedros de "chimeneas" tienen aristas nítidas y perfectas (foto). En la operación de talla, el octaedro es el mas apropiado para la talla americana ó full cut ó corte clásico del brillante.

- Estructura

Característica morfológica que corresponde al modo de cristalización de la piedra, observandose una de las dos particularidades siguientes:

- estrías en las facetas ó
- estratos en el cuerpo de la piedra

Generalmente nuestras pideras presentan estas capas ó estratos, perfectamente observables al microscopio binocular, lo cual puede merecer un cuidado especial en la operación talla.

. Tamaño

Hasta donde sabemos, los diamantes de Venezuela son mayormente pequeños. Examinando un lote al azar en operación de fiscalización Guía No. 00112, observamos la distribución siguiente:

mas de un quilate	24	piedras
menos de un quilate	1951	"
Total	1975	piedras

Las piedras grandes son raras - En 1970 fué descubierta en el Guaniamo una piedra de 57,85 quilates, (adquirida en el sitio por Bs. 65.000 avaluada en 104.000 Bs. por el M.M.H. a los efectos del Impuesto de explotación.)

En esta aspecto el comercio ilícito hace errática toda investigación y solo se dispone tanto en Venezuela como en gran parte de las áreas de producción de datos indicativos relativos al tamaño : por ejemplo en Ghana es frecuente la piedra de más de 2 quilates; en Dutoitspan - Sur Africa, el ritmo de aparición de piedras de 50 a 200 quilates es más frecuente que en cualquier otro sitio (minas controladas por De Beers).

En los placeres aluvionales de playas del sur oeste africano las piedras grandes se encuentran en la desembocadura del río Orange, disminuyendo el tamaño a medida que se aleja uno de la desembocadura (20 piedras/quilate a 200 millas de la desembocadura;explotación en el mar)

. Color

El color es otra característica que se toma en cuenta en la evaluación de la piedra bruta. En la piedra tallada su importancia es menor ya que el valor lo determinan en orden : las proporciones de las facetas, inclusiones, color y peso.

La mayoría de los diamantes son coloreados

Venezuela	Blanco amarillento
Ghana	marrón verdoso muy atractivo
Sur Africa	generalmente verdoso
Premier Mine	marrón ligeramente aceitoso
Mir-Rusia	Blanco
Sierra Leone	blanco verdoso

Conclusión.-

El diamante de talla venezolano en términos generales, es un diamante de aluvión de buen tenor; octaedro bien conformado con estratos; pequeño; blanco amarillento.

¿Como se sitúa nuestro diamante con relación a los demás? (pregunta formulada a negociantes y talladores de New York, Londres, Amberes e Israel)

La respuesta ha sido que no compiten con : Rusia, Africa del Sur Sierra Leone, Africa Central.

Compiten con : Brasil, Guayana, Costa de Marfil y otros.

13.- Comercio del diamante en Venezuela

131.- Legislación:

De acuerdo al artículo 137 del Reglamento de la Ley de Minas, el comercio de oro, diamantes y otras piedras preciosas está permitido solamente a aquellas personas debidamente inscritas en el Ministerio de Minas e Hidrocarburos.

Los comerciantes que tienen formalizada su inscripción ante el Ministerio están en la obligación de suministrar el informe mensual de sus actividades, según lo pautado en el mencionado artículo 137, ordinales 5, 6 y 7.

Al presentar este aspecto legal del comercio estamos repitiendo las frases consagradas que se utilizan para recordar que en Venezuela muchos son los que no cumplen con la Ley.

En el caso del diamante están registrados en el MMH 433 compradores con licencias y como se verá mas adelante las 2/3 partes no cumplen con lo pautado por la Ley.

132.- Circuitos Naciones y nexos con el Exterior

Compradores .-

En base a un fichero de compradores preparado a los efectos de este Estudio se desprende que:

De los 430 compradores con licencia, registrados en el Ministerio de Minas e Hidrocarburos:

* 104 cumplen con la Ley de los cuales :
  41 tienen una actividad permanente en el negocio, dentro del del pais y
  63 tienen una actividad esporádica
* 326 no cumplen con las disposiciones legales vigentes(Artículo 137 del Reglamento de la Ley de Minas)

Grupos.-

La población activa (104) de compradores está distribuída en 4 grupos.

133.- Precios

1331.- Precio del diamante en la mina

Durante nuestra visita a las minas del Guaniamo en Octubre de 1970 hemos presenciando numerosas transacciones comerciales entre mineros y compradores instalados éstos en el caserio El Candado, lugar surgido en medio de la selva a 200 kilómetros al sur-oeste de Ciudad Bolivar con motivo de la "bulla" del Guaniamo.

Los precios practicados por los compradores, que por regla general actuan por cuenta de terceros, son variables y dependen de los factores siguientes:

- Del tipo de diamante

Generalmente se distinguen las categorias siguientes:

. Talla de primera	Bs. 300/qt	hasta 1 qt
. Media talla	Bs. 180 - 200/qt
. Industrial	Bs. 80 - 100/qt
. "reyers" reject	Bs. 50/qt
. Bort	Bs. 10/qt

El numero de clasificaciones puede alcanzar 8 y se observa que la finalidad que se persigue el comprador es de devaluar el lote, mientras que a nivel de fiscalización por el M.M.H. en Ciudad Bolivar el aumento del número de clasificaciones - 11 (once)-tiene por objeto valorizar el lote. No existen pués criterios unificados y sería muy difícil adoptar la misma clasificación ya que al Ministerio llegan lotes reclasificados.

- De las condiciones del mercado

Bajo este concepto podemos enumerar la afluencia de piedras, la experiencia del minero, las instrucciones impartidas desde Ciudad Bolivar, Caracas o el exterior a los compradores.

De las Condiciones de vida del minero

El Minero organizedo en grupo de trabajo, tiene ingresos provenientes de:

- una actividad diaria que rinde Bs 100 a Bs 500 semanales por persona.
- una actividad de envergadura consistente en una explotación a mayor escala donde interviene la remoción de "grunas" o bloques de varias toneladas en una quebrada; la apertura de un "telin" o canal de desvío o corte de meandro; actividad que ocupa generalmente a cuatro o cinco mineros y que rinde por ejemplo Bs 20.000,00 en un mes al grupo de trabajo.

Los gastos de existencia del minero son por otro lado muy elevados debidos a las condiciones mismas del sistema de Libre Aprovechamiento o sea aislamiento, hostilidad del medio, etc.

Podemos ilustrar lo costoso de la vida con los precios siguientes:

- un almuerzo (presa de pollo +arepa)	Bs 10,00
- un fresco	Bs 3,00
- una cerveza	Bs 5,00
- un kilo de cambures	Bs 6,00
- periódico	Bs 2,00
- pasaje en helicóptero para un vuelo de 5 minutos aproximadamente (equivalentes a trayecto caminado en 6 horas)	Bs 100,00

Por lo expuesto podemos ver que el minero necesita un nivel aceptable de ingresos para hacer frente al alto costo de la vida que impone el medio, viéndose obligado en esas condiciones a aceptar los precios que se ofrecen por la producción encontrada.

En conclusión la explotación bajo el sistema de libre aprovechamiento hace difícil la determinación de los costos unitarios de producción, los márgenes de utilidad entre intermediarios y en general toda evaluación racional de tipo económico, incluyendo la producción misma.

1332.- Precios a los efectos de liquidación del Impuesto de Explotación.

La Ley de Minas admite que el impuesto de explotación de 3% en el caso del libre aprovechamiento, sea cancelado por el comprador en caso de que el minero no pudiera hacerlo. La liquidación de esa impuesto tiene lugar en Ciudad Bolívar y es generalmente un mayorista que centraliza los diamantes provenientes de varios compradores el que presenta una solicitud de liquidación según el modelo anexo.

Es de hacer notar que el mayorista selecciona las piedras en base a una clasificación impuesta por la fiscalía y que en ninguna manera corresponde a la clasificación adoptada en el momento de la compra en el sitio de explotación.

En base a la solicitud de liquidación el M.M.H. comprueba el valor declarado y generalmente aumenta dicho valor en un porcentaje muy razonable sobre el lote total: 2 a 5% según su composición - La planilla de liquidación es la que sirve a los efectos de la cancelación en las oficinas del Banco de Venezuela que actúa como receptor de fondos nacionales.

En base a las planillas señaladas apuntamos los precios siguientes en bolívares:

Clasificación MMH	Tipo de diamante	Bolivares
		A	S	C
1.	Talla 1 más de 1 quilate	(300)	320	20
2	menos 1 quilate	(180)	190	10
3	Talla 2 más de 1 quilate	(220)	245	25
4	menos 1 quilate	(110)	115	5
5	Talla 3 más de 1 quilate	(140)	140	0
6	menos 1 quilate	(90)	100	10
7	Talla 4 más de 1 quilate	(100)	100	0
8	Menos 1 quilate	(75)	75
9	Industrial 1	(50)	50	0
10	Industrial 2	(30)	30	0
11	Bort	(10)	10	0

A) Valores a los cuales el comprador dice haber adquirido las piedras de los mineros.

B) Valor fiscalizado.

C) Diferencia imponible a los efectos del Impuesto Sobre La Renta (Utilidad teórica)

1333.-Progresión del nivel de precios.-

Es difícil establecer la ganancia de los intermediarios.

Se puede aceptar una utilidad de 5% por participante - es decir - que desde el minero hasta el mayorista exportador (dos o tres intermediarios) el precio de una piedra aumentaría en un 10 ó 15%, lo que no parece excesivo.

Son excepcionales las variaciones mayores: del estudio del registro de ventas de los compradores que tienen actualizada su situación en la fiscalía del Ministerio de Minas en Ciudad Bolívar, se pudo ver por ejemplo que en Mayo de 1970 el Sr. Ramón Peña vendió al Sr. Visnel Alvarez en Bs. 9.000,oo un lote adquirido en Bs. - 6.800,oo ó sea realizando una ganancia de 30%. Normalmente este margen oscila entre 4 y 7%.

En verdad, a través del circuito se opera una selección de las piedras que trae como consecuencia un aumento en el valor de los lotes.

Esto lo apreciamos en el ejemplo del IVIC - Instituto Venezolano de Investigaciones Científicas - el cual adquiere diamante industrial destinado a la fabricación de las cuchillas de diamante, siendo piedras escogidas.

De cualquier manera, puede apreciarse que los exportadores de diamantes aún haciendo una ligera utilidad de 5% en cada operación, dado que ésta se repite muchas veces a lo largo del año, hacen un alto beneficio, proporcional a la rotación de su capital durante el - período.

14.- Aprovechamiento del Diamante en Venezuela.-

Del total de diamantes producido en Venezuela (en 1970 508.000,oo quilates) es ínfima la parte aprovechada en el País.

En lo que se refiere al diamante de talla existen unos pocos talleres que en pequeña escala trabajan la talla del diamante. Tenemos el ejemplo en Ciudad Bolívar del Taller Caroní, con 5 personas donde se talla aproximadamente 400 quilates por año, según información recabada en el Taller mismo. Existen otros talleres en Puerto Ordaz, Caracas y la Colonia Tovar.

Se ha estimado que actualmente no excede de 2.000,oo quilates por año la talla del diamante en Venezuela.

El Gobierno Regional en el Estado Bolívar está impulsando el establecimiento de una escuela de talla en Ciudad Bolívar, habiendo ordenado ya los equipos necesarios. Esta actividad merece todo el apoyo gubernamental con miras a desarrollar en Venezuela los equipos humanos para que estos puedan competir en el Mercado Internacional al cabo de unos años, una vez adquirida la experiencia necesaria, lograda en otros paises en varias generaciones.

Hay que estar conscientes que la talla del diamante es una actividad altamente especializada y competida en Estados Unidos, Europa e Israel. Por ejemplo en este último país existen 12.000 talladoras que devengan en promedio sueldos mensuales de 900,oo Bs., determinando esto un costo reducido de talla.

En Israel tuvimos la oportunidad de visitar los Talleres Barik que producen mensualmente 5.000 quilates tallados, variando los costos de la talla entre 15,50 $ y 27,60 $ por quilate.

Con respecto al diamante industrial, con excepción del Instituto Venezolano de Investigaciones Científicas, practicamente no existe el aprovechamiento de este tipo de diamante. El IVIC aprovecha aproximadamente 200 quilates al año, como se detalla en ficha anexa.

Ejemplo.- Aprovechamiento del Diamante Industrial.-
Instituto Venezolano de Investigaciones Cientificos.-

El IVIC utiliza el diamante industrial nacional para la fabricación de la cuchillas de diamantes, para cortes ultrafinos, según técnica desarrollada por el Cientifico Venezolano Dr. Humberto Fernández M.

Precio de compra del diamante y circuito del mismo.-

El IVIC aprovecha anualmente 200 quilates de diamantes reseleccionados de tipo industrial, por el cual paga a razón de 80,oo Bs/ quilate.

El circuito de adquisición de estos diamantes es:

Minero ⇨ Comprador de Campo (empleado del mayorista) ⇨ Mayorista de Ciudad Bolívar ⇨ Mayorista Exportador de Caracas ⇨ IVIC

Mercado Externo.-

Con diamantes de buenas dimensiones y peso inferior a 1 quilate el IVIC fabrica las cuchillas para microtomo de primera calidad las cuales factura así:

. Cuchilla de 2 mm. de ancho, más soporte	120,oo dólares
. Cada 0,1 mm. adicionales	20,oo dólares

El quilate de diamante de este tipo ha sido pagado al minero a razón de 50,oo Bs/quilate. (diamante de primera, panelas), según se desprende de las planillas de declaración del mayorista de Ciudad Bolívar, - valor aceptado por el Ministerio de Minas.

Adquiriendo el diamante a 80,oo Bs/Qt. observamos que hay una diferencia de 30,oo B/Qt. que viene siendo la utilidad de los intermediarios esta ganancia no puede considerarse excesiva, máxime tomando en cuenta la selección de la piedra, pero al cabo de un año de negocio de esta naturaleza el intermediario puede llegar a un rendimiento de 200 % sobre su capital dependiendo de la frecuencia con la cual su capital sea rotado.

Ejemplo.- Valorización de la piedra al tallarla.-

Durante el transcurso del estudio se pudieron observar varias operaciones de avalúo efectuadas en el laboratorio de gemología del MMH - Ciudad Bolívar, a petición de compradores interesados en conocer el valor de una sortija personal.

El 15/10/70 se efectuó la experticia de una piedra presentada por el Sr. Splendiani de color amarillento, con un peso de 6,27 quilates (peso estimado con tabla "Weight Calculator" ya que la piedra estaba montada en sortija).

En la operación de avalúo se toman en cuenta por orden de importancia:

1.- Las proporciones de la piedra tallada (lupa y microscopio)

2.- La existencia de inclusiones, carbones y accidentes dentro de la piedra (microscopio)

3.- El color

4.- El peso

La piedra en cuestión fué evaluada en 24.000,oo Bs. (de haber tenido mejor color hubiera podido alcanzar Bs. 120.000,oo)

En la operación de talla el rendimiento es de 50% aproximadamente, o sea que la piedra bruta debió pesar 13 quilates aproximadamente.

El costo de la talla es Bs. 100,oo el quilate o sea que en este caso costó Bs. 1.300,oo

Tomando en cuenta el tamaño y calidad de esta piedra, el valor en el sitio de explotación es de Bs. 10000,oo, como máximo, haciendo notar que según la especificación del MMH en la fiscalización habría sido evaluada en un mínimo de Bs. 4.140,oo.

Puede apreciarse en consecuencia la valorización habida por la piedra en el proceso de talla pasando desde aproximadamente Bs. 12.000,oo - revendida por los intermediarios hasta Bs. 24.000,oo evaluación del gemólogo.

OTRAS RECOMENDACIONES

Las recomendaciones que a continuación hacemos guardan relación directa, aunque no aparente, con el objeto mismo de nuestro estudio y estan destinadas a corregir, completar o reconsiderar algunos aspectos de la actividad diamantífera en Venezuela.

Algunas de las recomendaciones no conciernen directamente al Ministerio de Minas e Hidrocarburos.

Liquidación Impuesto Explotación

Sería recomendable estudiar fórmulas que permitan agilizar los trámites y la propia operación de fiscalización sin restarle su debida importancia.

Se ha pensado que se podría contemplar a partir de un estudio estadístico amplio una liquidación en base al peso de los lotes o sea bolívares por quilate sin entrar a considerar calidades.

En efecto si existen 2.500 calidades de piedras, ¿porque entrar a considerar 8 clasificaciones dentro del diamante de talla?, ademas no es raro que la talla malogre la piedra por cambio de color, rotura etc. quedando el concepto de calidad sin fundamento.

El estudio estadístico sobre un gran número de lotes con distinción de Talla - Industrial-Sort, permitiría establecer 3 valores que equivaldrían al actual 3% percibido sobre el valor del lote ó posiblemente superior al 3%.

Concretamente, suponiendo que el cuadro de producción para el año -- 1970 sea un cuadro standard, observamos lo siguiente (Libre Aprovechamiento).

Talla	131.106,42	qts
Industrial	172.650,77	qts
Sort	204.903,85	qts
Total	508.661,04	qts
Valor para el impuesto	26.217.073,60	Bs.
Impuesto pagado	800.597,42	Bs.

Si se adoptan valores de referencia tales que permitan gravar el producto en la forma siguiente

Talla	5	Bs/qt.
Industrial	1	Bs/qt.
Bort	0,25	Bs/qt.

Obtenemos el cuadro de liquidación siguiente :

Talla	131.106,42	x	5	=	Bs. 655.532,10
Industrial	172.650,77	x	1	=	Bs. 172.650,77
Bort	204.983,80	x	0,25	=	Bs. 51.246,oo
Total Impuesto liquidado					Bs. 879.428,87

Licencias de Compradores

En vista de que las 2/3 partes de los compradores con licencia no cumplen con la Ley, sería conveniente reconsiderar el modo de otorgamiento de dichas licencias.

Ministerio de Hacienda

De acuerdo a la Ley, Artículo 144, las Administraciones de Aduana deben enviar copia de los Manifiestos de Exportación de Diamantes al MMH. Esto no se cumple. El 5 de Junio de 1954 mediante oficio No. 5903 MMH - pidió al Ministerio de Hacienda el cumplimiento de dicho artículo. Sería conveniente reiterar la solicitud.

Control de Lotes de Diamantes en las Aduanas

Parece irrisorio que en las Aduanas de la República no se controle el contenido de las cajitas con diamantes en bruto que se exporten, y - cuando se hace como es el caso en Ciudad Bolívar, se coloque el paquete que puede pesar bruto 100 gramos o menos sobre una balanza TOLEDO, que sirve para pesar bultos de hasta 250 Kilos.

Se recomienda utilizar una balanza adecuada, y lacrar los paquetes para evitar el cambio de su composición.

Disposiciones Arancelarias

Las cifras de importación relativas a piedras preciosas o semi preciosas, recopiladas por la Dirección General de Estadísticas del Ministerio de Fomento son prácticamente inutilizables.

Se debería precisar en el Arancel de Aduanas las preciosas y las semi preciosas; y dentro de las primeras si se trata de brillantes, esmeraldas, rubis, zafiros u otros. El actual Arancel mezcla los varios conceptos.

Recomendaciones de interés industrial

A.- Se recomienda evaluar la riqueza de los materiales ya explotados en los placeres de San Salvador de Paúl, con miras al aprovechamiento industrial del diamante-eventualmente mediante licitación pública-ya que ensayos privados han demostrado la posibilidad de recuperar aproximadamente cien dólares en diamantes por metro cúbico. ?

B.- Se recomienda considerar la posibilidad de aprovechar a mayor escala, la experiencia del IVIC en materia de fabricación de cuchillas de diamante para microtomo; experiencia que a través de doce años le ha válido al IVIC en el exterior un gran prestigio.

As a result he is required to spend between 50 and 75 percent of his time outside of Caracas. While this has made him somewhat less accessible to the Station, he is well placed to obtain advance information with regard to possible plans for urban violence or kidnappings, high on the list of Station priorities. He has contributed to two reports during the period. A change in the Minister of Interior has recently been announced, which could result in changes down to the level of CIFENCE-4, especially should CIFENCE-1 leave his position. *Provided specifics of CIFENCE-4 departure for Miami 1 Dec 71 on CIRASH business. Because of the urgency and the nature of his travel to the U.S., CIFENCE-4 had to travel on a Venezuelan passport. Caracas Station was anxious that INS in Miami not learn of CIFENCE-4's US resident alien status and requested WH/Miami monitor his arrival--which accomplished without incident.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CASE OFFICER

1. This form must be filled in by the case officer or appropriate authority on the basis of the best available information. It is not to be shown to the subject.
2. Normally, headquarters will be unable to issue an approval unless requester furnishes answers to all questions in PRQ parts I and II. However, in an emergency provisional approval may be obtained by complying with the applicable provisions of FR 10-215, paragraphs 6a, 8, 12b and 12d. Thereafter the usual method to document or complete the case must be followed as set forth in FR 10-215.
3. Three (3) completed copies of PRQ part I (including copy in subject's handwriting, if possible) and two (2) completed copies of this form must be sent to headquarters as soon as possible.
4. Data acquired later must be sent to headquarters in PRQ format in two (2) copies.
5. Fill in all items, if information obtainable. If item not applicable write "NA." If additional space required for item, use reverse side of page keyed to appropriate item number.

SECTION II MOTIVATION AND CONTROL

1. ESTIMATE SUBJECT'S MOTIVATION. (Be detailed, if possible cite evidence. Do not use stock comment such as "anti-communist")

See previous PRQ-II. While not now targeted directly against Cuban affairs, Subject undoubtedly continues in the intelligence field as a result of his former experience and the continued communist/totalitarian domination of Cuba. His opposition to such regimes and individuals associated makes for identity of interest and goals with BKTRUST.

2. INDICATE WHAT CONTROL, IF ANY, EXISTS OVER THE SUBJECT. (If no control, or if there is a lack of real control explain.)

Subject's present position and physical presence in Venezuela would be untenable if his cooperation with BKTRUST became known to the Venezuelan government.

SECTION III COVER

1. COVER USED BY SUBJECT AND CASE OFFICER IN THEIR MEETINGS.

Meetings are clandestine. Plausible denial is based on contact with CO in his official cover capacity.

2. COVER USED BY SUBJECT IN OBTAINING HIS INFORMATION AND IN CONTACTING HIS INFORMANTS.

Subject accomplishes this in the course of his actual employment.

3. INDICATE SERVICE FOR WHICH SUBJECT THINKS HE (XXXXXXXX (Is working).

BKTRUST

SECTION IV INTELLIGENCE CONNECTIONS AND TRAINING

1. EXPLAIN SUBJECT'S KNOWN PAST OR PRESENT CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER INTELLIGENCE SERVICE. INDICATE THE EXTENT SUCH CONNECTION IS KNOWN OVERTLY.

Same as in previous PRQ-II. In addition, Subject has been employed in Venezuelan DIGEPOL, and CIRASH.

2. LIST OTHER INDIVIDUALS (Agents, relatives, friends) WHO KNOW OF SUBJECT'S PRESENT INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES.

Wife of CIFENCE-4; AMOTEX-54 (former AMIFF-1)

3. EXPLAIN ANY TRAINING SUBJECT HAS HAD IN CLANDESTINE OPERATIONS.

Subject has had no formal training since being in Venezuela (1967). Records not available here for period when Subject worked for Station WH/MIAMI.

SECTION V COLLABORATION POTENTIAL

1. INDICATE OTHER FOREIGN POWER SUBJECT WOULD BE MOST LIKELY TO COLLABORATE WITH BECAUSE OF HIS IDEOLOGY OR PAST ASSOCIATIONS. EXPLAIN.

Subject would not likely collaborate with any foreign power without permission from LNHARP.

SECRET

1. IF SUBJECT HAS BEEN USED OR CONTACTED BEFORE, INDICATE ACTIVITY IN WHICH HE WAS ENGAGED AND THE TYPE OF INFORMATION HE HAS FURNISHED.

See previous PRQ II for prior use by BKTRUST in Miami. Subject is known to and cooperated with LNERGO at BKTRUST direction while in the Miami area. Subject has also had contact with LNERGO Venezuela in the course of his official duties as a member of CIRASH.

2. INDICATE HOW AND FROM WHOM SUBJECT OBTAINS INFORMATION.

Subject obtains information from CIRASH and its files and informants in the course of his normal work as an official of CIRASH.

3. INDICATE WHAT HAS BEEN TOLD SUBJECT AS TO THE DISPOSITION OF INFORMATION HE FURNISHES.

Subject knows from experience that information is disseminated throughout LNHARP

4. DETAIL SUBJECT'S PROPOSED FI OR CI TYPE USE OR DUTIES.

Subject is a unilateral penetration (FI) of CIRASH.

5. DETAIL SUBJECT'S PROPOSED PP-PM TYPE USE OR DUTIES.

None

SECTION VII — PROPOSED LIAISON OR OPERATIONAL ACTIVITY

1. DETAIL SUBJECT'S PROPOSED LIAISON TYPE CONTACT OR OPERATIONAL USE:

A. WHERE SUBJECT IS AN OFFICIAL MEMBER OF A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT:

Subject is an official of CIRASH. He is not repeat not involved in liaison with BKTRUST.

B. WHERE SUBJECT IS AN OFFICIAL OF ANOTHER AGENCY OF THIS GOVERNMENT:

N/A

SECTION VIII — AGENCY RELATIONSHIP WITH SUBJECT

1. EXPLAIN NATURE OF AGENCY RELATIONSHIP WITH SUBJECT, I.E. TRAINEE, OPPOSITE NUMBER, REMUNERATION, IF ANY, AGENCY PERSONNEL KNOWN TO SUBJECT.

Subject is a paid agent. Se page 1 for Agency personnel known to Subject.

SECTION IX QUALIFICATIONS FOR OTHER OPERATIONS

1. INDICATE SPECIAL ABILITIES, TALENTS, OR QUALIFICATIONS POSSESSED BY SUBJECT WHICH COULD CONCEIVABLY BE OF VALUE FOR OTHER OPERATIONS.

Subject is well trained in PM activities including maritime. He is an expert in weapons, and knows demolitions. He is skilled in police and intelligence ops.

SECTION X COMMITMENTS

1. IF IT IS PROPOSED TO PAY SUBJECT A REGULAR SALARY, INDICATE THE WEEKLY AMOUNT. IF PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN EXCHANGE COMMODITIES, SUBSIDY OR OTHER METHOD, SPECIFY AND GIVE DETAILS.

Subject is paid a regular monthly salary of approximately US$ 335.

2. EXPLAIN ANY PROMISES, OTHERWISE NOT COVERED HEREIN, MADE TO SUBJECT. (Example: Commitments regarding evacuation of subject and family.)

None; Subject has been assisted in retaining his permanent resident status.

SECTION XI CE AND SECURITY

1. INDICATE THE FIELD AGENCIES AND FIELD FILES WITH WHICH SUBJECT'S NAME HAS BEEN CHECKED AND THE RESULTS.

Station files. Derogatory info resolved.

2. INDICATE OTHER INVESTIGATIVE MEASURES TAKEN TO VERIFY BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION FURNISHED BY SUBJECT.

SGSWIRL 3 November 1971. See IRD No. 72501 dated 29 November 1971.

OA 18 October 1965

4. DATE APPROVAL OBTAINED

POA 17 January 1972

5. EVALUATE SUBJECT'S CHARACTER, RELIABILITY AND SECURITY, CITING EVIDENCE WHERE POSSIBLE.

See previous PRQ-II. Subject continues to demonstrate reliability and use of good security precautions. He appears to be of excellent character.

6. EXPLAIN ANY SITUATION OR INDISCRETION IN WHICH SUBJECT MAY HAVE BEEN INVOLVED WHICH MUST BE EVALUATED FROM A CE/OPERATIONAL SECURITY VIEWPOINT.

All known cases have been previously resolved.

SECTION XII SUBJECT'S PERSONAL HABITS

1. USE OF LIQUOR, DRUGS, GAMBLING, PARAMOURS.

Subject moderate in use of liquor; others not known.

SECRET

SECTION XIII — AVOCATIONAL INTERESTS

1. INDICATE SUBJECT'S HOBBIES OR INTEREST IN SPORTS, MUSIC, ETC.

Hunting, fishing

SECTION XIV — GENERAL

1. INDICATE WHETHER SUBJECT'S LANGUAGE ABILITIES AND OTHER CHARACTERISTICS, ARE SUCH AS HE COULD PASS AS A NATIVE OF A COUNTRY OR REGION OTHER THAN HIS OWN. EXPLAIN.

Subject is increasingly able to disguise his FSRUMEN accent and pass as a Venezuelan. Among other latins, the accent would be detected in prolonged contact.

2. INDICATE WHETHER INFORMATION IN PRQ PARTS I AND II WAS OBTAINED BY RESEARCH, CLANDESTINE ASSESSMENT, FILES, CORRESPONDENCE OR OTHER MEANS.

PRQ-I obtained from Subject. PRQ-II from files and personal observation.

3. IF OTHER THAN ROUTINE ACTION IS REQUIRED, IF AND WHEN TERMINATION OF SUBJECT IS EFFECTED, PLEASE EXPLAIN. (Also see para. 43b, supra)

N/A

SECTION XV — EMERGENCY CONDITIONS RECONTACT ARRANGEMENTS

1. GIVE FULL DETAILS I.E. RECOGNITION SIGNALS, S/W: WHERE COULD CONTACT BE MADE: WHAT BONA FIDES COULD INDIVIDUAL MAKING CONTACT USE?

Subject could be contacted by any of former case officers, or in name used by former CO's.

SECRET

HVCA-18640, 19 January 1972

CIFLUTE
July
Operational Report for Period ~~XXXXXXX~~through December 1971

5. CIFENCE-4 has been handled since August 1971 by Edgar B. MARTEGANI. It was decided for security reasons to take this agent out of the group of agents handled by the Station Officer conducting liaison, and CIFENCE-4 is thus handled as a truly unilateral penetration of CIRASH. During the reporting period allegations arose as to affiliation of CIFENCE-4 with JKLANCE. (See WH/Miami 12203 and Caracas 17730). The Station is aware of this situation and the agent is handled accordingly. CIFENCE-4 successfully passed his ump-teenth SGSWIRL examination on 3 October 1971 and the Station's opinion of this individual continues to be favorable. (See HVCW-9612 for SGSWIRL results). As an indication of the continuing high esteem enjoyed by CIFENCE-4 within the GOV, he was chosen by CIFENCE-1 to accompany the present Venezuelan Minister of the Interior on a month long European vacation in September 1971. It is widely acknowledged that the Minister of the Interior is the leading candidate for the COPEI presidential nomination; should this occur and he be elected the next president of Venezuela, CIFENCE-4 should have a valuable friend. In summation, the Station continues to regard CIFENCE-4 as a valuable Station asset who has an excellent reputation within CIRASH and the GOV. He contributed to two intelligence reports during the reporting period, but his value to the Station lies primarily in operational reporting and his status as a unilateral penetration not known to be in contact with JKLANCE in any way.

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Dated

lc

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

Penetration of the Directorate of Intelligence and Prevention in Venezuela.

PART I & II

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

SUBJECT: CIFENCE/4 (201-300985)

1. It is requested that a POA be granted for Subject's use as a penetration of the Directorate for Intelligence and Prevention (DISIP), a Venezuelan Security Service. Since Subject holds a key position in this organization, he will be able to monitor its intelligence operations as well as Venezuelan political matters.

2. All current traces on Subject are non-derogatory. (See attachment to Form 772 for additional information).

3. Request for Approval, COMINT Name Check and PRQ Part I (dated 28 May 68) are attached. Updated PRQ Part I and Part II will be requested from Station.

COMMENTS RE DEROGATORY TRACES
ATTACHMENT TO FORM 772

1. A POA was requested on Subject in January 1968 for his use as a penetration of Venezuelan General Directorate of Police. Cancellation was requested in February 1968 because of indications that Subject was involved in "clandestine sabotage activity and suspicions that Subject failed to report his activities to CIA. Thereafter, Subject was treated as a "hostile". In the ensuing months Subject was described as "an extremely valuable penetration" because of his important and accurate intelligence information and operational reports. Subject was given a polygraph examination to clear up questions about possible affiliation with Cuban intelligence, unreported association with gangster elements, etc. His responses showed no information which would prevent CIA using him for ops purposes. Request for POA was again requested on 7 September 1968. This POA request was turned down on 15 October due to Subject being an "agent of a foreign power."

2. Since that time Subject has continued to provide verbal and written information reports concerning Communist and subversive elements, guerrilla activities, Soviet activities, sabotage, etc. Subject continues to report accurately and often and has a very pro-U.S. attitude. Subject was again polygraphed on 29 November 1971 (a copy of which is contained in Subject's CI/OA folder). His responses indicated no deception concerning truthfulness of reporting to CIA, no compromise of his U.S. Government connections, non-involvement in illegal arms dealings, etc.

FROM : Interrogation Research Division

SUBJECT: CIFENCE/4 IRD# 72501

BACKGROUND:

Subject, CIFENCE/4, is a 49-year-old, male, citizen of IDEN A who has been of continuing interest to JKLANCE since initial contact. He has permanent resident alien status in WOCORK as does his wife. He was last SGSWIRLed on 23 May 1968 with favorable results. Subject claimed that during service with IDEN E and previous service with JKLANCE, he had been SGSWIRLed and estimated the total number of SGSWIRLs he has had at twelve to fifteen.

PROCEDURE:

On 3 November 1971, CIFENCE/4 was given a SGSWIRL at a covert site in IDEN C. Both the English and Spanish languages were utilized in discussing the SGSWIRL and the Case Officer, Edgar B. MARTEGANI, served as interpreter. During the SGSWIRL, the English language was used. The undersigned was introduced as Mr. Bob MOUNT from WOCORK.

PURPOSE:

The SGSWIRL was requested by Edgar B. MARTEGANI to determine whether Subject knows if any member of IDEN D and specifically if IDEN E is aware or suspects his current JKLANCE connections; if he has been requested to work against LNLUTE; if since May 1968 he has been in contact with or heard about IDEN F or IDEN G; if since May 1968 Subject has been involved in illegal arms smuggling. Specific questions utilized during the SGSWIRL are given later in this report.

CONCLUSION:

There were no unresolved reactions indicative of deception. It is the opinion of the undersigned that Subject answered all questions truth-

[illegible]

IRD# 72501
29 November 1971

fully. Apparently Subject is unaware of any compromise of his LNLUTF connections; has been truthful in his reports to JKLANCE; has not been involved in any illegal arms dealings other than smuggling weapons into IDEN A for his personal use and the personal use of other members of IDEN D and related organizations; has not been asked to work against LNLUTF and has received no information from or about IDEN F or IDEN G.

DETAILS:

Subject was co-operative throughout the SGSWIRL and did not hesitate to assist in rephrasing questions and explaining his responses. He seemed open and frank in response to all queries. Subject exhibited a response to the question concerning IDEN F and IDEN G. Discussion of the issue elicited the information that Subject had received some information concerning a son of one of these individuals. He also mentioned that on a trip to IDEN H a few years ago he had spoken by telephone to IDEN I but no mention had been made of IDEN F or IDEN G. Subject also showed a response to the question concerning illegal arms dealing. He explained that when he travelled outside of the country he brought back pistols, rifles, and on one occasion a shotgun. These weapons were for his personal use or were purchased for friends such as IDEN E or members of IDEN D. He stated that the weapons were brought in illegally and that even possession of the rifles (which were for his own use) was illegal. Specific questions concerning these arms dealings were asked. Based on the sessions results, it appears that while Subject has smuggled arms into IDEN A and possesses illegal arms, he has not been involved in smuggling large amounts of arms for personal profit or engaged since May 1968 in smuggling weapons of war into IDEN A.

Specific questions utilized during the SGSWIRL were as follows:

Were you born in IDEN J? Yes

Did you reside in WOCORK? Yes.

Are you concealing the identity of anyone who knows you work for JKLANCE? No

29 November 1971

Does IDEN E know or suspect your present relationship with JKLANCE in IDEN A? No

Does your wife know you work for JKLANCE? Yes

Have you told IDEN K that you worked for JKLANCE? No

Have you ever been to IDEN L? Yes

Do you suspect that the IDEN M is deliberately giving you information to give to JKLANCE? No

Do you live in IDEN C? Yes

Are you employed by the IDEN M? Yes

Since May 1968, have you been involved in illegal arms smuggling? No

Since May 1968, have you had any information about or contact with IDEN F or IDEN G that you are concealing from us? No

Do you have permanent resident alien status in WOCORK? Yes

Has anyone asked you to work against LNLUTE? No

Would you like to go back to IDEN J to live? No

4. CIFENCE-4

CIFENCE-4 continued to be a reliable, steady Station asset who continues to be one of CIFENCE-1's closest and most trusted associates. CIFENCE-1 has a great deal of confidence in CIFENCE-4 and always assigns him the most difficult jobs which he feels none of his other employees can handle. During a great deal of this reporting period, CIFENCE-4 was out of Venezuela on special missions for CIFENCE-1. He travelled to Lima, Peru to send a bomb which would not explode to the home of Perez Jimenez, went to Curacao to conduct a special investigation and spent considerable time on the Colombian border. He contributed to two disseminated intelligence reports dealing with military intelligence about Colombian activities collected by a Venezuelan security service and the reported presence of eleven Venezuelan fishing boats and one warship in Colombian territorial waters. CIFENCE-1 has appointed CIFENCE-4 chief of the division of CIRASH which is responsible for coordinating all of the activities of the CIRASH offices located outside Caracas. Such a position should offer CIFENCE-4 access tovarious types of information and targets of interest to JKLANCE. As was said in the last CIFLUTE operational report, the Station continues tothink very highly of CIFENCE-4 and looks forward to a continuing productive relationship with him.

continued....

3. CIFENCE-4

CIFENCE-4 continued to be a reliable, steady Station asset who enjoys the confidence of and has a very close working relationship with CIFENCE-1. During most of the reporting period, he was in charge of the surveillance of the newly arrived Soviet diplomats and was quick to pass to the Station any information coming into his possession which he felt would be of value to JKLANCE. Because most of his time was devoted to coverage of the Soviets, he was unable to give the Station the large variety and number of reports which in the past has been his custom. The Station continues to think very highly of CIFENCE-4 and looks forward to a continuing productive relationship with him.

4. CIFENCE-4

CIFENCE-4 continues to be a reliable and steady Station asset who enjoys the confidence of and has a very close working relationship with CIFENCE-1. His recent acquisition of Venezuelan citizenship has increased his stature with CIFENCE-1 and among the Venezuelans with whom he works. He continues on his own to provide information coming into his possession which he feels will be of interest to JKLANCE and also continues to pass to the Station numerous reports from CIFENCE and other security-intelligence agencies. His most valuable contribution during this reporting period was the information indicating that a CIFENCE officer had information which could have led to the discovery by CIFENCE of the Station's CIGRAPE operation. CIFENCE-4 was able to convince this officer in a very discreet, innocuous manner that the information was of no value and should not be brought to the attention of CIFENCE-1. The officer was convinced, and no investigation was conducted. In the meantime, the Station completely disbanded the CIGRAPE operation. At each meeting with his Case Officer, CIFENCE-4 is asked if there is anything new in regard to this case and he has replied there are no new developments and feels the issue is a dead one. The Station feels the original information from CIFENCE-4 is the type that really proves the value of a good asset. Interesting documents provided by CIFENCE-4 during this reporting period include a list of all personnel working in Venezuelan diplomatic missions abroad, a CIFENCE report about the investigation of the purchase of arms in Miami by unknown elements in the Venezuelan Ministry of Defense, a package containing several documents from CIFENCE and other sources about Communist activities in Venezuela, a report dealing with possible conspiring against the GOV by Venezuelan military officers, a list of various subversive organizations located in several different countries, a report about the possible presence in Venezuela of Colonel Caamano Deno, a report about the reorganization of CIFENCE, a list identifying automobile license plates used by foreign diplomats in Venezuela, a list of personnel employed by CIRASH, a key to the communications code used by CIRASH, the CIFENCE report about the surveillance of YEBALM during his most recent trip to Caracas and copies of CIFENCE reports about the surveillance of the first two Soviet diplomats now in Caracas. In addition, CIFENCE-4 has conducted name traces and identified automobile license plates for the Station and soon will provide unidentifiable license plates for use by the Station on vehicles rented for surveillance and other operational needs.

CIFENCE-4 is chief of the operations section of CIFENCE and, as such, has responsibility for surveillance of Soviet and Bloc personnel in Venezuela. Through him, the Station has the means of monitoring quite closely the movements and activities of these persons. Also, we are able to direct CIFENCE-4 to conduct special surveillances of Soviet and Bloc person who may not be under surveillance by CIFENCE as a routine procedure. The current position of CIFENCE-4 within CIFENCE is very good and should remain so as long as CIFENCE-1 remains as head of CIFENCE. CIFENCE-4 feels there is a good possiblity that if CIFENCE-1 leaves his present position he (CIFENCE-4) will be removed from CIFENCE. Should this happen, the Station will lose access to an important position within CIFENCE and CIFENCE-4 will lose his principal source of income. CIFENCE-4 has said several times he would like to have a career with JKLANCE and would be willing to work in any country of the world for us. If CIFENCE-4 eventually loses his position within CIFENCE and is unable to obtain another position in Venezuela that would provide access of interest to JKLANCE, Headquarters may wish to consider using him in some other country.

See HVCA 17828, 26 October 70, re CIFENCE belief that CIGRAPE/2 is working for CIA. CIFENCE/4 advised the station of this, and ~~will~~ was told to do what he can to initiate a full-scale CIFENCE investigation of CIGRAPE/2, under his own direction, in order to remove the suspicions. He said it would be hard to do this without attracting undue interest, but he will remain alert to the problem and try to take charge of any investigation that may get under way.

Possible Future Contact with CIFENCE-4

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

REF: HVCA-17611, 14 May 1970

A.R.: Paragraphs 2 and 3 below

1. I appreciate Caracas' offer for possible future contact with CIFENCE-4 in the event of another emergency situation in Trinidad, a possibility which should not be totally ruled out. I was aware that four or five Venezuelan officials had arrived in Port of Spain shortly after the declaration of a state of emergency, but I had no contact with any of these individuals during their stay here.

2. I agree with CIFENCE-4 that it would have been to the station's advantage to have had contact with him during the period of the Regiment mutiny. To this end, I propose the following contact arrangements. When CIFENCE-4 has arrived in Port of Spain and has gotten himself set up, he should call Identity A on Identity B during normal office hours (0800-1700). One hour after telephonic contact has been made with Identity A, CIFENCE-4 will be picked up in Identity C at Identity D. In order to establish bona fides, the case officer will ask of CIFENCE-4 "Are you a friend of Pedro's?". CIFENCE-4 should respond "Yes, and of Tomas also.". Recognition signals having been exchanged and authenticated, I would feel free to ask CIFENCE-4 to keep me informed of developments from his side as they occurred.

3. Please provide a physical description of CIFENCE-4.

SUBJECT: CIFLUTE/CIFENCE - Recent Trip to Trinidad of CIFENCE-4

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: As Stated Herein

1. CIFENCE-4 (IDENTITY under separate cover for Port of Spain), an agent of the Caracas Station, was in Port of Spain during the periods 21 - 22 April 1970 and 24 April - 3 May 1970. CIFENCE-4 said the purpose of his trip was to protect Venezuelans in Trinidad and to collect information about the situation in Trinidad for the Government of Venezuela. He gave the Caracas Station a copy of the report he prepared for the Venezuelan Government about his activities in Trinidad. A copy of this report is being sent under separate cover to Port of Spain for the information of the Station only.

2. CIFENCE-4 said it was too bad he had no contact with JKIANCE while in Trinidad, as he feels he could have provided timely on-the-spot information. If a situation in Trinidad similar to the previous one again arises, CIFENCE-4 feels he may have to return to Trinidad. If this happens, he is willing to have contact with JKIANCE if so desired. The Port of Spain Station is requested to advise the Caracas Station if this contact would be desired and, if so, to send Caracas a contact plan. Upon receipt of this plan, Caracas will advise the name and recognition signal CIFENCE-4 will use. CIFENCE-4 speaks fairly good English, so there should be no language barrier in communicating with him.

operations smoother. Unfortunately, CIHURON-1's men are already planning a rearguard action to make CIFENCE-3's job as difficult as possible. The net result of this switch, however, has been to somewhat increase efficiency of the two services and to materially increase JKLANCE unilateral access to each. For awhile, this reorganization will be beneficial, but—because of the personalities of CIHASH-17 and CIFENCE-1—we do not expect either CIHURON-1 or CIFENCE-3 to indefinitely have smooth sailing.

2. CIFENCE-4

CIFENCE-4 provided verbal and written information reports about various subjects of interest such as activities of Communist and other subversive elements, guerrilla activities, counterfeiting of money and documents, sabotage, information about and activities of Soviets visiting Venezuela, kidnappings of well-known persons in Venezuela, CIFENCE operations and internal problems of CIFENCE. His position in CIFENCE as Chief of Operations provides him access to practically all written reports and documents prepared and received by CIFENCE. His daring as a dedicated agent for JKLANCE has enabled him to provide the Station with copies of several of these reports and documents. During this reporting period he has provided 119 copies of such reports and documents

Some of the more significant requests levied on CIFENCE-4 during this reporting period include the following: 1) assessment for the Station's SB Section of an employee of the Venezuelan Government's Oficina Central de Informaciones (OCI), 2) for the SB and CP Sections of the Station, collection of information about and assessment of a former employee of the local TASS office in Caracas, 3) provision for the SB Section of a list of the names and license plate numbers of the users of all diplomatic automobile license plates in Venezuela, 4) investigation for the Station's CP Section of the robbery of a large sum of money reportedly destined for financing the clandestine manufacture of arms, and 5) for the Station's Case Officer in charge of student operations, collection of information about and assessment of a former Station asset in whom there is a renewed operational interest.

CIFENCE-4's current Case Officer is Gordon K. RIJOCK who meets with CIFENCE-4 in safehouse number 45 which was obtained during this reporting period. When RIJOCK wants to schedule a meeting with CIFENCE-4, RIJOCK's wife who speaks native Spanish with no American accent, telephones CIFENCE-4's home, identifies herself as "Maria" and asks to speak with the true first name of CIFENCE-4. If CIFENCE-4 is at home, RIJOCK's wife tells him she wants to meet with him at a certain time on a certain date at "the usual place" (which means the safehouse) and asks if the time and date are acceptable to him. If CIFENCE-4 says yes, RIJOCK meets with him at the safehouse. If he says no, RIJOCK's wife asks him to set a time and date. If these are acceptable to RIJOCK, the meeting is thereby scheduled and held. If RIJOCK wants CIFENCE-4 to pick him up in his automobile, "Maria" says she wants to meet him at a certain time on a certain date "at the location near my home". If the time and date are acceptable to CIFENCE-4, RIJOCK then walks to a site a few blocks from his home where CIFENCE-4 picks him up in his private automobile. If the time and date are not acceptable to CIFENCE-4, then "Maria" asks CIFENCE-4 to set a new time and date which, if acceptable to RIJOCK, serve as the schedule for the car pickup meeting. If CIFENCE-4 is not home, "Maria" requests that CIFENCE-4 telephone "Maria" as soon as possible. Upon returning to his home and receiving the message, CIFENCE-4 telephones RIJOCK's home from a public telephone, identifies himself as "Raul" and asks to speak to "Roberto". If RIJOCK is home, he and CIFENCE-4 talk directly and arrange a meeting. If RIJOCK is not home, CIFENCE-4 says "Raul" is calling and either he wants "Roberto" to contact him or he will call "Roberto" later. If the message is for "Roberto" to call him, then "Maria" telephones CIFENCE-4's home and follows the procedure described above. (NOTE: RIJOCK's wife makes all telephonic contact with CIFENCE-4's home, to give the impression to anyone monitoring CIFENCE-4's telephone that a native Spanish speaking "girlfriend" of CIFENCE-4 wants to talk with him.

In the event RIJOCK wishes to contact CIFENCE-4 while he is in his office, "Maria" telephones CIFENCE-4's wife, identifies herself as "Maria", says she wishes to speak with the true name of CIFENCE-4 and asks his wife to tell him to call her at a certain time. CIFENCE-4's wife then telephones him in his office and gives him the message from "Maria". If the time is acceptable to CIFENCE-4, he telephones RIJOCK's home from a public telephone and either arranges a meeting schedule with "Maria" (per prior instructions from RIJOCK) or speaks directly with RIJOCK to arrange a meeting. If the time is not acceptable to CIFENCE-4, he gives a new time to his wife who immediately thereafter conveys the new time via telephone to "Maria" who in turn conveys it to RIJOCK. If CIFENCE-4 is not in his office, his wife leaves a message for him to call her as soon as possible. In such a case, his wife advises "Maria" that he is not in his office but when he calls her, she will tell him to call "Maria" as soon as possible. A meeting is scheduled when CIFENCE-4 calls and talks to either "Maria" or RIJOCK. If it is urgent for RIJOCK to talk to CIFENCE-4 as soon as possible, CIFENCE-4's wife tells CIFENCE-4 that "Maria" wants to speak to him as soon as possible. If an emergency situation necessitated immediate contact with CIFENCE-4 in his office and his wife was not available to telephone him, "Maria" would telephone him in his office.

In the event RIJOCK and/or CIFENCE-4 do not want to meet in the safehouse and do not want a car pickup at the site agreed upon, a new site is agreed upon during the course of the telephonic contacts described above. For future use, CIFENCE-4 and RIJOCK will make a list of primary and alternate meeting sites and assign numbers to each site selected. During telephonic contacts to establish meetings, only numbers will be used to designate the location of the meetings.

CIFENCE-4 and RIJOCK will discuss and prepare plans for contact under emergency/contingency conditions and for emergency re-contact. These plans will be forwarded to Headquarters as soon as they have been prepared.

SRAC is not used or contemplated for contacts with CIFENCE-4.

SUBJECT: Luis Clemente POSADA Carriles (A 12 419 708)

1. Reference is made to previous correspondence concerning this case.

2. The Immigration and Naturalization Service, by letter dated 16 April 1970, has granted the benefits of Section 316(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act to cover the subject's absence from the United States from 20 March 1970, to an indefinite period, thereafter, and so long as he remains absent on behalf of the United States Government, with the understanding that he will prove to the satisfaction of the Naturalization Court when he files a Petition for United States Citizenship, five years after entry for permanent residence, that he has been absent during this period for that purpose. The benefits of this Section of the Act also permit subject to count the period of his absence toward both the residence and physical presence requirements for naturalization, provided that, since becoming a permanent resident of the United States and before applying for naturalization, he has completed an uninterrupted period of one year of physical presence in the United States.

3. The letter is being retained in the files of this Office and it is requested you so advise Luis Clemente POSADA Carriles.

* Advised INS/Miami not familiar with "Emergency Venezuelan Passport" and would not consider it acceptable in any event without U.S. visa. Mentioned that it presumed that CIFENCE-4 and family have been out of U.S. longer than one year and therefore will be probably questioned by INS/Miami. WH/Miami has contacted INS Inspector in Miami who will handle case discreetly if complications arise after couple enters U.S.

Reported no problems foreseen when CIFENCE-4 and family enter U.S. and replied to questions from WH/Miami on how couple is to fill out their requests for U.S. reentry permits and CIFENCE-4's request for Preservation of Resident Alien Status.

*Reported WH/Miami checking with local INS re re-entry of CIFENCE-4 and family. Also requested priority reply re how CIFENCE-4 should answer certain questions on applications for re-entry permits and form for preservation of residence.

Advised that CIFENCE-4, wife, and son will arrive Miami 8 March to begin processing for re-entry permits and preservation of residence (CIFENCE-4 only) and that CIFENCE-4 will contact WH/Miami per previous instructions 9 March. Mentioned CIFENCE-4 slightly concerned about possible problem with INS due to family's long absence from U.S.

ALIEN REGISTRATION CARDS (FORM I-151) NORMALLY WOULD BE ONLY DOCUMENT REQUIRED BY INS IF HOLDERS HAD BEEN BACK TO STATES WITHIN PAST YEAR. SINCE CIFENCE-4 AND FAMILY HAVE BEEN OUT LONGER THAN ONE YEAR (WE PRESUME) WITHOUT RETURN TO STATES, PROBABLY WILL BE QUESTIONED BY INS ON ARRIVAL MIAMI AND, SINCE PAPERS NOT CONSIDERED IN ORDER, CASE WILL BE DEFERRED AND CIFENCE-4 GROUP ALLOWED TO LEAVE AIRPORT WITH INSTRUCTIONS REPORT INS HQS MIAMI 9 MARCH TO CLEAR UP PROBLEM. POSSIBLE THAT INS INSPECTOR AT AIRPORT MIGHT NEGLECT TO ASK WHEN LAST IN STATES AND GROUP WILL BE ADMITTED WITH NO DEFERRAL.

FROM: M. Berger, WH/3/V

SUBJECT: Naturalisation of CIFENCE/4's Wife

1. John Rooney of OS/AAS informed the Desk on 19 January 1960 that he had been mistaken when he said that CIFENCE/4's wife could be naturalised two years after C/4 receives his naturalisation. C/4's wife will have to wait three years. It is planned to inform C/4 of this change xxx(and the Station) when C/4 comes to the U.S. to process his application.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Alien Affairs Staff, Office of Security

ATTENTION : Mr. John Rooney

SUBJECT : Luis Clemente POSADA Carriles (201-300985)

REFERENCE : Caracas 4018 (IN 87480) copy attached

1. Caracas Station has requested Headquarters assistance in resolving as quickly as possible a citizenship question concerning Subject. In view of Subject's operational importance to the Station we would appreciate any effort your office could make to obtain a favorable decision in this matter.

2. Subject is an employee of the Directorate for Intelligence and Prevention (DISIP) which is the successor organization to the Directorate General of Police (DIGEPOLO. As the Station Caracas penetration of this organization, Subject holds a key position and is able to monitor intelligence operations conducted by DISIP as well as internal Venezuelan political matters. In this position, Subject is a highly valued asset of the Station. For this reason, the Station desires that his operational position be protected and, at the same time, his future as a U.S. Citizen not be jeopardized.

3. Since Subject actually obtained his own job through a friend in DISIP and made his own travel arrangements, the file does not reflect what type of documentation he has other that an expired reentry permit mentioned in the reference. A biographic data sheet is attached which gives the main points in Subject's background including his U.S. military service.

4. The primary concern at this point is whether accepting Venezuelan citizenship for operational reasons will destroy or jeopardize in any way, Subject's plans to become a U.S.

citizen? It will be appreciated if your office could make a determination on this question as soon as possible, emphasizing to the appropriate authorities our concern for Subject and his operational importance to the U.S. intelligence effort.

James S. Hart

Investigaciones realizadas.

En entrevistas realizadas con el Sr. CONSUL DE VENEZUELA EN MIAMI, Sr. ALBERTO PEREZ PERAZO, me dió a conocer, lo siguiente:

a- Que habia recibido una comunicación por escrito del Sr. CARLOS CRUZ MEJIAS, Encargado de la Dirección Especial de Guayana del Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores, con fecha 15 de Octubre del corriente, donde le comunicaba que el próximo día 20 viajaria a MIAMI el Sr. JAMES S. HART, con el objeto de buscar su licencia de pilóto comercial que se le habia extraviado.
   Adjunto copia de la carta.

b- Que segun noticias recibidas del antiguo CONSUL, un americano llamado HENRY [illegible], le habia informado que JAMES S. HART vendria próximamente a MIAMI con el objetivo de comprar armas a los traficantes clandestinos.

Ese mismo día 20 de Octubre, solicité la cooperación de las Autoridades Federales de la Aduana de MIAMI para que se chequearan los aeropuertos, esperando la llegada de HART.

La solicitud se la hice al Sr. [illegible] S. [illegible], Agente Especial y Encargado de la Oficina de la Aduana en MIAMI, el cual me presto su cooperación, poniendo agentes a vigilar los vuelos de Lineas Aereas que venian de VENEZUELA. Asi mismo sus agentes chequearon los vuelos de aviones privados y los vuelos de aviones de carga. El chequeo permanece activo en los momentos de redactar este informe.

Fué chequeada la FAA (Federal Aviation Agency), Lugar donde HART tendría que renovar su licencia de piloto.

Posteriormente me entrevisté con el Sr. [illegible] DE WITT cuya dirección es 7211 S. Dixie Hy., West Palm Beach, Fla., su teléfono es el 5821595. La entrevista se realizó en el Hotel Columbus en Miami el 21-10-69 a las [illegible].
El Sr. DE WITT me manifestó que él era amigo de un tal HA-RRIS STANLEY que vive en JACKSONVILLE, Fla., el cual había tenido una conversación con HART y había quedado en proyecto la compra de un número indeterminado de armas de guerra.
Segun DE WITT, la compra de dichas armas la realizaría HART alrededor de la segunda quincena de Octubre, por lo cual ellos (STANLEY y DE WITT) lo estaban esperando.
El Sr. DE WITT manifestó que HART, compraría armas y equipos de guerra por una suma superior a $ 1000000 (un millón de dollares) y que él en representación de HARRIS STANLEY estaba dispuesto a vender la información de toda la transacción en un millón de dollares. La información segun DE WITT, consiste en dar los nombres de las personas involucradas en la transacción (algunas viviendo en Miami) y entregar toda la información concerniente a la compra y traslado de las armas.
Como me pareció absurda la solicitud de un millón de dollares por una información le hice observar a DE WITT, primero que no había ningun traficante clandestino de armas capaz de suministrar esa cantidad y segundo que al Gobierno de VENEZUELA, no le interesaba pagar una cantidad semejante por esa información. Quedamos en que en caso que HART volviera por MIAMI o hiciera contactos con él, el me avisaría, llamando al Consul de VENEZUELA en MIAMI y trataríamos de nuevo sobre este asunto.

OBSERVACION

OO---- Es indiscutible que HART haya entrado en comunicación con HART y STANLEY para la compra de armas.

------ Para la compra de cantidades de armas en el mercado clandestino es necesario ver a varios traficantes.

------ Los grandes traficantes de armas en los Estados Unidos se encuentran en New Jersey, N.Y.

CIGUSTY of Rpts for June 1969

AMCLEVE-15 $335.00

Subject provided information on the following subjects: (a) the GOV "pacification program" and the MIR's reactions to same, (b) the investigative activities and the inner workings of the CIVISTA group, (c) the GOV security plans for the Rockefeller visit and the GOV reasons for cancelling the visit, (d) GOV military coup plans, (e) student riots in Merida and the GOV activities to counter same. All of this information became part of Station intelligence disseminations.

CIGUSTY of Rpts for May 1967

AMCLEVE-15 $335.00

Subject provided detailed information on the GOV guerrilla "pacification" program which became the basis of an intelligence dissemination on the subject. He continues to keep the Station abreast of all CIVISTA activities together with CIVISTA-5's personal feelings regarding his liaison with the Station. AMCLEVE-15 is now chief of CIVISTA's investigative group; as such, it is expected that he will provide an excellent source of information on coup planning within the military.

AMCLEVE-15/Foreign Language Outline

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. The attached outline was taken from a confessed guerrilla, recently arrested by CIRASH in the city of Barquisimeto, Venezuela. When interrogated by AMCLEVE-15 and others, the arrestee said he did not know where the outline came from; what language it was in; and, in fact, said it did not belong to him.

2. Various Station officers and assets have studied the outline, and the consensus of opinion is that it is probably Turkish or a middle-eastern language.

3. It is requested that Headquarters contact the appropriate offices in an attempt to ascertain what language the outline is written in, together with a translation of its contents. Although Station personnel contacted felt it unlikely, the possibility exists that the outline is in code.

DISPATCH

From : HVCA-15811, 18 Sept 68 75-6-41/3

Subject: CIGUSTY Operational Reporting for Aug 68

AMCLEVE-15 $490.00

Subject continues to provide information of value on the CIRASH-4 and CIVISTA-5 organizations.

13 September 1968

MEMORANDUM FOR: CI/OPS

SUBJECT : AMCLEVE-15 (201-300985)

1. Subject, a Cuban now living in Caracas, Venezuela, is a Station Caracas penetration of the Venezuelan General Directorate of Police and of the Special Group, a smaller, somewhat autonomous unit within DIGEPOL. A POA was requested on Subject on 25 January 1968, to use Subject as stated above. On 1 February 1968, WH/3/V requested cancellation of the POA request because of indications that Subject was involved in clandestine sabotage activity and there were suspicions that he had failed to report his activities to CIA or DIGEPOL. Station Caracas was directed to handle Subject as a "hostile." The Station was advised that they could maintain contact with Subject as a source of information on activities of DIGEPOL and the Special Group but that no requirements were to be levied on him. The Station was advised that they could make spot payments for information received from Subject. CI/OPS co-ordinated on these directions to Station Caracas.

2. The Station acknowledged their instructions but demurred on Headquarters' interpretation of AMCLEVE-15's activities. The Station stated, in effect, that assets are often unsavory individuals, who are never under complete control and who seldom disclose the complete range of their activities to their supervisors. The Station added that they were interested in Subject because of his position as a "trusted confidant" of certain highly placed Venezuelan security officials.

3. In the ensuing months the Station came to describe Subject as "an extremely valuable penetration" because of the intelligence information and operational reports he furnished. For example, he reported on the involvement of the Venezuelan military in a Cuban exile plan to attack Cuba. And, he also reported on a plan of Cuban exiles to ship arms from Venezuela as part of an infiltration scheme. He has reported such operational information as a description of the capabilities, layout and equipment of DIGEPOL telephone tap operations. Included in this information was his report that at least on paper, the U.S. Embassy was a target for tap operations. He has also reported on the personalities and workings of the organizations with which he is associated. At the same time the Station had an independent report that Subject was involved in a scheme to obtain "curare poison for approximately forty hypodermic needles." To avoid exposing the source of their information the Station did not query AMCLEVE-15 about the matter. The Station said that they disapproved of his involvement in wild Cuban exile schemes but that Headquarters restrictions in February 1968 prevented the Station from discussing this involvement with him.

4. In May 1968, the Station informed Headquarters that they believed that Subject was collaborating fully with CIA and, further, they believed that he would not expose, inform, or work against CIA. They added that Subject was still capable of engaging in independent Cuban exile activity without informing his Case Officer. The Station also requested a polygraph examination for Subject.

5. Subject was given a polygraph examination to resolve specifically his bona fides, possible affiliation with Cuban Intelligence through relatives, unreported association with gangster elements, thefts from CIA and other questions involving possible derogatory information on Subject. Subject's responses, described as substantially truthful by the examiners, appear to contain no information which would prevent CIA's operational use of Subject. On only one question, that involving Subject's association with an alleged racketeer, Lefty Rosenthal, did sensitivity persist. The examiner commented, "...In fairness to Subject this sensitivity is believed generated by genuine uncertainty over the amount of Para military items which he had been instrumental in getting for Rosenthal from Cuban exile arms supplies."

6. Station Caracas has requested that they be allowed to cease treating AMCLEVE-15 as a "hostile" and that the restrictions cited in Paragraph one, above, be lifted to permit more effective utilization of this well-placed penetration agent. WH Division concurs in this request. CI/OPS concurrence is requested in authorizing full operational use of AMCLEVE-15 as a penetration agent into the Venezuelan General Directorate of Police (DIGEPOL) and as a penetration of Remberto UZCATEGUI's Special Group within DIGEPOL.

MEMORANDUM FOR: CI/OA

SUBJECT : AMCLEVE-15 (201-300985)

1. Subject, a Cuban now living in Caracas, Venezuela, is a Station Caracas penetration of the Venezuelan General Directorate of Police and of the Special Group, a smaller, somewhat autonomous unit within DIGEPOL. A POA was requested on Subject on 25 January 1968, to use Subject as stated above. On 1 February 1967, WH/3/V requested cancellation of the POA request because of indications that Subject was involved in clandestine sabotage activity and there were suspicions that he had failed to report his activities to CIA or DIGEPOL. Station Caracas was directed to handle Subject as a "hostile". The Station was advised that they could maintain contact with Subject as a source of information on activities of DIGEPOL and the Special Group but that no requirements were to be levied on him. The Station was advised that they could make spot payments for information received from Subject. CI/OPS co-ordinated on these directions to Station Caracas.

2. The Station acknowledged their instructions but demurred on Headquarters' interpretation of AMCLEVE-15's activities. The Station stated, in effect, that assets are often unsavory individuals, who are never under complete control and who seldom disclose the complete range of their activities to their supervisors. The Station added that they were interested in Subject because of his position as a "trusted confidant" of certain highly placed Venezuelan security officials.

3. In the ensuing months the Station came to describe Subject as "an extremely valuable penetration" because of the intelligence information and operational reports he furnished. For example, he reported on the involvement of the Venezuelan military in a Cuban exile plan to attack Cuba. And, he also reported on a plan of Cuban exiles to ship arms from Venezuela as part of an infiltration scheme. He has reported such operational information as a description of the capabilities, layout and equipment of DIGEPOL telephone tap operations. Included in this information was his report that at least on paper, the U.S. Embassy was a target for tap operations. He has also reported on the personalities and workings of the organizations with which he is associated. At the same time the Station had an independent report that Subject was involved in a scheme to obtain "curare poison for approximately forty hypodermic needles". To avoid exposing the source of their information the Station did not query AMCLEVE-15 about the matter. The Station said that they disapproved of his involvement in wild Cuban exile schemes but that Headquarters restrictions in February 1968 prevented the Station from discussing this involvement with him.

4. In May 1968, the Station informed Headquarters that they believed that Subject was collaborating fully with CIA and, further, they believed that he would not expose, inform, or work against CIA. They added that Subject was still capable of engaging in independent Cuban exile activity without informing his Case Officer. The Station also requested a polygraph examination for Subject.

5. Subject was given a polygraph examination to resolve specifically his bona fides, possible affiliation with Cuban Intelligence through relatives, unreported association with gangster elements, thefts from WOFIRM and other questions involving possible derogatory information on Subject. Subject's responses, described as substantially truthful by the examiners, appear to contain no information which would prevent CIA's operational use of Subject. On only one question, that involving Subject's association with an alleged racketeer,Lefty Rosenthal, did sensitivity persist. The examiner commented, "...In fairness to Subject this sensitivity is believed generated by genuine uncertainty over the amount of Para military items which he had been instrumental in getting for Rosenthal from Cuban exile arms supplies "

6. Station Caracas has requested that they be allowed to cease treating AMCLEVE-15 as a "hostile" and that he be processed for POA/OA to permit more effective utilization of this well placed penetration agent.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. Attached are four copies of Subject's MOC.

2. As the Desk is aware, the last word from Headquarters was that AMCLEVE-15 was to be treated as a "hostile" and that full clearance was being withheld pending his SGSWIRL. He has now been SGSWIRLed, and to the Station's knowledge, the test was favorable although an official Headquarters report has not been received. A PRQ Part I was submitted on Subject on 29 May 1968. Therefore, it would be appreciated if the Desk would contact the appropriate Headquarters officials and advise the Station of AMCLEVE-15's official status. We assume that he will be fully cleared and that a POA will be issued followed by an OA after the Station submits PRQ Part II.

3. Headquarters recently inquired as to Station thoughts on including AMCLEVE-15 in the CIFLUTE Project rather than making AMCLEVE a separate project. The Station is completely in accord with this idea although it will probably necessitate funds being shifted from CIGUSTY to CIFLUTE. However, a separate dispatch will be prepared on this subject.

4. The Station realizes that AMCLEVE-15's clearance has been a thorny problem to the Desk and hopes that we can now clear it up once and for all.

SE ACABO LA VIDA PRIVADA

Por: ROMULO RODRIGUEZ
Fotos ANGEL QUINTERO

Momento 13-19 Sept

EL SEÑOR POSADA, director de una compañia de investigaciones, muestra a MOMENTO los pequeños micrófonos utilizados para espionaje y contraespionaje.

Otra de las facetas de la investigación y seguridad, es el espionaje y contraespionaje de empresas y compañías, o bien para instalar sistemas internos o para llevarle los secretos a la competencia.

NO es nada nuevo hoy en dia que una compañia pueda estar vigilada totalmente. Desde el control de sus hilos telefonicos, hasta microfonos escondidos en las salas de conferencias, o en las oficinas de sus principales ejecutivos: tampoco es raro que un señor tome fotos allí mismo con una camara escondida en un maletin, o que a esa empresa le graben conversaciones desde una distancia de 25 metros. Tal es el caso del espionaje industrial o contraespionaje industrial. Investigadores privados intervienen, infiltran gente dentro de una compañia, con el fin de obtener datos secretos y llevarselos a la competencia. O puede ser tambien que los investigadores penetren a la propia compañia para impedir que salgan datos se instala entonces un sistema de seguridad interno.

Y cuando nos referimos a estos hechos no estamos hablando de paises capitalistas foraneos de gran desarrollo industrial, sino a esta tierra tropical y subdesarrollada. En Venezuela muchisimas compañias prestan estos servicios. Una de ellas es la que dirige el señor Luis Posada en una empresa que funciona desde el año 74 "Investigaciones Comerciales e Industriales" (ICI), se basa en la experiencia de su Director Gerente, el señor Posada, quien cuenta con 16 años dedicados a estas actividades de investigacion, repartidos en la policia de Norteamerica, en la DISIP y ahora en funciones privadas.

Conservando el acento de su tierra de origen, Cuba, Posada converso con MOMENTO.

—Nosotros no tratamos investigaciones de adulterio, ni cosas por el estilo. Nuestra funcion no es para los abogados, que son los que se enriquecen con ello. La compañia se dedica a las empresas de seguros, comercios e industrias. El 90% se enfila a robos cometidos en las industrias, cuya culpabilidad se da casi siempre en los propios empleados de estas empresas. También se investigan homicidios e incendios.

—¿Y qué hacen para casos de espionaje industrial?

—Tenemos dos tipos de operaciones: Ofensiva y defensiva. En las primeras se hace espionaje, y en la otra contrariamente es para defenderse de ello. Un sospechoso deshonesto puede ser fotografiado cuando hace una entrevista con alguien de la competencia. Puede ser precisado y neutralizado un directivo que se fue de la empresa y se está llevando al personal. Podemos tambien hacer vigilancia a los ejecutivos: desde las personas con quienes almuerza hasta que hace por la noche.

Refiere que uno de los más modernos equipos que tienen es un detector de mentiras, a base de un test, que permite con una cinta grabada de la voz, determinar si el examinado miente o no.

—¿Ha dado resultado este detector?

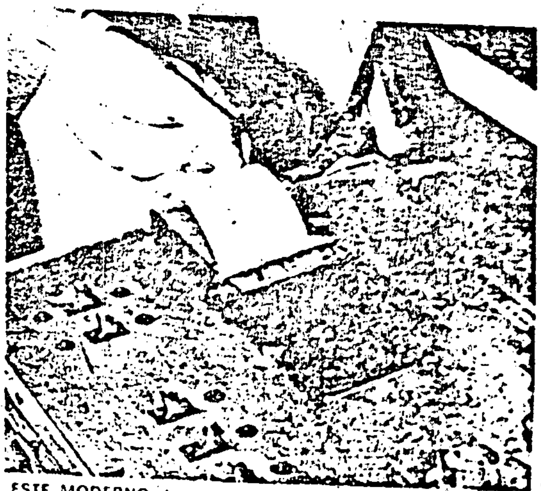
—Con el aparato descubrimos un desfalco de 200 mil bolivares habido en una empresa, donde grabamos a mas de 50 empleados.

Nos muestra unos grabadores minimos, casi invisibles, que funcionan con baterias que duran ocho dias, o utilizables tambien con corriente directa. Un pequeño equipo de telefonia, intercepta telefonos a sólo tres cuadras de la casa vigilada, sin intervención de la DISIP ni otros cuerpos policiales.

—Tambien hacemos "barridas", esto significa que nosotros localizamos y neutralizamos microfonos que se hayan instalado previamente, cuando en un sitio va a haber una reunión importante y secreta. Es un caso de contraespionaje. Grabamos conversaciones desde una distancia de 35 metros. Desde un maletin podemos hacer fotografias a personas o edificaciones: tambien desde una cartera de mujer.

Expresa que en las oficinas que tienen en Caracas y Valencia cuentan con un personal femenino de siete mujeres. Tambien poseen un archivo, donde fichan los casos que han investigado y otros datos. Afirma Posada que no realizan investigaciones politicas.

Tal como se ve la vida privada, dejo de serlo.



ESTE MODERNO detector de mentiras, permite saber a traves de una grabacion, si el examinado dice la verdad o no.

SHOTGUN/RIFLE CONTACTS?

1. ON 3 SEPTEMBER 1976, US CITIZEN SERGIO DIEGUEZ CALLED THE MIAMI FIELD OFFICE AND REQUESTED TO MEET WITH A SPANISH-SPEAKING REPRESENTATIVE. WE MET WITH DIEGUEZ ON 9 SEPTEMBER 1976. HE TOLD US THAT RECENTLY, WHILE IN VENENZUELA, HE MET WITH LUIS (POSADA) CARRILES, A VENEZUELAN CITIZEN OF CUBAN ORIGIN. HE TOLD US THAT POSADA, ALLEGEDLY A FORMER AGENCY ASSET, HAD REQUESTED ASSISTANCE IN OFFERING FOR A PRICE POSADA'S SERVICES TO BKHERALD. DIEGUEZ SAID THAT POSADA HAS CLOSE CONTACT WITH HIGH RANKING VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND COULD PROVIDE BKHERALD WITH VALUABLE INFORMATION.

2. DIEGUEZ SHOWED US A COPY OF A LENGTHY DOCUMENT GIVEN TO HIM BY POSADA SPECIFICALLY FOR OUR PERUSAL AS EVIDENCE OF THE TYPE OF INFORMATION TO WHICH HE HAS ACCESS. THIS DOCUMENT CONSISTED OF A LIST OF CUBAN EMBASSY OFFICIALS IN CARACAS, BIOGRAPHICAL DATA AND ADDRESSES FOR THESE INDIVIDUALS, AND VARIOUS SUNDRY INFORMATION ON JAMAICA, GUYANA, PANAMA, AND ANGOLA. WE DID NOT ACCEPT THE DOCUMENT FOR TRANSMITTAL TO HEADQUARTERS BECAUSE IN OUR JUDGEMENT, TO HAVE DONE SO MIGHT HAVE IMPLIED AN AGREEMENT ON OUR PART TO PROVIDE FINANCIAL REMUNERATION AT SOME FUTURE DATE.

3. DIEGUEZ ALSO SAID THAT DURING THE ADMINISTRATION OF FORMER PRESIDENT RAFAEL (CALDERA), POSADA WAS A FAIRLY HIGH RANKING OFFICER IN THE DIRECTORATE OF SERVICES OF INTELLIGENCE AND PREVENTION (DISIP). HE WAS DISMISSED FROM THIS POSITION WHEN CARLOS ANDRES (PEREZ) BECAME PRESIDENT. DIEGUEZ SAID THAT AS A DISIP OFFICIAL POSADA WAS INSTRUMENTAL IN THE ELIMINATION OF GUERRILLA OPERATIONS AND STRONGHOLDS. AT THAT TIME, POSADA WAS KNOWN AS ''COMISARIO BASILIO''.

4. DIEGUEZ SAID THAT POSADA, CURRENTLY A PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR, IN VENEZUELA, LIVES AT CALLE VALENCIA, QUINTA MARIANINA, LAS PALMAS, CARACAS. HIS OFFICE TELEPHONE NUMBERS ARE 743232 AND 742057. DIEGUEZ ALSO SAID THAT IF BKHERALD IS INTERESTED IN OBTAINING POSADA'S SERVICE CONTACT SHOULD BE INITIATED THROUGH HIM (DIEGUEZ) AND NOT DIRECTLY TO POSADA FOR ''SECURITY REASONS''. HOWEVER, IF NECESSARY POSADA CAN TRAVEL TO THE US.

5. DIEGUEZ WAS TOLD THAT HIS REQUEST IN BEHALF OF POSADA WOULD BE FORWARDED THROUGH THE APPROPRIATE CHANNELS AND THAT WE COULD NOT PROMISE ANY POSITIVE RESULTS. - END -

1. SUGGEST YOU COUNSEL WKSCARLET-3 THAT IF NEITHER HE NOR HIS WIFE HAVE ENTERED THE U.S. WITHIN THE PERIOD WHEN THEIR ALIEN RE-ENTRY PERMITS WERE VALID, AND IF THEY DESIRE TO RETAIN THEIR STATUS AS PERMANENT-RESIDENT ALIENS (PRA), THEY MUST MAKE APPLICATIONS FOR RETURNING RESIDENT VISAS WITH THE CARACAS CONSULATE. THERE IS NO GUARANTEE THAT THE VISAS WILL BE ISSUED, SINCE ALTHOUGH THERE IS NO QUOTA NUMBER INVOLVED, THE PROCESSING IS THE SAME AS ANY OTHER IMMIGRANT VISA, WITH THE CONSULAR OFFICER HAVING THE SOLE AUTHORITY TO MAKE THE DETERMINATION AS TO ELIGIBILITY. IF THEY APPLY SOLELY FOR A TOURIST VISA IN THEIR VENEZUELAN PASSPORT, THEY COULD LOSE THEIR PRA STATUS, SINCE APPLYING FOR A TOURIST VISA IS PRIMA FACIA EVIDENCE OF [redacted] ABANDONMENT OF PRA STATUS. IF THEY OBTAIN RETURNING RESIDENT VISAS, THEY SHOULD BE ADVISED TO OBTAIN NEW RE-ENTRY PERMITS WHILE IN U.S. Y

LIAISON AWARE OF BOSCH BOMBING BACKGROUND AND THEIR INTEREST IN HIM INCREASED AS RESULT SERIES LOCAL BOMBINGS AND IMMINENT VISIT OF SECRETARY KISSINGER. THROUGH THEIR INFORMANTS THEY LEARNED THAT BOSCH GETTING SUPPORT LOCALLY (HOUSING, ETC); THAT HE USING NAME CONRADO CORTEZ OR CORTES,HRND, IN EARLY FEBRUARY, THAT HE KNOWN TO BE USING A CHILEAN PASSPORT IN ANOTHER NAME. IN LATE JANUARY THEY PINPOINTED NEIGHBORHOOD IN WHICH HE WAS LIVING AND BEGAN INTENSIVE SEARCH (THEY ALSO HAD REPORTS OF HIS PRESENCE IN DOWNTOWN AREA). THROUGH POSTAL AUTHORITIES AND OTHER LOCAL SOURCES THEY PINPOINTED THE EXACT LOCATION OF HIS HOUSE IN JARDINES DE CASCAJAL AND ARRESTED HIM (THIS DONE BEFORE SAN JOSE STATION WAS ADVISED BY W-3 VIA BUENOS AIRES AS TO HIS EXACT LOCATION). 1. ORLANDO BOSCH AVILA WAS SUBJECT OF INTEREST TO FBI IN EARLY 1975. ITINERANT FBI REP FROM MEXICO CITY (CAMAROTA) MENTIONED NAME TO STATION AND IT IS BELIEVED HE DID SAME TO LOCAL SERVICE (HUFABRIC), AND MAY HAVE LEFT SOMETHING IN WRITING WITH THEM. BOSCH NAME ALSO MENTIONED TO STATION BY LOCAL DEA REP BUT IT NOW DETERMINED THIS WAS BASICALLY ON FBI BEHALF.

2. ON OCCASION OF COSTA RICAN PRESIDENT DANIEL ODUBER'S MEETING AT HIS RANCH WITH CENTRAL AMERICAN PRESIDENTS ON 10 JULY 1975, ITINERANT FBI REP MEXICO CITY CALLED STATION TO WARN COSTA RICANS OF AN UNLEGED CLANDESTINE INFILTRATION OF BOSCH ON PACIFIC COAST TO DISRUPT THAT MEETING. HUGLIB-3, WHO HAD SECURITY FOR THAT MEETING, CHECKED OUT INFO TO NO AVAIL. THIS INFO WAS SUBSECUENTLY PASSED TO STATION BY HOS AND EMBASSY (WHICH RECEIVED IT VIA COSTA RICAN EMBASSY, WASHINGTON).

1. Based on a reconciliation of WKSCARLET/3's 1971, 1972, 1973 and 1974 Federal income tax returns, it has been determined that he has an excessive tolerance (underpayment of tax) in the amount of $512.00 for 1971, $549.00 for 1972, $769.00 for 1973 and $425.00 for 1974. Attached, under separate cover, is a sealed envelope containing copies of each reconciliation which have not been classified so that they may be handcarried to him for review. If security permits, this envelope should be opened only by WKSCARLET/3. The Station is requested to treat these documents as classified and they should be destroyed or retained in a sealed envelope by the Station.

2. The $1,860.47 due WKSCARLET/3 per Paragraph 2 of Reference C should have been reduced by $349.25 (per Paragraph 1 of Reference A) representing underpayment of 1969 and 1970 taxes. Attached is Headquarters T/A # CC-0140 in the amount of $1,511.22, representing the 1971 tax due of $512.00, 1972 tax due of $549.00 and a portion of the 1973 tax due of $450.22. The collection of these taxes will liquidate the final payment due WKSCARLET/3. The balance of tax due must be paid by WKSCARLET/3.

3. Please advise WKSCARLET/3 to mail his personal check in the amount of $743.78 to the accommodation address forwarded by Reference D. This amount represents the remaining portion of the 1973 taxes due of $318.78 that were not liquidated by his final payment and the 1974 taxes due of $425.00. The check should be made payable to himself without endorsement on the reverse. Also, please advise WKSCARLET/3 that the cashier's check for $147.00 and his original 1971 through 1974 tax returns were mailed to the IRS Philadelphia Office on 30 June 1975.

The following information on WKSCARLET-3 was contained in the above referenced telepouch:

CONFRONTED WITH EVIDENCE THAT LNFALL PERSONNEL WERE IN FACT BEING FOLLOWED, WKTANGO-1 SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHO WOULD BE CONDUCTING THE SURVEILLANCE BUT SUSPECTED IT MIGHT BE THE PRIVATE SECURITY SERVICE BEING OPERATED BY WKSCARLET-3. HE COULD OFFER NO MOTIVE BUT ALLEGED THAT WKSCARLET-3 WAS RECEIVING HUGE SUMS OF MONEY FROM AN UNKNOWN SOURCE TO FINANCE AN ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE OPERATION ON THE BULGARIAN EMBASSY, SURVEIL CUBAN EMBASSY PERSONNEL AND THAT WKSCARLET-3 WAS ALSO ACQUIRING DATA ON INDIAN EMBASSY PERSONNEL. (IN FEBRUARY 1976 STATION ASKED WKSCARLET-3 FOR ALL WKSCARLET MATERIAL ON INDIAN EMBASSY. RESULTING "STUDY" PREPARED BY WKSCARLET WAS PASSED UNILATERALLY TO STATION AND OFFICIALLY TO WKNORTH. WE SUSPECT THAT EXTENT WKSCARLET-3 ACQUISITION OF DATA ON INDIANS LIMITED TO HIS POSSESSION OF THIS STUDY.) WKTANGO-1 WAS UNABLE TO OFFER ANY LOGICAL EXPLANATION FOR SUCH A WIDE RANGE OF INTERESTS ON THE PART OF WKSCARLET-3 SPONSOR. HE DID SEEM SINCERE IN HIS DENIAL THAT WKNOBLE-24 WAS RUNNING ANY SURVEILLANCE ON LNFALL PERSONNEL, AND ON 12 MAY CONTACTED THE STATION TO ADVISE THAT HE HAD REPORTED THE SURVEILLANCE TO THE PRESIDENT WHO HAD ORDERED AN IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION. PROOF OF GOV INTEREST IN WKSCARLET-3 ACTIVITIES WAS OBTAINED BY THE STATION CO-INCIDENTALLY WITH THESE DEVELOPMENTS; AMONG THE WKBLEAK TAPES OBTAINED FROM WKNORTH DURING THE LAST WEEK OF APRIL WAS ONE MISLABLED TAPE WHICH THE STATION WAS ABLE TO IDENTIFY AS THE PRODUCT OF A TAP ON WKSCARLET-3's INVESTIGATIVE SERVICE.

4. IT STATION OPINION POSSIBILITY EXISTS SIMON REPORT COULD BE CUBAN PLANT BECAUSE ITS CONCLUSIONS COINCIDE WITH CUBAN THEREMS USED ON HYGRUFF-1 TO INDUCE HIM TO MOVE AGAINST ROBRENO. SIMON'S CONVLUSIONS ARE:

A. CIA WILL INCREASE USE OF CUBAN EXILES AS KEY FACTOR TO PERPETUATE STATUS OF CANAL ZONE AND ZONITES BY RESORTING TO TERRORISM (AGAINST PANAMANIANS);

B. THE UNITED STATES WILL BE RELUCTANT TO "CEDE" JURISDICATION OVER CANAL ZONAK/AFTER THEIR DEFEAT IN VIETNAM;

C. AN ATTEMPT AGAINST TORRIJOS' LIFE WOULD CHANGE ENTIRE PIORAMA;

D. ATTEMPT ON TORRIJOS LIFE COULD BE MADE BY CUBAN EXILES BECAUSE MANY ARE AVAILABLE, WILLING AND ABLE TO TRY IT. REPORT MENTIONS BY NAME MERINO, MELO, ROBRENO, LUIS CLEMENTE POSADA, RICARDO PEDRAZA AND FNU MERUELOS AS LIKELY CANDIDATES. RPORT IDENTIFIES POSADA AS CIA AGENT IN VENEZUELA AND PEDRAZA IN HONDURAS. DISPATCH

30 January 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: Alien Affairs Officer,
OPS/LSN

SUBJECT : Luis Clemente POSADA Carriles

1. On 30 June 1974 Luis Clemente POSADA's employment with the Agency was terminated by mutual consent. At that time he was establishing a private investigative agency from which he expected to earn his livelihood. The Immigration and Naturalization Service file on POSADA, therefore, may now be decontrolled. As of 27 January 1975, POSADA is still located in Caracas, Venezuela.

2. On 12 June 1974 Caracas Station advised that POSADA had been informed of and fully understands the effect that termination of his Agency employment will have upon his resident alien status and eligibility for U.S. citizenship. We have not yet received termination records on POSADA, probably because the Station is still meeting with him regarding settlement of his outstanding U.S. tax liabilities.

HE HAS NEVER PAID U.S. TAXES ON HIS BKHERALD SALARY, AND NOT FILED FORM 10-40 IN PAST TWO YEARS. STATION WOULD APPRECIATE READING ON WKSCARLET-3'S TAX SITUATION. EVALUATION

(4) WKSCARLET-3. WKSCARLET-3 was granted a POA effective 17 January 1972 and an OA effective 17 July 1972. He was first brought to the attention of the Station by WH/Miami. It is difficult to tell from our files exactly when contact was initiated, but as early as 1965, Subject was being used by BKHERALD. WKSCARLET-3 is currently in the process of establishing a private investigative company in Caracas. From January through March 1974, when the new government took over and WKSCARLET-3 was asked to leave his job, he was the Chief of Gov Div of Security of WKSCARLET, and reported on all aspects, operations, etc. of that unit. He is now in the process of being terminated, effective 30 June 1974, by his case officer, BACHHUBER, due to his lack of access and high profile. WKSCARLET-3 currently receives compensation in the amount of Bs2,000 per month. Subject was last successfully given an SGSWIRL on 8 May 1973. Since March 1974, his profile has been relatively high. There have been two articles in the local press naming him as a BKHERALD agent. Since those two articles, none have appeared; however, he has several high powered personal enemies in the current government and could come under political attack at any time. The Station does not feel that WKSCARLET-3 presents or will present a security threat. He has been well treated during his long relationship with BKHERALD which he realizes and is thankful for. Meetings to carry out the termination are being conducted with strict regard for security. A safehouse used for part of the period (S/H 45) and costing about $950, was terminated in March 1974. The only special commitment with WKSCARLET-3 is a termination payment of Bs6,000.

1. IN COURSE OF TERMINATING UKSCARLET-3, STATION SHOULD MAKE CERTAIN THAT HE UNDERSTANDS EFFECT TERMINATION MAY HAVE ON HIS RESIDENT ALIEN STATUS AND ELIGIBILITY FOR NATURALIZATION AS U.S. CITIZEN. PLS ADVISE UKSCARLET-3 THAT UPON TERMINATION OF HIS EMPLOYMENT BY AGENCY, HIS PRESERVATION OF RESIDENCE WHILE ABROAD IS SIMULTANEOUSLY TERMINATED. IN ORDER TO RETAIN HIS CURRENT ELIGIBILITY FOR NATURALIZATION, HE MUST RETURN TO U.S. BEFORE ELAPSE OF ONE YEAR FROM DATE OF EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION TO AVOID A BREAK IN CONTINUITY OF HIS RESIDENCEU REQUIREMENT. SHOULD BREAK IN CONTINUITY OF RESIDENCE OCCUR, SUBJECT WILL START A NEW PERIOD WITH 364 DAYS, AND HE WOULD THEN BE ELIGIBILE FOR NATURALIZATION FOUR YEARS AND ONE DAY FROM DATE OF RETURN TO U.S., PROVIDED ALL OTHER BASIC REQUIREMENTS ARE MET. HE SHOULD CLEARLY UNDERSTAND THAT REENTRY PERMIT DOES NOT [illegible] PROTECT CONTINUITY OF HIS RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT.Y

2. WITH RESPECT TO UKSCARLET-3'S WIFE, IT IS MORE DIFFICULT TO GIVE A FIRM POSITION AS TO WHEN SHE WILL BE ELIGIBLE FOR NATURALIZATION. SHE DID NOT HAVE A PRESERVATION OF RESIDENCE WHILE ABROAD, SINCE SHE WAS NOT ELIGIBLE FOR THIS BENEFIT, AND OUR FILES DO NOT REFLECT ANY VISITS TO U.S. BETWEEN MAY 70 AND APRIL 74. COUNTING FROM HER LAST VISIT TO U.S. IN APRIL 74, SHE SHOULD BE ELIGIBLE FOR NATURALIZATION IN APRIL 78 IF SHE RETURNS TO U.S. BEFORE ONE YEAR HAS ELAPSED. THIS COULD BE SOONER IF HER HUSBAND WERE TO BE NATURALIZED IMMEDIATELY UPON THEIR RETURN, AS SHE WOULD ONLY HAVE TO WAIT THREE YEARS INSTEDAD OF FOUR.

3. SUBJECTS SHOULD ALSO BE ADVISED THAT THEY NOW HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR KEEPING THEIR REENTRY PERMITS CURRENT. MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Alien Affairs Staff
Office of Security

SUBJECT : Request for New Reentry Permits for Luis C. Posada Carriles and Nieves Elina Gonzalez de Posada

1. It is requested that new reentry permits be obtained for Luis C. Posada Carriles and his wife, Nieves Elina de Posada, whose previous reentry permits expired on 20 April 1974. Attached are completed Forms I-131, "Application for Issuance or Extension of Permit to Reenter the United States," for Mr. Posada and his wife, together with two photographs of each and a check for $20.00 payable to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

2. As you know, when Mr. and Mrs. Posada visited Miami in April 1974, just prior to the expiration date of their old permits, they were permitted to retain the expiring permits for use in reentering Venezuela. It is understood that the expired permits are to be pouched to Headquarters for delivery to I&NS as soon as the new permits have been delivered to Mr. and Mrs. Posada.

7. WKSCARLET-3 -- WKSCARLET-3 is being met on a weekly basis in a safehouse. While his access remains unchanged, his reporting has dropped off during this reporting period due mostly to the fact that his energies are being directed against guerrillas and since the capture of Gabriel Puertas and Carlos Betancourt, the WKSCARLETs have had little success in this field. WKSCARLET-3's division is currently working against Gordo Mansania, Solo Suarez, Tito Herrera, and Elias Eljury. During the period he produced no disseminations, however, information reported by him was used for one field comment.

Since he also successfully passed his SGSWIRL, and satisfied the Station in a debriefing that he was not trafficking in narcotics, the WKNUGGET coverage of WKSCARLET-3 was discontinued.

14. As Headquarters is already aware, WKSCARLET-3 passed his SGSWIRL with flying colors on 8 May. Based on the SGSWIRL and his earlier debriefing concerning his alleged involvement in narcotics, it seems that WKSCARLET-3 was only guilty of having the wrong kind of friends. LNAGON Caracas was advised on 15 May regarding our conclusions based upon the debriefing and SGSWIRL of WKSCARLET-3. LNAGON Caracas agreed with our conclusions and now regards the case as being closed. WKSCARLET-3 agreed, and we so advised LNAGON, that WKSCARLET-3 would help out with narcotics leads he might come across. We told LNAGON that such assistance would only be on an ad hoc basis subject to our other priorities as well as WKSCARLET-3's security.

29 June 1973

FROM : Interrogation Research Division

SUBJECT: WKSCARLET/3 - IDENTITY A
201-300985

BACKGROUND:

Subject of this report is a KMSTONE born citizen of IDEN B who has permanent resident alien status in WODUAL. Subject was granted a renewed OA on 17 July 1972 and he was last SGSWIRLed on 3 November 1971 with favorable results. Subject estimated that he has been SGSWIRLed approximately ten times by BKHERALD and two or three additional times by the WODUAL Army.

PURPOSE AND PROCEDURE:

On 8 May 1973, in IDEN C, Subject was again SGSWIRLed at the request of his Case Officer, Gabriel J. LABRENZ. The session was conducted in order to determine if Subject has ever been involved in the illegal drug traffic as alleged by a LNAGON source and also whether Subject knows anyone involved in the illegal drug business. Subject has a good command of the English language and the entire session was conducted in English. All of the test questions were coordinated with LABRENZ in advance and he remained in an adjoining room within hearing range. This examiner was introduced to Subject as Bill JOHNSON from WODUAL.

RESULTS:

No indications of deception.

SGSWIRL results supported Subject in his contentions as follows:

1. that, excluding what he told us (See DETAILS), he has not used drugs for non-medicinal reasons.
2. that, excluding IDEN D, he is not acquainted with anyone who he knows is involved in the illegal drug traffic. (See DETAILS for those he "suspects.")

E 2 IMPDET CL BY [illegible]

SECRET

3. that, excluding what he told us (See DETAILS), he has never received money or been involved in the sale, purchase, or smuggling of drugs.

4. that, excluding what he told us (See DETAILS), he has never been asked to participate in the illegal drug traffic.

DETAILS:

During the pre-test discussion, Subject stated that he personally has smoked marijuana on three or four occasions and he has sniffed cocaine on approximately five occasions in the past ten years. Subject asserted that on each occasion, he was attending social gatherings with KMSTONE friends and he felt socially compelled to indulge in order to please the other participants. He estimated that he knows approximately thirty-five people who use cocaine or marijuana. Subject asserted that his last use of cocaine was last month when he visited WODUAL. SGSWIRL supported Subject's claim that his personal use of drugs has not been more extensive.

During the pre-test discussion, Subject asserted that he was not acquainted with anyone who he knew for certain was involved in drug trafficking. Subject did list the following IDENS when asked if he knew anyone who he "suspected" was involved in trafficking drugs: IDENS D, E, F, G, H and I. Subject asserted that his suspicions were based on rumor and these people have never talked to him about illegal drugs. After recording reactions to the test question, "Are you concealing the identity of anyone who you know is involved in the sale or smuggling of drugs?" (Ans. No), Subject acknowledged that his concern for the question was due to the fact that he more than merely "suspected" IDEN D was involved and he was "90% certain."

During the pre-test discussion, Subject stated that in 1954 or 1955, while in KMSTONE, he and a friend sold a non-dangerous drug to a buyer who believed it to be cocaine. Subject asserted that he made $25.00 from this transaction. Also, while in KMSTONE at the same time, Subject stated that a friend, IDEN J, asked him if he wished to participate in the smuggling of cocaine out of Peru. Subject advised that he declined the offer. As previously noted, SGSWIRL results supported Subject's contentions that his involvement with dangerous drugs has not been more extensive.

A SENIOR VENEZUELAN MILITARY OFFICER WHO IS A LEADING ARMY COMMANDING OFFICER. HE IS A FAIRLY RELIABLE SOURCE. THE FOLLOWING IS HIS PERSONAL ASSESSMENT.

1. ALTHOUGH THE VENEZUELAN MILITARY IS CONCERNED ABOUT THE CURRENT WIDELY PUBLICIZED SCANDAL OVER ALLEGED BRIBING OF VENEZUELAN POLITICAL PARTIES AND PARTY LEADERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE CONTRACT FOR VOTING MACHINES FOR THE DECEMBER 1973 ELECTION, NO ACTION OF ANY KIND IS CONTEMPLATED IN THIS CONNECTION. THE EXPOSE IS LOOKED UPON BY THE MILITARY AS JUST ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF HOW THE POLITICIANS HAVE FAILED THE PEOPLE. WHILE

MOST MILITARY OFFICERS DO NOT DOUBT THAT BRIBES WERE INVOLVED, AND POSSIBLY TO A GREATER EXTENT THAN AS YET ANNOUNCED. FEW THINK THAT THE GOVERNING SOCIAL CHRISTIAN (COPEI) PARTY IS IMPLICATED BECAUSE IT OPPOSED THE PURCHASE OF THE MACHINES. THERE IS EXTENSIVE MILITARY COMPLAINING ABOUT AND DISCUSSION OF THE SCANDAL BUT THIS IS CONFINED TO CONVERSATIONS WITH FELLOW OFFICERS, FRIENDS AND ACQUAINTANCES. IN GENERAL, THE MILITARY BELIEVES THE VOTING MACHINE CONTROVERSY IS OUTSIDE ITS PROVINCE AND CONCERN, AND THERE IS NO INCLINATION TOWARD MILITARY INTERFERENCE. (FIELD COMMENT: CARACAS EMBASSY TELEGRAM 3155 OF 12 APRIL GIVES FULL BACKGROUND ON THE VOTING MACHINE CONTROVERSY. INDEPENDENT SOURCES OF UNDETERMINED RELIABILITY HAVE REPORTED THAT BOTH COPEI AND THE MAJOR OPPOSITION DEMOCRATIC ACTION (AD) PARTY ARE WORRIED ABOUT MILITARY REACTION TO THE SCANDAL.)

RECOGNIZE PROBLEM OF PERHAPS PROVOKING VIOLENT REACTION BY APPLYING TOO MUCH PRESSURE BUT IF WE DON'T USE THIS THREAT, BELIEVE WE WOULD HAVE WEAK HAND INDEED. HISTORY OF VOTING MACHINE ISSUE RECOUNTED

Caracas Radio Continente Network in Spanish 0300 GMT 11 Apr 73 P

[Text] The president of the Supreme Electoral Council, Luis A. Pietri, has denied the charges made regarding the collection of commissions on the sale of voting machines. Just as this station has reported, Pietri has ordered a thorough investigation in order to establish responsibilities. The announcement was made by Pietri during a press conference held tonight at the headquarters of the Supreme Council. Speaking for himself, Pietri said that he would have filed suit against those implicated in the commissions deal. He said that he would have started the suit if he had known which persons were involved in the affair.

The statement made by Antonio Espinoza Prieto regarding a supposed reduction in the contract for the purchase of the voting machines is completely false, said the comptroller general, Manuel Vicente Ledesma. The report was published in local newspapers. According to the papers Antonio Espinoza Prieto said that Mr Dixon, former president of the Automatic Voting Machines [AVM] Company, had come to Venezuela to negotiate a reduction in the price of the contract. [Words indistinct] Prieto said that the reduction was in the nature of $3,050,000, but the comptroller general of the republic denied the information because his office never had any knowledge of Prieto's assertion.

The affairs of the collection of commissions on the purchase of voting machines has turned into a real scandal. It will be recalled that the proposal to purchase the voting machines in the first place was a sensation. On that occasion the representatives of the various parties represented in the Supreme Electoral Council were divided. The opposition insisted that machines had to be used in the next elections because the laws specified this. The Social Christian Party [COPEI], the Democratic National Front [FND] and an independent party were opposed to the purchase because it meant a disbursement of millions of bolivares. Subsequently the matter was submitted to a vote and the opposition parties won.

Contacts were begun with the machine supplier and more disagreements arose. The opposition wanted to purchase the machines from AVM, while COPEI and FND wanted to purchase them from another company. The opposition won again because it was in the majority and it was decided that AVM would supply the machines. The U.S. representatives arrived: the owners, the salesmen, and the commission agents of the company. The contract was drafted and it specified that Venezuela could not pay more than 1 percent of the total transaction in commissions. The transaction was for 180 million bolivares.

At this stage a ghost appeared to pursue the AVM in the United States in the form of the Election Systems Company, which sued the AVM, alleging that the AVM negotiated directly in Venezuela without going through the Elections Systems Company. The latter demanded its commission and last week won the suit. This is how the scandal broke: The AVM said that it could not pay commissions to the Election Systems Company because these commissions had been paid directly to Venezuelan politicians. The AVM defended itself and its representatives said at the trial what they had to say, which is precisely what Pedro Segnini La Cruz told the papers today. The People's Electoral Movement [MPE] was accused of having received $40 per machine which, multiplied by 10,000, amounts to $400,000, or 1.8 million bolivares.

MILITARY COURT QUESTIONS BLANCO PARTY LEADER

Paris AFP in Spanish 1453 GMT 11 Apr 73 C--FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

[Excerpts] Montevideo, 11 Apr--Reliable sources today reported that the military court has asked Blanco Party national leader Omar Murdoch for information about a declaration issued 2 weeks ago in which the Blanco Party strongly criticized President Bordaberry and the military authorities.

The military court is trying to establish whether the Blanco Party leader committee a violation of military regulations. It also asked Murdoch whether he concurred with the terms of the Blanco Party declaration.

It was reported that the alleged violation concerned the military regulation which prevents retired officers from participating in or formulating political declarations during the 4 years following their retirement.

According to reliable sources, Murdoch--a retired navy captain--will be brought before the military tribunal if the violation is confirmed.

The military court's action agitated the political atmosphere and the Blanco Party leaders will meet this evening to discuss the situation. A Blanco Party member expressed the opinion that instead of looking into the political attitudes of retired officers, the military court should try those military men on active duty who have in effect formed a political party.

It was revealed in parliamentary circles that opposition legislators will demand in parliament that the defense minister explain the true motives which led to the proceedings initiated by the military court.

ARGENTINE AUTHOR RELEASED FROM URUGUAYAN PRISON

Paris AFP in Spanish 1445 GMT 11 Apr 73 C--FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

[Text] Montevideo, 11 Apr--Argentine writer and journalist Eduardo Galeano was released yesterday by a military court after a 1-week detention. Galeano himself confirmed his release today and said that he was in perfect health and that he had been well-treated during his detention.

He was arrested at Carrasco Airport on his return from a visit to several Latin American countries. Galeano, who has been living in Uruguay for a long time, is a journalist of the leftist weekly MARCHA and was recently appointed director of the Argentine review CRISIS.

The reason for his arrest is unknown. Several circles not only in Uruguay and Argentina but also in several Latin American countries protested the arrest of the author of the book "The Opened Veins of Latin America."

In addition, the representative of the MSP, Antonio Espinoza Prieto, received 450,000 bolivares. The same arrangement was made for the Democratic Republican Union [URD] and Omar Rumbos, another one of the representatives of the opposition on the Supreme Electoral Council. Rumbos and his party received similar amounts to those received by the MPS and Espinoza Prieto. Democratic Action [AD], which was also accused, was supposed to receive more than the others, that is, 2,115,000 bolivares. The distribution also included several lawyers, one Mr (Hans), and others named Eduardo Blanco and Leoni.

According to the same document released by Segnini La Cruz today, the AVM representative said that he unknowingly signed a commission invoice for $305 per machine. This means there is a $2 commission per machine, the recipient of which the AVM representative said he did not know. As spokesmen for public opinion, we are obliged to inform the Venezuelan people about the content of Segnini La Cruz' document. In the meantime, it is up to those involved to explain the scandal of the collection of commissions for the purchase of the voting machines.

The comptroller's office has never had any information to the effect that the former president of the AVM came to Venezuela to negotiate a reduction in price. Manuel Vicente Ledesma made the explanation in connection with a report published in the local newspapers and attributed to Antonio Espinoza Prieto. Prieto said that Mr Dixon had come to Venezuela to reduce the selling price of the voting machines by $3,050,000. From another quarter, Ledesma said that the tools and supplies which will be used to manufacture the machines will remain in Venezuela. In addition, the country will take possession of the voting machines in a domestic port and not abroad.

FNTA POSTS--The Social Christian Party has obtained seven posts and the Democratic Action Party has won two on the executive board of the National Federation of Agricultural and Livestock Workers [FNTA]. FNTA held its convention in Barquisimeto with the participation of 135 delegates from approximately 19 labor unions. [Caracas EL NACIONAL in Spanish 5 Apr 73 p C-14 P]

GUERRILLA LEADER CABANAS CLAIMS KIDNAPING ROLE

Paris AFP in Spanish 0443 GMT 11 Apr 73 C--FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

[Text] Acapulco, 10 Apr--Lucio Cabanas, top guerrilla leader of the country, appears as signatory of a press communique in which he claims responsibility for kidnaping a rich cattle breeder, Franciso Sanchez Lopez, on 7 March in Texpan, Guerrero State.

The document was published today, Tuesday, by the newspapers LA VERDAD and EL GRAFICO issued in Acapulco with a picture of five masked men in uniforms and with Mexican Army guns surrounding someone who seems to be Sanchez Lopez.

Lucio Cabanas added to his alleged signature the title of head of the executing peasant brigade of the Poor People's Party, in the name of which he accused Mexican society of being capitalist and of exploiting the people and said, that for this reason, this society must be eliminated.

He added that the kidnaped cattle breeder, of whom nobody has heard since his disappearance, is a bourgois who exploits the people whose land he has seized by means of usury and unlawful maneuvers.

He called the government a bloody murderer of peasants and stated that, for this reason, the executing brigade applies the law of retaliation in kind and justly retaliates by means of executions and kidnapings as well as bank and company holdups. After urging peasants and students to join the movement, Lucio Cabanas said, in conclusion: Our basic method is that of arms.

OPPOSITION PARTY LEADER CHARGES POLICE PERSECUTION

Paris AFP in Spanish 1055 GMT 11 Apr 73 C--FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

[Text] Mexico City, 11 Apr--Jose de Jesus Martinez Gil, head of the local branch of the National Action Party (PAN--rightist opposition party), said Tuesday that PAN propaganda distributors are being persecuted by the police. According to Martinez Gil, the police in one electoral district removed and destroyed the propaganda printed by the opposition party and threatened to arrest those who were distributing the propaganda.

Martinez Gil added that in other areas of the city the police arrested several PAN militants when they--using loudspeakers--were asking the people to vote for the PAN. Elections will be held in the country in July to choose all members of the Chamber of Deputies of the National Congress.

BRIEFS

NEW NAVAL COMMANDER--Mexico City, 5 Apr--The Navy Department's recently promulgated organic law has designated Cmdr Enrique Baltanas Hope chief of the four naval zones on the Pacific Coast. The new official will be in charge of the Guaymas, Mazatlan, Salina Cruz and Acapulco naval commands with headquarters in the port of Acapulco. A similar command has been established for the Gulf of Mexico with headquarters in the port of Veracruz but its commander has not been named. Baltanas, who was commander of the Tampico naval zone on the Atlantic Coast, has stated that with the establishment of the new post it will be possible for the first time to provide real protection for the country's maritime resources. SUBJECT
O PLMHABYSS/Forwarding of BNDD Documents Regarding Luis POSADA

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Reference: CARACAS-21539

1. Forwarded herewith are two BNDD ROIs and one telegram regarding Luis POSADA. The first ROI prepared by S/A Jose Marin and dated 6 February 1973 is based on a debriefing of a BNDD source who identifies POSADA aka "Bambi" as being a source of supply for narcotics in Venezuela. The CI also claims that POSADA, along with Jose Gomez and Humberto TRUEVA, have been involved in other illegal activity such as dealing in stolen merchandise, counterfeit money, and contraband.

2. The other ROI, prepared by S/A Charles R. Schaming and dated 13 March 1973, concerns a debriefing of a source who does not believe that POSADA is involved in narcotics.

3. The third document is BNDD Headquarters telegram 1846 of 23 March 1973 (repeated from Miami BNDD) concerning the debriefing of Jose GOMEZ, the BNDD CI who went sour. GOMEZ' debriefing adds little and in the opinion of the Station and BNDD Caracas, GOMEZ is either lying and/or not telling the whole truth. GOMEZ lists a number of names of persons he claims to have met while in Caracas which we do not consider worth a follow up except that of Colonel Freddie BALBOA. BALBOA may possibly be the unidentified police/security official so frequently seen with GOMEZ et al.

1. STATION HAS COPY BNDD MIAMI DEBRIEFING OF JOSE GOMEZ (# NO RECORD IN C/S) AS SUMMARIZED IN BNDD HQS TELEGRAM 1846 OF 23 MAR 73. GOMEZ ADMITTED MEETING LUIS POSADA IN CARACAS ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS BUT DENIES DISCUSSING NARCOTICS WITH POSADA OR ANYONE ELSE. SAID POSADA DISCUSSED IMPORTING RAWHIDE SKING TO US FOR LEATOER PRODUCTS. BOTH STATION AND BNDD CARACAS OF OPINION THAT GOMEZ NOT TELLING TRUTH. THEREFORE GOMEZ DEBRIEFING ADDS LITTLE FOR OUR PLANNED CONFRONTATION. POUCHING TELEGRAM.

1. LEAD FROM BOGOTA BNDD SUGGESTS POSSIBLE IDENTIFICATION ANOTHER MEMBER HUMBERTO TRUEVA, JOSE GOMEZ, LUIS POSADA GROUP. ACCORDING BNDD BOGOTA TELEGRAM 2397 OF 26 MARCH, US FUGITIVE RALPH SERRANO TELEPHONED HOTEL CLUB AMERICANA (71-44-11) IN CARACAS FROM BARRANQUILLA, COLOMBIA, DURING APPROXIMATE PERIOD 15FEB-27 FEB 73. SERRANO WAS IN BARRANQUILLA DURING AFOREMENTIONED PERIOD AT RESIDENCE WHOSE PHONE NUMBER IS 44910. SERRANO ALSO CALLED 32-24-50 IN CARACAS; 634-9532 IN MIAMI, AND 42-20-22 AND 77-48-72 IN MEDELLIN.

2. COMMENT: INTERESTING ASPECT HOTEL CLUB AMERICANA CALL IS THAT TRUEVA AND GOMEZ WERE STAYING AT HOTEL AT TIME CALL MADE. CAN

THEREFORE SPECULATE SERRANO WAS CALLING TRUEVA/GOMEZ. SERRANO IS DOCUMENTED TRAFFICKER WHO WAS LAST KNOWN BY STATION TO BE DEALING FROM MONTREAL. SERRANO KNOWN TO BE ASSOCIATED WITH ROLANDO LUCAS GONZALEZ NUNEZ AND EUGENIO LEAL POZO. ALTHOUGH LATTER TWO DISLIKE SERRANO. IN MAY 72 BNDD SPECULATED THAT PHONE CALLS BY SERRANO FROM MONTREAL TO CARACAS INDICATED NARCOTICS DEAL WITH GONZALEZ. WE ALSO AWARE TRUEVA TRAVELED TO COLOMBIA AFTER DEPARTING CARACAS. WHICH LENDS FURTHER WEIGHT HYPOTHESIS OF LINK TO SERRANO.

On 1 August 1966 Luis POSADA began employment with RECE, a Cuban exile organization located in Miami. He is a salaried employee of RECE (and is also being paid by 24 WOFACT to report on the activities of RECE.) For security reasons, POSADA can no longer claim (Tri-State Engineering 24 Service) as his place of employment. Therefore, it is requested that his resignation from (Tri-State Engineering 24 Service) be recorded and made effective 31 July 1966.

I made an application for buy a house at 6?46 S.W and 29 St. I made my application thorugh Roso Realty that is located at 6345 Coral Wy. I have to pay $ 100 down by the VA plan or $ 300 down by FHA plan and a monthly payment of $ 75.00 . I have to use my cover 29 of (Tri State) for my credit references. I fill my aplication and put in there that I was working for this Company for two years, that my salary was $ 120 a week, and that my position in this Company is like an electronic technician. Would you please advise them of all this matter in order that when they will receibe the papers from VA or FHA fill them the right way ?

I can not use RECE for the application of this credit because an exile group corporation is no good for this kind of credit references. As I told you I am not going to use (Tri State) 29 any more but it is an exeption.

COVER notified, they will handle. EI 20 September 1966

PROVISIONAL OPERATIONAL APPROVAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief,
WH/SA/IOS - W. ULLERY

NUMBER

SUBJECT
PICO Ramon, Reinaldo

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Dated
2 June 1964

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when the investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by that [illegible] division ceases.

MEMORANDUM FOR: CI/OA

VIA: WH/COG

WH/3/V

SUBJECT: AMICE/31 (201-284658)

1. It is requested that responsibility for AMICE/31 be transferred from WH/COG to CA/B4, and that his OA be amended for a one-time reporting mission on the 20 - 24 October 1969 Quito meeting of the Council of the Latin American Confederation of Christian Trade Unions.

2. Caracas is being asked for unilateral traces and for determination as to whether AMICE/31's present employer, the Office of the Coordinator for Economic Affairs in Caracas, is an organ of the Venezuelan government or of the United Nations.

Memo for the Record

Talked to Tom Dollar (x1498), CA/4, and John Sears (x1255), WH/COG, re this case 25 & 24 Sept 1969. CA/4 had prepared dispatch to Caracas which opened by stating OA valid for travel and op use planned. (This op use detailed in the 15 Sept '69 dispatch to Caracas in file.)

~~It Ais~~ The CI/OA file on Subj showed, however, that WH/COG had OA for use in labor activities in Miami. Per the telephone call to John Sears (above ~~[illegible]~~), it developed that WH/COG no longer had any op interest in Subj. ~~Per~~ In the telephone conversation with Tom Dollar, he had talked with me earlier re Subj and had asked ~~if~~ the equivalent of whether or not CA/B4 could ride piggyback on WH/COG's clearance and levy requirements through WH/COG. My answer had been yes, if WH/COG agreed. This was the basis for the statement in the ~~dis~~ proposed dispatch to Caracas that Subj's OA was valid.

Per a telephone call with Barbara Bowen (x1254) of CA/B4 this date, I asked her to prepare a memo ~~request~~ to CI/OA requesting that responsibility for the case be transferred to CA/B4 and that it be amended to authorize the operational use desired. She agreed to do this, routing the memo through WH/COG. 2.

also asked him to request Caracas traces, run a new 6 ~~Ex~~ Check and to determine if Subj's present employer, The Office of the Coordinator of Economic Affairs, is U.N connected. ~~I pla~~

I plan to amend the OA for this one-shot use once the necessary checks have been run - assuming no derog info is developed.

ACTION: See Paragraph 3

1. Headquarters is anxious to have coverage of the Eleventh Council meeting of the Latin American Confederation of Christian Trade Unions (CLASC), scheduled for Quito, [illegible] October 1969. We are particularly interested in what transpires in the following areas:

a. CLASC plan for cooperation and "unity of action" with the Permanent Congress for Latin American Trade Union Unity (CPUSTAL), with the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU), [illegible] Trade Union Internationals, and the Cuban Central Union of Revolutionary Workers (CTC-R)--in connection with CTC-R, Headquarters is in the process of disseminating a recent report on Maspero's proposal to send a mission to Cuba;

b. CLASC [illegible]-delegation attending part or all of the [illegible] Congress in [illegible] [illegible] October 1969 (CLASC's [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] to send a delegation [illegible] from [illegible] parent organization, the World Confederation of Labor (WCL) in Brussels);

c. Financing of [illegible] from other than European Christian [illegible];

d. A proposed [illegible] CLASC campaign for the "defense of trade union rights."

2. Caracas and Miami will recall that AMICE-31 covered the CLASC Council meeting in Dominican Republic, May 1968, and produced some useful and disseminable intelligence. According to a recent [illegible] report from Miami, AMICE-31 is now employed in Caracas at the Office of the Coordinator of Economic Affairs. We are checking into the status of his OA.

3. Meanwhile, perhaps Caracas Station would be considering the feasibility of contacting AMICE-31 to find out if he plans to attend the Quito conference and whether or not the Station could handle such a one-shot reporting assignment for AMICE-31, assuming his OA can be up-dated. We will cable his OA status as soon as possible.

*AMICE-31 invited to be delegate at ninth CLASC Consejo planned for May 13-17 in Santo Domingo. A-31 could be useful as reporter and/or action agent since he is opposed to CLASC alliance with Marxist groups and in opposition to Emilio Maspero.

Based on recollection of A-31's previous performance at Bogota CLASC meeting, in which AMICE-31 seemed inclined to Maspero, Caracas sees little point in WOFIRM subsidizing A-31's trip this time, but defers action to Hqs and Santo Domingo.

1. ON 7 AND 8 JAN DUBOLD/1 WAS MET IN MEDELLIN FOR APPROX ONE HOUR EACH TIME AND REPORTED INFO SET FORTH BELOW, EXCEPT IN THOSE INSTANCES WHERE IT IS SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED THAT AMICE/31 IS SOURCE. LATTER WAS CONTACTED ON 8 JAN FOR ONE HOUR DEBRIEFING. KRUSKALL RETURNING TO MEDELLIN ON 12 JAN FOR FURTHER DEBRIEFINGS. ADDEES PLS NOTE THAT DUBOLD/1 APPEARS BE STRONGLY OPPOSED TO JMDEVIL/1 WHILE AMICE/31 APPEARS BE STRONG PARTISAN OF JMDEVEL/1.

2. INFO ON CONFERENCE:

A. CONFERENCE STARTED ONE DAY LATE DUE TO DELAYED ARRIVAL OF MANY DELEGATES. AS OF 8 JAN THERE WERE 52 DELEGATES, 38 OF WHOM HAVE VOTES. BRITISH HONDURAS AND NICARAGUA DID NOT SEND DELE-

SECRET IN 30531 P2

NICS. CISC, MISEREOR AND INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY ARE REPRESENTED BY HELMUT PALLA WHO IS THERE AS OBSERVER AND APPARENTLY IS NOT MIXING IN.

B. CONFERENCE HAS BROKEN UP INTO FOUR COMMISSIONS WHICH ARE DRAFTING OR DISCUSSING VARIOUS PROGRAMS TO BE SUBMITTED TO FORTHCOMING CONGRESS: POLITICAL COMMISSION IS HEADED BY EMILO MASPERO; COMMISSION ON DOCTRINE BY JOSE GOLDSACK; COMMISSION ON STATUTES BY EDUARDO GARCIA; AND DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES BY FULGENCIO BARREIRO, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY FOR ATLANTIC STATES.

3. POST CONFERENCE PLANS:

A. ACCORDING TO DUBOLD/1, CISC HAS SENT SEVEN TICKETS WITH NAMES LEFT OPEN FOR COUNCIL DELEGATES TO GO TO BRUSSELS TO DISCUSS MATTERS TO BE RESOLVED. DUBOLD/1 STATES THAT DELEGATES NOT PRE~~SENTLY ON~~ EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WILL BE INCLUDED ON TRIP TO BRUSSELS. AMICE/31 STATED THAT ENTIRE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WILL GO TO BRUSSELS.

38 4655

B. AFTER DELEGATES RETURN FROM BRUSSELS, A CONFERENCE OF CARIBBEAN AFFLILIATES IS SLATED TO TAKE PLACE IN GUATEMALA UNDER DIRECTION OF AUGUSTO BONILLA.

C. QUESTION OF WHERE CONGRESS WILL TAKE PLACE NOT YET RESOLVED. BOTH AGENTS HAD HEARD THAT SANTO DOMINGO HAD BEEN PICKED AS SITE

B FORTHCOMING CONGRESS AND BOTH AGREED TO WORK BEHIND SCENES TO PREVENT THIS FROM HAPPENING. AMICE/31 CITED PANAMA, CARACAS OR SANTIAGO AS SITES WHERE CONGRESS WILL PROBABLY TAKE PLACE. BOTH AGREED THAT IT IS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 66. HONOR OF BEING HOST TO CONGRESS IS MITIGATED BY FACT THAT HOST AFFILIATE MUST PAY AT LEAST 30 ? PER CENT OF CONFERENCE COST.

4. SIGNS OF DISSENSION IN CLASC: DUBOLD/1 STATES THAT JMDEVIL/1 AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ARE UNDER STRONG PRESSURE AT COUNCIL MEETING.

A. JMDEVIL/1 HAS APPARENTLY ALIENATED LEADERS OF A NUMBER OF AFFILIATES. ACCORDING TO DUBOLD/1, CHILEAN REPS HAVE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE THAT JMDEVIL/1 ~~WAS~~ LIVING BEYOND HIS SALARY AND THEY ARE THINKING OF ACCUSING HIM OF HIGH LIVING AT EXPENSE OF FUNDS PROVIDED TO CLASC BY CISC. HE APPARENTLY HAS BOUGHT A HOUSE AND OWNS A CAR, AND THIS IS RESENTED.

B. ACCORDING TO DUBOLD/1, HELIO APONTE WHO REPRESENTS CUSIC, OPENLY ACCUSED MASPERO OF TURNING AGAINST HIS OLD FRIENDS IN CLASC SUCH AS GOLDSACK.

C. PRO MASPERO ARE: MEXICAN AND ALL CARIBBEAN AFFILIATES FOR TOTAL OF 14 VOTES. REP OF VENEZUELAN COMITE UNITARIO DE

D. ANTI MASPERO FORCES ARE: SOLID BLOC OF NINE CAMPESINO VOTES, MOST OF DELEGATES FROM SOUTH AMERICAN AFFILIATES AND ESPECIALLY ACTIVE IN HELPING DUBOLD/1 ARE LUIS QUIROGQ AND JUAN ARCO FROM CHILE, ANTONIO CARDOZ FROM URUGUARY AND JOSE LARA SALCEDO FROM BOLIVIA. ALSO ANTI MASPERO IS HELIO APONT OF VENEZUELA.

5 4. PROPOSED MOVE OF SECRETARIAT: JMDEVIL/1'S DESIRE TO MOVE SECRETARIAT FROM SAGO TO CARA APPARENTLY MOTIVATED BY DESIRE RID HIMSELF OF PRESENT SECRETARIAT MEMBERS AND STRENGTHEN HIS HAND. SUCH A MOVE WOULD ENABLE HIM GET RID OF JOSE GOLDSACK WHO, DUE TO EXPENSE INVOLVED IN MOVING LARGE FAMILY, WOULD BE UNABLE MAKE MOVE TO CARA. JMDEVEL/1 WOULD LIKE REPLACE HIM AND OTHER MEMBERS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WITH EDUARDO GARCIA, JOSE DE JESUS PLANAS, HENRI MOLINA FROM SDCM AND AMICE/31. (COMMENT: THIS PROBABLY EXPLAINS AMICE/31 PARTISANSHIP FOR JMDEVIL/1.) OTHER JMDEVIL/1 REASON FOR SUCH A MOVE WOULD BE TO BE PHYSICALLY NEAPER TO AFFILIATES WHO ARE GIVING HIM SULL SUPPORT; I.E., CARIBBEAN AFFILIATES. DUBOLD/1 STATES THAT THIS PROPOSED MOVE WILL BE OPPOSED BY SOLID BLOC OF CAMPESINOS AND MOST DELEGATES FROM SOUTH AMERICAN AFFILIATES

SECRET IN 36051 P.5

AD HENCE WILL PROBABLY BE DEFEATED. DUBCLO/1 BELIEVES SEAT OF SECRETARIAT WILL REMAIN IN SAGO, AND IF NOT THERE, HE WILL PROPOSE IT MOVE TO LIMA,

5. FUTURE FINANCING OF AFFILIATES:

A. MATTER OF HOW FUNDS FROM CISC, MISEREOR AND IIS WILL BE HANDLED HAD NOT BEEN TABLED BY 8 JAN, BUT AMICE/31 STATED THAT SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE OVER THREE YEAR PERIOD FOR EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES BY THE THREE FUNDS. METHODS AND MEANS OF FUNDING ADDITIONAL ONE MILLION FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS TO CLASC AFFILIATES FOR OVERHEAD APPARENTLY WILL BE DISCUSSED IN BRUSSELS MEETING.

B. DUBCLO/1 LEARNED FROM ANDRES MERCAU THAT JMDEVIL/1 IS TRYING OBTAIN FUNDS FROM LIBIO LABO, PRESIDENT OF ACLI. MERCAU ALLEGED THAT ACLI LEADERS ALSO IN CONTACT WITH AFRICANS (AND SPECIFICALLY CONGOLESE GROUP) AND WERE PUTTING OUT FEELERS TO ASIAN LABOR GROUPS, AND THAT JMDEVIL/1 PUSHING THIS AS HOPES TO OBTAIN [illegible] FINANCIAL HELP FROM ACLI.. (COMMENT: CIFW 24793 IS OF SPECIAL INTEREST AS REGARDS CLASC ATTEMPTS SEEK FINANCIAL HELP FROM ACLI.)

7. MISCELLANEOUS OPERATIONAL INFO: DUBOLD/1 IS ATTEMPTING ASCERTAIN WHICH DELEGATES RECEIVED THEIR TICKETS TO MEDELLIN MEETING FROM CLASC SECRETARIAT AND WHICH RECEIVED THEIRS FROM CISC OR OTHER SOURCES. THIS INFO WOULD BE INDICATIVE OF WHICH DELEGATES ARE PRO MASPERO. FOR EXAMPLE, AUGUSTO CIPRIANI FROM PERU RECEIVED HIS TICKETS DIRECTLY FROM CISC. DUBOLD/1 CLAIMS THAT HIS DELEGATION RECEIVED FORMAL INVITATION TO ATTEND THE COUNCIL MEETING ONLY A FEW DAYS BEFORE IT OPENED.

8. FOR DIR PALP: IF WORD COULD REACH DUBOLD/1 AND HIS COHORTS THAT CISC AND GPASHEN NOT BACKING DOWN ON FUNDING ARRANGEMENT PROPOSED IN 19 NOV LETTER, IT WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY STRENGTHEN THEIR HAND IN OPEN OPPOSITION TO JMDEVIL.

9. FOR SAGO: ~~IS DI~~ IF DIC CONCURS AND SAGO ABLE TO PLACE ARTICLE INSINUATING THAT JMDEVIL/1 LIVING ABOVE HIS INCOME, BELIEVE IT WOULD PROVIDE FUEL FOR THE FLAMES BEING SPREAD BY DUBOLD/1 AND GROUP OPPOSED TO JMDEVIL/1.

2. MOST SIGNIFICANT RECENT DEVELOPMENT IN JMDEVIL FIELD IS DECISION BY ZRGAMIN TO FUND JMDEVIL AFFILIATES DIRECTLY, THUS DEPRIVING JMDEVIL-1 OF HIS MOST WEIGHTY CLUB FOR KEEPING AFFILIATES IN LINE AND STIFLING ORGANIZED OPPOSITION TO JMDEVIL-1 AND HIS POLICIES.

Do we have anything?

3. CURRENT INDICATION IS THAT ZRGAMIN STILL HOLDING TO REF A POSITION, THOUGH ~~JMDEVIL-1~~ XEXX CONTINUES ACT LIKE HE HAS FINAL SAY IN ALLOCATION OF ZRGAMIN FUNDS TO AFFILIATES. SITUATION AT MEDELLIN MTG WHICH WILL EVENTUALLY FORCE ZRGAMIN TO RETURN TO OLD PRACTICE OF FUNDING JMDEVIL AFFILIATES VIA JMDEVIL HQS.

4. NEW PROPOSED STATUTES THAT JMDEVIL WILL SUBMIT AT MEDELLIN (ATT TO REF B) CONTAIN SEVERAL TWISTS THAT APPEAR AIMED AT LIMITING AFFILIATE AUTHORITY AND INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION, PRESSURING ZRGAMIN TO REVERSE ITS REF A STAND, AND STRENGTHENING JMDEVIL-1 EXECUTIVE CONTROL. WE VIEW FOLLOWING AS MOST SIGNIFICANT CHANGES THAT ASSETS SHOULD OPPOSE:

A. ARTICLE EIGHT G STIPULATES THAT ONLY ~~[illegible]~~ JMDEVIL CAN REPRESENT AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS IN RELATIONS WITH HEMISPHERIC AND INTERNATIONAL ENTITITES. STRICTLY INTERPRETED, THIS ARTICLE BLOCKS DIRECT AFFILIATE RELATIONS WITH ZRGAMIN, THE GERMAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS (THRU THE INSTITUTE FOR INT. SOLIDARITY) AND THE GERMAN BISHOPS (THRU THE MISEREOR FUND). IF THIS ARTICLE APPROVED JMDEVIL-1 WOULD HAVE BASIS [illegible] ARGUING THAT ZRGAMIN RESCIND ITS DECISION TO FUND [illegible] AFFILIATES DIRECTLY, FOR SUCH ACTION [illegible]

B. ART 15 CALLS FOR ALL AFFILIATES TO ACT IN CONSONANCE WITH THE STATUTES AND REGULATIONS OF JMDEVIL AS WELL AS THE DECISIONS OF THE CONGRESS, COUNCIL AND EXEC COMMITTEE. FAILURE TO COMPLY CAN RESULT IN SUSPENSION OF AFFILIATE BY ACTION OF EXEC COMMITTEE PENDING FINAL DECISION OF NEXT COUNCIL OR CONGRESS. EXEC COMMITTEE COULD PRESUMABLY SUSPEND AFFILIATE FOR DEALING WITH OR ACCEPTING SUBSIDY FROM INT ORGANIZATIONS IF ARTICLE EIGHT C APPROVED.

C. ARTICLE NINE A IMPLIES THAT CAMPESINO ORGANIZATIONS CANNOT EXIST AS ORGANICALLY SEPARATE ENTITIES. ARTICLE 12 APPEARS PERMIT THE EXISTENCE OF LIRAZZ WITHOUT NAMING IT, BUT ONLY IF ITS AFFILIATES ARE PART OF NATIONAL [illegible] AND THUS ALREADY AFFILIATED TO JMDEVIL. THIS AIM IS TO CLOSE DOWN LIRAZZ OFFICES IN MEXICO CITY, BRING ITS OPERATIONS AND LEADERSHIP UNDER REPRESSIVE WING OF SECRETARIAT. JMDEVIL-1 TRIED THIS ONCE BEFORE AND FAILED. REAL BATTLE EXPECTED DEVELOP ON THIS ISSUE.

E. ARTS ONE AND TWO PROPOSE SIGNIFICANT CHANGE IN STATUTES. NO MENTION IS MADE OF CHRISTIAN NATURE OR INSPIRATION OF AFFILIATES. IT WOULD NOW SUFFICE TO ACCEPT THE PRINCIPLES, PROGRAMS, AND STATUTES OF JMDEVIL TO GAIN AFFILIATION. IF APPROVED DOOR MIGHT BE OPENED TO X ASSORTED LEFT-LEANING GRPS WITHOUT CHRISTIAN LABEL.

5. FOLLOWING REPORTING OF PRIORITY INTEREST:

A. THERE ARE INDICATIONS THAT JMDEVIL-1 PLANNING OUST JMDEVIL PRESIDENT AND TREASURER. A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an ~~individual~~ as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

Subject's POA is herewith extended until 30 September 1965 to allow additional time for the completion of the OA investigation.

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

SUBJECT
PICO Ramon, Reinaldo

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Dated
22 January 1965 crm

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. It is based, however, only on preliminary file checks and investigation and is subject to a further final review when all investigation is completed.

POA reinstated until 26 April 1965 to allow for submission of PRQ Part I and PRQ Part II on Subject per WH/SA/IOS request of 22 January 1965.

To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

1. ANSWERS KEYED TO QUESTIONS IN REF A AS FOLLOWS:

A. AMCLEVE/15 DID NOT VOLUNTEER SELF TO LOCAL FBI. HE DID REPORT TO JMWAVE, WHICH IN TURN INFORMED FBI. FBI THEN APPROACHED AMCLEVE/15 ON THEIR OWN DURING LATE JULY 65 AND QUESTIONED HIM ABOUT JULY 65 DEAL.

B&C. JMWAVE INFORMED FBI ON 24 JULY 65 (SEE A ABOVE)

D. SINCE AMCLEVE/15 FAILED TO REPORT OCT 66 TRANSACTION TO JMWAVE UNTIL 9 JUNE 67, FBI NOT NOTIFIED UNTIL 15 JUNE 67. (AMCLEVE/15'S EXPLANATION FOR NOT REPORTING OCT 66 TRANSACTION WAS THAT HE "JUST FORGOT")

E. SEE PARA 2 BELOW.

F. SOURCES WERE LOCATED IN THE MIAMI AREA ONLY.

G. AMCLEVE/15 CLAIMS HE DID NOT RECEIVE ANY MONEY FOR OCT 66 TRANSACTION; ONLY MONEY AMCLEVE/15 EVER REPORTED

SECRET

RECEIVING WAS $500 FROM ROSENTHAL DURING JULY 65. ROSENTHAL HAD INSISTED AMCLEVE/15 TAKE $500; TO AVOID ANY ROSENTHAL SUSPICION OF AMCLEVE/15, LATTER WAS INSTRUCTED BY JMWAVE TO TAKE THE MONEY. AMCLEVE/15 WAS ALLOWED BY STATION TO KEEP THE $500.

2. AMCLEVE/15 UNABLE TO RECALL ALL DETAILS OF JULY 65 DEAL. AMCLEVE/15 CLAIMS HE ONLY PASSED TO DIEGO (BORGES) TORRES (201-284161) 6 GRENADES WHICH AMCLEVE/15 OBTAINED FROM HERMINIO (DIAZ) SANDALIO (201-203040). BORGES IN TURN PASSED THEM TO ROSENTHAL. (BORGES AND NORMAN ROTHMAN WERE ACTING AS AGENTS FOR ROSENTHAL). FRANCISCO (RODRIGUEZ) TAMAYO (201-293114) MADE SILENCERS. RODRIGUEZ AND AMCLEVE/15 JOINTLY DELIVERED THEM TO BORGES. JMWAVE RECORDS DO NOT SHOW WHERE DIAZ OBTAINED THE GRENADES.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Luis Clements POSADA-Carriles

REFERENCES: a. Memo for Record, 26 June 1967, by LRH, same subject
b. Williamson/Henze Telephone Conversation, 28 June 1967

1. In my meeting with the Department of Justice today, I confirmed that POSADA-Carriles was our man. I outlined the preliminary information we had developed on the transactions between him and one Lefty Rosenthal.

2. Justice was advised that our information disclosed that POSADA-Carriles had passed silencers and grenades to Rosenthal during July 1965, and that in October 1966 he had furnished pencils and fuses. I also stated that it was our understanding that POSADA-Carriles was in contact with FBI/Miami and that it had been advised of these dealings. Justice was told that the items involved were not of Agency origin. It was emphasized, however, that this was our preliminary conclusion and that we would undertake to verify it.

3. Justice acknowledged that FBI reporting disclosed POSADA-Carriles as its contact but apparently the details are somewhat vague. To make a federal case against Rosenthal because of his suspected involvement in the bombings, it will be necessary to show that the items used were obtained through interstate commerce. A preliminary reading suggests prosecution under Title 18 Section 837. Out of concern for the allegation of entrapment, Justice asked that

not the [illegible]
[illegible]

we supply answers to the following: (a) did POSADA-Carriles volunteer himself to the FBI or did it approach him initially; (b) who informed the FBI of the July 1965 deal - the Agency or POSADA-Carriles; (c) on what date was this information given; (d) similarly as regards the October 1966 transaction, the date the information furnished and by whom; (e) what were POSADA-Carriles sources for the items or their components; (f) were these sources within or without the State of Florida? And incidentally were we aware that supposedly POSADA-Carriles realized a "profit" for furnishing the October 1966 items and that he tried without success to turn it into the "company"? While I agreed to undertake to obtain the information requested, I suggested that much of it might be readily available from the FBI. Justice conceded this and intends to have further discussions with it.

4. During the course of the meeting the interesting hypothesis was suggested to the effect that POSADA-Carriles might have been "moonlighting" for Rosenthal, and only when he began to feel the pressure did he start reporting to the Agency and the FBI.

5. Under strictly controlled conditions with POSADA-Carriles acting as a conduit, Justice is considering the possibility of assisting Rosenthal to obtain his needed items, whereupon he will be arrested immediately for possession. I told them while we might be willing to have POSADA-Carriles so used we were understandably concerned over the adverse comment that our employee's involvement could generate.

6. On a matter that may be related: one Albert LARRAIN Maestre is alleged to have admitted to POSADA-Carriles that he has been involved in the bombings with Rosenthal and to have said more explosives were needed. LARRAIN Maestre is a fugitive under a narcotics endictment having formerly resided at 153 East 57th Street, New York, New York. Do we have any information on this person?

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Luis Clemente POSADA-Carriles

1. The Department of Justice has been investigating one Lefty Rosenthal whom they believe to be tied in with key members of organized crime in the Miami area and who also they believe has been involved in seven recent bombings in the Miami area. According to the information the Department has gotten so far, Rosenthal went to a United States citizen named Norman Rothman in the Dominican Republic and through him directly or indirectly through a person known as Diego, Rosenthal was put in touch with Luis Clemente Posada-Carriles, Alien Registration Number A-12419708, 263 S.W. 26th Street, Miami. Rosenthal understands that Posada-Carriles is attached to CIA and claims that Posada-Carriles supplied him with caps, primers and C-4 explosives. Rosenthal is reported to have offered to talk to Posada-Carriles about the background of the bombings and who was involved and why, but Posada-Carriles said he had no interest in the background.

2. Rosenthal is reported to be asking Posada-Carriles to supply 240 pounds of C-4 explosives with caps and primers by Saturday and has told Posada-Carriles that twenty more bombings are scheduled. The local police are investigaging the seven bombings which have taken place and do not know this other background material.

3. Justice would very much like to have Rosenthal prosecuted and accordingly would like to have the explosives delivered to Rosenthal but to have 99% of it faulty and have the state prosecute him on the possession of the 1% of valid explosives. The Justice Department has a report from the Bureau's Security Squad reporting to the Bureau's Organized Crime Division which states that Posada-Carriles is a CIA Agent in a GS status.

SUBJECT: TYPIC [illegible] AMRIVER [illegible]
Declining Importance of MINCEX In Cuban Government

4 P

During JMWAVE debriefing on 11 April 1967, AMRIVER-1 provided the following information on the above subject:

1. As of March 1967, the role of MINCEX in the Cuban Government, including the Commercial Office in London, was less important than it had been two years earlier. During those two years, MINCEX lost a substantial portion of its functions and operating elements. Beginning early in 1966, Cubana de Aviacion made its own purchases abroad without the assistance of the MINCEX Commercial Offices. CUBATABACO, formerly an operating element of MINCEX, was abolished late in 1966 and its functions were taken over by an independent enterprise called Empresa Cubana del Tabaco with headquarters in Havana. In April 1967, [illegible], an operating element of MINCEX, was scheduled to be abolished and replaced by Instituto del Libro with headquarters in Havana. In January and February 1967, the CCC was studying the feasibility of transferring CUBAZUCAR, an operating element of MINCEX, to the Sugar Ministry.

SOURCE COMMENT: This trend of events appears to indicate that in the future MINCEX functions will be further reduced and possibly even eliminated completely.

APERTURE CARD REPRODUCTIONS

2. During 1966 and early 1967 various GCC enterprises sent their own purchasing missions to London thereby eliminating the need for the Commercial Office to make purchases for them. For example, the Basic Chemistry Mission headed by Francisco CORRAL Pico and Rafael CASTILLO (LNU) arrived in London late in 1965 to make chemical purchases. Late in 1966, the Cuban Telephone Company sent Roberto POSADA Carrilos to shop in London for telephone equipment and supplies. In February 1967, a mission from the Ministry of Construction arrived in London to purchase heavy construction equipment. This mission was headed by Fernando POMARES Hernandez.

3. The chain of events which heralded the reduction in importance of the Commercial Office in London began with the assignment of persons of a much lower level of competence than those who preceded them. Examples of persons recently assigned to the Commercial Office in London who had only six or seven years of schooling and little or no experience in foreign trade or business are Marcos PEREZ Puig, representative of CUBAZUCAR; Orlando ROMERO Crespo, representative of MEDICUBA, CUIMPORT and acting representative of CUBATEX and CONSUMIMPORT; and Ruben GUAL Yero, representative of MAQUIMPORT and FERRIMPORT. The qualification of PEREZ apparently was that he was a member of the Communist Youth organization, and the qualifications of ROMERO and GUAL apparently were that they were Communist Party members.

4. Significant JMWAVE Traces:

Marcos PEREZ Puig: AMOT report //AA-4487 67: In October 1966, Subject was a Regional Director of the National Institute of Hydraulic Resources.

Orlando ROMERO Crespo: Traces provide no additional significant information.

Ruben GUAL Yero: AMOT report EE-6285 17 January 1967; according to the official Gazette Subject was assigned to the following positions: Manager Hoffman Machine Company 20 November 1961 to 21 March 1962; Manager Hardware Unit H-24 March 1962 to August 1962.

Francisco CORRAL Pico: AMOT reports AA-4237, 14 October 1966: Subject was Supply Chief of the Consolidated Basic Chemical Enterprise. He went to England and France in November 1965 as a member of a delegation of the Ministry of Foreign Trade and the Ministry of Industry to buy raw materials. PCC member. Fanatic supporter of the regime.

Roberto POSADA Carrilos: AMFAST-13 debriefing report of 20 April 1967- In March 1967 Subject was Chief of the Special Area of the Cuban Telephone Company in charge of classified and sensitive telephones.

Fernando POMARES Hernandez: No identifiable traces.

Rafael CASTILLO: OSMA-16398, 13 Dec 1963: Regime supporter employed at the Havana telephone plant.

SUBJECT: Lazaro Armando HERNANDEZ [illegible]
DPOB: 17 December 1937, Artemisa, Pinar del Rio Province
Alien Registration #A17-485-510

1.- Debriefer contacted HERNANDEZ, instructed by C/O, to find out if HERNANDEZ could provide information on one Roberto POSADA Carriles.

2.- HERNANDEZ arrived in Miami, on 14 April 1967, via US sponsored airlift.

3.- HERNANDEZ was claimed by his wife's aunt, Amparo MARTINEZ Cevla, who arrived in the US in circa 1961 and resides at 1659-West, 3rd. Avenue, Hialeah, Fla.

4.- HERNANDEZ is married to Esther Consuelo MIGUEL Martinez (DPOB: 14 September 1939, Havana, Havana Province). They are temporarily residing at 1659-West,3rd. Avenue, Hialeah, phone number 885-2327. HERNANDEZ will depart (date not set yet) for: c/o (sister) Elvira HERNANDEZ Perez, 364-Williamson street, Elizabeth, New Jersey.

5.- Since 1958 up to April 1967, HERNANDEZ resided at Santa Irene #26, Santos Suarez, Havana.

6.- On 22 October 1957, HERNANDEZ started to work for the Cuban Telephone Company in Havana employed as laborer. During August 1958, after undergoing a training sponsored by the enterprise, HERNANDEZ was promoted as assistant-installer-repairman of telephone equipment within the telephone company. In early 1959, he was promoted as "operador" (installer and repairman of telephone equipment) position which he held up to 6 February 1967. HERNANDEZ claims that even though he had presented his application to leave the country since 18 May 1966, he did not inform the telephone company of his plans to leave until 4 February 1967. On 6 February 1967, HERNANDEZ resigned from the telephone company.

7.- As a telephone company worker, HERNANDEZ operated from "area norte" (north area-which includes all Havana city) with offices at 19th street corner of B street, Vedado. HERNANDEZ claims that as installer and repair-man he never was involved in "bugging" or installment of any kind of special equipment, because this task was assigned to another group that operates from "area especial" (special area) which is located at 19th street corner of C street, Vedado. Since 1963 up to 1965, HERNANDEZ was assigned to work at Plaza Civica (now Plaza de la Revolucion) where he repaired and installed telephones for: MININD, INRA, Ministry of Communication, Ministry of Transportation, MINCONS and for the Public Library. In early 1966, before the Ministry of the Armed Forces and the MININT, were moved to the Plaza Civica, HERNANDEZ was told that if he wanted to keep his job, at Plaza Civica, he had to become fully integrated with the G-2, when HERNANDEZ refused he was transferred and assigned to service private residences.

8.- Since 1956 up to January 1959, HERNANDEZ was a 26th of July member, in the propaganda section, selling bonus and delivering propaganda.

9.- HERNANDEZ claims that he never belonged to any GOC organization.

10.- In April 1961, during the Bay of Pigs Invasion, HERNANDEZ was detained for 11 days at Principe prison in Havana, for not been pro-GOC. On 18 September 1962, HERNANDEZ and seven others were caught when they stole an INIT boat and attempted to escape from Cuba by Guanabo beach, Guanabacoa, Havana. This time, HERNANDEZ was detained (together with his companions) for a month and a half at DSE offices, Quinta corner of Catorce street, Miramar, and then they were released after they were given a lecture that the Revolution was sending them free because it was a generous revolution. (Debriefer's note: By that time the GOC was not sentencing to prison terms persons who were caught escaping). During 1964 HERNANDEZ was detained for four days when he had a fist fight with a CDR member in his neighborhood, this time HERNANDEZ was aided in getting out of jail by his sister, Andrea HERNANDEZ Perez, who is pro-GOC. In early 1966, HERNANDEZ was detained for two days accused of playing domino (betting).

11.- HERNANDEZ' sister: Andrea HERNANDEZ Perez (DPOB: circa 1935, Artemisa, Pinar del Rio Province). CDR-member and GOC sympathizer. Works at "Salud Publica" with offices at 17 street (unnumbered) between 2 and 4 streets, Vedado, employed as office clerk. During March 1967 was punished to work for "Flota Pesquera" at Havana docks, packing fish, when she refused to do voluntary work. During 1965 she was married to (fnu) CANCIO (mat unk.) (DPOB: circa 1927, Havana, Havana Province who is employed as Director Physical Fitness at Havana University, and who is a staunch GOC supporter and a militiaman. Andrea and his husband reside at Calle San Miguel (# unr.) corner of Marques Gonzalez, Havana city.

12.- HERNANDEZ provided the following info of CI interest:

a) Roberto POSADA Carriles; DSE-agent, Supervisor for "Area Norte" (which includes all Havana city) of the Telephone Company and employed at "Area Especial" (Special Area) of the Telephone Company. Attachment #1

1.- HERNANDEZ met POSADA in early 1966 when POSADA was appointed as Supervisor for "Area Norte" of the Telephone Company at 19 Street corner of D Street, Vedado, Havana. POSADA had been transferred from "Area Oeste" to this job at "Area Norte" position which he is still holding.

2.- Also upon his arrival, POSADA was assigned to work at "Special Area" of the Telephone Company which is located at 19 Street corner of C Street, Vedado. HERNANDEZ claims that since that time it was known that POSADA was a DSE agent, as it was known that all the personnel working for "Area Especial" were DSE agents (they use to brag about it) since their job is to install and repair telephone equipments for DSE, Military and all GOC big shots. HERNANDEZ claims that he does not know what position POSADA holds within "Area Especial", since only "Area Especial" personnel is allowed to enter the premises.

3.- HERNANDEZ claims knowledge that since circa 1942, POSADA was a Cuban Telephone Company employee.

4.- HERNANDEZ claims that even though POSADA'S position at "Area Norte" is that of Supervisor he never works as such, and only works as Telephone Technician (work unk.) when he is needed at "Area Especial". HERNANDEZ claims that POSADA'S real work at "Area Norte" is to check all the employees, mainly those who are not pro-GOC, so they work hard and to avoid sabotage.

5.- HERNANDEZ claims that POSADA wears military uniform most of the time and carries side arm even when wearing civilian clothes. HERNANDEZ also claims that he had heard POSADA when talking with other "Special Area" personnel, and that they brag a lot about being DSE agents. They also talk about when they are assigned to install any kind of telephone equipments for a GOC personality (ex: CASTRO, Celia SANCHEZ etc.).

6.- During mid 1966, POSADA traveled for some six months to East Germany, and it was said that he had gone to buy new equipment for the Telephone Company. But HERNANDEZ claims that time went by after POSADA'S return to Cuba, and nobody saw nor heard about any new equipment for the Telephone Company.

7.- HERNANDEZ saw POSADA for the last time at "Area Norte" of the Telephone Company, on 6 February 1967.

8.- PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: DPOB: In circa 1930, unk., Las Villas Province; caucasian (fair skin); straight black hair (crew-cut); dark eyes (wears sunglasses); long face; good teeth; 6'1" height and 175# slender build. Married (names unk.) Resides at (address unk.) Marianao, Havana. DSE agent, Supervisor of "Area Norte" and member (position unk.) of "Area Especial" of the Telephone Company.

1.- HERNANDEZ saw DIBU for the first time during 1950, but never met him until circa 1954 at "Area Norte" of the Telephone Company.

2.- HERNANDEZ claims knowledge that DIBU was a Cuban Telephone Company employee since circa 1937.

3.- DIBU is the Chief of Installations and Maintenance of "Area Norte" of the Telephone Company and also works (position unk.) for "Area Especial" at 19 Street corner of C Street, Vedado, so it was known that DIBU was a DSE agent since he was an employee of "Area Especial".

4.- HERNANDEZ claims that DIBU besides bragging about being a DSE agent with other "Special Area" employees, tells everybody that he is very proud of being a CP member.

5.- HERNANDEZ claims that DIBU together with Roberto POSADA Carriles is always checking on the "Area Norte" employees in the task of avoiding sabotages.

6.- HERNANDEZ also claims that DIBU only works as a Telephone Technician (work unk.) when he is needed at "Area Especial" or when there is a "estado de alarma" (national alert set by CASTRO) that DIBU has a "Special Area" member is assigned to install telephone lines for Army-Trenches along the Island or wherever needed.

7.- HERNANDEZ saw DIBU for the last time during early 1967, at "Area Norte" of the Telephone Company.

A) AREA ESPECIAL (SPECIAL AREA) OF THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

HERNANDEZ claims that in early 1960, the GOC stablished a new department within the Cuban Telephone Company, this department was called "Area Especial".

As sito for "Area Especial" was chosen a building located at 19 Street corner of C Street, Vedado, Havana, that is in the opposite corner of the same block that "Area Norte" of the Telephone Company is located (19 Street corner of B Street). Prior to being taken by the GOC, the building was the local of "Colegió Sepulveda" (Sepulveda private school).

HERNANDEZ claims that since "Area Especial" was organized, all of its members that had to deal with installations or repairments of telephone equipments had to be DSE agents (by that time DIER, later on G-2).

Even though only the acredited members of "Area Especial" can enter the premises, HERNANDEZ claims that it is common knowledge among telephone employees that the functions of the members of "Area Especial" is to install, service and maintain telephone equipments for: Offices of Ministers, DSE offices, Ministry of the Armed Forces, MININT, GOC personalities' homes and offices (including CASTRO'S), DGTI and any other GOC entity requiring security measures. It is also a main function of "Area Especial" personnel to establish telephone equipments and lines among trenches of the Cuban Army whenever needed (ex: October crisis of 1962).

Note: Debriefer had been previously informed by Eusebio Pio RIVERO Valdes-Castro, on debriefing carried out at Freedom House on 7 April 1967, that a telephone cable had been installed (underground) from 2 Street corner of 13 Street, Vedado, (place which RIVERO referred to as "Unidad Militar-Military Unit") up to 19 Street corner of C Street, Vedado (place which RIVERO referred to as: Telephone Company sub-plant of Vedado area). RIVERO at that opportunity told Debriefer that this operation was done in late 1962 after the October crisis, and that he thought that this was some kind of "bugging operation". Asked by Debriefer, HERNANDEZ stated that during late 1962 after the October crisis, a telephone cable (underground) was installed at "Area Especial" and that it was said that the DSE was installing a "new" switchboard at "Area Especial". (No further info).

B) Asked by Debriefer HERNANDEZ stated that he had no knowledge of anybody by the name of Alfonso REY Alvarez within the Telephone Company.

PBRUMEN/AMCLEVE-15 - Report from Cuban Exile

See below.

1. Forwarded herewith for your information is a report furnished by AMCLEVE-15 on 26 June 1968. AMCLEVE-15 received the information from Jorge MAS Canosa, who got it from Johnny Alvart, who recently arrived in Miami from Cuba. NO 201

NO X [illegible]

2. The report names Jorge Norate as a Cuban lieutenant who studied rocketry in the USSR for three years. It states that Norate is disaffected with the Castro regime and sells things on the black market that the Russians bring into Cuba. The report also mentions that "El Gallego" Fernandez, chief of a squadron of MIG's at the Olguin Air Base, is also disaffected with the Castro government and used to give Alvart information about the base. Fernandez told him that in April 1968 there were severe fuel restrictions on the air base which limited the MIG flights.

3. JMWAVE may wish to contact Alvart if it has not already done so.

TO : WH/COG

7 June 1968

FROM : Interrogation Research Division

SUBJECT : AMCLEVE/15 -- IDEN A
201-300985

IRD #72501

BACKGROUND:

Subject is a 40-year-old PBRUMEN male who has been of continuing WOFIRM interest since initial contact with JMWAVE and more recently with the Caracas Station as a penetration of the IDEN B organization.

PURPOSE/PROCEDURE:

Subject was SGSWIRLed at the request of the Caracas Station because of several issues which tended to question Subject's bona fides, possible affiliation with PBRUMEN intelligence through relatives, unreported association with gangster elements, thefts from WOFIRM, plus other items specified in questions listed below. The interview was conducted in the home of Oscar C. KALBING in both English and Spanish. (Subject's English is quite good, however, during actual testing Spanish was used to avoid ambiguity or misunderstanding of the question content.) KALBING did the translating.

RESULTS:

Subject remains sensitive to one question which is related to his past dealings with IDEN C but in fairness to Subject this sensitivity is believed generated by genuine uncertainity over the amount of items which he had been instrumental in getting for IDEN C. Sensitivity initially recorded in other areas was resolved through post-test discussion and responses to all other questions are regarded as substantially truthful. Subject was most cooperative and candid throughout the entire interview.

DETAILS:

Because of the numerous issues which were believed in need of clarification, a three phase test was structured prior to the interview and rehearsed with Subject completely before any testing took place. Discussions, as noted, were in both English and Spanish. Specific questions asked of Subject and answers given by him are as follows:

SECRET

CS COPY

201 - 300985

Have you used any name besides IDEN A? Answer: No, except for nicknames and aliases used with WOFIRM.

Have you ever travelled to Washington, D. C.? Answer: Yes. Once several years ago.

Have you ever been to the Soviet Union? Answer: No.

Are any of your relatives members of the Communist Party? After some discussion Subject felt it probable that they were. Those specifically mentioned were his two brothers IDEN D and IDEN E and also possibly a sister named IDEN F who is also in PBRUMEN and married to a Captain in the Militia. When the question was prefaced with the words: "Is it your belief that any of your relatives are members," Subject's answer was always yes. He based this belief on the fact that both brothers hold highly responsible positions in key industries in PBRUMEN and hence must be members. He also noted that prior to his leaving PBRUMEN, he (Subject) and his two brothers had many discussions about politics and their views differed from Subject's. As for his brother IDEN E, Subject regarded him as the "brain" in the family and originally a very religious person who attended Catholic services daily. He later evinced distrust for the clergy in PBRUMEN and blamed them for the downfall of the church. When Castro made his move, IDEN E was in complete sympathy with him and remained with him despite his apparent conversion to Communism, although IDEN E never acknowledged that he had been a Communist and would usually retort with a comment that he (IDEN E) was a "humanist."

Are any of your relatives working for PBRUMEN Intelligence? His answer was that he felt that at least one of them was according to what KALBING inferred during his discussion with Subject the day before the SCSWIRL test. This was his brother IDEN D, but he also wondered about his brother IDEN E who might also be with PBRUMEN intelligence because according to what his mother mentioned in a letter some time ago, IDEN E had been in the USSR receiving training of some sort. This training lasted for a full year and occurred in 1962 to the best of Subject's memory. Subject was reasonably sure of this date because of the "Missile crisis" and President Kennedy's death which occurred later.

After this discussion the question read: "Is it probable that your relatives (brothers) are working for PBRUMEN intelligence? Answer: Yes."

Did you know your brother (IDEN D) was working with IDEN G before we told you? Answer: No. But again had some suspicions.

Besides the letters we asked you to send to your brothers have you communicated with anyone in PBRUMEN? Answer: Yes. His mother about two or three times a year and with an aunt named IDEN H which was the person to whom he actually addressed the letter to his brother which WOFIRM asked him to write. This letter incidentally was posted in 1967 (a few months before coming to Caracas) and not 1966 as noted in Station files. Since arrival in Caracas, Subject has written his mother only once and had the letter posted from Miami to prevent anyone knowing his exact whereabouts. (In addition to these contacts, Subject has sent one telegram to his mother soon after the IDEN I just to let her know he was alright.) It was about this time that IDEN E wrote to him and criticized his participation in IDEN I.

Have you seen either of your brothers since 1961? Subject answered no. Last saw IDEN E at the airport in the distance but there were employees from IDEN E's place of employment present and IDEN E was apparently reluctant to go near the plane. Since 1961 Subject has not seen any member of his family and as time goes on does not miss them as much. The persons he claims to have been closest to were his aunt and grandmother and addresses comments to them personally when he does write to his mother. When further discussing his brothers on this question, Subject was somewhat complimentary despite their differing political views and generally considered them as hard-working energetic types with good school records.

Do you have a secret means of contacting anyone in PBRUMEN? Claims he knows of friends who have used telegrams to transmit coded messages but he has never engaged in such activity. These messages were directed against the PBRUMEN.

Have you ever been in Communist China? Answer: No.

Have you ever worked for the intelligence service of any country besides IDEN J and LNHARP? Answer: No.

Have you ever received intelligence training in PBRUMEN? Answer: No.

Have you ever been a member of any Communist guerrilla group? Answer: No. Later explained sensitivity to the question as emanating from current work with two former Communist guerrillas named IDEN K and IDEN L both of whom are now with IDEN B.

Have you told anyone in PBRUMEN that you are working with WOFIRM? Answer: No. This question led to a discussion of broadcasts from PBRUMEN which identified Subject as a member of WOFIRM. These broadcasts occurred in October 1967 according to Subject and the man fingering him was IDEN M. The latter was not officially in Subject's WOFIRM group before his capture in PBRUMEN hence Subject does not know why it was that he was specifically named. When it was later suggested that this announcement would probably have some effect on his family, Subject said he just didn't know what effect it would have and has heard of none. He agreed that it was quite ironic that one side of the family was working with an intelligence service which was diametrically opposed to the side to which another member of the same family was affiliated and in fact because of his present IDEN B employment he was actually in the business of hunting them down. Subject agreed that it was indeed ironic but felt his convictions differed from his brothers' and that was that.

Have you told anyone in IDEN N that you are working for WOFIRM? Noted that some knew of his past affiliation hence the question was qualified to mean his present affiliation. Later after reactions were recorded, Subject noted that his wife is fully witting of his WOFIRM employment as is IDEN O. He also mentioned that a PBRUMEN type, IDEN P, whom he knows from childhood has been kidding him constantly in Caracas that he is still with WOFIRM until Subject finally told him in an offhand way, "Sure I'm with WOFIRM," but he does not know what effect this had on IDEN P or whether he has told anyone of his suspicions of Subject's WOFIRM involvement. He specifically denied that anyone other than these three persons were knowledgeable.

Does anyone in IDEN B know you have this meeting with us today? Answer: No.

Have you ever been asked to perform any task or mission against the LNHARP? Answer: No.

Have you ever performed any task or mission on behalf of IDEN G? Answer: No.

Has anyone told or instructed you on what to report to us? Answer: No.

Have you had contact with IDEN C since 1967? Answer: No. Continued reactions to this question which necessitated a breakdown test to isolate the reason for his sensitivity to the topic. He repeatedly denied that he had had any contact with IDEN C since the IDEN Q told him not to but acknowledged a physical revulsion to the mention of the man's name, and a long discussion ensued regarding the extent of Subject's involvement with the man. Subject contended that the contact began quite innocently in 1965 and was what Subject initially thought was a deliberate provocation to see what Subject's reaction would be. Subject immediately reported the contact to JMWAVE handlers who guided him through continued contacts and instructions from IDEN Q. Subject was instructed to sell IDEN C "silencers" (guns with silencers attached--about six or seven to the best of his recollection) in order to find out his true identity. Subject furnished physical descriptions and license numbers to JMWAVE and continued to report on contact with IDEN C. He offered Subject $500 US which JMWAVE told Subject to keep since it was merely a bonus given him for his work as an intermediary. IDEN C continued to force contact with Subject and once came to his home in shorts and made veiled threats which were answered with counter threats of violence from Subject, and an outright threat that Subject would kill IDEN C if he threatened him again. In 1967 while with the IDEN R, Subject gave IDEN C some "pencils" to keep him away which Subject did not then report to WOFIRM but later did. He gave him about 120 altogether. Subject had promised IDEN C some 500 pounds of C/4 explosives, M-2's, sub-machine guns, etc. but all was intended to bait IDEN C for arrest and none was ever supplied to him. Later Subject noted after reacting to a break-down question that he had supplied him with pencils, silencers, and also some grenades and pentolite. But these he claims should be a matter of record with JMWAVE. The grenades were typical military type and numbered about 24 to 48 altogether. Again, however, Subject noted that he acted only as intermediary between IDEN C and another individual who is now deceased in PBRUMEN and did not physically handle any munitions shipments. As noted above, continued sensitivity to the question of the amounts or types of equipment furnished IDEN C is believed attributable to uncertainty of Subject's part as to exactly what he did arrange for shipment to IDEN C. As to the basic question about contact with him since 1967 (or when he was told by IDEN Q to no longer have contact with IDEN C), Subject insisted that he never re-established contact of any kind but always checks at IDEN S to determine if IDEN C is around.

Do you now have in your possession any arms, munitions or articles of demolition which was once the property of the LNHARP? Only those items which were discussed during a pre-test debriefing, viz., items brought to Caracas by him in a suitcase and consisting of the following: 3 or 4 smoke grenades; 6 or 7 booby traps (army type); 1 piece of delay fuse about 100 feet long; one primer cord about 100 feet; 2 or 3 MK2 grenades; about 10 pencils (some regular open market supply items and some of the "company" variety); demolition pliers; knife; compass; metascope (infra-viewer worth about $50 used). These items he said were taken while with the IDEN R and with the knowledge of IDEN T although IDEN T did not know exactly what he had taken. Subject was using these items frequently in training courses and they were not to the best of Subject's knowledge the property of LNHARP at that time although it is possible that some of these items were at one time LNHARP and possibly WOFIRM items. But he explained further that these items are plentiful in the Miami area and can easily be obtained through gun dealers. During a later conversation Subject noted that he has heard of many places where munitions could be obtained very easily especially in New Jersey, in California and in Miami, but he denied being personally involved in any such dealings.

Have you ever stolen equipment of any type from WOFIRM? Answer: Yes. About 5 gallons of gas once from a launch boat. Other than this, nothing.

Do you know the identities of persons who stole arms and equipment from LNHARP? Answer: No.

Break-down questions dealing with IDEN C:

Did you have contact with IDEN C from 1965 through 1967? Answer: Yes.

During this time did he give you $500 for equipment which he wanted? Answer: Yes.

Did you receive more than $500 from him? Answer: No.

Is it correct that you received threats from him? Answer: Yes.

Besides the pencils, silencers, grenades and pentolite did you give him any other items? Answer: No. (as noted continued sensitivity which is unexplained except in the examiner's conclusion)

Did IDEN Q tell you to stop contacting him in October or November 1967? Answer: Yes.

Did you contact IDEN C after November 1967? Answer: No. (Slight sensitivity but explained as relating to constant checking on his whereabouts to avoid contact.)

Has your employer contacted him since November 1967? Answer: No, not to his knowledge. On this question Subject noted that his employer can easily obtain guns and supplies from European sources cheaper than LNHARP. Also Subject noted that the few guns (small calibre snub nose weapons) which he has brought to Caracas with him from Miami are merely for the personal use of some of his fellow employees in IDEN B, and he breaks no laws in bringing them with him on the few trips he has made between 1967 and the present. He feels he has perhaps brought a total of 6 such small sidearms to Caracas and also one sport rifle (AR-15) which he was asked to bring back by IDEN U. The rifle was a gift to IDEN U. The weapon was not automatic per Subject.

The only other items which Subject could think of which could link WOFIRM with his organization are the silencers which he reported on in Miami some months back which his organization took from captured guerrillas and which were probably issued to a group which went to PBRUMEN and were lost. Subject is positive they were WOFIRM issue but purportedly the serial numbers which he submitted could not be checked.

One additional item which was cleared up dealt with the pentolite which had been reported seen in Caracas. Subject voluntarily mentioned that he had seen such a supply under the bed of a friend. The supply was attached to magnets which were to be used to attach the charge to the underside of a ship in Caribbean waters of IDEN V or IDEN W nationality. The charge was to discourage further shipments between these latter IDENs and PBRUMEN. Subject said he detached the magnets from the pentolite and intended using it in training classes for students with his present employer. The person who brought it to Caracas was IDEN X. Subject does not know how he got it here, but knows that his employer could facilitate such deliveries.

SUBJECT: Letter sent to RECE from Venezuela by Luis POSADA Carriles.
SOURCE: Augusto PINEDA (mat. unk.).
SUB-SOURCE: Aguedo LUGO (mat. unk.).

1. On 22 May 1968 I-111 obtained the following information from Augusto PINEDA (mat. unk.).

2. On 19 May 1968 PINEDA was visited at home by Aguedo LUGO (mat. unk.) who had returned from a trip to Venezuela.

3. During their conversation, LUGO showed to PINEDA a photostatic copy of a letter which had been sent from Venezuela by Luis POSADA Carriles to Augusto VALDES Miranda, aka "Polo MIRANDA," a RECE leader. LUGO had delivered this letter to VALDES Miranda by hand.

4. At a moment when LUGO was not looking, PINEDA took the photostatic copy of this letter, which is attached to this report. In this letter POSADA mentioned the following matters:

a. The aid which had been given to the Association of Bay of Pigs Veterans (Brigade 2506) by the Venezuelan Army and the reasons why this aid was stopped.

b. Possibility of the Ministry of Defense and Ministry of Interior of becoming involved in a plan to help Cuban exiles fight against the Castro regime.

c. RECE should do everything possible so that RECE will be the Cuban exile organization to receive this aid (see preceding paragraph 4.b.), with POSADA offering to help RECE in this respect.

Dear friend Palo,

This is the third letter that I am sending you. Since I am sending this letter by messenger, I can explain more.

The Government here assisted a group of Cubans called the Brigade. The Department of Defense (Army) provided this assistance without consulting the Ministry of the Interior. When the Minister of the Interior found out, he demanded an explanation from the military men and they stopped the assistance.

There are strong possibilities that a plan will be developed for Cuba, which will involve the Ministry of Defense and the Ministry of the Interior and which will be assigned to a group of serious persons. I believe it is highly important that I go to Miami urgently or that some of you come here. This is urgent.

If you want me to go, send my fare to this address:

San Juan Bosco Avenue
Mayflower Bldg. Apt 24
Altamira, Caracas Venezuela

On the other hand, ERASTO FERNANDEZ is being summoned by Congress. He is accused of being too severe with the Communists. Send a telegram as soon as possible, expressing solidarity with his attitude, in the name of the Cubans in EECE. If possible, mention me in the telegram.

The address is: Police Headquarters
Las Colinas Av, Las Bribas Bldg
Los Chaquaramos, Caracas, Venezuela

[illegible]

Some organization (I do not know the name) has already sent telegrams. ERASTO can be of great assistance to us.

When you send the telegram, do not mention me by name. Word it something like this " Greetings from our fellow countryman, who is fighting beside us" or words to that effect.

My telephone is 321506

Regards to all your friends.

Estimado amigo Pelo:

Es la tercera carta que te llega, en esta como que te la mando con un propio te puedo explicar mas.

El gobierno de aquí le dió ayuda a un grupo de cubanos con el nombre de la Brigada, esto lo hizo el Departamento de Defensa (Ejercito) sin contar con el ~~Dep~~ Ministerio del Interior, por esta causa el Ministro del Interior se enteró y llamó a los militares a contar y ~~debido~~ la ayuda cesó para ellos.

Existen grandes posibilidades de que se haga un plan para Cuba en que intervengan el Ministerio de Defensa y el Ministerio del Interior y que se lo den a un grupo de personas serias, yo creo que es de suma importancia que yo vaya a Miami urgentemente o que alguno de Uds. se traslade aquí. Esto es urgente.

Si quieren que yo vaya me mandan el pasaje a la dirección esta.

Avenida San Juan Bosco -
Edificio MAYFLOWER APT. 24
ALTAMIRA, CARACAS VENEZUELA.

Por otro lado, ERASTO FERNÁNDEZ está siendo interpelado por el Congreso, acusado de mano dura en contra de los comunistas, hay que a la mayor brevedad posible, le envíen un telegrama, diciendo que se solidarizan con su actitud, en nombre de los Cubanos del Rece, si es posible me nombran a mí en el telegrama - La dirección es.

Dirección General de Policía -
Avenida Las Colinas, Edificio Las Brisas, Los Chaguaramos. Caracas, Venezuela.

Alguna organización (no sé el nombre).

le mandarás ya telegramas. Esto nos puede ser de mucha ayuda.

Cuando envien el telegrama, no pongan mi nombre al mencionarme, sino algo por este estilo "saludos a nuestro compatriota que lucha a su lado" o algo así.

Mi teléfono es 321506

Un abrazo a todos tu amigo

Juan Pablo

SUBJECT INVOLVEMENT OF THE VENEZUELAN MILITARY IN A CUBAN EXILE PLAN TO ATTACK CUBA

ACQ VENEZUELA, CARACAS (24 APRIL 1968) FIELD NO. HVC-4762

SOURCE AN EXPERIENCED POLICE INVESTIGATOR WHOSE POSITION GIVES HIM ACCESS TO INFORMATION ON MATTERS AFFECTING THE INTERNAL SECURITY OF VENEZUELA. HE REPORTS WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE OF HIS SUPERIORS. ALTHOUGH HE IS A NEW SOURCE, HIS INFORMATION TO DATE HAS BEEN FOUND FREQUENTLY TO CONFIRM INDEPENDENTLY REPORTED INFORMATION ON SECURITY MATTERS. SOURCE HAD ACCESS TO DETAILS OF THE INVESTIGATION.

SECRET NO FOREIGN DISSEM/CONTROLLED DISSEM/NO DISSEM ABROAD

SUMMARY: AN INTENSIVE INVESTIGATION BY THE DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF POLICE (DIGEPOL) ON CUBAN EXILE PLANS TO LAUNCH AN ATTACK ON CUBA HAS REVEALED THAT MEMBERS OF THE VENEZUELAN MILITARY, WITH THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, ARE DEEPLY INVOLVED. THE VENEZUELANS HAVE PROCURED ARMS FOR THE PLOTTERS AND HAVE HELPED THEM BRING IN ARMS BY BOAT. THE PLANNED ATTACK HAS BEEN CANCELLED BECAUSE DIGEPOL'S INVESTIGATION HAS REVEALED DETAILS OF THE OPERATION. HOWEVER, THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE INTENDS TO CONTINUE TO INTEREST ITSELF IN AIDING CUBAN EXILE PLANS. END SUMMARY.

1. IN FEBRUARY 1968, THE DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF POLICE (DIGEPOL) BEGAN AN INVESTIGATION OF REPORTS THAT VENEZUELANS WERE PROCURING ARMS FOR A CUBAN EXILE GROUP IN VENEZUELA WHICH PLANNED TO ATTACK CUBA. INITIAL REPORTS IDENTIFIED TWO CUBANS INVOLVED IN THE CASE: SALVADOR ROMANI-ORUE-GARCIA, WHO ARRIVED IN VENEZUELA AS AN EXILE FROM CUBA IN 1959, AND REINALDO BONIFACIO GONZALEZ-LEON GARCIA, WHO IS A CLOSE FRIEND OF ROLANDO MASFERRER AND WHO TOOK PART IN THE BAY

OF PIGS INVASION ATTEMPT. (FIELD COMMENT: AN INDEPENDENT AND UNTESTED SOURCE REPORTED IN NOVEMBER 1967 THAT GONZALEZ-LEON WAS THEN APPROACHING THE VENEZUELAN MILITARY WITH REQUESTS FOR ARMS AND BOATS TO BE USED IN AN ATTEMPT AGAINST CUBA.)

2. BY APRIL 1968 DIGEPOL'S INTENSIVE INVESTIGATION HAD IDENTIFIED NINE MORE CUBAN PARTICIPANTS AND HAD REVEALED THAT TWO UNIDENTIFIED MEMBERS OF THE VENEZUELAN MILITARY, AN ARMY COLONEL AND A MAJOR, WERE DEEPLY INVOLVED IN THE PLAN. THE TWO VENEZUELANS HAD PROCURED ARMS FOR THE GROUP AND HAD ALSO HELPED TO ARRANGE THE ARRIVAL IN VENEZUELA IN EARLY 1968 OF TWO BOATS CARRYING ARMS. THE BOATS WERE DOCKED AT CLUB PUERTO AZUL AND AT PUERTO CABELLO.

3. UPON LEARNING THAT THE VENEZUELAN MILITARY WAS ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN THE PLAN AND THAT THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE RAMON FLORENCIO GOMEZ KNEW THAT VENEZUELAN MILITARY AID WAS BEING GIVEN TO THE CUBAN PLOTTERS, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR CONFRONTED THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE ON 23 APRIL WITH THE ACCUMULATED EVIDENCE COLLECTED ON THE CASE. THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE ADMITTED ITS INVOLVEMENT.

(SOURCE COMMENT: NO HOSTILITY TOWARD, OR CRITICISM OF, THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE WAS SHOWN DURING THE CONFRONTATION BECAUSE INTERIOR IS AFRAID OF DEFENSE. INTERIOR MERELY REQUESTED INFORMATION ON WHAT HAD TRANSPIRED.)

4. WHEN IT BECAME OBVIOUS TO THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE THAT THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR WAS FULLY INFORMED ON THE DETAILS OF THE CUBAN PLAN, THE DECISION WAS MADE TO CANCEL THE OPERATION. THE CUBANS WERE TO BE INFORMED OF THE CANCELLATION ON 24 APRIL. THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE MADE IT CLEAR THAT IT WOULD CONTINUE TO STUDY THE "GENERAL CONCEPT OF AID TO A CUBAN EXILE ATTACK ON CUBA FOR THE FUTURE."

5. THE FOLLOWING CUBAN PARTICIPANTS HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED BY DIGEPOL: LEONEL GOMEZ; MELITON (LNU); ANIBAL JUSTO POZO; CESAR LA MADRID; ELADIO ROMAN BAS TORRIENTE; ANTONIO FERNANDO MALLO LOPEZ; JUAN ALBERTO MORA CHAVEZ; SALVADOR MADRUGA; AND CAROL (FNU).

1. Forwarded herewith are copies of seven folders which comprise the notes taken by Mario Cannella at a guerrilla course he attended in Cuba from December 1966 through October 1967. Copies of these notes were received from unilateral penetration agent of CIRASH, AMCLEVE-15.

2. The course was particularly heavy on explosives, with the first three volumes being devoted to it exclusively. Volumes 4 and 6 are also mostly on explosives, with the first part of each being on photography and Marxism, respectively. Volumes 5 and 7 deal with such subjects as tradecraft, infiltration-exfiltration operations, security, safehouses, recruitments, sabotage operations, etc.

3. No copies of the attachments are being sent to JMWAVE; we defer to Headquarters as to whether it would be worthwhile to reprint some of the courses for distribution to JMWAVE or others.

ABSTRACT

TO Chief, WH Division

FROM
Chief of Station, Caracas

SUBJECT
Venezuelan Security Services Technical Capabilities

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

AMCLEVE-15

REFERENCE: HVCS-2610

1. Headquarters' request to review the contents of the attachment to Reference was received at a time when the Station was unable to produce current data to make a meaningful contribution to updating subject matter. Since receipt of Reference, the Station has unilaterally recruited a telephone technician who is knowledgeable of SIFA telephone taps. This Subject has not been used as yet, nor has he received his first months salary and RYKOVER is not yet prepared to probe Subject on SIFA taps. With regard to DIGEPOL technical operations, the Station has only recently been able to obtain unilateral type information through AMCLEVE-15 who is only now getting to know the man in charge of the DIGEPOL telephone operation.

2. Within the next two months the Station should be in a position to provide a more detailed and specific report on GOV technical operations.

3. The following is all the information currently available to the Station on SIFA/DIGEPOL technical operations.

a. SIFA telephone taps are monitored in the building housing the Ministry of Communications, which is located alongside SIFA headquarters. According to the telephone technician, they have a capability to intercept 50 lines, but only a dozen are in operation at any given time. The monitoring section consists of 2-3 persons. Because of this personnel shortage many tapes are not replayed and even less are transcribed. SIFA offices in the interior have been reduced and it is doubtful that a telephone program is in operation.

b. The DIGEPOL telephone intercepts are now directly under command of the Minister of Interior and all intercept requests must have his approval. According to CIGIRO-1 in conversations with the COS, the former claims a telephone capability of 50 lines, not including 3-4 lines he has running directly into his office. (Plans call for completion of an additional 100 lines by the end of February 1968.) These are monitored in the building of Ministry of Interior. The staffing pattern, production and utilization of the take is unknown to the Station. Since a capability of this extent involves running a cable to the monitoring post, it is most probable that the actual taps are on the frame at the main telephone exchange in Caracas.

c. The Station is unaware of any capability of the GOV may have to place transmitters in telephones and it is doubtful that they have considered this type of operation during the past year.

d. A recent development, too early for the Station to report on as yet, is the formation of a Special Group under CIVISTA-5. It is known that CIVISTA-5 has been in the throes of developing a clandestine unit to run true intelligence type operations. In keeping with his plans he ordered a large amount of technical equipment from Germany. This equipment arrived on 14 February with one of his agents who had been receiving intelligence training in Germany. As yet the equipment has not been unpacked, but it is believed to contain material more of a photographic nature rather than audio type material. It is believed that CIVISTA-5 has also placed an order for audio equipment with a firm in the United States.

4. As can be seen from the above, the best GOV capability is to be found in the telephone intercept program, and as has been indicated, the Station will have much better information on this and other technical operations within the next few months.

1. CIRASH-15 reported that AMCLEVE-15, shortly after the latter's return from Miami on 30 January 1968, asked CIRASH-15 if he could obtain curare poison for "approximately forty hypodermic needles." AMCLEVE-15 said that the request had been made by Gustavo ORTIZ Faes, who was still in Miami at that time. ORTIZ returned to Caracas during the second week of February, and on 15 February he personally contacted CIRASH-15 and reiterated the request. CIRASH-15 has so far been unable to determine for what purpose ORTIZ wants the curare.

2. We have not heard anything about this from AMCLEVE-15 and will not ask him in order not to expose CIRASH-15. This is possibly another one of the goon squad activities tentatively planned for Caracas mentioned in Reference A, but more likely it has to do with some wild Cuban exile scheme in Miami, since AMCLEVE-15 told CIRASH-15 when ORTIZ was still in Miami that ORTIZ wanted the curare shipped to him there via a Viasa pilot.

3. As was stated in Reference B, we do not approve of these activities and would like to discuss them with AMCLEVE-15, pointing out that they could jeopardize his employment here with CIRASH-4; but our present relationship with AMCLEVE-15 precludes such discussions. Meanwhile, the case officer will wear his special armored shirt to all meetings with AMCLEVE-15.

1. ORIGINAL SOURCE FOR DIGEPOL ON REF INFO RE CUBANS COMING VENEZUELA MAY HAVE BEEN AMCLEVE-15. ON 9 FEBRUARY AMCLEVE-15 INFORMED STATION THAT UNKNOWN NUMBER CUBANS MAY SOON BE INFILTRATED VENEZUELA, AMONG THEM TONY CASTELLS AND FNU CLADERIN. AMCLEVE-15 HAD RECEIVED THIS INFO FROM ROBERTO PARDON DURING AMCLEVE-15'S VISIT MIAMI LAST WEEK ~~KNUSEY~~ JANUARY. AMCLEVE-15 DESCRIBED PARDON AS EX-WOFIRM AGENT WHO USED EXFILTRATE PEOPLE FROM CUBA AND STILL ENGAGED THIS ACTIVITY ON OWN. (REQUEST JMWAVE TRACES.) AMCLEVE-15 DID NOT MENTION SUSANA, BUT STATION FILES SUGGEST SHE MAY BE GUIOMAR (YEPEZ) PATINO, BRAVO FALN SUPPORT AGENT AND member MEVAER YEPEZ PATINO FAMILY ALMOST ALL OF WHOM ACTIVE SUBVERSIVES.

2. AMCLEVE-15 HAS REPORTED TO STATION ON BUILD UP OF URBAN TERRORIST GROUPS AND INCREASED USE OF UCV CAMPUS AS HIDE OUT. AMCLEVE-15 REPORTS THAT ON 7 FEBRUARY DIGEPOL AGENTS CRUISING UCV CAMPUS WERE FIRED ON BY TERRORISTS WHO

CARACAS INFO DIRECTOR

PBRUMEN AMSHADY

1. ON 5 FEBRUARY 1968 GUSTAVO (ORTIZ) FAEZ CONTACTED AMSHADY-1 IN MIAMI. ORTIZ INTRODUCED HIMSELF AS EMPLOYED BY DIGEPOL. HE TOLD AMSHADY-1 THAT INSURGENCY IS NOW BUILDING UP IN URBAN AREAS AND WITHIN THE UNIVERSITIES IN VENEZUELA AND THAT CUBANS ARE INVOLVED. HE SAID THAT DIGEPOL HAS INFORMATION THAT CAPTAIN LESTER RODRIGUEZ AND COMANDANTE TONY CASTELLS, BOTH OF THE CUBAN REBEL ARMY, ARE IN VENEZUELA OR EN ROUTE THERE FROM CUBA. HE ADDED THAT THE PROBABLE COORDINATOR OF THE URBAN TERRORISM IS A VENEZUELAN WOMAN WHO IS USING THE WAR NAME SUSANA BUT THAT DIGEPOL HAS BEEN UNABLE TO IDENTIFY HER FURTHER.

2. ORTIZ SAID THAT HE WAS TO BE IN MIAMI ONLY A SHORT WHILE AND HE WANTED FROM AMSHADY-1 WHATEVER INFO SHE HAD OR COULD GET ON CURRENT CUBAN INVOLVEMENT IN INSURGENCY IN VENEZUELA. HE ALSO SAID THAT DIGEPOL WAS PLANNING TO TRAIN SELECTED UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, INCLUDING FEMALES, AS PENETRATION AGENTS AND HE ASKED AMSHADY-1 IF SHE WOULD BE

INTERESTED IN GOING TO VENEZUELA, TEMPORARILY AT LEAST, AS A TRAINER.

3. AMSHADY-1 MADE IT CLEAR TO THE JMWAVE CASE OFFICER THAT SHE IS WILLING TO COOPERATE IN ANY WAY WITH LEGITIMATE EFFORTS TO THWART CUBAN SPONSORED INSURGENCY INCLUDING THE POSSIBILITY OF TRIPS TO VENEZUELA AND ELSEWHERE ON TRAINING MISSIONS. SHE REPORTED THAT SHE TOLD ORTIZ THAT SHE HAD NO NEW INFORMATION CONCERNING CUBANS IN VENEZUELA AND SAID SHE HAD NEITHER ACCEPTED NOR REJECTED THE TRAINING OFFER, WHICH SHE FELT TO BE MERELY TENTATIVE. SHE DID AGREE, HOWEVER, TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH ORTIZ FOR WHICH PURPOSE HE GAVE AMSHADY-1 A POST OFFICE BOX NUMBER, HIS ADDRESS AND TELEPHONE NUMBER IN CARACAS.

4. JMWAVE REQUEST ADDEES COMMENTS ON THIS DEVELOPMENT AND ANY INDICATION OF OPS INTEREST IN AMSHADY-1 COLLABORATION WITH DIGEPOL ALONG THESE LINES.

Chief of Station, Caracas

SUBJECT
Operational/AMCLEVE-15

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

REFERENCES: A. DIRECTOR-71540
B. CARACAS-8748
C. HVCA-14975

1. AMCLEVE-15 was contacted by Oscar C. KALBING again on 2 February 1968. AMCLEVE-15 is willing to provide the Station with any information that comes his way in CIRASH, and the Station has agreed to pay him Bs 1000 per month for such information.

2. We will, of course, handle AMCLEVE-15 as a "hostile", as requested in Reference A, although we do not share Headquarters' alarm concerning AMCLEVE-15's possible engagement in harassment of communists. This is not the type of activity that we would choose for AMCLEVE-15, of course; and, as stated in Reference C, we had intended to advise him to stay clear of it in order not to jeopardize his position with CIRASH-4. We will not discuss this with him now, however, and risk exposing the source, CIRASH-15, to a "hostile". While we would hope, if we did talk to AMCLEVE-15 about these activities and asked him to desist, that he would comply, we would not be overly surprised if he did not. We are only fooling ourselves if we think that agents, whom we like to consider we "control", are telling us everything they do.

3. At the risk of belaboring the point, it is precisely because he is the kind of person that he is that AMCLEVE-15 is able to become the trusted confidant of people like CIRASH-4, CIRASH-6, Remberto UZCATEGUI and Gustavo ORTIZ, all of whom may be considered somewhat unsavory characters but who, whether or not we like it, run an important part of the security system in Venezuela. And it is precisely because of AMCLEVE-15's position as such a trusted confidant that we are interested in him.

4. We will attempt to ascertain AMCLEVE-15's motives, as requested in Reference A, but this task will be considerably hampered by our need to handle him as a "hostile", which will preclude the use of some of the basic tools of investigation, such as the SGSWIRL and the levying of requirements.

5. We are attaching copies of some of the reports that AMCLEVE-15 passed at his first meeting with a Station case officer on 22 January 1968. At the second meeting he said he would try to obtain for us copies of the interrogation of Antonio ROMERO Celis, of CICLOSE fame, and the report from the CIVISTA agent who recently returned from Cuba (see MADRID-3121 and CARACAS-8318). AMCLEVE-15 is only now really getting deeply into his work with CIRASH, having just settled his family into an apartment on 1 February 1968, and he expects to be able to furnish a great deal more in the near future. In spite of the problems inherent in some of AMCLEVE-15's friendships and peripheral activities, we are hopeful that this is going to be a productive and valuable operation for the Caracas Station.

as a penetration agent into DIGEPOL and the Remberto UZCATEGUI Bruzual intelligence organization.

NOTES

1. In a Spanish questionnaire of Personal Information made out in 1961, Subject listed his brother Raul POSADA-Carriles as an administrator of the Marianao Electric Company as a relative in some government service. He did not list his brother Roberto in this section, although he did list Roberto in Para 16, Subject: Brothers and Sisters.

2. In another signed but undated Spanish Personnel Information form of apparently 1965, he again listed both his brothers in Section M, Subject: Brothers and Sisters, and in Section N he again listed his brother Raul, who he stated he believed to be working for the Cuban government as an engineer. He again failed to list his brother Roberto.

3. Concerning his PRQ Part I filled out in March 1965, again no mention of his brother Roberto appears in Section XIV, Subject: Relatives, Acquaintances and Contacts in any Government Service.

4. According to POSADA's own admission in an LC Flutter of 14 April 1965, he had been involved in planning for a Guatemalan coup headed by Roberto ALEJOS-Arzu. This matter later came to the attention of the FBI. There is an FBI report dated 17 May 1965 in the 201. AMCLEVE-15 also furnished information on this Guatemalan coup for JMWAVE, who disseminated this information in July 1965.

5. AMCLEVE-15 informed JMWAVE concerning other independent exile operations into Cuba in July of 1965.

6. His PRQ Part II, Section XI, dated September 1965, says that "Subject is of good character, very reliable and security conscious. Subject demonstrated good security techniques while reporting on the activities" of Roberto ALEJOS concerning the attempted coup against Guatemala.

7. An FBI report of 30 September 1965 outlines the contacts that had been made by some Americans seeking to purchase pistols, blasting caps, hand gernades and silencers. This is the first indication in the 201 that Subject was involved with Frank Lang "Lefty" Rosenthal, Miami, who had the reputation of gambler and hoodlum associated with other hoodlums and jewel thieves in the Miami area.

8. In a report filled out by Subject on 21 April 1966 to update his employee file, Subject again reported his brother Raul POSADA in government service but failed again to report brother Roberto POSADA.

9. A JMWAVE memo WTR-1299, 21 July 1966, explains a request from AMCLEVE-15 to resign from his job as an instructor in the maritime training section to accept a job on the Junta being set up at that time to govern the activities of RECE, COMMANDOS L, 30 NOVEMBER MOVEMENT and the 2506 BRIGADE. An FBI report of 29 July 1966 and another for 1 August 1966 both commented that Subject had been approved by the exile groups to accept the position of military leader of the newly formed alliance.

10. On 1 August 1966 AMCLEVE-15 was transferred from the Training branch to the CI branch of JMWAVE. He ~~will~~ was to be used to report on the activities of the central Junta.

11. The first mention of Subject's brother Roberto in the 201 is JMWAVE internal memo WCI-1501, dated 21 September 1966. In this memo Subject described his telephone call from his family in Cuba. Subject stated that his mother told him that his brother Roberto was in England on a purchasing mission for the GOC and that some time soon his brother Roberto would travel to Spain. Subject's mother expected Roberto to be out of Cuba for two months. He stated that he last knew his brother to be employed for the Cuban Telephone Company in Havana and in Cienfuegos, Las Villas Province. He said that he last saw his brother Roberto in April 1961. This is at variance with info in the 1961 Questionnaire which stated he came to the U.S. as a political exile 28 February 1961.

12. A. JMWAVE 3182 (IN 01749), 23 September 1966, stated that Madrid-8990 (IN 85265) reported that Roberto arrived in Madrid from Havana 26 August 1966.

B. Only other station traces on Roberto ~~is~~ are in UFGA-20828 (transmittal of Luis POSADA PRQ Part 1) which passed information provided by Subject.

C. AMOT files show Roberto in charge of telephone center at Buenavista, Marianao, according to a telephone company bulletin of June 1964.

D. AMOT-214 in October 1964 reported Roberto had been an employee for the Telephone Company.

13. London 6140 (IN 16675) 13 October 1966, stated Roberto arrived from Madrid 27 August 1966. Landing card indicated Roberto born 12 April 1931, Lasvillas, Cuba. Carries passport EF/66/2258, issued 23 August 1966. Roberto said would stay in UK for one or two months doing business with commercial mission.

14. A Memorandum for the Record, 26 June 1967, by Lawrence R. Houston, General Counsel, Subject: Luis Clemente POSADA-Carriles, reported FBI information concerning one "Lefty" Rosenthal and concerning U.S. citizen Norman Rothman. Through Rothman, Rosenthal was put in touch with Subject. Rosenthal understood that Subject was attached with CIA and claimed that Subject supplied him with caps, primers, and ~~c~~C-4 explosives. Rosenthal was reported to have asked Subject to supply more explosives and associated materials. The Justice Department sent to the Agency a report from the security section of the FBI which stated that POSADA was a CIA agent.

15. According to index cards, Norman Rothman has a long history of gambling, illegal arms dealing and other shady dealing in the U.S., Cuba, and Mexico. Card dated July 1961.

16. Note for the Record: Subject: Telephone Conversation - Williamson/Henze, 1015 hours, 28 June 1967. This records information about Subject and Rosenthal not otherwise a matter of record in the 201.

17. Memorandum for the Record, 28 June 1967, by Robert J. Bladergroen, Assistant General Counsel, also covers information on Subject and Rosenthal not otherwise mentioned in 201

18. Cable DIRECTOR-15805, 29 June 1967, requested replies to series of questions concerning AMCLEVE-15's activity with ROSENTHAL and FBI. JMWAVE replied in JMWAVE-7953 (IN 02284), 30 June 1967. JMWAVE stated that AMCLEVE-15 had failed to report the October 1966 transactions with Rosenthal until 9 June 1967, and therefore the Miami FBI was not notified until 15 June 1967. JMWAVE stated that AMCLEVE-15's explanation for not reporting the October 1966 transaction was that he "just forgot."

18 ~~19~~. Cable DIR [illegible]805, 29 June 1967, requested replies to series of questions concerning AMCLEVE-15's activity with ROSENTHAL and FBI. JMWAVe replied in JMWAVE-7953 IN 02284, 30 June 1967. JMWAVE stated that AMCLEVE-15 had failed to report the October 1966 transaction with Rosenthal until 9 June 1967, and therefore the Miami FBI was not notified until 15 June 1967. JMWAVE stated that AMCLEVE-15's explanation for not reporting the October 1966 transaction was that he "just forgot."

19. In UFGA-28079, dated 31 July 1967, it stated that AMCLEVE-15 planned to seek employment in Caracas, Venezuela, through an old friend who resides there. This information may have been given to JMWAVE in either an 11 July 1967~~m~~ meeting or ~~on~~ during a 21 July ~~June~~/1967 meeting. DIR-24039 states that KI~~K~~COBALT-1 reported that he met Luis POSADA in Miami the week before. POSADA had informed KI~~K~~COBALT-1 that POSADA had ~~approved/ZN// been~~ approached ~~by~~ the Bolivian consul in Miami offering POSADA's services as interpret~~o~~er/ guerrilla fighter in Bolivia. POSADA said that a reply had come back from KICHEER-1 saying KICHEER-1 approved the salary of $800 per month and that the MIAmi Bolivian Consul was authorized a $500 advance to PO~~A~~SADA. POSADA left the impression with KICOBALT-1 that POSADA departing for La Paz soon. Cable stated: "~~A~~POSADA is unsavory character who is messed up in shady deals in Miami." KICOBALT-1 and KICOLBALT-2 were depressed at the thought of POSADA being in Bolivia. DIRECTOR-24439, 1 ~~2~~ August 1967, requested cable content of memorandum KICOBALT submitted to JMWAVE and all other material related to POSADA's Bolivian job.

Check p.5 (21) ~~20~~. JMWAVE-8577 IN 24285, 2 August 1967 stated that while AMCLEVE-15 is not a paragon of virtue, he cannot be classified as an unsavory character. His involvement in shady deals ~~d~~ in the past 2 years resulted "almost entirely from Stations (and (BJ) eventually) encouragement. He followed directions and reported fairly well."

2C ~~21~~. JMWAVE-8569 IN 24289~~01~~, 2 August 1967, summarized KICOBALT-1's report. KICOBALT-1 met AMCLEVE-15 on 28 July. AMCLEVE-15 said he was going to Bolivia to help train a special unit in guerrilla warfare. KICOLBAT01 confirmed that AMCLEVE-15 was in touch with the Bolivian consul in Miami and the Bolivian military attache to whom AMCLEVE-15 had made the offer to organize the group of Cuban guerrilla training officers. JMWAVE felt that either AMCLEVE-15/~~gave/up~~/ somehow came up with the idea on his own or some leak occured during initial contacts on this program. ac. Since this was in conflict with statement AMCLEVE-15 made to JMWAVE that AMCLEVE-15 was seeking employment in Caracas.

22. JMWAVE-8748 IN 29699, October 1967, sent to Caracas, info director, gave Caracas first information concerning Subject's plans to travel to Caracas on 21 August 1967. ~~EA~~ AMCLEVE-15 stated he hoped to find employment through his friend Ricardo AKA Jose, who is connected to the TV industry in Caracas.

23. Headquarters in DIRECTOR 428911, 18 August 1967, reported no ~~anew~~ headquarters traced identifiable with Venturini.

23. JMWAVE Internal Memorandum-1592, 10 August 1967, stated AMCLEVE-15's plans to go to Caracas.

24. CARACAS-7589 IN 32469, 15 August 1967 identified Ricardo Venturini as mentioned in liaison report of January 1967 as a member of the Cuban DSE.

25. JMWAVE-8866 In 34036, 17 August 1967, advised no contact be made by AMCLEVE-15 for two reasons:

1. His name was mentioned as a CIA agent on

GOC radio and TV during Laso conference.

2. He has also been involved in shady deals ~~AAIAXI/~~ in Miami, although undertaken at JMWAVE behest might prejudice his effective use.

26. JMWAVE-8997 IN 40592, 28 August 1967: AMCLEVE-15 had just returned to MIami to obtain visa to enable him to work in Venezuela. Reports he obtained job at DIGEPOL through Rafael TREMOLS Fresneda and Gustava ORTIZ Faez.

27. JMWAVE-9080 In 44174, 1 September 1967 states that AMCLEVE-15 now uncertain about returning to Caracas. Says DIGEPOL job would pay only about $250 per month which he claims too little to live in Caracas. AMCLEVE-15 actively seeking job Miami (Case Officer Comment: This seems direct turn-about from Para 2 JMWAVE 8997 sent 3 days before) AMCLEVE-15 now states he would be willing to go back to DIGEPOL or other job in Caracas to work for CIA, but he requires total income approximately $600 per month to cover cost of living. JMWAVE stated that agrees that while working for DIGEPOL AMCLEVE-15 would be a good asset for Caracas station.

28. JMWAVE-9138 In 46714 £ September 1967, AMCLEVE-15 had previously worked under CIRASH-4. AMCLEVE-15 claims he has job of working for CIRASH-4 on ~~Jamor~~ Major Mienes CROES of Army Intelligence (G-2.) Digepol job would be investigative.~~M~~ AMCLEVE-15 received letter ~~XX~~ 5 September 1967 from friend Rafael TREMOLS Fresneda, DIGEPOL employee, in which TREMOLS told AMCLEVE-15 that AMCLEVE-15's contract to work in Venezuela had been approved by the Department of Works and AMCLEVE-15 should apply to the Miami Venezula consulate for visas.

29. DIRECTOR-34096, 8 September 1967, quoted AMCLEVE"S brother Roberto considered trustworthy by Cuban government to travel overseas on GOC mission last 1966, and that AMCLEVE-15's Caracas contact Gustavo Ernesto ORITZ-Faez unsavory character who involved in political murder of anti-Communist professor at Havana University.

30. RI traces were run 30 August. No derogatory information was surfaced in the RI traces. Concerning AMCLEVE"S-15 brother, Raul, RI traces came up with nothing. Traces on brother Roberto, however, did ~~not~~ surface derogatory information.

1. DSE agent for area Norte, which is responsible for Havana City ~~and~~ and Cienfuegos.
2. Subject headed ~~had~~ mission from Ministry of Construction which arrived in London to purchase heavy construction equipment in September 1967.

RI check ~~traces~~ of Gustavo Ernesto ORTIZ-Faez surfaced derogatory information.

Should it read "no derogatory information"?

31. DIRECTOR-35982, 15 September 1967 discouraged any further JMWAVE encouragement for AMCLEVE-15 to seek a DIGEPOL job.

32. RI traces on Rafael TREMOLS Fresneda, 1 Dec 1967, show previously employed by JMWAVE-AMSPELL organization first as AMBARB-41 and later as CITUTOR-1. This student organization (DRE) was run by WAVE but administered by Caracas. Caracas had attempted to obtain CI information thru ~~how~~ CITUTOR organization. L. C. ~~Flet~~ Flutter revealed CITUTOR-1 to be a loose talker who had revealed his agency affiliation to a number of persons in Caracas.

33. JMWAVE-9802 IN 74926, 18 Oct 67 gave a report on telephone call from Gustavo ORITZ on 18 October 1967. ORITZ informed AMCLEVE-15 that CIRASH-4 would be new director of DIGEPOL late October 1967. ORITZ on behalf of Fernandez assured AMCLEVE-15

DIGEPOL employment at proper liveable salary and ~~that~~ stay at home of ORTIZ.

Insert A.

London 6170 (IN 16675) 13 Oct 66 stated Roberto arrived from Madrid 27 Aug 1966. Landing card indicated Roberto born 12 April 1931, Las Villas, Cuba. Carries passport EF/66/2258 issued 23 Aug 66. Roberto said would stay in UK for 1 or 2 months doing business with commercial mission.

1. The Station desires to explain its viewpoint on AMCLEVE-15 clearly because of what could conceivably be construed to be a tone of impatience in the first line of Reference A. First of all, why do we want to hire AMCLEVE-15? Our objective is to use him as a unilateral penetration of CIRASH and CIVISTA, which controls that organization. Specifically, we would like to penetrate the inner circle surrounding IDENTITY and CIRASH-4. The recent provocation (reported in reference C) which we believe was run by IDENTITY is a clear indication of the need for this type of penetration over and above the normal need for penetration of security services.

2. What we are not trying to do is to make a CIGOAL-1 or AMOT-260 out of AMCLEVE-15: that is, put him on the payroll as an advisor to CIRASH-4. We want to be very clear on this point, since this may be the cause of Headquarters' concern. His role will not be advisory. AMCLEVE-15 is to be used to obtain counterintelligence information to protect the Station and its operations and to get for us that portion of the intelligence available in CIRASH which is not made available to the Station via the liaison channel.

3. From the information available to us, AMCLEVE-15 seems to present an almost golden opportunity to Caracas Station: i.e., a cleared WOFIRM agent (who although terminated still reports to WOFIRM when in the JMWAVE area), who is a well-placed "hombre de confianza" of the chief of CIRASH and the chief of the special investigative unit within CIVISTA which may have monitoring of WOFIRM activities as one of its objectives. We say "seems to present" because, although we have confirmation from CIRASH-15 that AMCLEVE-15 does in fact hold the position described above, we are of an open mind regarding the practicability of his use and we are completely willing to accept any information that would militate against his secure and fruitful employment.

4. We have chosen to send this communication by dispatch, rather than by cable along with reference B, because we do not want to give wide dissemination to what might be interpreted as a difference of opinion between the Station and its Headquarters Desk. We do feel, however, Headquarters opposition to the use of AMCLEVE-15 has been consistant since his case was first brought to our attention. We assume that Headquarters and JMWAVE have some data concerning AMCLEVE-15 which we have not yet received and which results in Headquarters' view of his use. If this is the case, we hope that it will be forwarded soon so that we can drop the matter. If on the other hand, Headquarters objects to the concept of the operation, we would like to develop a cordial exchange of views to see if these divergent views can be reconciled.

DISPATCH

TO	Chief, Western Hemisphere Division
INFO	Chief of Station, JMWAVE
FROM	Chief of Station, Caracas
SUBJECT	TYPIC CIRASH/CIVISTA/AMCLEVE-15 Activities of Identity of Reference A and Plans to form an Anti-Communist Goon Squad.

REFERENCES: A. HVCA - 14978, dated 5 December 1967

B. HVCA - 14796, dated 26 September 1967

1. Forwarded under separate cover is a report submitted by CIRASH-15 concerning the organisation of Identity of Reference A's office. On 23 November 1967 a meeting was held in Identity of Reference A's office with members of the PTJ who were to work for Identity of Reference A in the special investigative unit he is establishing. Identity of Reference A announced that the director of the PTJ had refused to let his men work in Identity of Reference A's organisation, although the request for their services had come from CIGIBO-1. The men were given until the end of November to decide whether or not they would quit the PTJ to begin work for Identity of Reference A. (We have not yet heard of their decisions).

2. A new member of Identity of Reference A's office who was present at the meeting was AMCLEVE-15. It was CIRASH-15's opinion that AMCLEVE-15 had been brought to Venezuela with the help of Gustavo ORTIZ Faez, an old friend of CIRASH-4. After the meeting CIRASH-15, AMCLEVE-15 and Identity of Reference A went to ORTIZ's house where ORTIZ showed them some explosives which were to have been used in blowing up an unidentified ship. (The explosives were not used as the operation was cancelled). AMCLEVE-15 showed the group some explosive devises which he had smuggled in from Miami. AMCLEVE-15 said that he was able to smuggle anything into the country because CIRASH-4 would send a CIRASH official car to pick him up at customs.

3. AMCLEVE-15 and ORTIZ asked CIRASH-15 to join them in an anti-Communist group which would harass Communists without the knowledge of CIRASH-4. On another visit to ORTIZ's house, CIRASH-15 met two Cubans who had been imprisoned in La Cabaña prison in Cuba and who had apparently been helped out of Cuba by ORTIZ and will work with him in the anti-Communist goon squad. CIRASH-15 also met another Cuban exile in the group whose alias is "Fósforo". CIRASH-15 expects to be able to identify these Cubans in the near future.

4. This type of goon-squad activity is not what we would like AMCLEVE-15 to be mixed up in, and if and when we get in touch with him we will request that he stay away from such activities so as not to antagonise CIRASH-4 or Identity of Reference A.

5. Please assign Identity of HVCA-14978, dated 5 December 1967 a cryptonym in the CIVISTA series.

Caracas.November 27th.,[illegible]

This morning,Dr.Uzcátegui phoned up my house and asked me to be in - his office at the Ministry of Interior about 11 am. Once I was there, the other people from P.T.J.(mentioned in previous report),and who - were supposed to form Uzcátegui's new group of investigation,joined me, and Dr.Uzcátegui talked to them like this:

"....Gentlemen,this is to report you that Dr.OLIVARES BOSQUE (P.T.J. Director), has refused the Ministry of Interior,Dr.LEANDRO MORA,the permission of having you here to work with me.Unless you decide to - quit your job in P.T.J. and then join my office,I am afraid it will be impossible for us to work together, at least openly.....I think that Dr.OLIVARES's great fault of cooperation with us,is increasing Dr.LEANDRO MORA's feeling of unfriendliness towards him and myself as well. So,each one of you,shall have time until the 30 of this month to give me an answer as to about the decision to renounce P.T.J. or not;definitely,due to actual conditions,it is not possible to "borrow you" from P.T.J...."

After everybody left,I stood a little more with Dr,Uzcátegui, and he introduced me to a new member of the office: Tomás Carriles,Luis Clemente,(a) "Eduardo",whose cédula number (found out later) is E-97[illegible]. This guy is Cuban,and has just come-in from Miami-Florida.As far as I could find out later on,the man who helped him into Venezuela is Dr. [illegible] Gustavo (please remember old report about him),a Cuban veterinarian, and an old friend of [illegible],now DIGEPOL Director. The newcomer to Dr.Uzcátegui's group,has [illegible] a Cuban refugee in Miami, since the invasion of Bay of Pigs [illegible] few years ago.The already mentioned "Eduardo",has got into [illegible] friendship with me,and has been very impressed by my silencers ([illegible]), which I have just given to Dr.Uzcátegui.He said that,while in the [illegible],he used to work on silencers and other technical stuff [illegible] called groups [illegible] live there and also in conjunction with [illegible] to the [illegible].

[illegible] asked Dr. [illegible] to try [illegible] and I [illegible] over to [illegible]. Both of them were very [illegible] of my results, and we started talking a lot about technical material. "Eduardo" showed me some stuff he has taken with him from Miami (fuses, booby-trap switches, detonating cord, infrared [illegible] devices, time-pencils for demo.charges and incendiary devices). It was then when Dr.Gustavo C[illegible] pulled out from underneath the bed a big heavy package and said it was a demo.charge of pentolite,--fixed with magnets, which was to be used in wrecking a ship. He did not specify what ship it was, how he got the bomb, but he said that he had to cancel the "operation". Of course, I did follow with interest what they talked about, so, in the general talk, Eduardo said that he could pass all that stuff through the Customs, because a prowl-car from DIGEPOL (ordered by Erasto Fernandez) was awaiting for him inside the airport in Maiquetia, that he had his family in Miami,-and, as soon as he could find an apartment, he would go back to Miami, pick up his family and a lot more of "stuff" he has left there, and bring all of it to Venezuela, the same way he did it the first time. On the other hand, Dr.Gustavo C[illegible], whom I know since a long time, helped by his friendship with Erasto Fernandez (who, reports directly to Dr, Leandro Mora), has asked me (Eduardo did as well) if I wanted to help them off to "disturb" [illegible] here in Venezuela. But they do not want [illegible] to know about it, because that could - cause problems to Erasto's activities. In other words, they need my technical advise for future operations against communist leaders, properties, meetings, etc; it's got to be something like a cell, a group formed only, or mostly, by highly trusted and long known anti-communist people. In few words, this is what, up to now, I have been proposed. I have been able to find out that Dr.Gustavo C[illegible], gets, somehow, letters from Cuba; mostly from old friends who want to get a possibility to reach Venezuela. Visiting Dr.Gustavo C[illegible]'s house last week, I met - there a couple of other Cubans who spent a long time in a Cuban prison called "La Cabana" (after the Bay of Pigs Invasion). I do not know their names so far, but it will not be long before I do. The general topic when I go over there, is that of organizing and creating a group that may cause as much trouble to the [illegible] as possible.

[illegible] things incendiaries mixture, etc. etc. Last week, Dr. Gustavo ORTIZ, Eduardo and another Cuban called "Fósforo", prepared to sabotage a Communist meeting with a " CS gas-bomb "(please see paper clip attached). Action did not take place because meeting place was too vigilated by communists, and there was no chance for Eduardo to place the 20 minutes delay CS gas-bomb inside the auditorium, while Dr. Gustavo ORTIZ and "Fósforo" played a protection role for Eduardo with automatic pistols ready in their trouser belts. Eduardo is now in Miami, and will be back at the end of this week with his family. In a very confidential way, he's been asked to bring back bullets cal. .32 (Dr. Uzcátegui gave him $100.00 for a silencer cal. 32). He will also take back all the war material he has left in Miami. He will also try to get in touch with links (Cuban and C.I.A.) to get as much stuff as possible, to be used probably here. Dr. Uzcátegui, beside asking Eduardo to buy bullets and a silencer cal. 22 for himself, also asked Eduardo, on his way back to Caracas, to stop in Puerto Rico a couple of days for something he had to do there. Dr. Uzcátegui has asked me what I think about Eduardo's capabilities as a member of the office, in the field of sabotage, etc., explosives, etc. I told Dr. Uzcátegui it was good to have people with some background in the mentioned field. On the other hand, Eduardo and Dr. ORTIZ want me to help them with instruccion on the same technical field, but do not want either Dr. Uzcátegui or Erasto Fernandez to know about it. Dr. Uzcátegui has asked me to find people for the office. He needs, for the moment being, some 6 guys, as P.T.J. has refused their own..... Everything is normal for the moment. This is all I have to report.

The Inspector

WH COMMENT: *REF gave AMCLEVE-15 PRQ data. Stated JMWAVE had no further info indicating possible security problems other than Havana broadcast during recent LASO conference naming A-15 as CIA agent which WAVE claims has no bearing on ops use as DIGEPOL penetration.

A-15 stated DIGEPOL job paid about 250 dollars per month which he claims too little to live in Caracas. Would be willing work for DIGEPOL or Station in Caracas if had total income approx 600 dollars per month.

HIS JOB WITH DIGEPOL (WHICH HE SAYS STILL AVAILABLE TO HIM) PAID ONLY ABOUT 250 DOLLARS PER MONTH WHICH HE CLAIMS TOO LITTLE TO LIVE IN CARACAS. WHILE JOSE VENTURIN MIGHT BE ABLE PROVIDE JOB LATER, HAS NOTHING NOW. THUS AMCLEVE-15 ACTIVELY SEEKING JOB MIAMI.

I am definitely opposed to us picking up another Cuban at this point. K.

2. AMCLEVE-15 STATES WOULD BE WILLING GO BACK TO DIGEPOL OR OTHER JOB IN CARACAS TO WORK FOR WOFACT, BUT WOULD REQUIRE TOTAL INCOME APPROX 600 DOLLARS PER MONTH DUE CARACAS COST OF LIVING.

3. WHILE AWARE EXTRA WOFACT INCOME COULD CREATE COVER PROBLEM, PERTINENT TO POINT OUT THAT IN YEARS WOFACT EMPLOYMENT AMCLEVE-15 HAS NOT BEEN UNDULY CONCERNED ABOUT MONEY PER SE; THUS DO NOT BELIEVE HE PLAYING HARD TO GET. FURTHER, JMWAVE AGREES THAT WHILE WORKING FOR DIGEPOL HE WOULD BE A GOOD ASSET FOR WOFACT.

3. IT MAY BE NECESSARY FOR STATION TO WORK WITH FERNANDEZ IF HE APPOINTED CHIEF, DIGEPOL BUT FEEL THAT SENSITIVE OPS SHOULD CONTINUE BE HANDLED WITH CIWOODS OR UNILATERALLY. IT IS TRUE THAT FERNANDEZ COOPERATED WITH STATION DURING HIS PREVIOUS TOUR AND APPEARED NOT BE ANTI-WOFACT BUT HIS GENERAL GREEDINESS AND LACK OF SCRUPLES MAKE HIM AN UNSAVORY PARTNER TO DEAL WITH AT THAT LEVEL.

4. IF STATION DOES NOT HAVE ABOVE DOCUMENTATION HQS WILL FORWARD. WILL DISCUSS FERNANDEZ WITH COS ON HIS ARRIVAL HQS.

END OF MESSAGE

WH COMMENT: *COS, Minit and Erasto Fernandez Betancourt, for DC/Digepol met to discuss colaboration between Station and Digepol. Not clear if Fernandez to be new Chief. While F has bad rep not clear why. Fernandez was cooperative with Station previous time no clear indications he enriched himself by accepting bribes from left. Station would work slowly until full assessment acquired. Asked WAVE to work closely with AMCLEVE-15 during Fernendez stay in Miami to collect info on latter.

Question: What kind of [illegible] for the .22-cal. pistol with silencer?

Laucerica: Part of the ammunition was conventional bullets and part of it was cyanide-tipped bullets.

Question: Who prepared the bullets with cyanide?

Laucerica: I prepared them.

Question: What were these bullets prepared for?

Laucerica: These bullets were prepared over there in [illegible]. (Polo--phonetic) Huerta, member of an organization called (?[illegible]) asked me to prepare them, in spite of the fact that I know nothing about chemistry, for attempts on lives, to make sure of the death of the individuals against whose lives attempts were to be made. But they were for specific attempts.

Question: What plans were made in the United States or among the counterrevolutionary circles, what is the main objective sought?

Laucerica: Well, the physical elimination of the leader of the Cuban revolution, Fidel Castro.

Question: The physical elimination of Maj. Fidel Castro?

Laucerica. Yes, sir.

Question: These counterrevolutionary groups which operate from Florida, from Miami, do they have the approval of the North American Government for their actions?

Laucerica: Almost entirely. For example the most opportunist elements over there create small groups to obtain dollars from the US Government for their subsistence. But there are close links among all the organizations in exile with the Central Intelligence Agency. We have, for example, the case of (?[illegible]) which--through [illegible], who is known by all as a CIA agent--that is all the activities of [illegible] on Cuban coasts, actions against merchant ships and so forth, are linked to the CIA.

Question: You say that you had a .22-cal. pistol with poisoned bullets for specific attempts on lives?

Laucerica: Yes, sir.

Question: I would like you to clarify something more. What specific attacks, against which figures, were these attempts to be made with that type of weapon?

Laucerica: Well, against the most prominent figures of the revolution according to existing circumstances and according to the individuals who were going to execute them. Specifically, it is to be supposed that if the [illegible] were to take part in Havana, well then the effort to kill the leader of the revolution would be intensified.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

MEMORANDUM FOR AMCLEVE/15's File 14 August 1967

SUBJECT: Salary Misunderstanding

ORIGINATOR: Gary L. FLUSTIKOFF

1. AMCLEVE/15 submitted the attached note, written by him, to the writer. In the note AMCLEVE/15 says "he is not asking for anything but wants the records checked regarding his past salary of $325.00 per month." AMCLEVE/15 claimed "Chip" (Grover T. LYTHCOTT, his former CO) told him that effective October 1966 he would be paid $100.00 per month by WOFACT, while the balance would be placed in a bank for him.

2. For the record AMCLEVE/15 was told by the writer and not Chip that effective August 1966 (not October) he would be cut back in his salary to approximately $100.00 per month. He was cut back from $350.00, not $325.00, for reasons of economy and cover and he was agreeable to the cutback. The writer did not tell him that the balance of approximately $212.00 was being saved for him; only that his gross salary would be raised to $350.00 in the event RECE ever stopped paying him his salary. (It was assumed that his RECE employment might be short-lived). For administrative reasons the salary cutback was not effective until September 1966 and from latter date until December 1966 he was paid $111.13. From January 1967 until June 1967 he was paid $110.90 due to a FICA change. During the entire period, September 1966 to June 1967, AMCLEVE/15 was budgeted by JMWAVE in the amount of $350.00 gross with the notation of his voucher of "possibility of paying balance later". Then in June 1967 AMCLEVE/15's salary was increased to $350.00 gross, as so promised, because he was unemployed during most of June.

3. The writer explained the above to AMCLEVE/15 and he seemed satisfied. He told the writer that he had to borrow some money to cover expenses in connection with his trip to Venezuela.

RECF

Laucerica: Almost entirely. For example the most opportunist elements over there create small groups to obtain dollars from the US Government for their subsistence, but there are close links among all the organizations in exile with the Central Intelligence Agency. We have, for example, the case of (?El Reco) which--through Luis Posada, who is known by all as a CIA agent--belongs, that is all its activities of landing on Cuban coasts, actions against merchant ships and so forth, are linked to the CIA.

Question: You say that you had a .22-cal. pistol with poisoned bullets for specific attempts on lives?

Laucerica: Yes, sir.

Question: I would like you to clarify something more. What specific attacks, against which figures, were those attempts to be made with that type of weapon?

Laucerica: Well, against the most prominent figures of the revolution according to existing circumstances and according to the individuals who were going to execute them. Specifically, it is to be supposed that if the idea of counterrevolution were to take root in Havana, well then the effort to kill the leader of the revolution would be intensified.

1. AMCLEVE/15 informed the writer on 9 August 1967 that he plans to fly to Caracas, Venezuela from Miami on 12 August 1967 accompanied by Aldo HERNANDEZ, a friend who is employed as a salesman in Caracas. In Caracas AMCLEVE/15 will seek employment through or with an old friend, Ricardo VENTURINE aka Jose VENTURINE, connected in some way with the TV industry in Caracas. HERNANDEZ is also a friend of VENTURINE.

2. If AMCLEVE/15 finds employment in Caracas, he does not intend to return to Miami and his wife and son will then join him in Caracas.

3. If AMCLEVE/15 does not find employment in Caracas, he intends to go to Puerto Rico from Caracas to look for employment through some of his friends living in Puerto Rico.

4. AMCLEVE/15 was given a recognition signal for establishing bona fides in the event that WOFACT should want to contact him in Caracas or elsewhere. AMCLEVE/15 was instructed that the person would establish bona fides by saying, "I'm a friend of Lawrence". He was also given JMWAVE address Mr. Lawrence R. DEROME, PO Box 390, Main Post Office, Miami, Florida.

5. JMWAVE has no identifiable traces on VENTURINE and HERNANDEZ.

6. AMCLEVE/15 reported that his name was mentioned on the GOC radio on 6 August 1967 in connection with the alleged captured WOFACT agents. He was described by Alberto LAUCIRICA Diaz as the liaison between WOFACT and RECE.
